SPRING SCHOLASTIC TRACK MEET

The program for the Spring Track Meet of the Callahan County Schools has been arranged and will be found elsewhere. The meet is scheduled to be held on the Baird Public School Campus, Saturday, March 11, and County Superintendent B. C. Chrisman believes it will be more excitingly interesting than last year's meet. In conjunction with the athletic events there will be an Art and Domestic Science and Educational Exhibition in the Public School Building. The business men of Baird have donated twenty-five dollars to be awarded to the school having the best exhibit, the money to be used in the purchase of a library.

The election in Victoria Common School District No. 52, on Monday, June 23rd, for an increase of thirty cents in the local maintenance tax rate, and also for the issuance of bonds to the amount of one thousand dollars, for the construction of a new school building, carried unanimously in both instances. The location of the present building will be moved nearer the center of the district, and a new building constructed for the next school term.

An election has been ordered on February 25th in Lone Pecan District No. 17, to determine whether or not bonds to the amount of one thousand dollars shall be issued for the construction of a new school building.

A petition is being circulated in Rowden District No. 27, calling for an election to be ordered to vote upon the question of whether or not the present tax rate of twenty five cents on the hundred dollars valuation, shall be increased not to exceed fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation. If this issue should carry, it will put the school in line for State Aid each year.

On account of the crowded condition in Fairview School, an extra teacher has been put on since Christmas.

YOUNG PRESBYTERIANS IN EARNEST

We appreciate very much the splendid attendance at the Young People's meeting last Sunday evening. The interest is growing. Our young people in their talks acquitted themselves admirably. We have every cause to be grateful for them and are. We would be glad for more to come.

We will have all of our services next Sunday except the evening service, which is called off on account of the revival in progress at the Methodist Church. Those who do not attend the meeting miss much. The morning services are especially helpful to Christians.

Sunday morning the theme will be "The True Source of Happiness." Many have sought happiness but did not go to the right source. Come out and be with us.

Cordially,
Gerald Fitzgerald, Pastor.

Dave Witherspoon, who has been slowly ill for the past two weeks, at the home of his sister, Mrs. G. M. Hall, is reported much improved.

REVIVAL MEETING TO CLOSE

The revival meeting at the Methodist Church will close Sunday night.

Evangelist R. B. Freeman, of Abilene, has done good and effective work and, as a result, a number of conversions and reclamation of adults as well as children.

No meeting in our recollection has ever been so hampered by bad weather as this one, but the meeting has gone right ahead and we believe has not missed a service. Rev. Freeman is certainly a most energetic worker. His methods are different from most evangelists. There is nothing of the spectacular about his plans of conducting a meeting. He just goes on like most of the old time successful circuit riders that we older people recall in the early days. He has a plain, energetic way of presenting the gospel. He calls sin sin and does not gloss over anything. "The soul that sinneth it shall die, but he that repents of his sins and accepts Jesus Christ as his saviour shall have life everlasting" is his theme. Nothing new about that. It is the old, old story, that is ever new.

The Evangelist is ably assisted by the singer, Mr. Alfred R. Wells, of Dallas, who knows how to conduct a choir and get the best results. The human voice, when properly trained, makes the most delightful music on earth. Mr. Wells knows how to bring this about in the singing.

The pastors of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches, Rev. C. A. Loveless, and Rev. Gerald Fitzgerald and most of their members have lent their aid and encouragement in conducting the meeting. Brother Loveless contracted a severe cold which has kept him out of most of the services, but all who know him, know that his heart and soul was in the meeting.

M. E. REVIVAL MEETING CONTINUES

Our meeting is still in progress at the Methodist Episcopal Church, South and will continue until Sunday night. If you are not attending you are missing something that you need, for we are having some of the best all around preaching that I have ever heard from an evangelist and I have heard some of the best in the field, such as Billy Sunday, Steve Burke, Locket Adare, Wm McIntosh and others of renown.

The singing, led by Mr. Wells, of Dallas, is equal to the best. Come and join us. It will be an inspiration to you.

I am anxious to get into this fight and make a clean sweep while we are at it.

T. J. Rea, Pastor.

KHAKI CLAD "S. G. S." GIRLS HIKE

Several of the "S. G. S." girls, clad in khaki trousers (an excellent bunch of pedestrians), took great delight in exploring the mountains north of town, last Saturday week. After reaching the top they sat down to lunch, which consisted of one onion, a few cakes, eleven slices of bacon and one loaf of bread. However, it was greatly appreciated, for the appetites of the girls were ravenous.

They returned home at 5 o'clock, having walked and taken pictures to their heart's content, very tired, but perfectly willing to make another exploration soon.

The Thursday night following they were the guests of Mildred Holmes, at her home, where another good time was experienced. Nuts were cracked, hulled and eaten before the fire for quite a while. Then date loaf, divinity fudge and patience were created and destroyed.

The greater part of the evening having then passed, a few games of "42" were played, several readings were given by Madge Holmes, after which the girls, Norma Bowlin, Faye Bryant, Nell Ball, Bertrice Haley, Ila and Thelma White, Anna Myri Scott, Greda West, Sig Blakley and Maggie Lou Price, kissed their hostess good night and departed.

