NOT ANONYMOUS: In Defense Of Ozona Schools

An Editorial

An anonymous letter writer in Ozona during the past week spread some misinformation and half truths about the operation of Ozona's school system that need some clarification.

Though the writer of an anonymous letter scarcely deserves the dignity of even an informal reply, we think the issues here are too important to the community's future welfare to be ignored. Certainly everybody has the right to express his opinions on any subject, and as has been repeated over the years, this newspaper's columns are open to such expressions from anyone. But expressing an opinion and presenting what purports to be facts but which will not stand up under strict examination are two different matters.

The writer of the mimeograph broadcast, for instance, presents the challenge, "If you are really interested in what goes on in your public schools, you will be interested in the following information." The "information" next transmitted was that "The slack, mediocre, watered-down education your children receive today is a direct result of a cause that disinterested parents and citizens have allowed to happen."

If the education of children in Ozona High School is "slack, mediocre and watered down," the kids have a way of overcoming it when they go to college, because in the last two years at least, and possibly for a good many years before which would take too long to check, not a single graduate of Ozona High School has flunked out of college. And most of them who are in school now are making good college grades. But then, maybe this fellow thinks all education is watered down.

So, we'll take the results of a recent achievements test given in most public schools in Texas, just completed in the Ozona system. These tests are scientifically prepared to test the general knowledge of students in English, reading and reading comprehension, math, science, and history. There is no chance for "watering down" here since the tests are prepared by experts and the student makes his own grade average by his answers.

All of the students who maintain high scholastic averages in their classroom work scored high averages on this test, and among the athletes, the tests showed intellectual averages above present grade levels in almost every case. So, it would seem that those who attain high scholastic standing in the local schools earn those grades and do not get them by "watered down" courses.

Which goes back to the anonymous letter writer's next contention that football, basketball and baton twirling are held in higher regard than are the basic subjects of education. And the letter writer condemns the citizenship at large because he says that coaches are more in demand than teachers or principals "because the citizens will attend a ball game and have little if any interest in what their children are learning." The recent vote in the school board election seems to disprove this theory — at least it would seem there is a considerable interest in what the kids are learning, and who directs the program. A record 345 votes took the trouble to cast this ballots in the choice of district trustees.

A strong athletic program is maintained in the local schools, but not altogether for the entertainment of the citizenship, although it is true that local athletic teams get the finest support in Ozona of almost any town in Texas — and if the letter writer wants to learn some facts he might inquire just how far the gate receipts go toward paying the costs of the program.

But the athletic program is designed primarily to build youthful bodies, train girls and boys in competitive endeavor, teach them fair play and good sportsmanship and provide an outlet for their youthful exuberance. If that part of the school program costs something ex-

Eugene M. Dobbs

Ozona Science Teacher Attends SMU Summer School For Teachers

Eugene M. Dobbs of the Ozona high school faculty, has been awarded a scholarship at S. M. U. this summer to take a course being offered to science teachers in the field.

Mr. Dobbs, who is in his first year at Ozona High, is currently teaching General Science, Physics, and Chemistry in high school here.

Mr. Dobbs is a graduate of Mason High School and Daniel Baker College. After graduating from college Mr. Dobbs worked for some years in the field of Chemical Petroleum before attending East Texas State Teachers College and began his teaching career in Dekalb.

He is married and he and his wife, Effie, have one son, Freddy, who will be a freshman in High School next fall.

The course offered at S. M. U. this fall will be one reviewing new methods in the teaching of science and math and those attending will have the services of a number of experts in the field who alternate as lecturers and teachers in the class.

Recent rapid advances in scientific knowledge and the stress placed upon science in the past year prompted the offering of the course to teachers who are in the field actually teaching the students of today.

Vandals Damage Mail In Street Receiver First Day Installed

Postmaster Floyd Hokit installed a street corner mailing receptacle at the main business corner Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning when employees opened the box to get the night's mail accumulation they found the mail and box interior a sticky mess of chocolate milkshake which had been poured into the box during the night.

The mailing box was installed as a convenience to transients and local people as well. A considerable number of letters and postcards had been deposited in the box during the night and all were damaged by the act of vandalism.

Postmaster Hokit points out that severe penalties may be imposed on any person found guilty of damaging United States mail and that a watch will be kept on the box in the event the act is repeated.

Bids Called For Construction Of Gurley Draw Dam

Site No. 7 Contract To Be Let Here On June 9th

Bids will be received by the Crockett County Commissioners Court at 2 p. m. June 9 for construction of a flood retention dam on Gurley Draw east of Ozona, Site No. 7 in the series of seven dams designed to control flood waters on Johnson Draw watershed and prevent a repetition of the disastrous flood of June, 1954, which took 16 lives and did an estimated $12 million in damage.

When contract is let on this dam, it will be the sixth in the system of seven dams on the watershed to be under construction. Three have already been completed, work is under way on two others and the last in the series, that at Site No. 4 on the main Johnson is expected to be ready for contract letting later in the summer.

The Gurley Draw control dam will be about 2½ miles east of Ozona and will be sufficient to keep this tributary, which courses through the east and southeast sections of Ozona before joining Johnson at the south edge of the city, under control in flood times. The estimated quantities of excavation work on the project are 10,725 cubic yards of common excavation, 26,600 yards of rock and the dam will contain 187,250 cubic yards of embankment.

