TEXANS IN MEXICO ATTEND BULLFIGHT

Mexico City, Dec. 5.—After six days of entertainment and sight-seeing, the party of Texans attending the inauguration of Alvaro Obregon as President of Mexico, headed by Governor William P. Hobby, left tonight on their special train for the return trip to Texas.

Never were guests more royally treated and entertained than were the Americans who came to Mexico for the inauguration. Even the United States with all its hospitality, never entertained whole trainloads of people as have the Mexicans in the last six days. A sample of this enthusiasm was given today. There were automobile rides around the city and country, luncheons and two banquets tonight. There was a bullfight in the afternoon, at which the visitors were guests, and a grand ball tonight. Members of the Texas delegation had tickets to all of the entertainments.

Many of the Texans this morning visited the famous old churches, in most of which works of art were viewed. Elaborate ceremonies were held, typical of the Catholic Church. Some of these edifices are centuries old.

There were more than 30,000 people at the bullfight this afternoon. The matador is one of the most prominent in Mexico and has a large following. President Obregon broke a precedent of long standing by attending the fight and sitting with the masses instead of in the presidential box, as is the usual custom. He was loudly cheered by the people when he entered.

There was an affectionate leaving party tonight when Governor Hobby and other Texans bade their Mexican hosts goodbye. President Obregon was unusually cordial and solicitous about the enthusiasm accorded the visitors and about their welfare on the return trip to the United States.

Governor Hobby gave President Obregon assurances that the Mexican people have the heartfelt gratitude of the people of Texas and renewed his invitation for President Obregon and Secretary of Foreign Relations Hidalgo to visit him in Texas. Secretary Hidalgo is considered almost sure to accept the invitation and President Obregon is expected to at least send a commission.

One of the banquets given last night was by the Americans in honor of President Obregon at the American Club. At the other Mexicans were the hosts. Governor Hobby attended both. There was much speech-making and felicitations complimentary to Mexico, President Obregon and permanent peace and prosperity, besides many expressions of friendship.

Mayor Frank W. Wozencraft of Dallas was loudly cheered when he presented President Obregon with a gold pen and gold pencil of handsome design. Major W. Wozencraft complimented the Dallas Chamber of Commerce for its efforts in establishing cordial relations.

At nearly all the functions given during the last week Texans have been accorded places of honor. Governor and Mrs. Hobby have invariably been seated with President and Mrs. Obregon.

The people of Mexico appear to want and to highly value the friendship of the people of Texas, and everything possible has been done to show their good will.

No expense or time has been spared in entertainment for the visitors and the Texans have shown their appreciation of this hospital-

Commercial interests of Mexico are predicting that if Galveston and Houston merchants will maintain a schedule of vessels to Mexican ports they will receive a profitable business from Mexico.

A city election was held in Mexico City and the voting was as orderly and entirely without untoward events as was the inauguration of President Obregon at midnight last Tuesday night.

RANGER ASKS WHY RANGERS ARE SENT

Austin, Texas, Dec. 2.—Presence of State Rangers in the city of Ranger should not be taken as a reflection upon the competency of local officers or as an indication that any specific situation exists which is beyond control, according to a telegram sent today by Acting Adjutant General T. J. Powers in reply to a telegram from Ranger Chamber of Commerce protesting the presence of Rangers in that city.

Major Powers also replied to a telegram of inquiry from the Ranger Daily Times regarding the Rangers as follows: "The purpose of State Rangers anywhere is to protect all good citizens against depredations upon their property and rights. A policy of this department based on good judgement forbids me to advise you name of party, if any, who requested rangers."

"Regarding your telegram date I am directed by the Governor to advise that the presence of rangers in your city, if there be any, should not be taken as a reflection upon the competency of local officers or that any specific situation exists that is beyond control. On the other hand this department feels it its duty to call upon you as good citizens, your officials as good officers, to co-operate to your utmost with Texas Rangers in their work. Your town and country being the hub and rail head of that great oil district, it is natural that rangers will be in and out in an effort to run down crimes possibly committed elsewhere, therefore, it is not thought possible to issue any order that would forbid any State Ranger from entering your city. Surely you appreciate that to restrict any part of Texas from State Rangers would be to form an asylum for the criminals whom they are endeavoring to run down."

Railroad Mine, Forest Now Owned By Henry Ford.

During the past two months Henry Ford and The Ford Motor Company have purchased the Detroit Toledo and Ironton Railroad, a 400,000 acre timber tract in Northern Michigan, and a coal mine in Kentucky. And it is expected that other purchases will be made.

Two thousand railroad workers are automatically made "Ford men." In the near future they will be permitted to share in the investment opportunity with the thousands of other Ford employees. The minimum wage-system and bonus distribution will also apply to the railroad men.

The Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad will soon be known by another name. Avoiding congested centers, the railroad is direct line to the coal fields of Southern Ohio, and the West Virginia and Kentucky boundaries. Solid coal trains may be routed through to Detroit without delay or interference.

Timber from virgin forests of the Upper Peninsula of Michigan will be used to furnish lumber for Ford automobile bodies and other requirements. Another link added to the chain of Ford industries is the Ford saw mill located just outside of Detroit.

These acquisitions are wonderful links in the chain of Ford industries. Fewer outside organizations are being depended upon year by year. Already work on the Ford cars and tractors commences with the ore in Ford mines. Soon the coal will be transported from mines on a Ford railroad, and soon the timber will be cut in Ford's virgin forests.

Henry Ford's pay roll now contains 100,000 people.

INTOXICATED COW PROVIDES CLEW TO STILL IN HAY LOFT.

Albany, Texas, Dec. 6.—About two weeks ago two men rented an old house in the outskirts of town. J. W. George's cow began to improve in milk pretty soon, and on investigation she was found to be in a beastly state of intoxication from the effects of an overdose of mash.

Sheriff Biggs made a raid and got two men with a large capacity still installed up in the loft, a large quantity of mash and considerable finished products, it is said.

Numerous sacks of grain and several hundred pounds of sugar also were captured, it is reported. Two men are now in jail.

METHODIST FOREIGN MISSIONARY NOTES

African Rises From Headsman to Christian.

Story of Chilolo, Once Expert At Torture, But Now Faithful Servant of Church.

During his early life Chilolo was an executioner for one of the worst chiefs in Central Africa. This chief used to torture his own people for amusement. He would frequently have a house filled with human beings and then set fire to it. At other times he would catch a strong man, tie great bundles of grass to him, and set fire to this, so as to use the charred remains as a medicine to rub on his body.

One of his favorite pastimes was to cut off the fingers, hands, nose, lips, or ears of his subjects. On one of our trips to Lusambo our caravan man showed us the precipice about 100 feet high where this chief hurled a number of his followers to the crocodiles waiting below. He was executed by the Belgian government about twenty-five years ago.

Chilolo, together with others of his followers, revolted against the Belgian government because of their being killed. Of course they were defeated, and Chilolo now carries in his body a piece of lead as a result of that fight.

After this he wandered away and finally came to the Presbyterian Mission at Luebo. He became a Christian, and being a Batatela joined our forces when we went out first to establish our mission, going with us to Wembo Niama.