Tax Collector W. Pitt Ramsey informs The Star that about 4300 polls were assessed in Callahan County this year. Of this number 3500 have paid their poll tax, an excess over last year of approximately 600—about 80 per cent of the county's total electorate.

GOVERNOR NEFF CALLS EDUCATIONAL MEETING

Austin, Texas.—Governor Neff has called "think-out-loud conference" to meet in his office on the morning of Feb. 11 to consider the education problems of Texas.

In his letter calling the conference the Governor says:

The entire educational system of Texas, from the most obscure rural school to the University, has been at all times, and is now, a matter of deepest concern to all our people. Grateful as we are to the builders who have gone before, there is yet much constructive work to be done in Texas in perfecting our educational system. At places it is duplicated, disjointed and inefficient. The systematizing and developing of our eduational one as a whole is worthy the thoughtful co-operation of our educational leaders and of our men and women who freely give of their time and energy to all movements designed to improve conditions in Church and State.

"Hoping to be of some service along this line, I have planned to have a 'think-out-loud conference' with those who are officially and semi-officially charged with the responsibility of our educational life in order that we may freely, unselfishly and patriotically exchange ideas with a view of broadening the foundation and lifting higher the walls of our educational structure in this State. With this thought in mind I am hereby calling a conference to meet at my office in Austin at 9.30 o'clock on the morning of Saturday, Feb. 11, 1922."

FULL SUPPORT WON BY AGRICULTURAL BLOC

PROPOSAL FOR U. S. PRICE FIXING LOSSES; PARITY, VALUES IS DEMANDED.

Washington.—Congress was voted commendation of the "agricultural bloc" unanimously Thursday by the national agricultural conference through adoption of the report of the Committee on Agriculture and Price Relations.

The conference adopted resolutions urging the Government to use its offices to aid in the economic rehabilitation of Europe and expressing the belief that such steps should be taken as necessary to limit acreage of particular crops to balance production and restore the farmers' dollar to its normal purchasing power.

Immediate steps to re-establish the value of farm products on a parity with those of other commodities was asked of Congress and President Harding through the unanimous adoption of a resolution to that effect.

The resolution was contained in a report from the marketing committee and members said its adoption meant that "something must be done by the President and Congress immediately."

The resolution follows: "It is the sense of this committee that the Congress and the President of the United States should take such steps as will immediately re-establish a fair exchange value for all farm products with that of all other commodities."

The conference at the same time rejected a resolution of the National Farmers' Union, offered by J. S. Wannamaker of South Carolina, which would have called for a Government minimum price guarantee on farm products.

DALLAS GETS 1923 MEET HARDWARE ASSOCIATION

Dallas.—For the fifth consecutive time Dallas was favored as the meeting ground for the Texas Hardware and Implement Association when the members voted in the closing session Thursday to celebrate their "silver anniversary" in January, 1923, in Dallas. The invitations were read to the members by Eugene Rosenbaum, president of the Dallas Implement, Hardware, Saddlery and Tractor Club, who assured them the hearty endorsement of the invitation by the citizens and officials of Dallas. Similar invitations from the Dallas Chamber of Commerce and from Mayor Sawlike Aldredge were read.

Fort Worth was the only other city considered, and invitations were received from several hardware companies there, the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce and Mayor E. R. Cockrell. A vote of thanks was tendered Fort Worth for the invitation.

A wider scope of work and bringing every hardware merchant in Texas into the association was urged by Oscar J. Rea, retiring president, who surrendered his gavel to Sam Crowther of San Angelo, newly elected head. He thanked the directors and officers for their support during his administration and pledged his best efforts in support of Mr. Crowther.

That the prosperity of merchants can be measured by the prosperity of the farming community was declared in various addresses of the day. Merchants were urged and many pledged themselves to begin a study for establishing better and more stable markets for the production of the farm

BENEDICT'S FUNERAL IS ONE OF SOLEMNITY

Rome.—Pope Benedict XV. was entombed with solemn and impressive ceremony Thursday afternoon. His body, enclosed in three caskets and dressed in the pontifical robes, lies in a crypt under the great basilica of St. Peter's.

The historic and beautiful ritual was witnessed only by members of the Sacred College, members of pontifical household and the Papal nobility, and diplomats accredited to the Vatican.

The great bronze doors of St. Peter's had been closed at noon.

The ceremony began with the removal of the body to the chapel of the choir. The bier was borne upon the shoulders of the red-robed ushers, whose usual functions are to carry the Pope in the papal chair in pontifical processions.

107 DEAD IN CRASH AT WASHINGTON THEATER

ROOF OF KNICKERBOCKER THEATER COLLAPSES UNDER A TWO-FOOT SNOW.

WHOLE FAMILIES WIPED OUT

A Comedy Film Turns to Real Disaster as Terrible Avalanche Beats Down Audience.

Washington.—The collapse of the Knickerbocker Motion Picture Theater Saturday night, Washington's worst disaster in many years, took a toll of at least 107 dead and 250 injured, according to the latest estimate by police and firemen.

Difficulty in getting to the victims planned under the heavy roof made rescue work extremely slow.