Work on the project will begin 20 days after award of the contract and issuance of work orders. The contract will specify completion in 258 calendar days.

In Letters to the Editor —

Community Reacts to Anonymous Letter Critical of School Program

Circulation by mail of an unsigned mimeographed letter critical of the Ozona School system, its educational standards and the athletic program, has resulted in an unprecedented reaction on the part of citizens here.

Many of them rushed to their typewriters to defend the school board, the school administration, teachers and coaches against the anonymous attacker as evidenced by the following letters to the editor received early in the week by The Stockman:

TO THE EDITOR:

The "Attention, Note Carefully" piece of literature that several of us found in our mail Monday, seems to be lacking an author. By hiding behind this veil of anonymity, the author has, in my opinion, injected the old smear technique into what otherwise was a mere difference of opinion.

Mr. Author should remember that "over here" the accused has the right to be faced by his accuser. "Over there" his way would be correct.

Jim Dudley

TO THE EDITOR:

Fortunately this is a country in which free speech is allowed and expression of opinions is tolerated by most of us. The recent letter, written anonymously by one or more of our citizens, is an expression of their right to thought and speech; however, they shouldn't be ashamed of what they think. These persons responsible, however, fear recognition for some reason or another and that too is their privilege. It is not the usual democratic way of expression but rather an underhanded means of stirring up public distrust and unrest in an otherwise healthy American community. This suspiciously smells of the tactics used by some of our neighbors in the USSR, and their means of communication to the people usually stems from such types of communiques.

The person or persons who have written this letter are obviously unhappy with the thoughts of a group of students having the opportunity to study and play healthy games at the same time, Sports music, and "baton twirling" go hand in hand with education — not just in Texas but over our entire nation. Some of our finest sports stars are certainly not the result of a "watered down" education as one can easily find by examining their scholastic records. They have become not only fine, respected leaders in communities over our country but help lead groups of students into the various fields of sports by their own fair and just examples. This also helps control our so-called juvenile delinquent problems today.

Coaches, today, are a group of well educated men and women who in many cases devote considerably more time in aiding education not only on the field but also in the classroom. They spend many extra hours trying to teach fair play on the field and consideration for their fellow men. They also spend many hours educating these same people in the arts and sciences. Raising the coaches' pay was justified, I'm sure, otherwise a school board of our own choosing would not have voted it.

I feel that all teachers, coaches, principals, and educators in general are grossly underpaid — not just in this state but in all these United States. They are the backbone of our children's future, and we need to encourage them rather than discourage them and incite distrust in our school system by writing an anonymous letter such as I received today.

Most people do not, nor will they ever fully appreciate the time, devotion and work done by our educators today — nor will they give credit and thanks to the thankless job of being a school board member. Their decisions are not easily made — but require much thought and discussion and then usually are met with criticism from one quarter or another.

These are my own opinions and I, for one, am expressing my thanks to all who are dedicated to the teaching profession and the propagation of it. I am grateful, too, for the opportunity of having an institution such as the one here in Ozona for my own children to attend. I think we should count our blessings, not criticize them.

Sincerely,
Ralph E. Simon, Jr., M. D.

May 19, 1958

DEAR EDITOR:

This morning most of the postal patrons in Ozona received a form letter protesting our local school administration and to quote, "The slack, mediocre, watered-down education your children receive today". It goes on to mention our total disregard for the future welfare of our children and how pressure is placed on our teachers to pass children in order that they may participate in school athletics. Probably, by now it is pretty common knowledge in Ozona as to the complete text of the letter. However, just to keep the record straight, possibly a few points should be added.

Let's first ask our college students who have graduated from O. H. S. how they are making out with their "slack, watered-down education" they received from our local schools.

Next, let's check the results of the achievement test (sealed prior to distribution among the students and the same as used throughout the country), and compare these to the State and National averages. Seems to me they look pretty good to have come from a school with "total disregard for the future welfare and educational training of our children."

Now let's have a look at the monetary angle. Our letter states that there is more money spent in the physical education department than all the other departments together. Anyone who seriously entertains this idea should carefully study the annual school audit.

Regarding salary increases, two or three years ago when I was a member of the school board, it was not possible to take action on salaries for all of the school faculty at a single meeting. At that time

NOT OUR DAY

Oddly intertwined were the news-stories-of-the-month; the return of Vice President and Mrs. Nixon from their unprecedented adventures in South America, and the launching of Russia's enormous 2,926 pound, Sputnik III.

As the Nixons flew back to Washington from the harrowing and terrifying Communist-planned attack made upon them in Peru and Venezuela, Russia's Khrushchev gloated at a Kremlin party given in farewell to its latest distinguished visitor, President Nasser, of the new United Arab Republic.

"I don't want to insult the United States," Khrushchev is quoted as saying, "but I can't forego the pleasure over the success. Compare Sputnik III with the American Sputniks, according to the rules of arithmetic. Our socialist system enables us to outstrip the U. S. in science and technology."