His faithfulness soon attracted the attention of our missionaries, and he was made sentry over the tools and other hardware at the carpenter shop. Of course all tools were inventoried, but nails and other small articles were simply placed in kegs without any accurate account being kept of the exact number of them.

To express what this means one could say that it is equal to placing a white man as treasurer of the United States, with only the large bills and bonds counted, all the silver and small change being piled up in one corner with no account kept of the amount.

To him this amount of tools and other hardware was undreamed-of wealth; but he has been absolutely faithful to the trust.

On one occasion when my wife and Mrs. Mumpower were left alone on the mission over night, I jokingly told him that I wanted him to take good care of them during my absence, and the following morning they found that he had walked all night long around the house. There is no person either white or black whom I would trust further to protect my wife and babies from danger, as far as his intellect would permit him, and this great change has come in his life as a direct result of the Christian religion.

Ivey Hospital Shows Increase

The growth in usefulness of Ivey Hospital at Songdo, Korea, has been phenomenal this year.

The number of total treatments given has jumped from 7,023 to 12,831; 1,318 confessions of faith were reported for this year as against 57 last year.

It is a significant fact that more than five thousand of this increase in treatments came from the city of Songdo itself, indicating that the ice of conservatism is breaking in the most tradition loving city in Korea.

The cholera epidemic of last fall drove a large number of people to the hospital for the prophylactic vaccine, but may we hope that those who found their way to the hospital for this purpose will come to us when the need arises in other directions.

Many of the hospital workers have given splendid service not only in the hospital, but in the work of the church. Dr. Ha as been very active in the work with the young people. Messrs. Noh and Kim, the bookkeepers, have spent hours and hours translating into Korean some pamphlets which are to be used in evangelistic work among the patients. They would accept no financial reward for their labors. Such is the spirit of the workers in this great hospital.

Making the Sun Act as a Stove.

Making bread and roasting meat on the summit of a mountain without fuel is possible by the use of a device invented by scientist of the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D. C. The intensity of the sun's rays is harnessed, the unused energy is capitalized and food can be cooked beyond the line of perpetual snow.

The astronomical mirror at the Smithsonian Institute is capable of receiving and measuring the energy of sun's rays, calculating that in summer the solar luminary transmits upon each acre of land energy equivalent to 7,500 horsepower, says the Scientific American.

The so-called "solar cooker" consists of a half-cylinder of iron lined with mirror glass, which catches the rays of the sun and concentrates them upon a metal tube. The tube contains oil, which expands and becomes lighter by the heat as it passes through the tube. The latter is continued to form a loop outside the half-cylinder thus making a sort of endless chain.

Passing through the loop the oil cools. However the portion of the tube inside the half-cylinder compels the cooled oil to follow it, otherwise there would be a vacuum. So while the sun shines there is a continuous circulation of the oil. The loop passes through a box which contains an oven. Heat from the oil warms the oven and does the desired cooking.—Ex.

Building a Church in Korea.

Last year, as a result of the Centenary campaigns, Mr. Joe S. Martin, of Cynthiana, Ky., became impressed that he should do more for the spread of the Gospel. His interest turned toward Korea. When there was offered to him opportunity to build a church at Injay, on the Choon Chun District, at a cost of $600, he and his daughter, Miss Lula, gladly embraced it. The church is now under construction and will be known as the "Martin Memorial." It is the port of memorial that will be a continual source of joy and blessing to all concerned.

MEDICAL COLLEGE INQUIRY CLOSES

Austin, Texas, Dec. 2.—The investigation committee considering removal of the medical department of the University of Texas from Galveston concluded its sessions here today and left the drafting of its formal report to Chairman Leonard Tillotson.

The meetings of the committee were executive and it was announced that its findings would not be made public before being submitted to the Governor. This probably will be within the next ten days.

"We have agreed upon a report," Chairman Tillotson said this afternoon, "which will be put into shape and sent to all members before being filed with the Governor."

Mr. Tillotson added that in pursuing the inquiry as outlined by the resolution of the Legislature, the committee has been compelled to consider the entire question as affecting the University of Texas as a whole. The advisability of removing the medical branch was agitated in connection with improvements contemplated for the entire institution.

The committee did not take into consideration bids from any cities seeking location of the school should it be decided to move it from Galveston. Those present at the meeting of the committee today were: Representative Leonard Tillotson of Austin County, chairman; Dr. A. C. Scott of Temple; W. H. Fuqua of Amarillo; T. A. Reed of Beaumont; Representative C. T. Bass of San Marcos. Dr. Everett Jones of Wichita Falls and Senator W. H. Bledsoe of Lubbock, who were appointed on the committee, were not present at today's meeting.

NEAR EAST RELIEF

Dallas, Texas.—A Christmas offering to the starving children of Armenia and the Near East is being asked by the Texas Near East Relief Organization, headed by Charles L. Sanger of Dallas, State Chairman. This urgent appeal for sharing with the destitute Christians this Christmas is termed as most imperative, with winter setting in and the necessity for redoubled relief work.

"Recent Turkish massacres upon Christian race," the appeal state, "has resulted in bringing to the Near East Relief thousands and thousands of little children, but because of shortage of room and relief supplies it has been necessary to turn them away from the doors of our 229 orphanages, now caring for over 110,000 little orphaned children. Those that we have been compelled to turn away will undoubtedly die before next spring, as few of them were sufficiently clad to withstand the coming winter, and with no source of food supply, the result is evident."

The Near East Relief has on hand only sufficient funds and supplies to care for these orphans and over 600,000 Christian refugees for a period of six weeks, it was announced, and the result of the present appeal for a Christmas offering will determine whether or not the remnant of this Christian race can be saved until the activities of the League of Nations and President Wilson as mediator can be felt.

The people of Texas are asked to rush their contribution and Christmas Thank offering to the Texas headquarters of the Near East Relief at Dallas in order that they may be converted into food supplies and medical supplies before the first of the year.

"Seventeen cents a day," stated O. M. Lowry, State Secretary, "will feed one of these little starving Christian orphans, and Texas has an appointment of 5,000 of them to keep alive."

FORD BURNS, BUT THE OWNER KNOWS IT NOT.

The latest Ford story comes from Augusta, Georgia. "A Ford was sanding in front of a fashionable hotel on Peachtree street," says the Daily Chronicle, "it caught fire and six fire companies came and put it out, and went back to their respective station houses. Again it caught fire and the fire companies came a second time; put it out and returned to their stations. Then the owner of the Ford came out the hotel, cranked up, got in, and rode away."

MORE RANGERS ARE RUSHED TO RANGER

Ranger, Texas, Dec. 6.—News that a company of Texas Rangers had been ordered to this city fell like a bombshell on the community today and many citizens here are of the opinion that conditions do not justify the use of state constabulary.

They declare that the sending of Rangers gives the town a bad reputation and that "unfriendly" feeling that has developed as a result of the state action has its origin in that belief.

There have recently been some six or eight arrests here on gambling and whisky selling charges. Frank Watkins was shot Saturday night after his alleged resisting arrest, when several gallons of whisky were seized in his store. He is in a city hospital with good chances for recovery.

Rangers Gonzales and Koonzman were arrested here and placed in jail at Eastland by Sheriff Nolley, following the Watkins shooting. Ranger officials and citizens had nothing to do with the arrest of the Rangers, it is declared, and it was regarded here as a purely formal action such as usually taken in like cases.

