

Housing Lack Hampers Manning Of Radar Station

33rd Air Div. Commander Says Date of Activation Uncertain

About fifty rent houses must be available in Ozona for married personnel to be assigned to the Ozona AF radar installation five miles east before the 732nd AC&W Squadron base can be completely activated, Col. John T. Fitzwater, Commander of the 33rd Air Defense Division, with headquarters in Oklahoma City, said here Wednesday when he visited the local Air Force base on his first tour of inspection of new stations under his command recently completed or nearing completion.

The housing problem for married service men will be partly solved by the construction sometime this year of 27 housing units on land adjoining the base, Col. Fitzwater said. He estimated that about 80 of the approximately 200 men to be assigned to the local station, would be married men, mostly officers and non-commissioned officers.

The water problem at the base is on the way to solution now, the Commanding Officer noted, referring to negotiations now under way for equipping a well on the Charley Davidson ranch by the Crockett County Water District to furnish water to the base.

"I realize that it is a terrific community problem for Ozona and I am grateful for the interest shown by Ozona people in our problems of manning the station," Col. Fitzwater told a group of Ozonans who met him at the station Wednesday morning. "The Armed Services face a problem in keeping trained men in service, the type of men, for instance, necessary to man an installation of this sort. These men are mostly of the college type men and their training as technicians is extremely expensive to the government. We must provide them the best situation possible under the circumstances."

Assured that a survey of available rental units in Ozona would be made and the results made available to the Air Force, Col. Fitzwater expressed appreciation for the interest of Ozona people.

A force of 14 men, mostly technicians, under command of Major Frank Radzickas is presently assigned to the station and are engaged in installing and testing the complicated radar equipment.

Colonel and Mrs. Fitzwater spent Tuesday night in Ozona. He visited a similar installation at Killeen Tuesday and from Ozona went to Eagle Pass and Zapata for a first-hand look at recently completed facilities.

In the party of Ozonans conferring with the Colonel Wednesday morning were Judge Houston Smith, W. D. Cooper, Brock Jones, Frank James, Chas. E. Davidson, Jr., and Ewart White.

March of Dimes Drive Gets Under Way Here

The annual March of Dimes campaign for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis was launched here this week by Frank James, drive chairman. Coin boxes have been placed in business houses over the city and Mr. James said that donations might be made at the Ozona National Bank or handed to him.

Members of the Ozona Woman's Forum have volunteered to help in the drive and a Mothers March will be organized late in the month with Mrs. Wayne E. West as chairman of the March.

An especially vigorous March of Dimes campaign is planned nationwide this year with emphasis on the theme that polio has not yet been conquered and continuing care is needed for those victims of the disease for whom Salk vaccine came too late. The National Foundation and local units still carry a heavy load in caring for victims of the disease and millions of people under age 40 have not yet had Salk shots, posing a continuing threat from polio.

Darrell Royal Is All-District Banquet Speaker

U.T. Coach Says Good Grades Is Must For College Players

By Ernie Boyd

About 200 Ozona Lions, and honored guests, attended the Lions Club all-district banquet held at the Ozona High School cafeteria Monday night, with Coach Darrell Royal of the University of Texas as the principal speaker.

The new University of Texas mentor pointed out the importance of study and good grades for boys interested in going to a Southwest Conference school and urged the boys to devote as much time as possible to their class work.

Coach Royal told the boys that he sought three things in a prospective athlete in the following order, good grades, a sure indication of intelligence; 2, good character, an indispensable ingredient for success. "We seek boys who will bring credit on the University," and 3, desire, "without desire the greatest talent can be wasted."

The University of Texas Coach said he was not too much of a believer in signs but that he did have one he liked, it read as follows, "What I gave I have, and what I kept I lost". He pointed out that such a slogan is not just a good motto for athletics but is a high pattern for life itself that you get out of an endeavor what you put into it, and what you hold back you finally lose.

Royal said that he thought the University of Texas was most fortunate to end up as high as it did this year and that it was a new experience to be in a conference where the outcome of the last week's play could make the difference between first and fourth places.

Quebe Alford presided over the meeting as the new president of the Ozona Lions Club, and presented certificates to the district 8-A all district team.

