Bailey County Agent J.K. Adams was moderator for a corn production meeting in the Bailey County Electric Cooperative meeting room Monday night. He introduced the four special speakers from the Texas Agricultural Extension Service Lubbock offices. They included Dr. Bill Clymer, Dr. Robert Metzger, James Valentine and Leon New.

The more than 40 corn producers and related agricultural business service persons heard Dr. Metzger, agronomist, speak on results of corn tests made in the county in 1969.

He gave results of working with several hybrids and gave good and bad points of each hybrid tested.

Another area stressed was planting dates for corn. Dr. Metzger said the best planting dates included the first two weeks in April. He emphasized that late planting reduced the yield and there is less corn borer damage on early planted corn.

Temperatures of 75-90 have been found to be ideal growing temperatures for corn he added. However, adequate moisture will allow corn to stand higher temperatures, said Dr. Metzger.

Another area covered by the agronomist was row spacing, and he gave several examples of row spacing versus yields.

Weed control was discussed by Dr. Metzger. He gave examples of how weeds drastically reduce corn production. He said production had proven to be reduced up to 41 bushels per acre where weeds were found growing in the fields.

A reduction of at least $500,000 in income from corn in Bailey County was estimated by Dr. Bill Clymer when he spoke. He said the loss in income was a direct result of damage inflicted by the corn borer.

Dr. Clymer said the acres devoted to corn production in

Entertainment At Baptist Church Slated

A spokesman for the group said, "Watch for the night of March 21 and see what you can hear coming from the fellowship hall of the Trinity Baptist Church."

"Entertainment will be brought to the church by two young, handsome students of Texas Tech. Everyone is invited to come, and bring someone."

"Refreshments and other entertainment will also be provided during the evening."

Holy Week Services Set

The Bailey County Ministerial Alliance will again sponsor Holy Week this year. Holy Week will be observed March 23-27 at the First United Methodist Church.

All county ministers will participate in the services during the week and all services will be around the theme "What Will You Do With Jesus?"

Services will begin at 12:05 and conclude at 12:55 in order to allow working persons time to return to their place of employment.

Preceding the services will be a luncheon in the fellowship hall of the church. Lunch will be prepared and served by the women of six of the area churches. Luncheon tickets will be $1.

Talent Show Scheduled

Jeanie Putman, president of the Muleshoe Junior High School Student Council, promises a night of entertainment for anyone who goes to the Muleshoe High School auditorium Thursday night.

Under sponsorship of the junior high student council, a talent show will be presented at 7:30 p.m.

Jeanie said this was the only fund-raising campaign for the student council during the year and the proceeds from the show will be used for the trophy case in the gymnasium foyer.

Tickets will be on sale for $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Entertainment scheduled for the evening will include the MJHS band and choir, a play by the eighth grade speech class and individual talent.

She said she hoped everyone would join the evening of fun and entertainment.

Swine Breaks World Record

Ricky Seaton, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Seaton of Lazbuddie, has proven to be a consistent winner in area livestock shows. He put the "frothing on the cake" with his win at the Houston Livestock Show last week.

The youth showed a 227 pound Hampshire barrow which won double honors. It was named Grand Champion of the Junior division for barrows and Grand Champion of the entire barrow division with approximately 1400 other entries in competition.

To finalize the prize, the barrow was sold for a world record $6,500. This is the highest selling price in the world for a barrow. Billy Mitchell of Houston, who owns a shipping line, purchased the barrow.

Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico were all represented in the show.

Ricky is a freshman at the Lazbuddie school and previously had grand champion winners at Friona and Amarillo. Ironically enough, his sister, Theresa, showed the grand champion barrow a couple of years ago at Houston, but her Hampshire sold for approximately $3,000.

The Seaton says that much of the credit for their successful show animals is due to FFA advisor-instructor Scotty Windham at Lazbuddie. He chooses the animals for the youths and advises on feed and care of the prospective show animals.

Scout Troop Slates Safety Flare Sale

A house-to-house campaign will begin in Muleshoe next Monday night. The campaign will be conducted by Boy Scouts from Troop 634. The scouts will be selling highway safety flares.

Owen Jones said the flares will sell for $1.25 per box and are approved by the National Safety Council.

Jones commented, "safety flares cost little, can be seen at great distances, and are a universally recognized symbol of caution. Flares are easy to use, day or night. They can save your life, if you carry a 'spare' . . . you need a safety flare! Help yourself to safety and help the scouts raise funds."

OEO Hunts Better Ways Of Combatting Poverty

by Arnold B. Sawislak

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Just before President Nixon's inauguration, a sign appeared in an elevator at the headquarters of the Office of Economic Opportunity: "This building will self-destruct on January 20, 1969."

The building still is there and so is the federal antipoverity agency. OEO Director Donald Rumsfeld often mentions the sign in speeches to provide a touch of comic relief, but he also concedes that the message it conveyed still represents a vexing problem.

Water Delegate In Washington

Ross Goodwin, State Delegate to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, flew from Lubbock to Washington, D.C., Tuesday morning to attend the five-day conference. Headquarters for State delegations is the Mayflower Hotel. Consideration of nation-wide water resources, planning for future needs, and recommendations formulated during the March 17-21 schedule to the U.S. Congress will keep delegates busy.

When Mrs. Roald 'Buck' Johnson, recently appointed chairman of a clean-up campaign for Muleshoe, met with members of the Muleshoe City Council Tuesday morning, she was assured of 100 percent cooperation of the city in the campaign.

Mrs. Johnson told councilmen that the campaign would officially kick off at 4 p.m. Friday with a sweep-up of main street from St. Clair's to Cashway. She asked for all businessmen to cooperate in the sweep-up, kick-off of the campaign.

She inquired about the enforcement of dog ordinances, junk car ordinances and trash can ordinances. The chairman informed the council of problem vacant lots, vacant buildings, litter and town entrances which all need attention.