Citizens here feel that the state officers will find no more law violators in this city than they would in other Texas cities, and are said to be on cordial terms with members of the constabulary. City police and deputy sheriffs declare they have co-operated with the Rangers on duty here in all matters having to do with invoking law and order.

The action taken in ordering the Ranger company here followed the receipt by the attorney general of a telegram which stated that Rangers Gonzales and Koonzman are confined in jail at Ranger, where the citizens and Rangers are "unfriendly," following the wounding of a man in a raid participated in by the Rangers with a deputy. The telegram, which was signed by Ranger Captain R. W. Aldridge, requested that an assistant attorney general be sent to Ranger.

A MODERN TRAGEDY.

Black despair, cruel, biting days of agony, stretched out before her like the fingers of a miserable caravan finding its way across a desert land. Barren, empty hours were pressing down on the frail human spirit that was hers. Convulsive sobs shook the delicate shoulders, threatening to wrench the very heart out of the unhappy girl. Merciless gasps tore at her throat, ending in long continued moans.

Why was this bitterness served out to her? Why was fate so unkind? Oh, why did she have to be scourged thus—she who had been so light-hearted the day before, so care-free? But never again would things be as they were yesterday; never again could she laugh; no, not even smile. Never again could she trip down the streets; never again look the world in the face—a hard, unforgiving world. She would be whipped with taunts, hisses, and ugliness; shamed, disgraced, kicked, and cuffed about. Her life was wrecked and that of her hardworking father and mother. And they had loved her so, their darling baby; had sat and talked in the evening dusk of the time when they should come to live with her; had sacrificed and dreamed for her. Oh, why, why, was it thus?

If she had only used precaution! What diabolical spirit was it that had possessed her at that crucial moment? Why had not her frail conscience held out against malign influences? Why had she been so forgetful of the teachings and high ideals held up to her life? Why in one moment had she shattered her chance at happiness.

"Oh," she moaned, her storm-tossed soul seething with a maelstrom of emotions. "Why did I," she cried, bitter tears scorching her soft cheek, her nails cutting into her delicate palms, "Why did I go to town without my powder puff?"

BACKBITING

Did you ever stop to think how cowardly it is to try to build yourself up, not by producing anything yourself to minimize the production of others.

"Oh, Kate can play all right," you say, "but the time she keeps would do credit to a fire department. She simply runs away with the piano!"

What does this criticism accomplish? Where does it get you?

The person who is always watching his competitor, always running him down, always seeking to discredit him, is never able to hold the respect of anyone long at a time.

This is one game the human animal never tires of playing—backbiting. But he is always caught at the game sooner or later. Wormwood is still wormwood. Lemons are still sour. Fire still burns. When the showdown comes, we all have to produce the goods or back off the map.

Definition for a "Friend"

A short time ago a London newspaper offered a prize for the best definition of a "friend". Among the many thousand answers which were received, the one that was awarded the first prize was:

"The first person who comes in when the world goes out."
The second prize was given to the definition sent in by a small boy, who wrote:

"A friend is a fellow who knows all about you and likes you just the same."

Both of these definitions are worthy of thought.

How many times has every friend needed a friend "when all the world goes out" through the death of a loved one, the wreck of business or the failure to achieve one's most cherished desires! In those moments, many whom we have considered to be our friends have forsaken us. With the loss of money for so-called friends have melted away. With the decline of power and position these who have flattered us and made us believe that their friendship would be everlasting are found among the missing. It is on these occasions that the first person who is ready to lend a helping hand, to breathe a word of consolation in sorrow, be he the acquaintance of a day or a lifetime, he is a friend.

In these days of rush and hurry, of moving from one place to another as business or other requirements may dictate, we make many acquaintances, but few real friends, and as a man or woman advances toward middle life the chances of making new and tried friends diminish. It is those we have known since childhood, our school mates, our college chums our associates in business, who are our staunchest friends. Never in the glamour of the new, who come to us with fair words and specious promises, but who fade away like morning mist before the sun when storms of adversity arise, should we let go of an old friend.

Shakespeare knew the value of a friend when he wrote: "Those friends thou hast, and their adoption trial, Grapple them to thy soul with hoops of steel."

Yes, the old friends are the best—"the feller who knows all about you and likes you just the same."—Dear-born Independent.

"THE DIFFERENCE IS IN THE TONE"

As the Stradivarius and Cremona violins give the full beauty of the artist's tones, so does the singing throat of silver grain spruce bring forth the innermost beauty of the records with utmost purity. DEC. 15 LAST DAY FOR INCOME TAX INSTALLMENT.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Warning has been given by the Bureau of Internal Revenue that Dec. 15 is the last day upon which payment of the fourth installment of the 1920 income tax may be made, and that the payments must reach the branch office by midnight of that date. Impression exists among taxpayers that they have ten days' grace on this installment. Such was the provision in the 1917 revenue act, but was repealed in 1918.

FARMERS RECEIVE CHECKS FOR COTTON CROP FAILURE

Lewisville, Denton County, Texas, Dec. 2.—A number of farmers in this section have received their checks in final settlement of their cotton crop insurance. Cotton in this vicinity was a total loss in most cases. However, a number of farmers had taken out insurance, which has given them a better return than if they had made a good crop. One case is known in which a farmer made a fair crop of cotton, but could not realize expenses. A neighbor made a complete failure on his cotton and realized more on insurance than the other man made from his crop.

POSSUM AND 84 RATS KILLED IN THE SAME HOLE

Cleburne, Texas, Dec. 2.—A. W. Harper, T. C. Norman and P. Williams Wednesday killed eighty-four rats and captured a possum in one rat hole two miles north of the city. The rat hole was probed and water was poured in, and as the rodents came out they were killed by Mr. Williams' dog. Rats are proving to be very destructive in this country.

MURRY AND LIVE OAK SCHOOL DIST. CONSOLIDATED.

At the regular meeting, Monday, December 6th, the Young County School Board consolidated the Murray and Live Oak common schools districts. Petitions for the consolidation were signed by nearly 100 per cent of the qualified voters of the two districts, which was a creditable and progressive indication of the proper school spirit. Murray is now in line for the development of an up-to-date rural school. The County Superintendent expects to bring about a number of other consolidations, raises in local taxes, and construction of new buildings before the close of the current school year.

MOTORMAN COULD HARDLY MAKE RUN

Weak From Indigestion and Loss of Sleep He Was on the Verge of Giving Up

"I can recommend Tanlac from the bottom of my heart, for since taking this medicine I am enjoying better health than I have in years," said C. M. Frye, 2305 St. Joe avenue, St. Joseph, Mo., a motorman for the St. Joseph Street Railway.

"For two years I had suffered with a bad case of stomach trouble and indigestion. After every meal I bloated up with gas until I was simply in misery. Although I tried many different treatments and medicines I kept going down hill until I was hardly able to get around, and just had to force myself to work. I felt tired and drowsy all the time, and there was always a severe pain across the small of my back. I could get but little sleep, and in the mornings when I first got up I was so dizzy I could hardly keep from falling.