The sudden disaster, brought about by the collapse of the Knickerbocker roof under the weight of a heavy snow, stunned Washington and left a trail of tragedies that reaches out into probably 500 households of the national capital.

Only the severity of the blizzard raging here, the worst since 1899 prevented a far greater loss of life as the usual Saturday night movie crowd was kept at home by the snow.

It was believed that not more than 500 persons were in the place when the roof collapsed, carrying the balcony with it.

The great mass of metal, concrete and timbers smashed into the orchestra with little warning.

After a ceaseless labor throughout Saturday night and Sunday, workers among the ruins of the motion picture edifice, pride of the capital's movie fans, had yielded 107 bodies, dead or fatally injured.

Countless thousands of people trudged in awe-struck testimonial of the great storm, through the traffic blocked streets and along the snow swept highways from surrounding suburbs, to witness the tragic scenes in and about the movie sepulchre. Stalled street cars, scores of them, hundreds of abandoned automobiles and thousands of men plying with shovels and snowplows at the great drifts which smothered the city still testified Sunday to the greatness of the storm.

As the death toll of the tragedy grew Sunday and it was revealed that whole families had been wiped out, or that babies had been left without parents and parents without children, the city itself first realized the full horror that had struck it.

Guy S. Eldridge, brother-in-law of Senator Smoot, was among the first of the dead recovered. Leverage Sproul, nephew of Congressman El Hott Sproul of Illinois, was taken dead from the ruins late Sunday.

The whole family of Oscar G. Kanston, including his wife and two daughters, was wiped out. Thomas Fleming, his son and daughter and a sister were killed outright. Chauncey C. Brainard, Washington correspondent of the Brooklyn Eagle, perished with his wife.

Scores were injured, many of them frightfully. All hospitals in the city were crowded. Doctors, nurses, Red Cross workers and volunteers toiled without rest, caring for the injured and extending help to the stricken families of the dead.

Around the corner from the theater the Christian Science Church was an improvised morgue. Bodies were carried in and placed in rows on the concrete floor of the basement.

Within the walls, soldiers, volunteers and Government workers labored without rest to move the piles of debris. Acetylene torches were used to cut the beams beneath which bodies were hidden. Ropes were tied to the huge chunks of concrete and tractors or gangs of men would drag them into the street.

Many of those who missed death or were injured slightly walked home without waiting for first aid. Their relatives and friends, meantime learning of the disaster, rushed there only to be turned back by the guards. Outside the lines there was a screaming frantic mob. Some of those who came from the ruins were stoical. One girl blew kisses to firemen who had liberated her, others were hysterical, having left relatives and friends behind. One man was literally mad and had to be restrained by force. He had torn his clothes from his body, another professing to be unhurt, dropped dead not far from the theater. Some ran from the scene.

The comedy film "Get Rich-Willin' for'd" was being flashed on the screen at the time of the accident.

GOVERNMENT URGED TO ACCEPT FORD'S OFFER

FARM CONFERENCE INDORSES MUSCLE SHOALS PROJECT. FOR LOWER WAGES.

Washington.—The National agricultural conference concluded a five days session here Friday. This conference was characterized by Secretary Wallace of the Department of Agriculture as "the most representative gathering of agriculture" ever held. "It has been a good thing, for the farmers and the allied interests must cooperate to put agriculture on a sound and enduring basis.

"This conference has gained ground and I think we can hold that ground. We have presented constructive suggestions not only for the present, but for the working out of a sound agricultural policy for years to come."

Before adjourning, resolutions were adopted thanking President Harding and Secretary Wallace for calling the conference.

The conference went on record in adopting its transportation committee's report, as favoring participation by railroad labor and railroad corporations in the general price "deflation" after it had stricken from another committee's report a recommendation for repeal of the Adamson eight hour law and the "bringing down" of railroad and other industrial labor to parity with the former's return.

The long debate on wage "deflation" was at times vehement. The proposal was strenuously fought by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

The conference indorsed proposals that the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes waterway project be completed and recommended completion of the projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala., and urged that the Government accept Henry Ford's offer. Reduction of freight rates on farm products, live stock and products of allied industries to the basis prior to the increase of August, 1920, also were urged, as well as the restoration of certain rate-making powers to State Railroad Commissions.

Development of the Mississippi River as an artery of commerce was advocated.

Development of navigation on the Missouri, Ohio and Red River also was suggested in this report, as well as joint water and rail rates and terminals.

The conference went on record as opposing repeal of the Panama Canal tolls.

REPORT OF STATE SHEEP INSPECTOR IS RECEIVED

He announced that it is expected that a large number of counties now under quarantine will be released March 1.

BIG SUM FOR HIGHWAYS WILL COME TO TEXAS

Austin, Texas.—R. J. Windrow, State Highway Engineer has completed the certificate for the signature of Governor Neff, whereby Texas is to get $4,425,000 road funds from the Federal Government for the fiscal year ending June 30 next. All of this money has been allotted, and will be paid when the certificate is executed. It will be given as the monthly estimates on each project are approved. For the next fiscal year Texas expects to get $6,000,000. Mr. Windrow explains, also that amount for each of the two succeeding years.