It was conceded here that the rocket that launched Sputnik III, with an estimated thrust of half a million pounds, could easily carry a devastating warhead from Russia to this country. Pursuing his impressive advantage of the moment, Premier Khrushchev virtually demanded a summit meeting on his own terms. "Now it is clear," he said, "that there is no need to search for a settlement of questions by aggression and that it is much easier to achieve a settlement by peaceful means."

At the Washington National Airport, in the presence of cheering thousands, the greeting of President Eisenhower and the response by Vice President Nixon both stressed the Communist direction of the murderous and insulting attacks on the Nixons and the U. S. But when the President assured the Latin American ambassadors who stood before him, that these inexcusable incidents "in no way impaired the traditional friendship of the United States and our sister republics," the world had a right to wonder what it takes to make Americans angry.

What with Sputnik III, the gloating in the Kremlin, the spitting and rocks and garbage throwing in a couple of those "sister republics" to say nothing of the most recent attacks on USIA libraries — in Algiers and Lebanon, the prestige of the US seemed to have profited little by global do-gooding — and bragging. And this was the week the House passed a $3.6 billion bill for more foreign aid!

OUR OWN IRON CURTAIN

If there were deliberate plans being carried on to promote socialization of industry in the United States they couldn't be more effective than the interpretation of the Internal Revenue Act which would deny electric companies the right to charge advertising and publicity used to protect their business, to operating expense.

If this can be done by the Internal Revenue Service with electric companies the process can be extended to any industry seeking to defend itself against political plans to substitute government ownership for private ownership of property. The ruling would naturally not apply to tax-exempt government agencies which compete with private business. This is pretty much like tying a man's hands so his adversary can beat him to death.

It is unthinkable that in a free country free enterprise should be subjected to punitive tax interpretations which leave it and freedom of expression subject to bureaucratic whims.

By indirection this would tend to control the press by discouraging the use of informative advertising.

If such rulings can be enforced here by a government bureau, we have little excuse to talk about the iron curtain and its control of thought and expression in Russia.

Install the All Electric HEAT PUMP

COMPLETE YEAR-ROUND AIR CONDITIONING IN ONE UNIT

SWITCHES AUTOMATICALLY FROM HEATING TO COOLING

The Heat Pump is completely automatic. During changeable weather, even if it is within the hour, the Heat Pump will switch from heating to cooling or back again if the outside temperature so requires.

You do not need to change the temperature dial, you just set the thermostat for the temperature you desire and forget it. The Heat Pump is the ONLY completely automatic Air Conditioner.

Here's How It Works

The Heat Pump operation uses the basic principle that heating and cooling is a matter of moving heat from one place to another.

In winter the Heat Pump extracts heat units from outside air (even if it is freezing) and pumps warm air into your house. In summer the heat pump reverses itself automatically and operates like any refrigerated air conditioner — it takes the heat out of the house and pumps it outside.

Call or come to see us and our air conditioning engineers will explain the Heat Pump more thoroughly to you.

The All-Electric Heat Pump provides complete automatic "comfort conditioning" for your home the year around, using only air and electricity.

The same unit that cools your home also heats it. It also removes excess humidity and filters out dust and pollen. Because only air and electricity are used, the Heat Pump provides maximum cleanliness and complete safety.

Some seventy people were present for the annual affair.

After three days of a stormy word-battle, the House passed the Mutual Security Act (or Foreign Aid Act) of 1958 by a vote of 259 to 134.

The bill granted $2.9 billion for the 1959 fiscal year, some $339 million less than the President had requested. The figures break down this way:

$1,640,000,000 for Military assistance to Europe, Far East, Near East, South Asia, Africa and Latin America, including programs for special materials, training and mutual weapons development.

$775 million of "Defense Support" funds for 12 nations maintaining significant Military forces, with a little over 71% of this slated for the Far East.

$625 million for Development Loan Fund, to assist under-developed nations.

$171,500,000 for technical cooperation in the fields of agriculture, industry education, mining, health and sanitation.

$87,400,000 for other programs, including funds for migrants, refugees, escapees, children's fund, North Atlantic Treaty Organization and Atoms-for-Peace.

$285 million in a special assistance fund to promote and maintain economic stability in situations where aid cannot properly be given as part of the underdeveloped nations program; and $100 million for special Presidential authority for use as President Eisenhower directs, in areas needing special attention.

Opponents of foreign aid leaned heavily on the argument that since 1945 the U. S. has expended some $53.2 billion in foreign aid. Of this amount, $18.4 billion has been for Military aid, and about $34.8 billion for economic-technical assistance.

France has topped the list, receiving some $4.4 billion. Other leaders (with amounts listed in billions): United Kingdom $3.8; China $2.3; Germany $3.9; Italy-

Wm. A. Blakley, right, prominent Texas rancher, lawyer and businessman, has been named to the executive committee of the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children by John McKee, left, president of the 35-year-old Masonic institution located at Dallas.

Trieste $2.6; Japan $2.6; Korea $1.8; Greece $1.7 and Austria $1.1.

Some 98 nations have received aid from us. This has included approximately $465 million to Soviet Russia and $2.3 million to Venezuela, where Vice-President Nixon was severely attacked. However, we have actually given far less aid to all of South America than we have to many other areas around the world.