"I had not taken more than half of my first bottle of Tanlac before I noticed an improvement in my condition; and I kept getting better until today I have a fine appetite, eat just anything I want and never have a particle of trouble afterward. I have regained my strength so I can do my work as good as ever, and my nerves are in such good shape I can sleep like a child all night long. I always get up in the mornings feeling simply fine, never having a sign of dizziness."

Tanlac is sold in Graham by Sloan Drug Co., and in Newcastle by Leon Slaughter & Co.

ONE MAN KILLS 36 RATTLESNAKES IN DEN NEAR CHILDRESS

Childress, Texas, Dec. 1.—E. D. Brown of this city claims to be the champion rattlesnake hunter of Texas. A few days ago, on Judge M. J. Hathaway's farm, six miles south of Childress, he killed thirty-six rattlers in one den. The snakes had rattlers numbering from two to sixteen. The reptiles were skinned and the hides brought $10, he received 25c per foot. A large amount of oil was secured. Mr. Brown says there are a number of the rattlers in the den that he expects to capture in a few days.

PHONOGRAPHS AND RECORDS

Can a horn be square?

Not on The Brunswick. It is rounded, tapering into an oval. This Brunswick Tone Amplifier, or "horn," is built to conform to acoustic principles.

Tone is developed scientifically. The Amplifier is built entirely of wood—especially chosen, seasoned and moulded. It connects directly with the tone arm.

There is NO CAST METAL throat on The Brunswick. So unnatural and metallic noises are absent.

Such advanced ideas as these, together with many others, make the Brunswick Method of Reproduction supreme.

You've never heard the finest in tone if you haven't heard The Brunswick. And proof is easy. Merely come and hear it. Make comparisons.

Don't be satisfied with the ordinary. Times change. Phonographs change. Betterments have come.

Before you decide, hear this remarkable Brunswick. Then you'll make a satisfying decision.

MILLIONS FOR LUXURIES

The luxury tax returns made some startling disclosures concerning the lavish expenditure of money in the United States during a period in which we are devastating effects of war. Luxury tax returns show that during 1919 the American people spent $22,700,000 for taxable articles, some of which are the following:

Rouge, lip sticks, powder and per- fume	$750,000,000
Cigars and cigarettes	1,310,000,000
Jewelry	500,000,000
Candy	1,000,000,000
Furs	300,000,000
Phonographs and pianos	250,000,000
Automobiles	2,000,000,000
Chewing gum	50,000,000

It seems that all business except farming has prospered. The men who produce the only new wealth of the Nation are having a hard time making expenses.

NOTICE

WICHITA FALLS & SOUTHERN RAILROAD COMPANY hereby gives notice that on the 12th day of November, 1920, it filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, at Washington, D. C., an application for certificate of public convenience and necessity and permission to construct and operate a standard line of railroad from Newcastle, Young County, Texas, to Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Commission, the said application is now published as follows:

Before the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C.

In the Matter of Application of the Wichita Falls & Southern Railroad Company for Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity and Permission to Construct and Operate a Standard Line of Railroad from Newcastle, Young County, Texas, to Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas.

To the Honorable Interstate Commerce Commission:

Your applicant, the Wichita Falls & Southern Railroad Company, files this application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity and for permission to construct and operate a line of standard gauge railroad from Newcastle, Young County, Texas, to Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas, as provided for in paragraphs (18) to (21) inclusive, Section 402 of the Transportation Act of 1920, and would respectfully show:

(1). That the full name of your applicant is the Wichita Falls & Southern Railroad Company;

That the postoffice address of your applicant is Wichita Falls, Wichita County, Texas;

That the name of its President is Frank Kell; that the name of its Secretary is T. J. Taylor; the postoffice address of each being Wichita Falls, Wichita County, Texas; that the name of its Attorney is Charles C. Huff, whose postoffice address is Dallas, Dallas County, Texas.

(2). That your applicant was organized as a railroad corporation under the laws of the State of Texas.

(3). That the making and filing of this application has been duly authorized and approved at a meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Wichita Falls & Southern Railroad Company, held at the office of the Company in the City of Wichita Falls on the 3rd day of November, 1920, a certified copy of the resolutions so passed by the stockholders and directors being hereto attached, marked exhibit (a) and (b) respectively.

(4). That the line of railroad your applicant asks for authority and permission to construct will lie wholly within the State of Texas, and will be situated wholly within the counties of Young and Stephens.

(5). That the railroad to be built will be located in Young and Stephens Counties, and that the route of said line will be from Newcastle, Young County, Texas, in a southerly direction through Graham, South Bend, and Eliaeville, Young County, Texas, to Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas, and that the termini of the proposed line will be the towns of Newcastle, Young County, Texas, and Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas.

(6). Your applicant would represent and show that there is now already built and in operation a line of railroad extending from the City of Wichita Falls, Wichita County, Texas, through Archer County, Texas, into Young County, Texas, and to the town of Newcastle, Young County, Texas, the name of the said railway company being the Wichita Falls & Southern Railway Company; that the stockholders of your applicant are the same parties that own all the capital stock of the Wichita Falls & Southern Railway Company, the line extending from Wichita Falls to Newcastle, said parties having acquired said line of railway in the year of 1919 and prior to the passage of the Transportation Act of 1920.

That the City of Wichita Falls is a city of 40,000 inhabitants and is a progressive manufacturing city, is an important grain and milling center, and is the distributing point for a territory from 75 to 100 miles in every direction.

That at the town of Newcastle, Young County, Texas, is a large coal mine, where fuel coal is mined in large quantities, and that there are extensive deposits of coal in and around Newcastle which it will require a great number of years to mine.

That the territory lying between Newcastle, Young County, Texas, and Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas, is fast developing into important producing oil fields.

That all of the territory lying between Newcastle and Breckenridge and for a great distance south thereof can and will be supplied with fuel coal from the mines at Newcastle, if the proposed railroad is constructed, and said coal can and will be supplied to all of these communities at a much lower price than similar coal can be secured from any other point, and can be supplied to the town of Breckenridge and points south thereof in large quantities to meet the pressing demands, at a cost lower than same can be secured from other points further situated.

That fuel at the present time is scarce in the State of Texas, there being only three or four mining points of any importance, and the majority of the coal for both fuel and domestic purposes has heretofore been shipped in from surrounding States.

That in the territory between Newcastle and Breckenridge two important oil fields have already been discovered, which are producing a large quantity of oil, and these locations will afford a great volume of tonnage for the proposed line; that this territory is considered by experts to be the best portion of the oil fields of the State, the wells being of large production and the life thereof being of greater duration than in any other territory.

That with the discovery of oil in this territory building and improvements have gone forward rapidly, and great numbers of people are now engaged in useful pursuits all along this entire proposed line; that the construction of this railroad will greatly facilitate the development of this oil territory and bring its products into commercial channels much quicker than could be accomplished without a railroad connection.

That with the construction of the proposed line, the territory from Breckenridge north and from Breckenridge south will be brought considerably closer to Wichita Falls, an important trading center, and the people along this proposed road will thus be able to secure supplies and manufactured products from a point less distant by 75 to 100 miles than any other trade center that could serve this territory.

That in addition to the oil and coal interests and production, a part of the community served by this proposed line is very fine agricultural land, a large part of which is now in cultivation, and the farming communities along the proposed line will be enabled to market their products at a great deal less cost and with greater facility than is possible now.