Under the Federal act of Nov. 9, 1921, the States are given three years to provide State funds to match Federal highway apportionments and do away with the bond issues and appropriations by counties. It will be up to the Thirty-Eighth Legislature in January of 1923 to submit a constitutional amendment to conform to the Federal act and it must be adopted, otherwise Texas will lose Federal aid after the expiration of three years from No. 21, 1921.

- Earl Morley, Clerk.

Said election shall be held under and in accordance with the general election laws of the State of Texas governing City elections, and only qualified voters who are property taxpayers shall be allowed to vote, and all voters voting at said election shall have written or printed on their ballots the following words:

"FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS in the amount of Sixty thousand [$60,000.00] Dollars, maturing serially $1,000.00 on March 1st of each of the years 1923 to 1927, inclusive, $2,000.00 on March 1st of each of the years 1928 to 1947, inclusive, and $3,000.00 on March 1st of each of the years 1948 to 1952, inclusive, to bear interest at the rate of Six per cent [6 per cent] per annum, payable March 1st, 1923 and semi-annually thereafter, for the purpose of constructing water works extensions to the present water works system in and for said City, and for the levy of a tax on each one hundred dollars' valuation of taxable property in said City to pay the interest on said bonds and to create a sinking fund to redeem them at maturity."

"AGAINST THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS in the amount of Sixty Thousand [$60,000.00] Dollars, maturing serially, $1,000.00 on March 1st of each of the years 1923 to 1927, inclusive, $2,000.00 on March 1st of each of the years 1928 to 1947, inclusive, $3,000.00 on March 1st of each of the years 1948 to 1952, inclusive, to bear interest at the rate of Six per cent [6 per cent] per annum, payable March 1st, 1923 and semi-annually, thereafter, for the purpose of constructing water works extensions to the present water works system in and for said City, and against the levy of a tax on each one hundred dollars' valuation of taxable property in said City to pay the interest on said bonds and to create a sinking fund to redeem them at maturity."

tion of taxable property in said City to pay the interest on said bonds and to create a sinking fund to redeem them at maturity" so that all voters desiring to support the proposition to issue the bonds of said City for said purpose shall strike out the words "Against the issuance of bonds", etc., and those opposed to the issuance of bonds for said purpose shall strike out the words "For the issuance of bonds", etc.

A copy of this ordinance signed by the Mayor of said City and attested by the City Secretary, shall serve as a proper notice of said election, and the Mayor is directed to cause notice of said election to be published in the Baird Star, a newspaper of general circulation in Callahan County, Texas, for four consecutive weeks next preceding the date of said election, the first publication of which shall be more than thirty days preceding the date of said election, and in addition thereto, shall cause notices of said election to be posted at three public places in said City at least thirty days prior to the date of said election.

The development of the City of Baird and the necessity for the construction of water works extensions for the convenience of the citizens in said City and the preservation of the health and property in said City, creates an emergency requiring that the rule that ordinances be passed at more than one meeting of the City Council be suspended and said rule is suspended, and this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so ordained.

PASSED, this 20th day of January, A. D. 1922.

APPROVED, this 20th day of January, A. D., 1922.

R. Q. EVANS,

Mayor, City of Baird, Texas.

Attest:

C. E. WALKER,

City Secretary, City of Baird, Texas.

THE NEW BARBER BARBER LIGHT.

Many persons are still fond of the oil lamp to read by at home. In the house it still gives the amount of brilliancy desired. But lighting engineers claim superiority for the electric light in a fog.

An electric light of 1,000,000 candle-power is to be installed in the Santa Barbara lighthouse. The light itself is not 1,000,000 candle-power, but the light is intensified by the use of reflectors ingeniously cut and placed. In clear weather the light will not be visible any further than the old oil lamp, which shines 20 miles. The light is 178 feet above sea level and 20 miles is the horizon limit. But in foggy weather the new light will be visible two or three miles in place of one mile, the limit of the oil lamp's beams.

Why Suffer?

Cardui "Did Wonders for Me," Declares This Lady.

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R. Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back — especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset.

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

"I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was benefiting me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made." Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trouble.

One man says there never was so much law breaking as at present. A friend replied: "That is true; but, have you thought of it?—there never were so many laws to break!" That is one trouble; we have piled up criminal laws until many law abiding people have lost the respect they once had for law. However, the great increase of criminal laws is no excuse for breaking any law. A law abiding citizen will obey all laws, whether or not he endorses all of them.

If President Harding ever had any idea that the Armament Conference pact would supplant the League of Nations, he is disillusioned by this time. The League of Nations seems to be gaining in favor in Europe, while the Armament Conference has accomplished very little. Japan holds on to all the territory she took from China and in many ways either outgeneraled the other nations or they were forced to make concessions to Japan to keep the little brown men from flying the coop.

That was a good cartoon John Knott had in the Dallas News Sunday, "Lochinvar Comes Out of the West." He has Cox, the last Democratic presidential nominee, armed and equipped as a "knight of old," with a League of Nations pennant attached to his lance. The old Democratic Mule seems to be making tremendous speed, much more than he made two years ago.