The Venezuela Incident and other recent outbursts against the U. S. played a large part in the Foreign Aid bill debate. Without regard to political party, many individual members spoke of their resentment of the treatment Mr. Nixon received and the attacks against U. S. property at other sites, within recent days.

Congressman Smith, Virginia Democrat and a staunch foreign aid foe, said scathingly: "Of course when we send our emissaries abroad and they get rocks thrown at them by our friends whom we have purchased with our money; when we send them books to help educate them and they burn up the libraries, what can we say? Those are the friends we have made with this economic aid."

But Congressman Vorys (R-Ohio), supporting the bill, saw that situation in a different light. He said the acts of violence are caused by Communist-inspired hate, and said "This is not the kind of time when Americans back down in a cold war we have been fighting for 10 years. We have gained much — we are not going to quit."

Republican Congressman McVey of Illinois, in opposing the bill, pointed out that British citizens have received five tax cuts in seven years and anticipate another one. He added that our own tax payers during this time have labored under great taxloads.

Rep. Carnahan (D - Missouri) countered by saying that 25% of the people of the world have gained national independence since the end of World War II, and our foreign aid program helped them obtain freedom and will help them hold it. Congressman Morgan (D-Pa) added that foreign aid is a sent overseas, he claimed that almost 80% of foreign aid expenditures have an immediate impact on U. S. industry, agriculture and employment. He contended that cutting foreign aid would cause serious domestic upheavals because of lost markets for many industry and farm products.

The House Made several amendments to the foreign aid bill, as follows:

The President cannot give aid to Yugoslavia unless he informs Congress of his intentions, declaring them to be in America's interest and finds Yugoslavia is not supporting the program of Communist world domination.

Construction of overseas rivers, harbors and flood control projects must meet the economic and construction requirements applicable to U. S. projects.

The President must annually give Congress an explanation of how the Administration reaches its proposed level of aid to each nation.

Elimination of the International Development Advisory Board, (which actually had expired earlier) by refusing $49,000 to reinstate the group.

The House Now turns to another hot potato: Reciprocal Trade. Administration wants a five-year extension of the Act, but Congress seems inclined to enact something less — possibly for about three years.

The bill is sure to be much-amended from the Floor. One amendment gaining support is authored by Congressman Icard of Texas, to protect the domestic petroleum industry from excessive imports. Members from other areas are expected to offer amendments to protect products from their respective regions.

In line with Reciprocal Trade, it has come to light that Texas led all other states in 1957 in exports to Japan. Total value of such Texas exports: $105,330,000.

Cotton benefitted most from the Japanese market with $60 million and petroleum products followed with $16 million. Others: chemicals $6 million; iron and steel $6 million; industrial machinery $3 million; synthetic rubber $3 million; copper ingots $3 million and all other items $8 million. And this is just one outlet.

There is little doubt but that it is essential that we continue to have a reasonable, workable Reciprocal Trade policy. It is vital to our continued leadership in the Free World and to our domestic economy. The problem: to properly protect domestic industries from excessive foreign imports.

ALVIE KNOWS A LOT OF ANSWERS

How long does it take to hatch an ostrich egg? . . . How many bachelors in Bolivia?? . . . How much blubber in a male whale?? Alvie knows these answers and a jillion others. Folks smile and agree that Alvie is a regular encyclopedia of "useless information" but they never question the accuracy of his peculiar knowledge. That's because everybody knows Alvie gets his "answers" by memorizing the little space-fillers we all see in our newspapers. From The Stockman, May 23, 1929

Members of the highway maintenance crew under the supervision of H. L. Taylor of Sonora, Highway Department engineer, will move the unsightly dump heap east of Ozona on the Old Spanish Trail, a sufficient distance back from the road and if the people of Ozona will pay for the lumbet, erect a high board fence between the dump heap and the road.

A survey of the two main streets of Ozona for the purpose of preparing a relief map of the section included in the proposed paving program is now being made by Jesse Conklin, surveyor.

Mrs. M. E. Smith suffered painful injuries Monday afternoon when her hand was caught in the wringer of an electric washing machine and badly lacerated.

A slugging aggregation from Comstock smeared the Ozona Giant 17 to 14 in the season opener for the locals on Powell Field diamond Sunday afternoon. The game went 10 innings, featuring heavy hitting and shower of errors on both sides, ending only after both teams had been run down.

The prices received for wool this year have not been satisfactory, have not been as high as the Boston market would justify, and Texas is a million dollars or so the poorer because of it. On side has been the highly organized wool buyers with a well enforced campaign for striking fear into the hearts of the growers and on the other the unorganized ranchmen and wool and mohair warehouse men. These were comments of T. A. Kincaid, president of the Sheep & Goat Raisers Assn. The system of marketing wools in Texas seems to have broken down badly and the ranchmen are paying the bill.

Billy Ford Coates, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Coates, formerly of Ozona now of Marfa, suffered a painful injury to one of his eyes Friday when he fell with a pair of scissors and stuck one blade in his eye.

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cox in a San Angelo hospital Sunday, May 19.

J. S. Pierce, Sr., went to Temple

Saturday for further medical treatment. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pierce, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bean leave for Dallas Thursday to attend commencement exercises at Baylor Medical School where Mrs. Bean's brother is a member of the graduating class.