She asked that the city make an all-out effort to enforce existing city ordinances. Chief of Police Harold White, who was at the meeting, was asked what efforts to enforce the junk car ordinance had been taken. He informed the council that everyone with junk cars had been notified at least twice, but no suits had been filed.

City Manager Albert Field said owners of junk automobiles had to be informed in writing and a form letter was being prepared to be given each owner of a junk car within the city limits. Following the presentation of the written request, if the car or cars, are not removed, the city police chief was ordered by the council to immediately file suit against the owner of the vehicle.

The chief also said that city police had picked up more than 800 stray dogs in 1969, but that

Three divisions will participate in the hunt. The divisions are pre-school, ages six to nine and ages 10 to 12.

Several prize eggs will be hidden by the Jaycees with Leroy Maxwell in charge. Jaycee-ettes are contacting merchants for the eggs and prizes; Ron Upton is painting prize eggs and Doyce Turner is in charge of publicity.

All children to the age of 12 years are invited to be at the U-Bar field by 2 p.m. for the hunt.

Selling raffle tickets for several half beeves for one

Harold King, Owner of King Feed Lots, has promised to donate one beef and the chairman, Jeff Smith, is to contact another feed lot for another beef. A date for the drawing of the winning tickets has not been set yet. A possible date may be the 4th of July. The Jaycees hope to raise around $1500 to $2000 on this project.

Four couples went to the Plainview Jaycees' Installation banquet Saturday night, March 14, according to Kenneth Henry, Henry Insurance. Those couples going were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Seay, and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Walker.

Formation Of Local CAC Subject To Public Opinion

On October 27, 1969, a preliminary meeting was held in the Bailey County Courtroom in the courthouse concerning the possibility of initiating a Community Action Committee program in this county. The meeting was conducted by Howard Maddera, chief planner for the Lubbock-South Plains Regional Planning Commission from Levelland.

He explained that the Community Action Committee develops programs in counties which help people make adjustments in their own community.

The planner cited that disadvantaged, or poor, people do not actively participate in the county or county activities. Maddera said the CAC program helps with social, moral and citizenship of these disadvantaged persons.

The approximately 50 persons at the initial meeting heard Maddera comment, "CAC is best administered where these people are, by Neighborhood Centers. These Centers can help mold the people as they see their needs."

"People learn to express themselves in city councils and commissioners' courts," he continued.

Maddera explained that the Lubbock-South Plains Regional Planning Commission had been invited by the Bailey County Commissioners Court to come to Bailey County to make a study of the feasibility of establishing Neighborhood Centers in the County.

On Monday, March 2, Maddera and the program developer for the Lubbock South Plains Area Regional Planning Committee, W.O. McLeon, met with the Bailey County Commissioners' Court concerning the forming of a permanent Community Action Committee of Bailey County.

Following the March 2 meeting Maddera stated, "It was the opinion of the Commissioners' Court that they desire to have an expression from the people concerning the formation of a Community Action Committee."

"If you still desire to form a Community Action Committee, please contact Bailey County Judge Don W. Chahk or one of the county commissioners and express this to them."

He concluded, "The staff of the Lubbock-South Plains Area Regional Planning Committee are in a position to respond to the request of the commissioners court to assist you in forming a Community Action Committee for Bailey County."

Maddera said he had mailed a copy of the above to each of the 12 members of the Bailey County Community Action Steering Committee. The 12 members were named following the initial meeting and include, Mrs. Marilynn Chandler, 1506 Ave. B; Mrs. Corda Taylor, 1514 West Ave. B; Mrs. Frank Silva, Box 383; Mrs. Lucy Bachicha, Star Route, Sudan; Mrs. Clifford Baca, Box 814, Bula; Roque Puente, Box 268; George Mitchell, Box 89; Tom Ammons, Box 41; Mrs. Margaret Lewis, Box 17; Mrs. Noe Anzaldua Jr., Box 492; Walter Williams, 122 West Dallas and Gladys Jackson, Box 714.

When contacted by the Journal, Maddera added, "We made a sample survey of the county and found that 225-250 families in Bailey County show a need for organization and committee involvement for the community poor."

Soybean Practical Crop For Plains

The foresight some ten years ago of a few outstanding farmers who were looking for new and practical crops for this area is paying dividends for soybean growers today. Soybeans were a good money crop on the High Plains again in 1969. In Hale County where an estimated 60,000 soybean acres averaged 35 bushels per acre the value to the farmer was estimated to be over 4.6 million dollars by Dr. Douglas Owen, Agronomist at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, Texas. According to Owen the 42 county area of the irrigated High Plains had over 200,000 acres in soybeans in 1969. Assuming average yields the crop value was estimated to be over 10 million dollars to High Plains farmers.

Extensive research on irrigation, fertilization, and cultural practices on soybeans at the High Plains Research Foundation has resulted in increased yields and reduced costs for farmers throughout the area.

"Many factors are responsible for the growth and popularity of the crop but much credit is due to development of new and improved varieties for the High Plains," Owen said.

The High Plains Research Foundation has been at the front of soybean research since it began an extensive breeding program in 1960 and developed the Hinn, Patterson and HP-963 varieties for the High Plains region. Tests in cooperation with the USDA have provided essential data leading to the release of the Hill and Clark 63 varieties for this area.

According to Dr. Owen several new varieties performed well in the 1969 trials and could be recommended for limited field plantings in 1970. The Kent variety produced 52 bushels per acre last year and had averaged 49 bushels per acre for the last three years. Ken performs best where Clark 63 is adapted and would be recommended as an early maturing variety similar to Patterson and HP-963. "It's best area of adaptation is probably on the Northern Plains," Owen said. York is another leading new variety similar to Hill in maturity. In 1969, York produced 60 bushels per acre and has a three year average of 53 bushels per acre. York is recommended for areas where Hill normally performs well. New and improved varieties continue to be developed and tested at the High Plains Research Foundation under Dr. Owen's supervision. The latest results are published in the Annual Report to be released this month.