President Alford also presented the Superintendent of the Sonora public schools, Mr. Broadhead, who in turn presented the Glasscock sportsmanship award to Junction.

L. B. T. Sikes, program chairman for the Ozona Lions Club, presented Coach Royal, who rather modestly denied being a public speaker and then proceeded to prove that he was.

Tex. Crimemobile On Exhibition In Ozona February 18

Law Enforcement Foundation Sponsors Of Mobile Exhibit

The Texas Law Enforcement Foundation's Crimemobile, a scientific crime detection exhibit, will be on display in Ozona all day Tuesday, February 18. Arrangements are being completed by the Ozona Rotary Club for bringing the Crimemobile here.

As a means of enlisting the aid of good citizens in support of good law enforcement in this state, the Crimemobile has been assembled through the efforts of the cooperating agencies and individuals interested in the project and is on tour of the state as a part of the Foundation's never-ending fight on crime in Texas.

Many interesting exhibits of scientific crime detection methods of the modern law enforcement agencies will be on display in the big trailer to be parked at the south side of the downtown park all day on the day of the local exhibit. Shown will be the polygraph or "lie detector" test equipment, chemical apparatus designed for blood tests and analyses relating to crime detection, x-ray machine, ultraviolet light used for determining presence of blood stains, laundry marks, etc. in clothing, microscopes, short wave radio demonstrations in quick communications, handwriting and finger printing equipment, plaster casts, drunk-o-meter, a display of firearms, weapons of the law and other interesting phases of law enforcement methods.

The Texas Law Enforcement Foundation was founded and chartered in 1955 under the leadership of former attorney general John Ben Shepperd. It is a strictly citizens movement aimed at seeing the law enforcement profession, which so vastly affects the life, happiness and property of every citizen of Texas, raised to a new level and a new interest on the part of every citizen of Texas generated in good law enforcement. The Foundation is non-profit and is maintained entirely by private donations.

Kyle Kleaners Open For Business In New Building, New Plant

Kyle Kleaners were back in business this week in a new building at the corner of Avenue G and 8th Street.

The business was destroyed by fire in the James building, next to the James Motor Co. about two months ago, with the contents a complete loss. Arthur Kyle, owner, immediately started plans for a new building and new equipment.

With all new equipment installed and ready for operation, the business re-opened this week, with the old staff back at work. Mr. Kyle announced the installation of the latest and most modern equipment in the new plant. The building, situated on a corner, is of tile and brick face, and will provide customers with drive-in convenience.

Lions Cagers Meet Dist. Favorites At Menard Fri. Night

Ace Jerry Jacobs May Be Back In Uniform For Dist. Play

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona Lions finished pre-conference play at the Big Lake tournament last week and Friday will travel to Menard to meet the district favorites.

After the Friday night encounter, the Lions will go to Junction next Tuesday to meet the very surprising Junction Eagles and could be either in the favorite role, or almost out of the district chase by the time the Ozona tournament starts next Thursday.

Coach Swede Peltó will be hoping for the return of Jerry Jacobs to the Lion line-up by time of district play as the Lions missed his scoring touch over the weekend play.

Menard will field the same team that thrashed the Lions in Menard late last season and in so doing will be in the favored roll this season.

The Yellowjackets are tall, quick and good shooters and the big question seems to be whether the Lion can contain the Jackets offense enough for the less adept Ozona offense to win the game. Junction, too, will have both height and shooting prowess to place against the Lions.

Coach Peltó is expected to start Jake Young and Jerry Jacobs or Rod Franklin at the posts, with Stan Williams at forward and Bobby Sutton and Bobby Vargas at guards. David Sikes will sell Williams, Vargas, or Sutton and has been an important cog the last three Lion wins.

Mrs. E. B. Baggett, Jr., underwent an appendectomy in a San Angelo hospital last week. She is reported doing well.

Bob Childress and Mark Baggett took championship honors in the fat lamb division and Pierce and Jay Miller copped major honors in breeding sheep at the Eleventh Annual 4-H Show held last Saturday in the new Junior Livestock Show Barn. Bob Childress had champion finewool fat lamb which sold to Lee Childress and Ira Carson for $3.00 a pound. The Ozona National Bank purchased Mark Baggett's champion crossbred fat lamb for $3.00 per pound. Twenty-two lambs were auctioned off by Mustard Williams for an average of around $1.50 per pound.