That refineries and other interests will be established in the oil fields along the proposed line and that will materially aid in the production of gasoline and other oil products.

That the distance between Newcastle and Breckenridge is approximately 44 miles, and that the tonnage in sight at this time in the proposed territory is sufficient to make the railroad enterprise a reasonably profitable one, and such a railroad would be of incalculable benefit to the communities which it would serve.

That none of the towns or communities between Newcastle and Breckenridge, with the exception of Graham, have any railroad or railroad connection at this time, and that it is essential to the permanent welfare of said towns and communities that this railroad be built.

That railroad line would fill the gap between Newcastle and Breckenridge and would thus afford the territory a direct line of railroad from Oklahoma, and give these communities and the town of Breckenridge and communities south thereof a north and south line; something that no part of this territory now has, and will give these towns and communities direct connection at Wichita Falls, Texas, with the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway Company of Texas, the Fort Worth & Denver City Railway Company and the Wichita Valley Railway Company.

That at the time of the acquisition of the Wichita Falls & Southern Railway Company by the stockholders of your applicant a valid and binding contract was made with the city of Breckenridge, binding the stockholders of your applicant to construct and operate a line of railroad from Newcastle, Young County, Texas, to Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas; that said contract is in full force, and that this railroad enterprise was conceived and contracted for by the City of Breckenridge long before the enactment of the Transportation Act of 1920.

(7). Your applicant would respectfully request that after the issuance of notice as required by the act, and official publication of notice as required, that your Commission grant the applicant a speedy hearing at Washington, D. C.

VACCINATION FOR BLACKLEG

Vaccinated fifty head of cattle for H. A. Tinlin, near Montgomery, reports J. F. Combs, County Agent in Montgomery county, and have assisted Mr. Tinlin each season for the past three years in vaccination against blackleg. Before I started this work for him, he had an annual loss of about 8 per cent out of a herd of more than one hundred. Since he introduction of blackleg vaccine the losses have been entirely eliminated. He has a healthy herd and attributes it entirely to my assistance. His neighbors in adjoining pastures have continued to have as high as 8 per cent losses.

THIRTY BIG ACRES

THE EARLY BIRD GETS THE WORM

It has ever been true in every oil field that those who get in early realize the BIG PROFITS. All experienced oil men are saying, "The next big Texas oil boom will be at Eliasville and South Bend." The boom is already on. The interest is waxing stronger and stronger every day. With the bringing in of each new well all oildom becomes more and more astonished at the marvelous results of THIS WONDER POOL.

The most gratifying and remarkable fact about this Wonder Pool is the genuineness of the oil sand. It does not come in with several thousand barrel flush production and then go down in a few days to a small pumper as is characteristic of the wells producing from a lime. But the production here lives and lives and lives and just keeps on akeeping on making high grade valuable oil in amounts astonishingly close to its "flush production." One well near our lease is reported to have made already more than worth of oil and is still making 225 barrels per day. It has been producing more than twenty months and "came in" for around 500 barrels "flush." That is a real oil sand, we'll say, and the world will say.

Let us explain to you all the facts in this exceptional opportunity. We expect to be in Graham all next week with temporary office and headquarters at the Guaranty State Bank. There will always be an obliging gentleman there anxious and glad to explain to you everything. COME AND SEE.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

First Step in Treatment Is a Brisk Purgative With Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets that are Nausealess, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess calomel tablets called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Druggists sell Calotabs only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Your money will be cheerfully refunded if you do not find them delightful.—(Adv.)

What Women Love

There is a world of pretty neckwear that every woman will love to receive and almost any woman can make. A favorite piece consists of a collar with vestee to match, like that shown above.

Pretty Powder Bowls

Lace and Satin Piece

Wide satin ribbon and Val lace give a good account of themselves in the attractive neckpiece shown above. It is a vestee and collar combined, with a small "V"-shaped chemisette of lace, set in the vestee. The collar and chemisette are edged with narrow lace.

Charm to Ribbon

A morning jacket, a boudoir cap, a powder puff and little hand mirror, all owing their charm to lovely ribbons, are gift suggestions appearing above. The jacket and cap are made by setting together strips of narrow satin ribbon and Val lace.

Christmas Circus

Crepe paper offers any number of good opportunities for making Christmas gifts, especially for the children. Printed figures of wild, or of domestic animals, are cut out, to make menageries or familiar barnyard friends, that delight the youngsters. The pictures are pasted over stiff cardboard and then cut out, following the outline of the animal, but leaving a straight piece to provide a support.

Pretty Breakfast Caps

DODSON WARNS CALOMEL USERS

You Cannot Gripe, Sicken, or Salivate Yourself If You Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition, and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.—Adv.

TREE HAS "CANDY" FLOWERS

Indian Product That Rivals the "Gingerbread House" of the Remembered Fairy Tales.

We have all read the story of the "gingerbread house" in the fairy tales. Well, there is a family of trees in India that have "candy" flowers, or the next thing to it. These trees are known as the "Bassia" trees, and of the three important kinds, two have sugary flowers and the third is called the "Indian butter tree." The petals of the flowers are rich in sugar and drop from the tree in the early morning. They are picked up by the women and children and are spread out on mats to dry in the sun. A single tree will furnish 300 pounds of flowers in a year. When fresh, the flowers are very sweet and taste much like figs. They are eaten fresh or cooked with rice, shredded coconut, or flour. The seeds of the butter tree are full of oil, and this oil is used to make a kind of butter, and also for soap and candles.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

THIS BOOKKEEPER LOST OUT

Might Have Known That Request for Raise in Salary Would Not Give Boss Satisfaction.

A labor leader was defending strikes. "How could men get better pay without striking for it?" he said to a New York reporter. "By asking for it, do you think?"

"I once knew a young bookkeeper who went to his boss and asked for a dollar raise. The boss flew into a terrible passion.

"But," faltered the bookkeeper, "there is nothing unreasonable, sir, in my request. Don't you remember promising me a raise after I'd been with you a year?"

"Yes," hissed the boss, "but don't you remember that I made this raise conditional on your giving me every satisfaction?"

"Oh, dear! Haven't I satisfied you, sir?" said the young bookkeeper, pitifully.

"Satisfied me?" yelled the boss, "do you think you are satisfying me when you ask me for a raise?"

She Would, of Course.

A MODERN TRAGEDY.

Black despair, cruel, biting days of agony, stretched out before her like the fingers of a miserable caravan finding its way across a desert land. Barren, empty, hours were pressing down on the frail human spirit that was hers. Convulsive sobs shook the delicate shoulders, threatening to wrench the very heart out of the unhappy girl. Merciless gasps tore at her throat, ending in long continued moans.

Why was this bitterness served out to her? Why was fate so unkind? Oh, why did she have to be scourged thus—she who had been so light-hearted the day before, so care-free? But never again would things be as they were yesterday; never again could she laugh; no, not even smile. Never again could she trip down the streets; never again look the world in the face—a hard, unforgiving world. She would be whipped with taunts, hisses, and ugliness; shamed, disgraced, kicked, and cuffed about. Her life was wrecked and that of her hardworking father and mother. And they had loved her so, their darling baby; had sat and talked in the evening dusk of the time when they should come to live with her; had sacrificed and dreamed for her. Oh, why, why, was it thus?