Judge and Mrs. Chas. E. Davidson and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Davidson and Mrs. J. Marshall Brown, will leave Friday on a month's tour of the U. S. They will visit in San Antonio, Houston, New Orleans, Nashville, Washington D. C., Carlisle, Ky., and Winfield, Iowa. In Nashville Elizabeth will receive her diploma from Ward-Belmont.

Miss Mary Kincaid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Kincaid, returned Friday from nine months abroad with a group from Hockaday School for Girls at Dallas.

Mrs. W. J. Grimmer entertained the Thursday night bridge club at her home last week.

PLYMOUTH SAVES YOU MONEY ON GAS... MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN VICTORY PROVES IT!

New "Fuel-Saver" Choke that helped clinch title is standard equipment on all Plymouth V-8s

Pound for pound, Plymouth uses less gasoline than either of the "other two" cars in the low-price "3"! This was proved beyond doubt when a 1958 Plymouth V-8 was officially declared winner of the low-price car competition in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. Plymouth's competitors also entered cars with 6-cylinder engines (supposedly more economical) but Plymouth beat every car in its class—V-8s and 6s alike!

This title-winning Plymouth is exactly the same Belvedere V-8 with TorqueFlite Automatic Transmission that you can buy right off your Plymouth dealer's floor.

These tests prove that every Plymouth has built-in economy features not found in the "other two". For instance—one of the most important factors in Plymouth's smashing win is the new "Fuel-Saver" Choke that you get at no extra cost on all Plymouth V-8s. This ingenious device employs a triple-stage vacuum piston and a new thermostatic element to reduce the amount of fuel you use in warming up the engine. So it can save you even more on short-distance drives—the kind most people make.

Among the many other savings Plymouth gives you is the $140 you save on standard-equipment Torsion-Aire Ride. The "other two" charge up to that much extra for their best suspension systems.

So if you are dollar-conscious, better hustle over and talk terms and trade with your Plymouth dealer. He wants your business, and he'll go all out to get it!

CLASS PROPHECY

'Tis the year 1978. The scientists all over the world have picked up a new sound on their space radios. They frantically run to their huge space scopes and scan the skies for this unknown object of outer space. Is it a new moon, or just the old one? Is it another sputnik? Is it one of the familiar planets off its course or is it Vanguard 2, 196? They finally got one up to stay, you know, Wait! There is a report coming from the sputnik observatory. They have identified the object. Its a 1946 T-bird piloted by a lost graduate of the Swede Pelto School of navigation. This man has been flying aimlessly for about 20 years. What a wealth of knowledge he must have gained during his travels of space. His log records the following observations:

In his first year of travel, ole Skinny Bird encountered Jimoo Burton aboard a Russian Sputnik. Upon asking him what on earth, I mean what in heaven are you doing in that, Jimoo replied, Mr. Harlan, sir, I was vacationing in Russia and was accidentally overheard singing Twinkle Twinkle Little star, how I wonder what you are, so my curiosity has been satisfied.

During Mr. Harlan's travels he noticed the moon was getting smaller. So ole Skinny Bird decided to drift over that way and see what was happening. As he approached the moon, Mr. Harlan saw a familiar face. It was Melchor Cardenas, and he was eating the cheese. Melchor had been on the "People are Funny program" and if he could eat the moon in a week "People are Funny" would give him 1 ton of longhorn cheese.

One morning when Tex woke up he found himself circling the earth. He looked down and he was over France. There he found Alicia R. — alais Fi Fi Lamode. Alicia has been quite successful. She is dancing at the Moula Rouge. Quite a gal that Alicia.

Africa is the next visit on the log. As Mr. Harlan drifts over, he sees a man swinging from tree to tree. Its Bamba Clayton. Right behind him of course is the camera. Bamba is now making pictures for 20th Century Fox. Joe's hair has made him quite a star.

While going over South America Mr. Harlan spots Genelle Childress. Genelle is now in politics. She was known for her speaking ability in High School. Genelle went to the deep jungle to make a speech to the natives on the last developments in flea powder, and she impressed them so they elected her Nellie, Queen of the Jungle.

Next Mr. Harlan flew over Texas. He encountered quite a few people there, Especially in Ozona. First of all he sees Wanda McCaleb. She is designing uniforms for car hops at Ozona's newest drive-inn operated by Pete Hickman. This is quite a task since Mr. Hickman refuses to give her enough material. Gwynel Walker is quite the heroine of Ozona. She has invented feather bumpers for sleep walkers. Gwynel began this business from the inheritance of turkey feathers left to her by her father when he was stomped to death by an irate Tom.

Chuy Ramos, is in the oil business. He is in chare of putting the oil in the cars at Sutton's Service Station.

Larry George is teaching for the Ozona Public schools. He is teaching all the students how to get the caps off the coke bottles.

Alma Inham is now married and has 15 children. They sleep all winter and in the summer they go from place to place picking bitter weed.

Rod Franklin is one of Ozona's most up standing citizens. He is an undertaker. He has undertaken the job of learning to play the piano. He liked it so well he became a concert pianist. He plays for such things as P. T. A. on Monday nights, and is always in all the talent shows.