Governor Cox does not seem to be satisfied with one "solemn referendum" on the League, but wants another. The thing that concerns every Democrat is: We wonder if Cox will ride the Mule to death, as Bryan did? If we nominate Cox again two years hence and make the League of Nations the issue, from the outlook now, the Republicans need not spend a dollar to win hands down.

The American people showed that they were so overwhelmingly opposed to the League in 1920 that it would be rank foolishness for the Democrats to try it again. Will they? Will Cox be the nominee again? We hope not.

Cox was mashed so flat in the last election that he does not seem to know what hit him. He wants a second "solemn referendum" on the League of Nations. The first was "solemn" enough to satisfy any reasonable Democrat, but Cox does not seem to be a reasonable Democrat. Byan insisted on paramounting the silver issue, when it was not near as dead as the issue over the League of Nations, and all Democrats know what we got out of the silver issue.

We held the party together until the Republican party split wide open in 1912. That was the reason and the only reason Wilson was elected in 1912. In at least one of his campaigns Bryan received more of the popular vote than Wilson, but the electoral votes went to Wilson. The split in the Democratic party in 1860 elected Lincoln. The Democrats then got the popular vote and Lincoln got the electoral vote.

Governor Neff has been criticised for declaring martial law at Mexia and sending State Troops and Rangers there. It is easy for one on the outside, with no responsibility for the enforcement of the laws, to criticise office. The Governor of Texas is charged with the enforcement of all laws and it is his duty to see that all laws are enforced, regardless of public praise or criticism. Mexia had the name of being the toughest oil town in Texas, present or past, months before Governor Neff declared martial law there. Whether he was justified in sending troops there we do not know, because we have not been there, but we know as much about conditions there as some who criticise the Governor for his course; but we shall give Governor Neff the benefit of a doubt and assume that he is perfectly justified.

You see he is Governor and the editor of The Star is not. Governor Neff has great responsibility in seeing that the laws are enforced. The editor of The Star has no responsibility in the matter, except as a duty he owes the public to aid the State officers in the enforcement of the laws, by—in his limited way—doing what he can to create public sentiment in favor of law and order.

Every hijacker and gambler who has been arrested or forced to flee from Mexia, no doubt believes Governor Neff has shivered the Constitution and fractured every State law for the punishment of crime, by declaring martial law. We do not mean, of course, that all who criticise Governor Neff are in sympathy with the criminals that have cursed Mexia. Far from it.

Let us be fair to State and county officers who are trying to stop the crime wave and help the officers, not throw obstacles in their way. Robbers, thieves and thugs do not deserve any sympathy. All they deserve and all the Constitution guarantees them is a fair and impartial trial. Criticising Governor Neff or local authorities anywhere, does not help enforce the laws but hinders enforcement.

Many foreigners in the United States surrendered their first naturalization papers and claimed exemption from military service during the war as aliens. The Naturalization Board has ruled that all such are forever barred from citizenship of the United States. That is right. Many who had taken out only their first papers are not included, because they did not claim exemption as aliens.

Every foreigner who withdrew his first naturalization papers and claimed exemption from military service is an undesirable citizen in this or any other country, and it is likely, that as they cannot become citizens, they may be deported.

Any man who will not stand loyally by his country in time of war and do what he can to aid his country, does not deserve anything at the hands of his country. Many of these cantankerous foreign anarchists during the war may yet get a call and free transportation to their own country at any time. They never calculated that Uncle Sam has a long and a strong arm and a mind that does not forget treason at home while our boys were trudging through the mud at the battle front in France.

should forgive his enemies. The Bible teaches us that, but when it comes to a government forgiving its enemies at home for all offences, who were doing all in their power, by disloyal acts, to hamper the conduct of the war, by blowing up munition factories and trying to interfere with the transportation of troops and supplies to Europe, do not deserve forgiveness. The perpetuity of our government demands that all such should either be deported or imprisoned for life.

As the war is over the least punishment that should be meted out to those who committed overt acts of treason during the war, should be deported and forever barred from returning, even on a visit, to this country. Let foreigners and all other undesirables that to be an American citizen is no small privilege.

The proud boast of the great Apostle Paul was that he was a Roman citizen. It is a greater honor to be a citizen of the United States, the greatest nation on earth. The way to keep it so is to respect its laws in time of peace and defend it in time of war. All sins, Jesus Christ told his Apostles, should be forgiven, except sin against the Holy Ghost. Some things no government can forgive. Overt acts or treason in time of war is one of them.

BLACK MONSTER SPRANG FROM FOG

Mrs. W. Grant Bowlus and her son, Lawrence, passed through an experience at about 10:45 o'clock Tuesday, the chilling horror of which will remain hauntingly with them as long as they both do live, for never did two people come so near to death and escape with only a painful jolting.

They were on their way, in the Bowlus Ford roadster, to Abilene, to welcome the arrival of a tiny granddaughter and niece, Miss Nena Juanita Ramsey, first born of Mr.

and Mrs. Hal H. Ramsey, Jr.

It will be remembered that it was damp and foggy that morning and the misty moisture clouded the windshield of the Bowlus car. Lawrence was driving and, as they approached the T. & P. Railway crossing, four miles east of Clyde, he wiped the clouded windshield clean and bade his mother "watch out" for possible danger, and she obediently bent forward and peered out. "Suddenly!" explained Lawrence, "a great black monster sprang out of the fog and was on us—there was a crash—the roadster was upturned—there followed a succession of loud bumps that shook the car, and when I got my thoughts together I was wedged into the top of the crushed car and mother was on top of me, pinned beneath the driving wheel!"