Pierce Miller had champion ram and Jay Miller the champion ewe, both bred by Miles Pierce of Alpine. Pam Jones had reserve champion ram, Pam Jones the breeder and Pierce Miller the reserve champion ewe bred by Miles Pierce. Frank Childress had Reserve Champion Crossbred and Penn Baggett Reserve Champion Finewool Lamb. Billy Troy and Larry Williams took all the honors in the fat steer and breeding cattle division. Jay Miller had champion group of three commercial ewes, bred by Vic Pierce, and Paul Perner had reserve champion group, bred by Paul Perner & Son.

The Ozona Butane Company served a barbecue lunch to all show exhibitors and visitors at noon which numbered around 400. Herman Carter of San Angelo judged the fat lambs, Lloyd D. White of Fort Stockton placed the breeding sheep and Clint Langford of Sonora judged all cattle classes. Charlie Davidson and James Baggett were show superintendents, assisted by Carl Conklin and George Bunker, Jr. Freida Noelke and Tommy Chandler were show photographers.

Two new annual awards highlighted the awards presentation, Oscar Kost presented Frank Childress a beautiful trophy silver belt buckle as the best 4-H junior herdsman and Carl Conklin presented Bryan Montgomery a silver belt buckle as the best showman of the elementary school age group. Bill Jacoby and Pierce Miller won showmanship honors in the junior high and high school groups respectively. They were awarded silver spur tie-clasps by the Sonora Farm Loan Association and presented by Pink Robison, Crockett County Director of the Association.

Ted White was show announcer and Jim Dudley and Dick Kirby clerked the auction sale. Peggy Perner was chairman of the concession stand committee consisting of all 4-H club mothers.

Mark Baggett was presented the Nathan's Jeweler's trophy by Nathan's Jeweler's.

Ozona Youth Shows Champion Lamb At Abilene Dist. Show

Mark Baggett, Ozona 4-H Club boy, showed his crossbred lamb to the championship of the Abilene District Junior Livestock Show Tuesday. The lamb was the same one which showed to grand champion of the Crockett County show last week.

County Agent Pete Jacoby accompanied a group of 4-H boys to the Abilene show where five lambs were entered from the local 4-H Club. Frank Childress won third and fifth places with his lambs, Mark Baggett won an eleventh place with another lamb and Bill Jacoby won a 15th place. They competed in the medium wool class against a field of about 100 lambs. All of the lambs will be sold at the Abilene auction Friday.

Three lambs belonging to Crockett county 4-H members sold at $1 a pound at the auction sale following the recent Odessa show, Mr. Jacoby reported. The lambs were 3rd and 10th place winners entered by Bill and David Jacoby in the heavyweight finewool class, and a 12th place winner in the lightweight finewool class entered by Penn Baggett.

A Tribute

To Our Ministers!

Each Sunday and oftentimes throughout the week, the minister of your church lifts his head in prayer and envisions the heaven of your faith. He is a patient man. He is an understanding man. He's there, your loyal friend, in sickness, sorrow. He officiates at weddings and visits the homes of his parishioners. Yet with all his biblical knowledge and his interest in his sermons, he is a man. A fine man. And he should be treated as a friend and companion, not merely as a cleric. Your minister and his church deserves all the support you can give them. Attend services regularly and be generous with your contributions.

SOIL CONSERVATION NOTES—Pitting Of Rangeland Can Speed Recovery In Times of Rainfall

By Dick Ketchum, SCS

Cooperators in Crockett Soil Conservation District have pitted 1,158 acres of rangeland in 1956 and 2,625 acres in 1957. Although the need for pitting is less than formerly, there are a few bare areas left in Crockett County that could be revegetated sooner by means of pitting, seeding, and proper management. The pits on those areas that were pitted several years ago can still be seen even though the pits have silted full. Apparently these old pits are still able to absorb more moisture than the surrounding soil. A pit is merely a trap put in the soil to catch and hold the moisture until it is absorbed by the soil. Whether this trapped moisture is utilized for the production of grass or for the production of worthless weeds depends upon the management of the pitted area. The results obtained from pitting during the drouth in most cases were such that the benefits exceeded the cost. With this in mind, we can expect good results from pitting in years of normal rainfall.