The practical application of ten years research and experience published in a short Soybean Production Guide written by Dr. Owen is available upon request.

He explained that a Neighborhood Center is where local people come together and work out the solution to problems. The Centers are also established to help with child day care, adult education, health services, including family planning, legal services, youth programs for poverty groups and provide a youth council.

When asked if it is necessary to have permission of the county commissioners court in order to initiate the program, Madera said the commissioners court will agree or the government will on request initiate investigative procedures to see if the program is needed and why the county commissioners court does not desire to have such a program.

Operational funds would be supplied by the federal and local sources, he added. Eighty percent would be provided by federal funds and 20 percent of the funds would be provided locally. He said some $8,000-$10,000 is available for Bailey County at this time.

He emphasized that the Planning Commission does not wish to go into any community that does not express a desire to have their services, and hoped to have expression from the county population as to whether or not they desire the community action service in this county.

the area had grown from 50,000 acres in 1966 to 300,000 in 1969 and said income in 1968 from corn production exceeded $20,000,000.

The Extension Service official said, "The best material a man can put on his crop is his shadow. Get out in the field and work. Find out what is happening to your corn. You can't see the bugs and larvae when you make a windshield inspection traveling down the road 70 miles an hour in your air conditioned pickup."

He gave several examples and showed slides of various corn insects and pests and gave controlling measures.

Next speaker was James Valentine who referred to tests made on test plots of corn in the county. His main subject was fertilizer and various chemical effects on the corn and soil. He spoke on the various methods of putting back into the soil nutrients removed by a crop.

Final speaker for the meeting was Leon New who spoke on the most effective methods of irrigating for maximum benefits.

Several questions were asked and answered by the four speakers during the evening. Much interest was generated by producers and prospective producers in the growing corn production in this county.

Dale Rivers, President of National Rivers and Harbors Congress, further commented, over signature of John W. Simmons, National Director, February 23, "The convention is being held earlier this year in order that the affairs of the National Rivers and Harbor Congress can be reported to the U.S. Congress, before the Session has gone too far into Water Resources Committee activities."

Congress delegates have been invited to the Annual Texas Caucus Breakfast, Tuesday morning, at 8:30, March 19, in the Chinese Room of the Mayflower Hotel. Goodwin reported over 100 Texans attended the breakfast, and said it was hoped this year's Caucus will "even top that record attendance".

as far as he could tell, they had not even made a dent in the dog population in Muleshoe.

Chief White said his patrolmen have been hard-pressed trying to control the dog problem in Muleshoe despite the specific ordinance aimed at dog control.

Stronger enforcement procedures were recommended. The chief was assured that he has 100 percent backing by all members of the city council in enforcing any of the existing city ordinances, whether it be in junk cars, dogs, or any other area.

Following the clean-up campaign discussion, the chief talked to the council about the proposed 1970-71 budget as it concerns his department. He showed councilmen a new set of qualifications for patrolmen he hoped to adopt and talked to them about salary for officers.

It was tentatively decided to adopt an overall police department budget with the chief being responsible for staying within the budget he is allowed. However, no final action was taken at the meeting.

He said he had contacted ten area towns and had received letters from each of the towns reflecting that Muleshoe City Police were the lowest paid of any of the towns. Those ten towns included Littlefield, Levelland, Morton, Plainview, Brownfield, Friona, Dimmitt, Canyon, Tulia and Hereford.

Also coming under discussion were proposed salary increases for city personnel, as set forth in the proposed 1970-71 budget.

Several other items of business were discussed during the lengthy meeting.

GOLDEN GLEAMS Heavy thoughts bring on physical maladies; when the soul is oppressed, so is the body. -Martin Luther.

Thoughts are but dreams till their effects be tried, -Shakespeare.

From Washington, Rep. George Mahon called Goodwin who quoted him as saying he is looking forward to seeing the Texas delegates at the Caucus breakfast, and that other Representatives and Senators, not otherwise committed, expected meet with them.

Programs for the five-day meet had not been received by delegates due to change of schedule from April to March. Goodwin said Dale Rivers, President of the River and Harbor Congress, would be honored at a banquet, Wednesday evening, March 18, Mayflower Hotel, by the national delegation.

Goodwin is Director of the High Plains Water Conservation District consisting of Bailey, Castro and Farmer Counties. Headquarters are in Lubbock, managed by Frank Raynor.

It was pointed out by Goodwin that the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 is the oldest underground water district in existence, and is the original in Texas. All others have been organized since this, and served as model for Title 7883-C, Texas Statutes. Previously, Mr. Goodwin served the Bureau of Reclamation, and been interested in water resources and conservation throughout his adult life.

Mrs. Goodwin, and guest, Mrs. Mary Sweatman accompanied Goodwin to the East Coast as private citizens on a "sight-seeing" trip. The convention hosts have arranged at tour of the White House, and other historical sites, for State Delegates by bus which will pick them up at 2 p.m., Wednesday, at the hotel. Such entertainment is at their personal expense. It is not certain wives and guests will be able to attend the banquet for Rivers, but, if so, Mrs. Goodwin and Mrs. Sweatman plan to get tickets to accompany Goodwin.

Visiting the nation's capital for the first time, Goodwin remarked, "The thing I want to do most, if I have time, is to see all of the Smithsonian Institute possible." Mrs. Goodwin and Mrs. Sweatman plan to visit as many points of historical and cultural interest, as time permits.

A report of the convention proceedings will be given upon the return of Goodwin.

Wayland Professor Presents Recital

Mark Anthony Pair was presented in a piano recital in the sanctuary of United Methodist Church Monday evening.

Pair, who is under 30 years old and is the Associate Professor of Music at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, gave one of the finest concerts ever presented in Muleshoe, a spokesman said. Members of the Association and guests present were 'simply enthralled' with his mastery of the keyboard.