The car had been struck by the engine of Passenger Train No. 4, which was late, it had crashed into the roadster's radiator, upturned the car and twisted it end for end. The succession of bumps that followed the first crash, was the rear part of the wrecked auto bumping into the railway coaches as the train dashed by.

The engineer brought his train to a standstill and the passengers rushed out to the rescue and helped out the occupants of the car, neither of whom had sustained a wound, although muscle sore from the terrific buffeting they had received. Mrs. Bowlus returned to Baird, secured another car and continued her journey to Abilene. Lawrence patched up his busted roadster and slowly wobbled back to Baird.

"Grandpa" Bowlus was divided in his joy over the miraculous escape of his wife and eldest son from a horrible death and that ecstatic delirium which takes full possession of a man's soul when he becomes a granddaddy for the first time.

"I know she is not the only grandchild in the world," he modestly admitted. "There are others, of course—lots of them—but none like little Nena Juanita Ramsey!"

A Bank Account is proof of earnest effort and accomplishment

A bank account shows that you are seeking to make the most of your efforts and your time.

It is, besides, a mark of solidity. It gives a man a standing in the eyes of others as a solid citizen.

The world confers its favors on those who prove capable of doing justice to themselves as well as to others. Injustice to yourself you should start a bank account.

Ben Allen, of Oplin, who is one of the most aggressively enterprising merchants in Callahan County, was in Baird Monday, full of pep, as usual, his brain surging with new schemes for increasing business by liberally judicious advertising. He has reorganized the Johnson-Allen Company, of which he was the efficient manager, and hereafter it will be known as The Ben Allen Company, increasing the capital of the corporation from $10,000 to $20,000 and opening a branch store at Lawn, which is the shipping point of the Oplin section. One of his unique business propositions is this: For five days only, beginning tomorrow, he is going to offer his entire stock of winter dry goods at greatly reduced prices, for cash or credit. If one wants credit, a note due October 1st, bearing ten per cent interest, will have the same purchasing power as cash.

Manager Ed Merrell is busy these days, preparing for the presentation of "The Fruits of His Folly," the five act comedy drama to be presented at the School Auditorium, Friday night, February 17, for the benefit of the Ross Cemetery Fund. Mr. Merrell declares that the action of the play will "flood your eyes with sympathetic tears and stretch your mouths with uproarious laughter, so suddenly does it change from pathos to mirth and vice versa." That looks promising to The Star, and the house that night should be a capacity one. The play is presented for the benefit of a most holy cause, and everybody who can, should most assuredly be there. The admission price is only 35c for grownups and 20c for kiddies.

PERSONALS

Two young girls and a young man were apprehended this week by municipal officers on vagrancy charges.

Miss Eva Reed, who is teaching at Cottonwood, visited the home folks last Saturday.

There are quite a number of visiting oil men in the city looking over oleaginous prospects in Callahan County.

Wm. J. Evans, of Cottonwood, candidate for Tax Assessor, attended the Fifth Sunday Meeting at Clyde last week.

Her many friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Claude Gates, who has been indisposed for several days, is now much better.

The Star is requested to announce that there will be a meeting of the Pythian Sisters next Thursday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock at Pythian Hall.

Seven T. & P. roundhouse employes were laid off yesterday, in accordance with the economic policy of the road's receiver to reduce operating expenses all along the line.

City Marshal W. L. Ashton reports that 579 poll taxes were paid this year in the Municipality of Baird, the largest number in its history. Oh! Baird is growing—and then some.

The pupils of Mrs. C. B. Holmes' piano class will give a recital at the School Auditorium, Monday night, February 6th, at 7:15 o'clock, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to come and be musically entertained.

County Superintendent B. C. Chrisman has been notified that in about thirty days a State School Supervisor will pay Callahan County Schools a visit and give them the expert once over.

Engineer Perry Gilliland, at the steering wheel of the city's big tractor roller yesterday, with the road scraper as a trailer, was busy filling up the holes and smoothing out the bumps on Market Street.

Ben Allen, one of Callahan County's most enterprising business men, was in Baird Monday and ordered a big bunch of printing at The Star Job Printery, to boom his flourishing mercantile business at Oplin.

A State Fire Inspector was in Baird last week and a State Sanitary Inspector this week. They gave Baird the expert once over and declared that the establishments coming under their purview were, except in a few minor particulars, O. K. as to protection against fire and disease.

The Baird Light & Ice Company's expert electricians are installing a number of attractive electric signs and they show up bravely. The one in front of Ray's Garage, on East Mac Bell Avenue, and the one at the Snelton Motor Company's salesroom on Market Street can be distinctly read at night as far as you can see them.

The Baird Brass Band has reorganized, and is now in a most flourishing condition. Fifteen new members were taken in at a recent meeting, new instruments will be purchased and, under the competent tutelage of Bandmaster C. E. Strain, the band will be brought to the highest point of musical efficiency, toward which desirable end its members are now industriously and enthusiastically tooting.