Deferment following pitting is a must if the optimum results are to be expected from a pitting program. Livestock will tend to congregate on a pitted area because they prefer fresh tender vegetation. Livestock seem to have an inborn wisdom to select those plants that have the highest percent of protein.

Seeding of adapted grasses following pitting is insurance against failure should there not be a native seed source on the ground. Moisture adsorbed by the soil is of little value without an efficient forage plant to utilize the moisture.

Pitting followed by seeding and deferment is an efficient range practice that has a place in any management program in years of normal rainfall as well in years of drouth.

Lions Lose To Champion Miles Bulldogs By Slim Margin In Big Lake Tourney After Downed Grand Falls and Marathon In Order

By Ernie Boyd

The Ozona Lions turned in their best performance in the Reagan County Tourney since 1952 last weekend as they downed Grand Falls and Marathon and then lost to tourney champion Miles by a tight 37 to 34 count.

The Lions played without the services of Jerry Jacobs who has been the Lions top point producer but got some steady relief work from Rodney Franklin, who filled in.

The Grand Falls contest was a rout from the very beginning as Coach Swede Pelto had used all eleven of his team by the half-time intermission, and went on to win with ease 66 to 36.

Nine of the Lions cracked into the scoring column with Stan Williams and Humberto Cervantez leading the way. Williams hit the Lions' first 6 points before going to the bench and then added 5 more before going to the bench again as the reserves took over in the third quarter.

In Marathon, the Lions faced something of a sleeper. The Eagles had dumped both Marfa and Alpine in early season games and presented a talented shooting team.

Jake Young and Stan Williams led the Lions as they won a hard fought 46 to 36 second round game over the Marathon Eagles.

After lagging much of the first half, the Lions finally began to outrun the Eagles and the vicious Lion defense proved too much for the Eagles.

Poor and inconsistent calling hampered the Lions throughout the contest as the Lions collected 21 fouls to only 7 for the losers but good reserve play by David Sikes and Humberto Cervantez more than off-set the Lions losses due to fouls.

Jake Young, Stanley Williams and Rod Franklin lead the attack while Young and Williams did outstanding jobs in rebounding and in halting the Marathon top scorers.

The Lions next met the very strong Miles Bulldogs. In the Bulldogs first appearance in the meet they downed the Iraan Braves by some fourteen points and then slaughtered the McCamey Badgers 61 to 31.

The defense minded Ozona Lions dueled shot for shot with the bigger Miles team and went to the half intermission with a 19 to 19 tie.

Following the half the Lions began to pull into the lead and wound up the third quarter with a 31 to 25 lead.

The tall Bulldogs, who had relied on a zone defense all through the game, came out of their defense just as the Lions wanted them to, but the Ozonans became confused and began to stall instead of trying to score and the alert Miles crew forged into the lead to stay.

Jake Young, Stan Williams, and Bobby Sutton, played outstanding ball for the Lions and David Sikes and Bobby Vargas contributed some vital plays. Young, Williams, and Franklin, helped offset the superior Miles height with Young doing a particularly fine job on the boards and on defense.

Miles downed Marfa easily and then dumped Big Lake in the finals to cop the meet crown.

Jake Young was chosen to the all-meet team for this fine play on behalf of the Lions, and Stan Williams drew several votes for his play.

The Power of Competition

By Becky Davidson
 Which is your way: "Say, gonna beat me tomorrow, Joe?" Pete asked, jokingly; or "Pet, if you beat me tomorrow you'd better lay low," Joe exclaimed angrily. Everyone has his method of competition. Competing in some sport or anything else adds something to your life that nothing can take away.

The feeling of failure is often more important than victory. Dr. Roger Bannister says that if he had won in the 1952 Olympics, he would have quit track and would never have run again. When he lost, he knew that he had let down many people — his parents, his coach, and the people of England. In his failure he was able to get up and try again. The second time he was tremendously successful.