If she had only used precaution! What diabolical spirit was it that had possessed her at that crucial moment? Why had not her frail conscience held out against malign influences? Why had she been so forgetful of the teachings and high ideals held up to her life? Why, in "one moment had she shattered her chance at happiness.

"Oh," she moaned, her storm-tossed soul seething with a maelstrom of emotions. "Why did I," she cried, bitter tears scorching her soft cheek, her nails cutting into her delicate palms, "Why did I go to town without my powder puff!"

Definition for a "Friend"

A short time ago a London newspaper offered a prize for the best definition of a "friend". Among the many thousand answers which were received, the one that was awarded the first prize was:

"The first person who comes in when the world goes out."

The second prize was given to the definition sent in by a small boy, who wrote:

"A friend is a fellow who knows all about you and likes you just the same."

Both of these definitions are worthy of thought.

How many times has every friend needed a friend "when all the world goes out" through the death of a loved one, the wreck of business or the failure to achieve one's most cherished desires! In those moments, many whom we have considered to be our friends have forsaken us. With the loss of money for so-called friends have melted away. With the decline of power and position these who have flattered us and made us believe that their friendship would be everlasting are found among the missing. It is on these occasions that the first person who is ready to lend a helping hand, to breathe a word of consolation in sorrow, be he the acquaintance of a day or a lifetime, he is a friend.

In these days of rush and hurry, of moving from one place to another as business or other requirements may dictate, we make many acquaintances, but few real friends, and as a man or woman advances toward middle life the chances of making new and tried friends diminish. It is those we have known since childhood, our school mates, our college chums, our associates in business, who are our staunchest friends. Never in the glamour of the new, who come to us with fair words and specious promises, but who fade away like morning mist before the sun when storms of adversity arise, should we let go of an old friend.

Shakespeare knew the value of a friend when he wrote: "Those friends thou hast, and their adoption tried, Grapple them to thy soul with hoops of steel."

Yes, the old friends are the best—the feller who knows all about you and likes you just the same.—Dear-born Independent.

"MOTHER!"

John Stuart Webster, mining engineer, boards a train in Death Valley, California, on his way back to civilization after cleaning up $100,000. But he looks like a hobo. Then he meets a distressed lady, who makes his heart stop over. He eliminates the offending man. Being what he is and also girl-shy, he does not take advantage of his opportunity. But he just has to find out that she is Dolores Ruey. In Denver he is offered a $3,000-a-year job by a capitalist friend, Edward P. Jerome. He receives a delayed letter from his own particular pal, Billy Geary, asking him to finance a gold-mining proposition in Central America and go fifty-fifty with him on the profits. Thereupon he turns down the big job and decides to answer the call of friendship and adventure to Sobrante. Jerome goes with John to the depot. They meet the distressed lady on her way to the same train. John lifts his hat, but gets the cut direct from the girl, who does not recognize him. John tells Jerome the whole story. Jerome secretly sees the girl, offering her $10,000 if she induces John to take his job inside of ninety days. The girl accepts. The scene now shifts to Buenaventura, Sobrante, where Geary, on his uppers, is eating his heart out looking for a cablegram from his old partner. He has waited for two months on credit extended by Mother Jenks, keeper of a disreputable hotel. Dolores cables Henrietta Wilkins (Mother Jenks) that she is on her way to visit her. Mother Jenks breaks down and tells her story. She has been educating Dolores, who is the daughter of former President Ruey of Sobrante, deposed and executed by President Sarros. Mother Jenks doesn't want Dolores to find out, she is no longer respectable. So she and Billy plan for him to meet the steamer and to turn the girl back.

CHAPTER VI—Continued.

So this was the vision he had volunteered to meet aboard La Estrellita, and by specious lie and hypocritical men, turn her back from the portals of Buenaventura to that dear old United States, which, Billy suddenly recalled with poignant pain, is a sizable country in which a young lady may very readily be lost forever. With the quick eye of youth, he noted that Dolores was perfectly wonderful in a white flannel skirt and jacket, white buck-tooths, white Panama hat with a gorgeous puggaree, a mannish little linen collar, and a red four-in-hand tie. From under that white hat peeped a profusion of crinkly brown hair with a slightly reddish tinge to it; her eyes were big and brown and wide apart, with golden flecks in them; their glance met Billy's hungry gaze simply, directly, and with a curiosity there was no attempt to hide. Her nose was patrician; her beautiful short upper lip revealed the tips of two perfect, milk-white front teeth; she was, Billy Geary told himself, a goddess before whom all low, worthless, ornery fellows like himself should grovel and die happy, if perchance she might be so minded as to walk on their faces! He was aroused from his critical inventory when the hour spoke again:

"You haven't answered my question, sir!"

"No," said Billy. "I didn't. Stupid of me, too. However, come to think of it, you didn't ask me any question. You looked it. My name is Geary—William H. Geary, by profession a mining engineer and by nature an ignoramus, and I have called to deliver some disappointing news regarding Henrietta Wilkins."

"Is she—"

"She is. Very much alive and in excellent health—or rather was, the last time it was my pleasure and privilege to call on the dear lady. But she isn't in Buenaventura now." Mentally Billy asked God to forgive him his black-hearted treachery to this winsome girl. He loathed the task he had planned and foisted upon himself, and nothing but the memory of Mother Jenks' manifold kindnesses to him in a day, thanks to Jack Webster, now happily behind him, could have induced him to go through to the finish.

"Why, where is she?" Dolores queried, and Billy could have wept at the fright in those lovely brown eyes. He waved his hand airily. "Quiet, mabe!" he said. "She left three weeks ago for New Orleans to visit you. I dare say you passed each other on the road—here, here, Miss Ruey, don't cry."

He took a recess of three minutes, while Dolores dabbed her eyes and went through sundry other motions of being orate. Then he proceeded with his nefarious recital.

"When your cablegram arrived, Miss Ruey, naturally Mrs. Wilkins was not here to receive it, and as I was the only person who had her address, the cable agent referred it to me. Under the circumstances, not knowing where I could reach you with a cable informing you that Mrs. Wilkins was headed for California to see you, I had no other alternative but to let matters take their course. I decided you might arrive on La Estrellita, so I called to welcome you to our thriving little city, and, as a friend of about two minutes' standing, to warn you away from it."

Billy's men, as he voiced this warning, was so singularly mysterious that Dolores' curiosity was aroused instantly and rose superior to her grief. "Why, what's the matter?" she demanded.

"I surrender unconditionally," groaned Billy. "I'm a liar from beginning to end. I overlooked my hand. I beg of you to believe me, however, when I tell you that I only told you those whoppers because I was in honor bound to tell them. Personally, I don't want you to go away—at least, not until I'm ready to go away, too! Miss Ruey, my nose is in the dust. There is a fever in my brain and a misery in my heart—"

"And contrition in your face," she interrupted him laughingly. "You're forgiven, Mr. Geary—on one condition."

"Name it," he answered.

"Tell me everything from beginning to end."