Deputy Collectors of Internal Revenue W. E. Michael and P. C. Beard, of Abilene, notify The Star that one of them will be in Baird Saturday, Sunday and Monday, February 18, 19 and 20, for the purpose of assisting individual taxpayers in the preparation of their 1921 Income Tax returns. One of them will be in Clyde for the same purpose Friday, February 17 and in Moran Tuesday, February 21.

American Public Service Company engineers were out on East Mac Bell Avenue Saturday afternoon, making a survey for a standard width cement sidewalk, that the Baird Light & Ice Company, in company with abutting property owners, is to build from Ray's Garage to the site of their purposed reicing station, work on which will soon begin and be pushed to a speedy completion.

Our own Honorable W. R. Ely, judge of the 42d District Court, who exchanged with Judge George Dav-enport, of the 91st District Court, at Eastland Wednesday, who was disqualified in the tax suit brought by Chastain, Judkins & Chastain, to invalidate Eastland County road bonds, was also disqualified, he being a property owner in Eastland County, and therefore an interested party in the suit.

The Star next week will print an article dealing with the Water Question in Baird, giving in detail what the $60,000 of the proposed bond issue will do, the estimated cost of each item and what Baird people will get for the money so expended. Every householder and every taxpayer should read this article carefully, analyze it thoroughly and from its study make deductions that will enable them to vote intelligently on the bond issue question.

Alfred R. Wells, the singer in the Freeman revival at the Methodist Church, is an overseas veteran and served in the same regiment and same company, we believe, with Raymond Foy, 110th regiment, 28th division. If Mr. Wells taught like he sings, we are sure there was something moving with a vim in his sector while the American boys were giving Fritz the worst licking he ever got in all history.

S. G. Roberts, contractor out in the Deep Creek Shallow Oil Field, was a pleasant caller at The Star office Wednesday. Mr. Roberts, we learn, is a native of the editor's old home county, Washington. He served in the navy, on the U. S. S. Wyoming, along the English coast, during the World War, and witnessed the sinking of the German fleet at Scapa Flow. Mr. Roberts speaks encouragingly of the Deep Creek Shallow Oil Field.

The four steel Roads-to-Baird-Markers have been set up at the corporate line on the North, South, East and West highways. These markers are about a yard square, are of quarter inch steel, firmly fastened to steel poles, which are deeply planted in the ground. Welcome sentences are painted on each side in white letters on a red ground. As you enter Baird you read: "You are entering the City of Baird, where you are welcome." If you are leaving the city the sign reads: "You are leaving the City of Baird. Come again." These unique advertisements were installed through the efforts of the Baird Progressive Club.

President of the Callahan County Purebred Livestock Association M. W. Armistead, of Putnam, is determined to found a County Fair in Callahan, the better to advertise its agricultural potentialities, and he has a fashion of getting what he goes after. To demonstrate the great advantages of his urge practically, he has combined with the Chamber of Commerce and the live business men of Putnam, and tomorrow in our enterprising sister town, he will demonstrate with a combined trade's day, horse show, cattle, hog and poultry exhibit, what a wonderful thing it would be for Callahan County if we all got together, organized a permanent Fair Association, located at some central point, where yearly exhibits of the county's splendid diversified products may be made. It will surely jazz you up pridefully if you run over to Putnam tomorrow and take in the show. It may be a compelling inducement to announce that all their guests will be served that day with a big barbecue dinner by the hospitable Putnamites.

If only laws that every one en-dorses are enforced, then so laws will be enforced. Our theory has always been to aid in enforcing all laws. We cannot have a government worth bears any other way.

HOG BEST PAYING FARM ANIMAL

I have had ten or twelve years experience in the hog business. I have studied it as closely as any man ever did, both breeding and feeding; there is still much to be learned.

I have bought champion and grand champion blood and I don't regret the high prices I paid, for, if a man starts right, it is easier to stay right. Some will tell you that a hog is a hog; that the corn crib makes him what he is. It is not true. It is the older heads that tell you that corn is the only hog feed. It would do to waste feed years ago, when feed was cheap, but the time has come when we should know how to feed for the best profit.

Mr. Sam Little, of Big Spring, showed at the Texas State Fair in 1919, four pigs in the senior class, weighing two thousand pounds. Did he pick scrubs for this show? "And, did he feed them corn? No! They were pure breed, and he did not feed them corn, as some would have done. He fed them protein feeds to grow them as fast as possible. Such feeds as oats, milk and tankage grow muscle, bone and frame. When you get the frame as large as you want it, then you should mix corn meal to put on fat. Not much whole grain is good for hogs, but it should be crushed.

It is said that a brood sow is the queen of all farm animals and a mortgage lifter, and I am sure you have not an animal on your farm that will make you any more clear money than a brood sow, if properly cared for.

We farmers of Callahan County should get rid of all scrub stock and replace them with pure breeds and plant better seeds on our farms. We would make more money and make this part of Texas worth living in.

TOM EDWARDS,
The Clyde Hog Breeder.