Dr. Bannister also stressed the fact that sports can easily be second to an academic career. He was studying for his degree in medicine during the period between the '52 and '56 Olympics. So many feel that great athletes must limit their activities and spend all their time on sports. This evidently isn't so.

All the good of competition is destroyed when one develops an obsession and must never lose. He becomes one-sided, which is the trend of psychologically upset people. The proper balance offers a satisfaction found by no other way. Remember the next time that you are playing bridge, golf, or basketball, or waiting to see whether you or the other guy gets the promotion that losing may be better for you than always winning. Perhaps you'll try harder!

"AROUND THE CONCESSION"

By Genelle Childress

"Food, Food, Food!
 I'm in the mood for food — also, boys and noise and basketball, basketball, basketball!"

Those awful sheets of paper are finished! Some people have already started to celebrate, but almost everyone is getting ready for the most exciting week in basketball season — the tournament.

Seniors and cheerleaders are absolutely running wild (twirlers aren't far behind.) The senior's main worry is food to feed all the hundreds of hungry little faces. Attention todas personas who can cook. We would truly appreciate any donations! "Bachelors," we'll excuse you cause we know you're looking for someone to do your own cooking. There won't be any name calling right now.

The seniors will serve dinner at noon Saturday. Everyone, please plan on coming.

Mr. Harlan's rah-rah girls and indecent gyration girls can't think of anything but boys. There will be nearly a hundred boys from all over West Texas and these poor girls have to find homes for them for the tournament. So, when they knock on your door — be kind hearted!

I shall close with a little thought. Remember the Tournament, by giving to the seniors; eating with the Seniors; and giving some poor little basketball player a home.

COMIN' AND GOIN'

By Barbara Barbee

From what I heard there was a pretty good dance Saturday night after the 4-H show. There were some unusual couples there. Some were: Joe Foe, Barbara Hatcher, and June B. David West from San Angelo College, and Camille, Kent, and Becky D., Gail Garlitz, and Linda, B. B. and Alma, Tommy Owens from Barnhart. What gives Alma, we've been hearing quite a bit about a Tommy from Barnhart?

A little birdie told me that Miss Powers is trying to find a summer job. Wonder on whose ranch?

I wonder why boys have to be so mean! Don't you? I happened to look out the library window during noon, and I saw a lot of boys putting a little green Henry J. on the school ground. It looked kinda funny sitting out there all alone.

What's this about Tommy S. having a date with Molly Sue? They were having a great time together Sunday night.

Some of the High School kids took in the Big Lake tournament. They really did back our team. Some who went were: Alleane, Alma, Nonie, Becky, Tommy S., Molly Sue and Camille. Tommy Stokes took a car full of boys over, and also Joe M. and a load.

Say, Alleane, who was that good-looking boy you were with both nights? Isn't his name Tommy Link, and doesn't he play on Big Lake's "A" team? Keep up the good works, gal.

Mid-term tests are over, and what a relief not to have anymore like that for another eighteen weeks!

See you next Thursday in our "Lions Roar".

THE TYPICAL BOY

By Suzie Chandler

The typical American boy gets up at six o'clock in the morning, puts on his slacks, makes his bed, picks up his clothes, and then emerges into the kitchen to cook breakfast for the family. After cooking breakfast, he goes back to his room, goes through his books (6 or 7) to see if there is anything that he forget to study, and puts on his tie and coat. After all of this is done, it is time to go to school — 15 until 8. Off he goes, whistling as he walks. He meets his girl on the way and offers to carry her books. The perfect gentleman! Once at school, he sits quietly, listening to every word the teacher says, picking up girls' hankies and never stepping "out of line". After school, he carries the girl's books home, goes to his room, studies, and thinks of the night to come. He decides to take the girl down the street to the show, so he asks his dad if he could have the car that night. At seven sharp, he picks his gal up. Off to the show at seven and back at ten on the dot! This is the typical day of the typical American boy.

The Typical Texan!