He played 12 numbers from such masters as Chopin, Brahms, Schuman, Liszt, Rachmaninoff, Debussy, Ravel, Prokofiev. For an encore he played "Black Mass Sonata" by Scriabin.

Pair was accompanied to Muleshoe by Miss Carol Manning, a high school senior, who is a student of his.

Following the program, Mrs. McKinstry, president of the Association, asked Miss Manning to play a number for the teachers remaining at that time (Mrs. Sam Damron, Mrs. Gil Lamb, Mrs. W.T. Watson and Mrs. Jimmy Milner). She played Chopin's Valse in E Minor and did a beautiful rendition.

After this program the above named teachers accompanied Pair and Miss Manning to the Corral Restaurant for a meal. They were joined there by Gil Lamb.

The business meeting was postponed until the regular April meeting, at which time officers will be elected and installed.

He spoke to the group concerning his travels to Rome, Italy and other places in the Holy Lands with a group of students from Wayland College. He climaxed his talk with using the words of our Lord, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the things that belong to God".

"We owe loyalty to our country. This can be done by obeying laws of our land, paying taxes and fighting for safety of our country and many other ways, but we owe God our bodies and mind," he said.

Are you going to go through another year thinking you can't afford an Oldsmobile?

Our own surveys indicate that quite a few people think an Oldsmobile is out of their reach. They think it costs a lot more than it really does. Result? Many people buy an ordinary car and end up with a lot less car and value for their money.

It's so unnecessary, too, because Oldsmobile has many models that are priced right down with the so-called low-priced cars.

So why settle for the ordinary when you can step up to an Olds and all the value that an Olds represents.

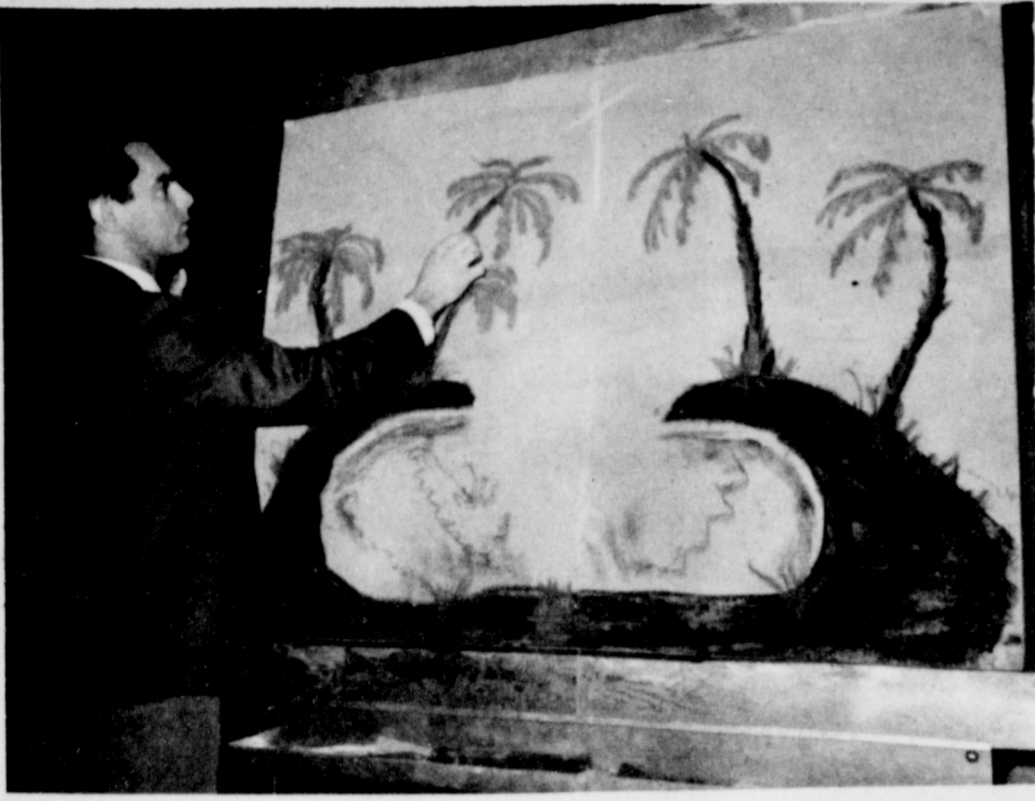

Take this big, exciting Delta 88, for example. It starts out with a surprisingly modest price. Add to this the features that make it such an outstanding value—extras that are included in the modest price:  Regular-gas Rocket V-8  Power Steering  Power Brakes, front discs  Nylon-loop carpeting  Bias-Belted Tires  Door Side-Guard Beams  Hidden Radio Antenna  Flo-Thru Ventilation  Bigger, better riding 124" wheelbase. Check these extra values at your Olds dealer's today!

Pastor Draws For Christ

"Oh, yes she's a part of the team. . . I couldn't do without her", says Rev. J.D. Brown, pastor of Richland Hills Baptist Church, in speaking of the chalk drawings he makes at evening worship services. The drawings are illustrations of songs, Mrs. Brown sings while accompanying herself on the piano and are preceded by sketches quickly done to illustrate a spiritual thought.

The chalk drawings are completed in eight to ten minutes, and are spotlighted in a darkened room. The picture shows only the cross and stars painted with luminous paint. Rev. Brown plans another illustrated talk for the evening worship service Easter at Richland Hills Baptist Church. He is particularly glad to draw for young audiences and says he does not wish to confine his work to his own denomination only. With time to make arrangements for his own church services, he would be pleased to present a program for any group in the area. The Browns came to Muleshoe only a few months ago from Mobile, Alabama. They are parents of a son eighteen months old.

Art Loft Moves

Two Tiffany vases have come a long way from their maker. Muleshoe's Art Loft has traveled down the road a piece, too, from its first location, upstairs, at 209 American Blvd., now opening its spacious and appropriately designed new quarters at 1021 American Blvd.