So Billy told her. "I would much rather have been visited with a plague of boils, like our old friend, the late Job, than have to tell you this, Miss Ruey," he concluded his recital. "Man proposes, but God disposes, and you're here and bound to learn the truth sooner or later. Mother isn't a lady and she knows it, but take it from me, Miss Ruey, she's a grand old piece of work. She's a scout—a ring-tailed sport—a regular individual and game as a gander."

"And I mustn't call at El Buen Amigo, Mr. Geary?"

"Perish the thought! Mother must call on you. El Buen Amigo is what you might term a hotel for tropical traps of the masculine sex. Nearly all of Mother's guests have a past, you know. They're the submerged white tent of Sobrante."

"Then my benefactor must call to see me here?" Billy nodded. "When will you bring her here?"

Billy reflected that Mother Jenks had been up rather late the night before and that trade in the cantina of El Buen Amigo had been unusually brisk; so since he desired to exhibit the old lady at her best, he concluded it might be well to spar for wind.

"Tomorrow at 10," he declared. Dolores inclined her head. Something told her she had better leave all future details to the amiable William.

"I remember you inquired for your friend, Mr. Webster, when you came aboard the steamer."

"I remember it, too," Billy countered ruefully. "I can't imagine what's become of him. Miss Ruey, did you ever go to meet the only human being in the world and discover that for some mysterious reason he had failed to keep the appointment? Miss Ruey, you'll have to meet old John Stuart the minute he lights in Buenaventura. He's some boy."

"Old John Stuart?" she queried. "How old?"

"Oh, thirty-nine or forty on actual count, but one of the kind that will live to be a thousand and then have to be killed with an axe. He's coming to Sobrante to help me put over a mining deal."

"How interesting, Mr. Geary! No wonder you were disappointed."

The last sentence was a shaft deliberately launched; to Dolores' delight it made a keyhole in Billy Geary's heart.

"Don't get me wrong, Miss Ruey," he hastened to assure her. "I have a good mine, but I'd trade it for a handshake from Jack! The good Lord only published one edition of Jack, and limited the edition to one volume; then the plates were melted for the junk we call the human race. Two weeks ago, when I was sick and penitent and despairing, the possessor of a concession on a fortune, but without a centavo in my pockets to buy a banana, when I was a veritable beach-comber and existing on the charity of Mother Jenks, I managed finally to communicate with old Jack and told him where I was and what I had. There's his answer, Miss Ruey, and I'm not ashamed to say that when I got it I cried like a kid." And Billy handed her John Stuart Webster's remarkable cablegram, the receipt of which had, for Billy Geary, transformed night into day, purgatory into paradise. Dolores read it.

"No wonder you love him," she declared, and added artlessly; "His wife must simply adore him."

"He has no wife to bother his life, so he paddles his own canoe," Billy recited. "I don't believe the old sour and aggressive looking; like his companion, jeweled and possessed of a thin, carefully cultivated moustache that seemed to consist of about nineteen hairs on one side and twenty on the other. Evidently once upon a time, as the story books have it, he had been shot. Webster suspected a Mauser bullet, fired at long range. It had entered his right cheek, just below the malar, ranged downward through his mouth and out through a fold of flabby flesh under his left jaw. It must have been a frightful wound, but it had healed well except at the point of entrance, where it had a tendency to pucker considerably, thus drawing the man's eyelid down on his cheek and giving to that visual organ something of the appearance of a bulldog's.

Webster gazed after them whimsically as he approached the counter. "I'd hate to wake up some night and find that homre with the puckered eye leaning over me. By the way," he continued, suddenly apprehensive, "do you get much of that parakeet travel on your line?"

"About 80 per cent. of it is off color, sir."

Webster pondered the 80-per-cent. probability of being berthed in the same stateroom with one of these

"No, I didn't, for a very sufficient reason. Down here the ladies do not wear hats. But I'll tell you what I did buy her, Miss Ruey—ah, oh, by George, I'm glad now I did it. She'll wear them tomorrow when I bring her to see you. I bought her a new black silk dress and an old-lace collar, and a gold breast pin and a tortoise shell hair comb and hired an open carriage and took her for an evening ride on the Malecon to listen to the band concert."

"Did she like that?"

"She ate it up," Billy declared with conviction. "I think it was her first adventure in democracy."

Billy's pulse was still far from normal when he reached El Buen Amigo, for he was infused with a strange, new-found warmth that burned like malarial fever, but wasn't. He wasted no preliminaries on Mother Jenks, but bluntly acquainted her with the facts in the case.

Mother Jenks eyed him a moment wildly. "Gord's truth!" she gasped; she reached for her favorite elixir, but Billy got the bottle first.

"Nothing doing," he warned this strange publican. "Mother, you're funking it—and what would you want that angel to kiss you and get a whiff of this brandy?"

Mother Jenks' eyes actually popped. "Gor, Willie," she gasped, "aven't I told ye she's a lady! Me kils the lamb! I'll frust, Mr. Geary, as 'ow I knows my place an' can keep it."

"Yes, I know," Billy soothed the frightened old woman, "but the trouble is Miss Dolores doesn't know hers—and something tells me if she does, she'll forget it. She'll take you in her arms and kiss you, sure as death and taxes."

And she did! "My lamb, my lamb," sobbed Mother Jenks the next morning, and rested her old cheek, with its rum-begotten hue, close to the rose-tinted ivory cheek of her ward. "Me—wot I am—an' to think—"

"You're a sweet old dear," Dolores whispered, patting the gray head; "and I'm going to call you Mother."

"Mr. William H. Geary," the girl remarked that night, "I know now why your friend, Mr. Webster, sent that cablegram. I think you're a scout, too."

For reasons best known to himself Mr. Geary blushed furiously. "I'd better go and break the news to Mother," he suggested inane. She held out her hand; and Billy, having been long enough in Sobrante to have acquired the habit, bent his maternal person over that hand and kissed it. As he went out it occurred to him that had the lobby of the Hotel Ma-teo been paved with eggs, he must have floated over them like a wraith, so light did he feel within.

CHAPTER VII.

Webster reached New Orleans at the end of the first leg of his journey, to discover that he was one day late to board the Atlanta—a banana boat of the Consolidated Fruit company's line plying regularly between New Orleans and that company's depots at Limon and San Buenaventura—which necessitated a wait of three days for the steamer La Estrellita of the Caribbean Mail line, running to Caracas and way ports.

He decided to visit the ticket office of the Caribbean Mail line immediately and avoid the rush in case the travel should be heavy.

The steamship office was in Canal street. The clerk was waiting on two well-dressed and palpably low-bred sons of the tropics, to whom he had just displayed a passenger list which the two were scanning critically. Their interest in it was so obvious that unconsciously Webster peeped over their shoulders (no difficult task for one of his stature) and discovered it to be the passenger list of the steamer La Estrellita. They were conversing together in low tones and Webster, who had spent many years of his life following his profession in Mexico, recognized their speech as the bastard Spanish of the pen.