The typical Texan gets up at 8:15, jumps madly into a pair of levis, a western shirt, and boots, dashes to the kitchen runs by the table, eating while passing. Then back to his room, jerking this up and throwing that down, looking here and there for his black hat! Once it is found, he runs for the door, leaving what books he remembered to bring home. He jumps into his car, pick-up, motor cycle, or whatever he might drive and nearly breaks his neck trying to get to the 4-H barns to feed his sheep. Upon getting there, he bails out and charges to his pen and grabs the feed buckets, throws the feed at the trough and forgets about the water. Now, to try to make it to school. He gets there at 15 until 9 and goes to see the principal about an excuse for his teacher. Another ten minutes and he storms to his locker — then remembers his books. After a few muttered words, he goes to class and sits — sleeping mostly. He goes through a hard day, thinking how useless it was to get up that morning, 8:35! Another charge for his vehicle and zoom — away from school! Now, pool hall, here he comes. 6:45 — time to feed his sheep again. This time he does it slow and the job is better done because he has a date at 7:00 — lots of time! At five until seven he starts getting ready and at twenty-five until eight, he calls his date and says, "I gonna' be a little late!" Ten until eight — here he comes — screech! Off to the second show — takes his date home at 10:15, he goes home at eleven and to bed again, only to meet another vicious day — tomorrow!

MOUSIE NEWS

By Pee Wee Mouse

Sheep! (You know, those things that go ba-a-a-a, like "Mary had a little lamb's" lamb).

The 4-H Club (that stands for hi, hello, howdy, and how do you do) had a sheep show, Saturday. (Sheep look just like Mary's little lamb). The fellow that has the lamb that has the most fat on him, well, his lamb wins. This is all very interesting, but you have to be careful 'cause they (the lambs) will step on you. O, yeah, they have some of those things that go moo-oo, too. They were wild — and really mean! All they did was run around in a circle and they were mean because some boys poked them with steel "sticks"!

There was a little ole' gal a runnin' around out there dressed "fit to kill". Someone said she was the sweetheart. She shore did look purty. Some old boy (they say he was the president) nearly stepped on me trying to get to her to kiss her! O, mush!

Lions Roar

Naw, no josh, those kids really did work hard and they do deserve all credit given to them. (even "mouses know that") 4-H really stands for head, heart, hands, and health. This is really a wonderful organization.

There was a basketball tournament last week. I don't know much about it, but there still was one.

Well, people, old "Mousie" is a gittin' the "flu" and doesn't know much more, so until the horse flies, this is Pee Wee Mouse saying — hold your tongue, I'm liable to print it!

BIG LAKE TOURNAMENT

By Alleane Young

This past week-end our basketball boys went to Big Lake for their annual basketball tournament. They played Grandfalls Thursday night and won 66 to 36. They did an excellent job. Friday afternoon they played Marathon and won.

Then again Friday night very late, (10:40) they played Miles and lost by only three points. The boys fought a hard battle and did a superior job. That eliminated us from the tournament but a few Ozona people went back Saturday night for the finals.

Supporters at the Thursday night game were Alma, Alleane, Joe, Roy Neil, and Johnny Cooper. Friday a few more were there — Becky, Alma, Nonie, Camille, June, Tommie Spurgers, Molly Sue, Wanda, Joe Mc., Roy Neil, Johnny Cooper, Don P., and Alleane. If I left anyone out, please excuse me. Everyone had a good time. Of course everyone had favorite teams when Ozona wasn't playing. We really don't know whether it was the teams or the players. Miles won the tournament by defeating Big Lake. Colorado City defeated Crane for consolation, and Uvalde defeated Marfa for third place. Ozona placed one player on the all-tournament team, Jake Young.

Congratulations, Jake, and to all the basketball boys for a job well done.

TRAGEDY

By Joe Clayton, Jr.

With the coming of the tournaments again this year, the streets are suddenly filled with boys of all sizes and shapes. It is at this time every year that the boys going steady suddenly give their girl a ring or bracelet or something to destroy the temptation. The girls must certainly enjoy this as none of them go anywhere during the tournaments. Why couldn't there be a girl's basketball tournament at about the same time; this would even things up and make everybody happy. All boys are warned to latch on to any girls they might want to date with this week-end. In case you are one of the unfortunate boys caught in the rush, don't forget that you can always drown your sorrows in a coke at the senior's concession stand. I will now close with one more small item to ease the pain, remember, the volleyball tournament is not far off.