As Mr. Harlan continued his flight over Crockett County he saw Jean Powers. She is still teaching kids. Only one thing is different, they are her own. She married some ole cowboy around Ozona and has 10 lovely children.

When Harlan Bird slipped over Sonora he saw Delma M. She is married to someone named Sasa or Soso or something like that. They have 7 little girls. Delma decided to raise her own volleyball team.

Poor old Bill Black is shoveling coal! Oh! wait don't get me wrong. Mr. Harlan found Bill working in the basement of the Nieman Marcus building in Dallas. That's an awfully big building and it takes lots of coal to keep it warm.

Also in Dallas Mr. Harlan found Minnie D. Se is now modeling. Yes Minnie models bubbles.

In Austin Mr. Harlan found Mark White who is now in politics. He is running for assistant to the assistant of the assistant Governor. To explain this a little more, Mark is running for janitor for the governor. Good luck, Mark.

working hard in Houston. He has a job at Herman Park Zoo teaching Kangaroos to broad jump.

Rough winds carry the T-bird over Illinois. That's Dartha Melton's old home state. She is happily married to Dick Rader. They have centered their attention on raising twin kids. Little baby goats I mean.

In Chicago Mr. Harlan found Clayto Friend. Clayto is a trapeeze artist with the Circus. Only Clayto was in the hospital. One night as Clayto was flying through the air with the greatest of ease, there was only one thing wrong. He forgot his trapeeze.

As Mr. Harlan drifted over Philadelphia he saw the famous wrestler, The Leach, better known to us as Hack Leath. Mr. Leach, I mean Mr. Leath got so good at lifting Coach Cleere's weights he decided to start wrestling.

blessed with the presence of Stan Williams, Professor Stanley Williams that is. The professor has founded the Twinkle Toes School of Dance. Stan specializes in ballet. He taught some of our most famous movie stars to dance such as Stomping Fannie and Split Toes Harry.

Mr. Harlan skips across the country to Washington, where he finds Jon Burton. He has been a great benefit to charity. Yes, Jon sells kisses in his private booth at the annual charity Bazar.

Also in Washington Mr. Harlan found the great left hander, Ronnie Paulk. Ronnie is now pitching for the Washington Sinners. Yes, he has pitched 10 no hit games — he walked them all.

Mr. Harlan's flight continued to Hollywood where he saw Mary Jo Ward. Mary Jo is now in the movies. She isn't exactly the star of the show but, nearly as good. She is Jane Mansfield's stand — in I guess Mary Jo must have peroxidized her hair.

There he saw Jake Young. He is picking Harems for millionaires in the United States. His experience and good taste fits him well for the job.

As for Tex Harlan he was last seen beating his plane on the wings and heading for Mexico in his brown Poncho.

Oh! in case you are wondering about me. After I wrote the class prophecy in high school I got an offer to write for Mad Funny books.

CLASS WILL

We the senior class of Ozona High School, being of sound mind and a clear conscience, on this day, May 16, the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty eight, do hereby establish this our last will and testament.

To the school we proudly leave a solid gold picture frame for all of the graduating senior's pictures to be put in and hung in the hall of O. H. S. This is no none of our underclassman friends will ever forget our bright shining faces.

We leave to the dear ole faculty, the pleasant memory of the most wonderful class to ever graduate from the halls of O. H. S.

To Tony, we will ALL, notice I said all, the real broken chairs, torn up desks, etc., which the seniors tried so hard to take care of.

Next we have one of the important members of our class, our sports hero, Jake Young. Jake leaves his well recognized walk to Mike Miller. Mike, you can really strut your stuff now.

Clayton Friend, better known to all of you, as Clayto, leaves his ability to write exceptional English IV research papers to Billy Bob Holden with the hope that he may use it to a better advantage that he did.

Delma Martinez leaves her ability to catch out of town boys to Ercilia Perez. Ercilia if you happen to get one from Sonora see if you can't slow him down if he happens to be a star football player.

Kenneth, Rod started out pretty young and from what I hear, he is really proud of that trophy. Work hard and hold that title up for him.

Genelle Childress wants to give Diane Phillips her brand spanking new bottle of peroxide. Yes, Genelle heard someone say something about Diane becoming a Jane Mansfield, so Genelle wants to show her the way to become a true blond.

Bobby Vargas leaves his broad jumping ability to Scotty Moore and Humberto Cervantez. Bobby really made a name for himself this year so you boys better get on the ball.

Mary Jo Ward leaves her sophisticated personality to Allene Young who really has already got a good start after her part in the Junior play.

Stan Williams leaves his charm and wit to Don Powers and Diz Reeves. Stan said (he thought they needed it) so I surely hope they appreciate his thoughtfulness.

The senior volleyball girls leave their practice shorts to the boys basketball team so they won't have to catch cold practicing in the raw.

Larry George leaves his ability to play golf to Chris Hagelstein. Chris better get in shape, because I hear Larry, shoots a pretty good game.

Dartha Dee Melton wills her active part in the F. H. A. to June Knox. That's something which will come in handy when you start keeping house, anyway that is what Dartha thinks. Dartha wants to leave her radar interest, Dick Raider, in the capable hands of Becky Davidson and Pat Allen. It seems she decided to leave him to both so they could keep an eye on each other.