BANKHEAD HIGHWAY IN BAD FIX

The Dallas News advises auto tourists over the Bankhead Highway, en route for El Paso and California, to avoid that thoroughfare between Big Spring and Kent and route themselves over the Central Texas Highway, via San Angelo and Fort Stockton, in obedience to a suggestion made last week by the Dallas Automobile Club.

At present a great deal of work is being done on the Bankhead Highway between Big Spring and Kent and the detours, as a consequence, are so numerous, that it is thought advisable to take the other route.

The distance to El Paso by way of the Central Texas Highway is 704 miles, as compared with 608 via the Bankhead Highway, but due to the better condition of the former road, time will be saved by motorists taking the longer route. The Central Texas Highway joins the Bankhead Highway east of Kent.

TREASURY SAVINGS CERTIFICATES

Postmaster M. J. Holmes has made official announcement that his office is now ready to fill all orders for the new issue of 1922 Treasury Savings Certificates of the registered series. Denominations include $1,000, $100 and $25. A change in both price and interest yield makes the securities of the new issue very attractive for investing or saving at this time, he said.

The certificates cost $800 $80 and $20, respectively. Each denomination pays the investor an interest yield that, in five years, amounts to 25 per cent on the original investment. The interest rate, which is compounded, is 4 1/2 per cent, compounded semi-annually, if held until maturity. These Certificates mature exactly five years from the date on which they are purchased.

"To the person who may have need of his money before maturing," said Postmaster Holmes, "the fact that they are readily and promptly convertible into hard, cold cash is of interest. At any time before maturity certificates of the new issue may be cashed at their original purchase price, plus 3 1/2 per cent compounded semi annually."

The maximum annual investment holding has now been increased from $1,000 maturity value to $5,000 maturity value.

"This makes it possible," concluded Postmaster Holmes, "to obtain the $5,000 limit for $4,000. The limit may be held by a person, all members of a family, corporation, partnership, association, organization, etc. At the time of purchase the certificates are registered in the purchaser's name and the United States Government guarantees him from loss or depreciation in any way. It is not generally known that certificates can be registered in the alternate, to one person payable at death to another, or in many other convenient ways."

Fordson

TRADE MARK

When Henry Ford set about building the Fordson Tractor he had a thorough understanding of just what it should be and what it should do. His early life on the farm gave him a deep insight into the daily life of the farmer; his mechanical genius saw the type of tractor needed. He began work on a farm tractor thirty-five years ago, and for more than twelve years he experimented over more than 7,000 acres of land in different kinds of soil, with different crops.

So he built the the Fordson. It is so simple that a schoolboy can operate it. It is low in first cost. It is lowest in operating cost and Fordson service are always to be had promptly from the dealer.

The Fordson is a profitable investment. It can be used every working day in the year. It is an inexpensive power plant that will lighten your farm work. It has proven its worth on more than one hundred thousand farms not only in operating implements in the fields but in belt and pulley work. And it doesn't eat when idle.

Don't delay ordering your Fordson tractor. The demand is greater than the supply.

MRS. G. O. CRESWELL HOME AGAIN

According to the Abilene Reporter, Mrs. G. O. Creswell, whose husband has a large ranch south of Oplin, has returned to the Creswells' Abilene home after a four months' stay in Europe. While in Europe Mrs. Creswell visited many places of interest, including points in France and England.

Mrs. Creswell spent seven weeks in Paris where she accompanied her daughter, Miss Elsie, who remained to study in the French University of Sorbonne, taking a full course in French. Miss Creswell is most delightfully situated in Paris, making her home with Madame Muzio, whose history is most interesting. She was born in Boston and at the age of six weeks was taken to Paris. At one time she was a famous grand opera singer of Italy.

Madame Muzio is a sister of Mr. Simmons, acknowledged by the French government as one of the most famous of modern dream painters, one of his paintings which won him much fame was the dream picture of the opening scene of Paris.

By request of Madame Wagner, Mr. Simmons was buried at the feet of Richard Wagner, in Germany, and Madame Muzio was visiting his grave when the war broke out and she was not permitted to return to France. She came to the United States, where she became a teacher in Bryn Mawr College, returning at the close of the war to her home in Paris.

It is in the delightful environment of this home that Miss Creswell is now living. After a year's study in the Sorbonne University Miss Creswell expects to go to Tours, France, where she will continue her studies in French.

Mrs. Emma Johnson Elkins, wife of Captain J. M. Elkins, of Old Camp Colorado, died Wednesday, January 18, at the age of seventy-three years. Interment was made in the family burial plot near Old Camp Colorado, where she had lived for more than sixty years. She is survived by several children, all grown, and her venerable husband, who is an ex-Ranger, served in the Indian wars and was among the first sheriffs of Coleman County after its organization.

Several years ago Mrs. Elkins compiled an interesting history of Old Camp Colorado Post, which was the first place to be settled in Coleman County, in 1857. She was the daughter of Dudley Johnson, who came to Camp Colorado in 1861 and had previously served 45 years in the United States Army, was a veteran of many wars, including the Mexican War, in which he served throughout. He was also a soldier in the Black Hawk, Florida and Seminole Wars.

Her venerable father lived at Old Camp Colorado until his death in 1870, while her mother survived fourteen years longer. Mrs. Elkins