BEHIND THE BANDSTAND

By Sally Baggett

The band will really be on the go from now until school is out. Monday the 20th the band is playing for the P. T. A. program. February the 5th Mr. Bellmah from Sul Ross is going to come and be our director for the band clinic.

March the 1st the band is going to Brady for the Brady Festival.

If you see the band running around singing a crazy tune that doesn't sound like anything you have ever heard, don't worry about them. They aren't crazy; they are just trying to learn their parts in band.

HOMEMAKING AWARD

By Dartha Melton

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow in Ozona High School is Wanda Jean McCaleb.

She received the highest score in a written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes, administered Dec. 3, to senior girls in the graduating class. Her examination paper will be entered in competition to name this state's candidate for the title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and will also be considered for the runnerup award in the state. For her achievement, she will receive an award pin designed by Trifari of New York.

The national winner in the fourth annual Betty Crocker Search conducted among 327,000 young women in 11,800 of the nation's public, private and parochial high schools will be named April 17 at a banquet in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City.

Each State Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow will receive a $1,500 scholarship and an educational trip with her school advisor to Washington, D. C., colonial Williamsburg, Va., and New York City. A $500 scholarship will be awarded the second ranking girl in each state. The school of the state winner will receive a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica.

SMILE AWHILE

One teen-age gal to another. "The trouble with father is that he remembers what it is to be young."

In Jal N. M., state police reported that on a traffic sign reading, "School Zone — Don't Kill a Child" somebody had added in a childish scrawl: "Wait for a teacher."

Facing the facts, a high school newspaper in California published some rules for social success: (1) Have a car. (2) Be a pleasant conversationalist. (3) Have a car. (4) Be congenial (5) Have a car (6) Be a good listener (7) Have a Car. (Numbers 2, 4 and 6 can be omitted if the car is a red convertible.)

One pretty girl to another: "Ordinarily I never chase a boy, but this one was getting away."

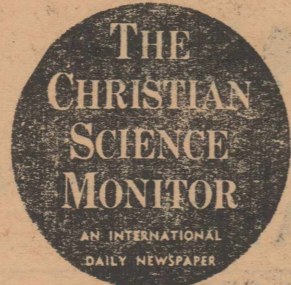

The average girl would rather have beauty than brains because the average man can see better than he can think.

JIM'S JUNK

J. Burton

Even though you may not think so, Senior English will do some good. This was recently illustrated by a classical boner and pulled. While I was reading some adventure story I saw the footnote "I bid". Since I thought this was some book or author I didn't pay a great deal of attention to it. A few days later, when I saw it in a mathematics book, I was interested, because this particular author seemed to cover a wide field. When I asked Mr. Harlan about it, he got a large laugh out of it. It seems I bid stands for a section of a book to which you have had a previous footnote.

We are always pleased to see someone do something original — so it is with great pleasure I write this next part. It seems Coach Cleere, Stanley Williams, and a few other people have become worried about the food shortage. To remedy this they have started raising hamsters in the lab. Starting out with two imported hamsters Olaf VII and Fredrika XIII, they have built up a sizable herd. Since statistics show the market is not glutted with hamster meat they are waiting for the right price before they sell.

In case you are interested, the Ozona GOC has been decommissioned. This was probably because of the large amount of buzzards, flying saucers, and local planes that were turned in.

This time the article is dedicated to all the hamsters with the hope that all of us never get that hungry.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

By Alma Iugham

What would you think if you found yourself a passenger on the first rocket to the moon?

Jim — Wonder what I did to deserve it.

Linda — I'd gather up all the star and sling it at B. B.

Jake — I would look forward to getting there.

Mary Jo — Just hope I make it.

Mr. Harlan — I'd want out fast.

Delma M. — I'd probably die of excitement!

Joe V. — Gosh! I would try jumping out.

Genelle — I would make a Senior flag to plant on the moon so our class would be the conquerors.

Stan — Prepare a concession stand on the moon so our Senior class could make some money.

Miss North — It would scarce me spitless!

Ronald — I would commit suicide.

Miss Knox — I'd be afraid I might not make it back.

Mr. Hickman — It would be one way to get away from my wife.

Margo — I can't think of a better solution to get away from everything.

June — Just sit back with a good book, and hope for the best.