Exterior and interior alterations in existing structures fronting the Muleshoe-Clovish Highway have created a show place for paintings, antiques, objects of art and craftsmanship to grace any city.

Three display rooms for period and decorative items, acquired in the States and abroad, are equipped and furnished for imaginative exhibit of standing and hanging antiques, sculpture and artistic creations. Quality and beauty is the hallmark of the Art Loft, as it has been in the past.

Cork, pegboard in muted color, and tile mosaic wall covering enhance the background and utility for browsers. Mosaic tile patterns by Rhea White give pleasure to the lounge, in various areas of the new public rooms.

Added, for convenience of artists, is a complete stock of supplies, as well as picture frames of variety in design and size. Two classrooms adjoin for local and visiting students and instructors, sizable enough to accommodate present and anticipated needs. Current art classes are conducted by Harold Scott of Amarillo, well known in this three-State area, and Bob Dunaway, head of Wayland's Art Department, Plainview.

A separate building serves as studios for resident artists and owners of the Art Loft, Marie Lenau, Inez Bobo, and Arline Phelps.

Tuesday afternoon visitors included Irving St. Clair, and a spirited discussion of Muleshoe's Clean-Up Campaign with Marie Lenau, and city beautification prospects kept several people lingering to listen.

Marie Lenau indicated plans to go to Paris and other European cities on a buying and pleasure trip, likely to make the Art Loft more interesting yet, in the next months.

In Fashion

Prints in every form seem to be the word coming from the smart shops. Black and white prints are very popular in geometric forms, checks, flowers, etc., etc.

An oriental theme seems to be evident in some of the new designs. We see ankle length clothes which call to mind the Japanese kimono and these are covered with gay, colored prints in stripes or blocks.

Two toned shoes for sports are back in style. The old classic black and white is a favorite.

Shirley Temple is still a star at United Nations.

A FEAST FOR THE EYES. . . . Objets d' arts, a wide variety of size and subject matter in paintings, and antique furniture such as that shown above are to be found at the new Art Loft (now located on the ground floor at 1021 American Boulevard).

Zodiac Banquet Theme

Jim Mardis, Master of Ceremonies for Coronations, brought the stars of the DeMolay-Rainbow Girls banquet into orbit with the surprise announcement of winning candidates.

Glittery crowns were placed on the heads of Rainbow King Richard Fox, Rainbow Queen Treena Bryant, DeMolay Sweetheart Deborah Wagon, and red roses in the girls arms, Duchesses Christi Ford and Karen Mayhugh received heart-shaped jewelry with DeMolay insignia in the middle, and inscribed names as well as red roses for themselves and attendants.

Theme of the decorations and banquet motif was Zodiac, all the way, from table figurines representing the astrological signs, to carts on menus. The gentlemen wore formal attire, and Treena Bryant's evening dress was pink, Deborah Wagon's blue, Christi Ford's light green and Karen Mayhugh's gown was pink. Guitar music by Bob Badger and Brian Maconi entertained throughout the banquet, which was described as "fun and well attended".

Junior Cooks Display Skills at Show

Omar Khayam would have forgotten all about his "loaf of bread," Saturday afternoon, at the Junior 4-H girl's display of culinary creativity, and gobbled up everything before the judges had a chance to pick winners, headed towards District Food Show competition.

Entrants age nine through 13, prepared food in four categories, bread and cereal, fruit and vegetable, milk and meat, and exhibited it for blue-ribbon rating, then had to be able to give the recipe and how they achieved their result to Home Demonstration Agents and "Leaders" serving as judges, from adjacent counties. An audience of their peers, and parents observed their performance under fire at the Bailey County Electric Cooperative Community Room.

Presentations in each category, and first and second place winners are: Fruit and Vegetables- Blue Ribbon- Susan Head (District), Red Ribbons- Deanna Vinson (Dist. Alternate), Stephanie Brantley, Jani Dunham, and Keava Roming. Bread and Cereal: Blue Ribbon- Pamela Vinson (District), Red Ribbons- Benetta Roming (District Alternate), Nancy Ramm, Milk: Blue Ribbon- Danita Throckmorton (District), Alta Ramm (District Alternate), Connie Floyd, Red Ribbons- Judy Layne, Loveta Mason, Meat: Blue Ribbon- Belinda Throckmorton (District), Red Ribbons: Debbie Kenemer (District Alternate), Danita Jo Roming, Deniece Harrison, and Glenda Rosco.

Those who placed first will compete in District Food Show, Saturday, April 4, 10 a.m. at Texas Tech University. Alternates will compete in the event Blue Ribbon holders are prevented entering District.

Special recognition was given four girls for putting forth unusual effort: Bread: Nancy Ramm, Fruit and Vegetables: Dianna Vinson, Meat: Danita Jo Roming, Milk: Connie Floyd. An extraordinary salad Easter Bunny by a six year old had a pear head, peanut ears, raisins for eyes, red-hot for nose, and cottage cheese for its tail, all in a bed of lettuce. A non-contender, it was eye-catching!

Square Thru News

by Nelda Hunt
The Muleshoe Square Thrus hosted a St. Patrick's Special Dance Friday night March 13. The guest caller was Rex Coates of Andrews, and he presented a full night of hash and singing calls. His wife Joy accompanied him to Muleshoe and all the Square Thrus welcomed both of them to the dance and to Muleshoe.

The St. Patrick's theme was carried out in green and white colors - green shamrocks, crepe paper streamers, glittered shamrocks with each visiting Club's name, and the serving table was beautifully decorated with a white net over green cloth, an Irish hat and Leprechaun centerpiece, and an 'all green' menu!