Bill Black leaves his ability to get out of high school by changing classes every week to David Sikes David, you might try this, Bill has been fairly successful.

Minnie Delgado leaves her ability to get along with volleyball coaches to Olga Ortiz. Olga I know some girls that would just give their right arm for that gift.

Jim Burton leaves his "C E C Weights" (Coach Elvis Cleere's weights) to Howard Mock and James Pitts. Really boys he hopes you aren't foolish enough to use them.

Gwynel Walker leaves all of her Junior boy friends to Marilee Dale. Marilee with all of her beaus you should really have a ball next year.

Jesus (Chuy) Ramos leaves his ability to loaf to Alonzo, Cico, and Manuel who from what I hear are in no real need of it.

Alicia Rodriguez leaves her keen sense of humor and sweet smile to Jan Semmler and Darla Williams. This smile should really Tex Ritter, native born Texan who did not seek a place in the Hollywood Cowboy Movie World, but was sought by Hollywood, will lead the opening day Parade at Midland's 24th Annual World Championship Rodeo, Tuesday, May 27. help you catch a male, girls.

Mark White leaves to David Sikes used twice and Don McCaleb his well-known ability to break girls hearts. To Jerry Jacobs, he leaves that extra gallon of gasoline to complete his trip South.

Jon Burton leaves his ability to play the guitar to Charles Harrison in hopes that Charles might make, what he called, a needed improvement.

Melchor Cardenas leaves to Mills Tandy his brilliance in the field of managing. Mills, we will know to look for you out backing our team to victory.

Alma Inham leaves her vocabulary to Tommye Spurgers in hopes that Tommye won't use it quite so much as she did. To Ladye Everett she leaves the new 10 day diet plan. Ladye don't go overboard on this.

Joe Clayton leaves "Chaucer" to Johnny Cooper and Owen Wagner. Boys, you had better talk to Joe so that you won't make the same mistake he did. It might be fatal the next time.

Ronnie Paulk leaves to Bobby Sutton his football ability. It seems Bobby has been trying and waiting a long time for a starting halfback position on the football team.

Next we have Carolyn Mayfield. It isn't that Carolyn doesn't have some hidden talent that she could leave to some poor undeserving soul, it's just that Carolyn doesn't have any she wants to give away, wants them all herself. No, Carolyn has finally decided to leave her snort to Frances Childress in hopes that Frances might control it better than Carolyn ever could.

Mr. Leath leaves his position and all of his many headaches to Miss Moore. He seems to be as happy as a lark because he will get to see some of the football games next year and even take his wife with him.

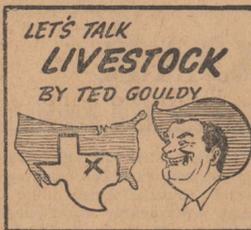

Our next sponsor, Mr. Harlan, leaves behind his mustache and long hair which he lost on the Senior trip to Mr. Moody. Mr. Moody, I don't know about the mustache, but it looks like you could use a little of the hair.

Instead of letting Miss Powers rid herself of one of her many talents, the senior class would like to take this opportunity to leave Miss Powers in the safe care of Mr. Nat Reed. I know Miss Powers will appreciate this favor we have done for her.

Since this will be my last chance to rid myself of something, I would like to will my forward ways to Molly Sue Richardson in hopes that she might enjoy them just as much as I have.

In testimony of, this, our last will and leavings, I sign my name, this day, the sixteenth day of May, the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty eight.

Cattle Open Steady With Last Week's Loss

FORT WORTH — Cattle and calves were slow and about steady here Monday. Salesmen were asking higher prices following last week's declines, however, the buying side held firmly to the recently established lower schedule of values.

Good and choice slaughter yearlings and steers cashed at $24 to $27, and medium and lower grades cashed at $16 to $23. Fat cows sold from $17 to $19.50, with a few fancy young cows to $20 and $21 and above when maintaining heiferish characteristics. Canners and cutters sold from $12 to $17.50. Bulls drew $18 to $22.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold from $23 to $27.50, with heavies around 600 pounds and up at $26 down. Common and medium offerings sold from $17 to $23, and culls sold from $14 to $17.

Medium and good stocker steer calves sold from $24 to $30, and medium and good stocker steer yearlings sold from $22 to $27, with some choice thin lightweight yearlings to $28 and $28.50. Plainer stocker ranged around $20 to $24.

Old Crop Lambs Strong, Spring Lambs Steady

Sheep and lambs were steady with last week's close at Ft. Worth Monday. Good and choice spring lambs sold mainly at $21 to $22, a few topping at $22.50. Less than choice spring lambs, while held in line with the lowered range established late last week, were still finding the better outlet to packers. Old crop yearling lambs cashed at strong prices, and sheep were steady.

Good and choice slaughter spring lambs sold from $21 to $22.50 and cull to medium springers sold from $15 to $20. Stocker and feeder spring lambs sold from $18 to $20.

Good and choice yearling lambs sold from $17 to $18.50, and cull to medium old crop lambs sold from $15 to $16.50. Feeder yearling wethers sold at $16.50 down. Yearling ewes sold from $19.50 down.