Roy Neil — Are there any blondes up there?

Bill M. — Hope a Russian didn't beat me there.

Susie — I would think someone was trying to get rid of me.

Clayto — Quien Sabe?

Miss Moore — I would hope there would be some good looking, single men aboard.

Mousie — I'd look for the nearest mouse hole.

Bill B. — It would be okay if B. B. could go along to have a party with me. Just think — no teachers!

Now you have read all sorts of answers. Think what you would do in a situation as this.

Until next week, be good and don't you try to be the guinea pig.

The News Reel

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman

From The Stockman, Jan. 17, 1929

Asa Robertson is now on duty each night in Ozona as night watchman. Mr. Robertson was appointed to the position by Sheriff W. S. Willis following an appropriation of $40 a month by the Commissioners Court, augmenting $110 a month subscribed by business men of Ozona toward paying the salary of a watchman.

H. L. Levy of San Antonio, state secretary of the Retail Merchants Assn. of Texas has been invited to come to Ozona at his convenience to assist local merchants in organizing a local Retail Merchants Assn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Piner are expected to return this week from a honeymoon trip. They were married last Thursday at the home of the bride's parents in Meridian. Mrs. Piner is the former Miss Olene Carleton.

The Friday Bridge Club was entertained last week by Mrs. L. J. Kittle in the home of Mrs. S. E. Couch.

A race with death, with several local agencies of mercy participating, was lost Tuesday afternoon when the 8-year-old son of Pink Carta died in the one-room home of the family west of the draw. The family, found in destitute circumstances, was the object of a community effort to relieve their condition and two nurses were hired to care for sick members of the family but the boy died a few minutes before the first nurse arrived.

The road from McCamey to the Yates oil field in Pecos county, including a bridge across the Pecos river, has been completed and the Court ordered this county's part of the expense, $1875, paid.

From "Methodist Notes" by J. H. Meredith, pastor — Perhaps all of us are more or less interested in the deadlock in the Congress over the signing of the Peace Pact, known as the Kellogg Bill and also the Cruiser Bill. These are but the outcome of clash of public sentiment against war and the age-old fear that one nation has of another. These bills affect every home. The question is: Shall our youth, now in irresponsible state, be caused when they become men to go to war — and such a war as the world has never known — because the fathers and mothers of the nations failed in this day to make friends and be neighbors?

Greece Is Study Topic For Woman's Club

The Ozona Woman's Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe Pierce, Jr., with Mrs. J. A. Fussell assisting hostess.

The program was on Grecian Art, with the foreword being "Warships have not won the peace, let us hope friendship will."

Mrs. L. B. Cox Jr., president, presided over the business meeting. Program coordinator was Mrs. Stephen Perner. She gave a brief account of the Greek religion, their education and of the Federated Clubs in Greece. They are made up of nurses, students, American women in Greece and many others. Mrs. Ted White gave the invocation. Colored slides of classic ruins of ancient Greece were shown, and each commented upon by the leader.

A traffic court or pilot project of the safety division of the State Federation will be held in San Angelo on Feb. 25, from 1 p. m. to 3 p. m. at the Cactus Hotel.

A clean-up campaign is coming up very soon, sponsored by the Woman's Club, for the entire community.

Two models were elected to represent the club for the Annual Style Show sponsored by The Woman's Forum next month.

Crockett Co. Citizens Praised For Work On Flood Prevention Plan

Crockett County citizens are praised for their work in flood-prevention in the February issue of The Progressive Farmer magazine.

In the article, "They Didn't Wait for Help," Elmer Kelton explains that because of grim determination and their willingness to pay their own way, the Johnson Draw project is on its way a year or more ahead of schedule.

When the Johnson Draw flooded in 1954 killing 17 people, citizens of the county immediately took steps to get a small watershed flood prevention project started. Crockett County and the Crockett Soil Conservation District led out.

Preliminary studies were made and a program okayed for survey. But, the project was 60th on the national list of watershed applications. In July 1955, people of the county agreed to furnish the money to get a survey started. The project cleared through Congress the last day of the 1956 session. The dam completed in November 1957 is believed to be the first in the nation under the small watershed law.

By digging into their own pockets, the people made their project first instead of 60th in the nation.