An electric cream freezer was the door prize and the holder of No. 5 ticket was the winner - Miss Ginger Wilcox, the 7 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Wilcox. Approximately 250 people jammed the American Legion Hall, this group included squares from Lubbock's Kuntry Kuzzins, Littlefields Circle 8, Portales Starlight Swingers, Clovis Y-Squares, Cannon AFB Swing Wings, the Ft. Sumner Valley Promenaders and Muleshoe Square Thrus. During one tip a total of 15 squares were on the floor.

Square Thru members present were Mr. and Mrs. John Bickel, Mr. and Mrs. Curby Brantley, Stephanie and Curby Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Monty Dollar, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Sheila, Curtis, and Tori,

Mr. and Mrs. Willie James, Tonya, Bill, and Tim, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Presley, Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Prater, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roming, Jo, Benetta, and Keava, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stoneham, Tommy and Trey, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Wilcox, Rick, Sheila, and Ginger, Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Wislan, Mike and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shaw and Johnny Mc of Portales. He and Mr. and Mrs. John Bickel are Square Thru Honorary members - making dances as regular as possible. Our club caller Ed Gunnels, wife Betty and two daughters Elaine and Leann were also present.

Others from Muleshoe included Mr. and Mrs. Bud Mallock, Mr. and Mrs. Cline Buhrman, Cathy Mardis, Tommy Taylor, Galen Bock, Jimmy Littleton.

The Square Thrus had collected banners and shirts from area clubs which were redeemed by having a square of dancers present. These included Cannon AFB Swing Wings banner, Portales Starlight Swingers', callers shirt, Clovis Y-Squares banner, Plainview Promenaders shirt.

The Square Thrus regret that you weren't with them Friday night because it was one of their best dances.

These specials are planned to encourage visiting to hear a guest caller and to just have an 'open house' of a sort. A special each quarter is planned. The special planning committee composed of Mrs. Ben Roming, Mrs. Henry Stoneham and Mrs. Robert Hunt will be replaced this next quarter when elections are held Wednesday, March 18.

A group of Square Thrus attended the Federation Dance in Lubbock Saturday, March 7. The Circle 8 club of Littlefield were host club and Roger Morris of California was guest caller. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Curby Brantley, Stephanie and Curby Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Sheila, Curtis, and Tori, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Presley, Melinda and Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shaw, Delia and Daren, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stoneham, Tommy and Trey, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gunnels of Clovis. A real nice time was reported by the group.

The Square Thrus will meet Wednesday night, March 18 for election of officers. Retiring officers as of March 31 include President, Monty Dollar.

The Lonely Heart

Bailey County Farm Bureau is making a special effort this year to build a better image for agriculture, according to Ernest Ramm of Muleshoe, president of the local farm organization.

"We hope to do this by explaining to the consuming public how farmers and ranchers are helping hold down the cost of living," the Farm Bureau leader said. Food continues to be a tremendous bargain for consumers primarily because farmers and ranchers have almost doubled their productivity in the past ten years, he added.

The statewide campaign, which is being coordinated by the Texas Farm Bureau, will utilize publicity in newspapers and on radio and television as well as some locally-sponsored messages on those media, Ramm said. He added that others in agriculture, particularly agri-business firms and grocery stores, would be asked to join in the effort.

As an example of how farmers have increased their efficiency, Ramm said that a farmer today feeds 45 persons, compared with 23 persons just ten years ago. To help do this, the average investment per farm has jumped from almost $44,000 to almost $93,000 in the past ten years.

The farm leader said that the average American family spends only about 16 percent of its after-tax income for food, compared to some 30 percent in Europe and 50 percent in Russia. Also, the American housewife has a large variety of wholesome foods, attractively packaged and even pre-cooked in some instances, to choose from, he pointed out.

The Farm Bureau leader pointed out other examples showing that the consumer is still getting a bargain where food is concerned:

(1) To buy a pound of white bread 40 years ago required nine and one half minutes of factory labor, and takes only four and one half minutes today.

(2) It took 50 minutes of factory labor to buy a pound of round steak 40 years ago, compared to only 24 minutes today.

(3) A dozen eggs required 34 and one half minutes of factory labor 40 years ago, yet a dozen eggs today can be purchased with wages from only 11 minutes of factory work.

(4) It took 15 and one half minutes of factory labor to buy a quart of milk 40 years ago, compared to just six minutes today.

(5) An hour's wages today will buy 57 percent more fruits and vegetables than an hour's wages would buy 20 years ago.

What all this adds up to, Ramm said, is that the American consumer of today spends less and less of his income for food, leaving him more money for better housing, medical care, recreation, and all the other things of life.

"The farmer is glad to have a part in providing the abundant life," Ramm said. "The outlook is for even increased efficiency, but prices farmers receive will have to reflect increased costs of production and a reasonable return on investment."

Would Be Tragic

"The best thing for you to do," said the doctor, to the man with a nervous complaint. "Is to stop thinking about yourself and bury yourself in your work."

"Good heavens!" said the patient. "I'm a concrete mixer."

Farm Bureau Builds Agricultural Image

AUSTIN, Tex.--With a total of 901 new plants, Texas has earned No. 1 rating among the states in industrial development for 1969--first time in its history.

Gov. Preston Smith announced that Dun and Bradstreet Corporation, in a report published by the Fortune Magazine marketing research staff, bestowed the recognition.

Number of new plants in Texas last year exceeded California's by 42 percent. California was in second place.

Texas is the only southwestern state to rank in the top ten of new industrial locations.

Only six other states now exceed Texas' overall total of 15,576 manufacturing plants. Number increased by six percent during last year.

Smith credited the increase to efforts of the Texas Industrial Commission and "the close-knit alliance between local, regional and state development groups and the partnerships of industry and government that we have in Texas to promote a better life for all citizens."

Top ten states invested $7.9 million in programs to attract industry last year. Texas spent only $385,570--or less than five percent of the total. State's share of the 3,813 new plants nationwide was 24 percent.

"For an investment of one half the average, Texas has been able to accomplish nearly three times the results," Smith boasted.