Aged wethers drew $12 to $13.50, and two-year-olds reached $15. Old ewes drew $7 to $3.

There's plenty to see in Texas, wherever you may roam on a holiday jaunt or on a vacation trip. Clockwise from the lower left hand corner, some of the impressive sights to see in Texas are: The Big Bend, some of the most striking scenery in the state; Guadalupe Peak, highest point in Texas at 8,751 feet; the Palo Duro Canyon, camping grounds for Indian tribes in frontier days; East Texas oil fields, biggest of them all; the 570-foot San Jacinto Monument, commemorating decisive battle of Texas history; Gulf Coast Beaches, some of the finest in the world; the Alamo, "Cradle of Texas Liberty," and in the center of the state, Texas Longhorn Cavern, biggest cave in the state and third largest in the world, one of Texas' most spectacular natural wonders. Sightseeing is fun in Texas.

TSTA Speaker Tells Of Statewide Interest In Hale-Aikin Reports

The Crockett County T. S. T. A., which is composed of the teachers of the Ozona Public Schools, held its annual spring banquet at the High School Cafeteria last week with L. P. Sturgeon of Austin as the main speaker.

Mrs. Ted White, who has served as unit president this year, served as toastmaster and Superintendent of Schools L. B. T. Sikes introduced the speaker.

Miss Becky Davidson entertained the group with a number on the flute and was accompanied by Miss Mary Jo Ward.

Mr. Sturgeon, who is a member of the T. S. T. A. headquarters in Austin, reviewed the progress of the state-wide Hale-Aikin report and called the attention of the group to the unusual interest that the people of the state have been taking in this study as compared to the Original Akin study some ten years ago.

Mr. Sturgeon stated that the number of sub-standard teachers employed in Texas was on a steady increase due to the shortage of qualified teachers and that this year the number would be greatly increased.

Officers for the coming year were introduced and Mrs. Jim Add Harvick, president-elect, presented Mrs. White with a past president's pin in recognition of her work this year. Mrs. White expressed her thanks to the members for the help and cooperation she had received.

Other officers who will take office next fall are: Miss Lola Mae Daniels, vice president; Miss Genevo Knox, secretary; Gerald Dingus, treasurer, and Foy Moody, reporter.

The meeting was attended by faculty members and their wives or husbands and by members of the school board and their wives.

In Defense of Ozona Schools

tra, the money is well spent. And as for undue emphasis on athletics, the Ozona School System is one of the few in Texas which puts all athletics and all other extra-curricular activities entirely after regular school hours. Many schools dismiss athletics the last period, or possibly two, so that they may get in extra practice hours. Here athletics, baton twirler, play actors and all other extra-curricular participants go to school the same hours as other students and take part in these activities on after-school time.

The letter writer beefs that salaries of coaches and principals were raised at a recent meeting while "teachers were not even considered." The teachers got a raise too, an automatic one, on the local experience increment system by which each teacher receives a certain increase in salary each year of teaching experience until the maximum is reached. The coaches and principals do not operate under the increment system — the only way they can get a raise is by action of the school board. And coaches who work five to six hours a day longer than other teachers, while maintaining classroom duties as well, are entitled to more pay. Coaches in the Ozona system teach in classrooms the same as other teacher — two coaches have three classes a day and two study halls, another has three high school classes and teaches driver education in Junior High and another has physical education classes in both Junior and Senior high school.

The present school board is made up of men of sound judgment and business experience. They are doing a fine community service without pay. They are open to suggestions from the people — no doubt would welcome a visit from any citizen with a constructive idea on the school program. But we think it is poor sportsmanship and hardly constructive to hide behind anonymity in denouncing their actions. (These comments are by the editor of this newspaper whose name will be found on page 2.)

TO THE EDITOR:

it was not the policy of the board here in Ozona, nor any other school board to our knowledge, to give all teachers a salary increase at the same meeting or, in some cases, even in the same year. It is my contention that the present school board and administration is acting in the same manner.

The possibility exists that we may have a top heavy athletic situation in our schools today. However, if this be so, circulation of unsigned letters pointing to ill founded charges against a group of local citizens who are giving freely of their time and efforts, is not the proper method of correction.

Close inspection of other communities' educational programs, not only in Texas but in other states as well, testifies to the efficiency of our school administration. The Ozona school system is one of the biggest assets our town has and I consider it a privilege to be able to send our children to school here in Ozona.

Yours Very Truly,
Dick Henderson

DEAR EDITOR:

In answer to a letter recently mailed all parents of school age children in Ozona, I feel this is a very much unjustified way to try to get a raise in salary for our teachers.

Certainly I would like for them to have a substantial raise but when you stop to think of the late hours our coaches spend and the long trips they make, and they usually have to teach at least one subject, would it be fair for the teachers to have as high a salary as they?

My son loves athletics and I think it's vitally important to the development of our young men and women of tomorrow. I am sure all parents want their children to have high academic standards and surely athletics will not be a hindrance.

Let's be broad minded about this matter and not (as the old saying goes) Rob Peter to pay Paul. We can maintain high academic standards in our school and still support our athletic program too.

Sincerely,
Mrs. L. M. Carnes