Other states among the top ten were Georgia with 609, Illinois with 290; Alabama with 289; Indiana with 240, Florida with 224, Minnesota with 224, Ohio with 212 and North Carolina with 189.

SAFE DRIVING PROGRAM PUSHED Governor Smith pledged all the influence and prestige of the governor's office to curb highway traffic accidents.

His "Drive Friendly" program calls for:

- *Operating vehicle responsibly.
- *Obeying all traffic laws.
- *Respecting state and local police officers.
- *Being generous with the right of way.

High Court refused to join the State Democratic Executive Committee from placing Rep. C.L. Ray of Marshall on the ballot as a candidate for associate justice of Texas Court of Civil Appeals.

Supreme Court defined rules for paying natural gas production taxes where gas of several producers is collected by a central plant for processing, thus permitting Mobil Oil Corporation to recover nearly $350,000 in taxes paid under protest.

Third Court of Civil Appeals, reversing trial court, concluded that former State Securities Commissioner William King exceeded his authority in banning sales of cosmetics distributorships by Koscot Interplanetary Inc., a Florida-based concern.

A Williamson County Judge was the proper official to receive the election petition and order an election to consolidate Round Rock County Line and Pond Springs Common County Line school districts, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In another recent opinion, Martin said the West Side Calhoun County Navigation District may designate an out-of-county bank depository in an adjoining county.

Two Accidents Investigated Last Month

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated two accidents on rural highways in Bailey County during the month of February, according to Sergeant Keffer, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in two persons injured and an estimated property damage of $1,003.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first two months of 1970 shows a total of six accidents resulting in 0 persons killed, four persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $2,933.

In an all-out effort to stem the rising toll of traffic accidents in Texas, the Department of Public Safety is increasing the ranks of its uniform services.

One hundred and twenty men between the ages of 20 and 35 are needed to start training for the position of patrolman on May 5, 1970.

All interested young men should contact any DPS office or patrolman for an application. Those who work Monday through Friday may contact the Lubbock, Amarillo, and Wichita Falls offices on Saturday mornings for processing.

MODERATE BUDGET

New York--The regional office of the Bureau of Labor Statistics has indicated it cost $11,236 a year to maintain a family of four persons on a moderate standard of living in the New York-northeastern New Jersey area, as of last spring. A new cost estimate of a lower living standard was put at $6,771.

OUTSTANDING YOUTH AWARD--Denette Mann, left, receives an award from ESA Award Chairman Mrs. Jack Rennels after being named Muleshoe's Outstanding Youth. The award was made in a special assembly last Friday.

OEO...

action agencies. The reduction, OEO said, would be mostly in consolidations of existing agencies.

The 1971 budget request would be the third consecutive reduction for Community Action agencies. They got $326.1 million in the 1969 budget and were down for $325.9 million in the much-buffed 1970 labor-health, education and welfare Hew appropriations bill.

NEXT to the misadventure of the Job Corps, no OEO program has been in more hot water than Community Action. This was caused in part by the fact that Community Action agencies are the most visible element of the anti-poverty effort in the nation's big cities, and in the words of one observer "when there was some trouble, they were there to blame."

In addition, Community Action did attract militants in some cities and the 1964 war on poverty legislation was so loosely written that local public officials frequently couldn't understand whether they were supposed to stay away from, cooperate with or take over control of the programs. Community Action was the "horrible example" used by Presidential adviser Daniel P. Moynihan in his 1968 book about anti-poverty program mistakes, "maximum feasible misunderstanding."

RUMSFELD has tried to apply some of the lessons of Moynihan's book in making Community Action program policy. Last fall, he told a group of Community Action officials that the Nixon administration supported their programs but would not stand for "confrontation tactics" that outrage the middle-class or for bureaucratic empire - building - establishment of big, costly service "delivery" programs for the poor that duplicate regular municipal agencies.

Rumsfeld told the National Association for Community Development that the prime job of community action was to "stimulate" private and public institutions to serve the poor fairly; to seek and demonstrate better ways to fight poverty; and to increase participation of the poor in the solution of their own problems. And all of this, he said, must be done in a way that enhances between economic classes and does not arouse more hostility.

THERE ARE SOME who think the mission Rumsfeld gave the Community Action agencies was like the instructions of the mother whose child wanted to go swimming: "Yes my darling daughter. Hang your clothes on a hickory limb, but don't go near the water."

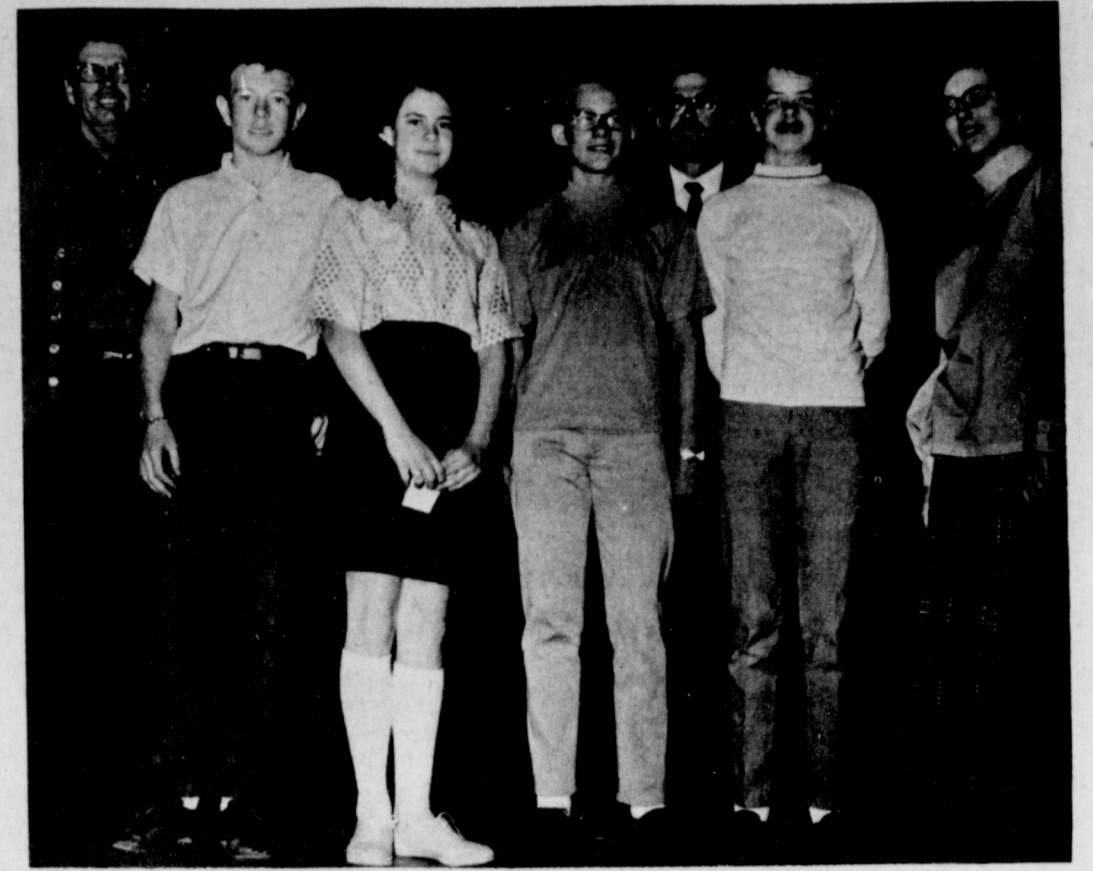

Robert Aleshire, the beefy, pipe-smoking executive director of NACD, said in a recent interview, "a lot of community action people just don't believe what Rumsfeld says" about supporting their programs. He said a number of "strong leaders" in the field already have left.

HOWEVER, Aleshire does not believe there is a plan to do away with community action agencies altogether. He does think the administration wants to reduce the number of programs, but wants to continue the Community Action agency as a "link with the poor" and a recruiting and information device.

"Community Action agencies that are well managed and are not controversial will be left," he said. He said agencies without their own means of producing income would have to "go to bed with city hall" to stay in the favor of local political powers and give up "the shotgun behind the door" - the ability to provide services to the poor if regular public agencies do not respond to prodding.

He also predicts OEO will try to hold Community Action to present budget levels, which would mean program reductions because of inflation.

"The Community Action agencies will become the victims of their own inability to respond to the wishes of the poor and will become the objects of their hostility," Aleshire said.

ALESHIRE is particularly critical of the OEO and the Labor Department for failing to give community action agencies the prime role in sponsorship of manpower training programs provided for in the law.

Nixon's pending manpower training reorganization bill would give primary responsibility for skills programs to state and local government, but Aleshire said OEO and labor have begun to put that proposal into effect before it has been approved.

IF THE MANPOWER bills passed, "I don't think it would mean the end of the community action programs," Carlucci said in an interview. He said 35 percent of Community Action funds goes into manpower training, but it was not likely that state and local officials in all cases would take program sponsorship away from Community Action agencies.

Carlucci said there are plenty of other activities the local agencies can take up-day care, family planning services, emergency food and medical care. But he is firmly opposed, in line with the Rumsfeld policy, to Community Action agencies becoming operating departments.

"Community Action agencies are not 'delivery' agencies," he said. "They are put out there to make the existing institutions more responsible and in turn they become institutionalized themselves."

Carlucci does not agree that the 25 final and pending terminations of Community Action programs since last July 1 is part of an effort to cut down substantially on the number of local agencies.

"Our goal is not to close Community Action agencies," he said. "We have a mixed goal-to allocate resources most effectively and in the case of those agencies that are not capable, to use the resources elsewhere."

proved by Congress. The loss of manpower programs, Aleshire said, would be very damaging to Community Action.

Aleshire's fears were discounted by Frank Carlucci, a former foreign service officer brought to OEO as operations chief by Rumsfeld.

CARLUCCI said Rumsfeld's message to the NACD "is getting through," and he had to suspend or threaten to suspend only two programs for using disruptive tactics. Most terminations, he said, were the result of mismanagement, ineffective leadership and poor program design.

Like Aleshire, Carlucci sees some big changes occurring in Community Action program leadership ranks. There is a growing group of better trained, "more mature" executives around the country," he said.

Apply Terraclor Super-X

the first time you plant cotton.

Think for a minute what it costs to replant an acre of cotton that doesn't make a stand. There's the cost of seed, fertilizer, herbicides, insecticides, equipment, operators and the precious time. Multiply that by the number of acres you could lose to seed and seedling disease.

Now think about Terraclor Super-X Soil Fungicide. It could very well eliminate replanting. Here's why: Terraclor Super-X is a combination of two Olin discoveries that effectively control the fungi that cause cotton seedling disease.

How important is this to you? The regional Cotton Disease Council reports that losses average $60,000,000 a year to seedling diseases alone.

Terraclor Super-X is applied while you plant. Your cotton seed is surrounded by protection in the furrow, where it counts. As the seed germinates and the seedling emerges, the fungi that kill unprotected plants are held off by Terraclor Super-X. You get a healthy, vigorous stand from only one planting.

About seed treatments: They are great... as far as they go. But seed treatment protection lasts only until the seed coat opens and the seedling grows into untreated soil. That's when you need Terraclor Super-X in the furrow.

Terraclor Super-X is available from your Olin dealer in three formulations: granular, liquid and dust. A special formulation is available with a quality soil systemic insecticide impregnated in the granules for combination fungus and insect control.

If you don't know your local Olin dealer, write to Terraclor Super-X, P. O. Box 991, Little Rock, Ark. 72203 for his name.

You ought to get to know him. He can help you get a good stand from only one planting. That's one good reason he is known as the rare bird in the business.