He sat down in the long wall seat and waited until the pair, having completed their scrutiny of the list, turned to pass out. He glanced at them, casually. One was a tall thin man whose bloodshot eyes were inclined to "pop" a little—infallible evidence in the Latin-American that he is drinking more hard liquor than is good for him. His companion was plainly of the same racial stock; although Webster suspected him of a slight admixture of negro blood. He was short, stocky, and aggressive looking; like his companion, jeweled and possessed of a thin, carefully cultivated moustache that seemed to consist of about nineteen hairs on one side and twenty on the other. Evidently once upon a time, as the story books have it, he had been shot. Webster suspected a Mauser bullet, fired at long range. It had entered his right cheek, just below the malar, ranged downward through his mouth and out through a fold of flabby flesh under his left jaw. It must have been a frightful wound, but it had healed well except at the point of entrance, where it had a tendency to pucker considerably, thus drawing the man's eyelid down on his cheek and giving to that visual organ something of the appearance of a bulldog's.

Webster gazed after them whimsically as he approached the counter. "I'd hate to wake up some night and find that homre with the puckered eye leaning over me. By the way," he continued, suddenly apprehensive, "do you get much of that parakeet travel on your line?"

"About 80 per cent. of it is off color, sir."

Webster pondered the 80-per-cent. probability of being berthed in the same stateroom with one of these people and the prospect was as revolting to him as would be an uninvited negro guest at the dining table of a southern family. He had all a Westerner's hatred for the breed.

"Well, I want a ticket to San Buenaventura," he informed the clerk, "but I don't relish the idea of a Greaser in the same stateroom with me. I wonder if you couldn't manage to fix me with a stateroom all to myself, or at least arrange it so that in the event of company I'll draw a white man."

"I'm sorry, sir, but I cannot guarantee you absolute privacy nor any kind of white man. It's pretty mixed travel to all Central American ports."

"How many berths in your first-class staterooms?"

"Two."

Webster smiled brightly. He had found a way out of the difficulty. "I'll buy 'em both, son," he announced.

"I cannot sell you an entire stateroom, sir. It's against the orders of the company to sell two berths to one man. The travel is pretty brisk and it's hardly fair to the public, you know."

"Well, suppose I buy one ticket for myself and the other for—well, for my valet, let us say. Of course," he added brightly, "I haven't engaged the valet yet and even should I do so I wouldn't be at all surprised if the rascal missed the boat!"

The clerk glanced at him with a slow smile, and pondered. "Well," he said presently, "if you care to buy a ticket for your valet, I'm sure I shouldn't worry whether or not he catches the boat. If my records show that the space is sold to two men and the purser collects two tickets, I think you'll be pretty safe from intrusion."

"To the harassed traveler," said Mr. Webster, "a meeting with a gentleman of your penetration is as refreshing as a canteen of cool water in the desert. Shoot!" and he produced a handful of gold.

"I will—provided I have one empty cabin," and the clerk turned from the counter to consult his record of berths already sold and others reserved but not paid for. Presently he faced Webster at the counter.

"The outlook is very blue," he announced. "However, I have one berth in No. 34 reserved by a gentleman who was to call for it by two o'clock to-day." He looked at his watch. "It is now a quarter of one. If the reservation isn't claimed promptly at two o'clock I shall cancel it and reserve for you both berths in that room. If you will be good enough to leave me your name and address I will telephone you after that hour. In the meantime, you may make reservation of the other berth in the same stateroom. I feel very confident that the reservation in No. 34 will not be called for, Mr.—"

"Webster—John S. Webster. You are very kind, indeed. I'm at the St. Charles."

"Thanks, ever so much, for my life."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

FROM FORTY-FIVE TO SIXTY

A Word of Help to Women of Middle Age From Mrs. Raney.

Morse, Okla.—"When I was 45 years old Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carried me through the critical period of the Change of Life in safety. I am over 60 and have raised a family of eight children and am in fine health. My daughter and daughters-in-law recommend your Vegetable Compound and I still take it occasionally myself. You are at liberty to use my name if you wish."—Mrs. ALICE RANEY, Morse, Oklahoma.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. This good old-fashioned root and herb remedy may be relied upon to overcome the distressing symptoms which accompany it and women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to carry women so successfully through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

An ounce of discretion is better than a pound of knowledge.—Italian proverb.

Important to Mothers examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, that famous old remedy for infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher In Use for Over 30 Years. Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria

Sometimes the girl helps her bashful lover out, and sometimes it is her father.

When you have decided that the worms or tapeworm must be exterminated, get "Dead Shot"—Dr. Froy's Vermifuge. One dose will clean them all out.—Adv.

One Thing, Anyhow. Teacher—Now, who can tell just what is meant by the saying: "All men are created equal?" We all know that some of us are born with wealth and many other advantages not shared by all.

"We are all created with an equal need for clothes," suggested Johnny.

Millions for a New Stomach

One of the greatest American millionaires said to his physician, "A million dollars, Doctor, spot cash and no grumbling, for a new stomach," and then the sick man groaned and turned away. All his wealth could not make him happy or contented, for happiness largely depends upon digestion. Without health where does happiness come in?

After all the stomach plays a great part in everyday life. Without a healthy stomach and good digestion our blood is thin, watery and poor, our heart action is weak, our liver does not do its duty, and man is miserable and unhappy. Prevent disease by putting the horse in order and strengthening the system against the germs of disease.

Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., years ago understood disease and its prevention, and he discovered certain roots and herbs which were nature's remedies, and succeeded in putting them up in a form that could be easily prepared at the drug store (liquid or tablets). This he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This discovery gives no false stimulation because it contains no alcohol or any narcotics. It helps digestion and the assimilation of such elements in the food as are required for the blood. It gives to the blood the food elements the tissues require. For over fifty years it has enjoyed the confidence of the American public. Try it now!

IF YOUR KIDNEYS ARE OVER-ACTIVE

Millions of people—grown folks and children alike—are bothered with over-active kidneys either during the day or at night.

If you or your child are among those affected with kidneys acting too freely or too often don't wait until some serious kidney trouble develops but get a bottle of Liquid Shu Make from the drug store today and stop this disorder. Druggists carry Liquid Shu Make or will get it for you in small or large size bottles, so why not give this medicine a chance to relieve that overactive kidney condition?—Adv.

Two things of which there is enough for all—fresh air and sunshine. Get yours.

LAST NIGHT'S DREAMS

—WHAT THEY MEAN

DID YOU DREAM ABOUT SHEEP?

MOST dreams of rural life and country scenes appear to be regarded by the authorities of Dreamland as favorable omens. To dream of seeing a flock of sheep, for instance, is a very good indication for the future. To be surrounded by them increases the good luck and a flock of lambs foretells even more good luck than a flock of sheep. But just to gaze upon a flock of sheep feeding in the pastures of your dreams means that you will have success in life.

If you are unmarried and dream that you are watching the little lambs skip about, your sweetheart is faithful and of a good disposition. Also, if you are a man, the lady of your choice is inclined to say "Yes," if you will but pop the question. If you are married and see sheep or lambs in the visions of your slumbers you will have children who will acquire riches and be a great comfort to you. If you pick up a lamb and carry it in your dreams you will be a lucky person indeed.

If a sailor dreams of sheep it means great luck and a safe and prosperous voyage to him. If you see yourself shearing sheep it is an indication that you will shortly make money by a business enterprise, though, according to some of the wisecracks, it means that you will have to struggle hard for this success. But it isn't good to see the sheep running away from you, for that indicates that some of your pretended friends are really trying to injure you. It is a warning to be on your guard. Also it is a bad sign to hear the lamb baa or to see them killed. If you see your flock of dream sheep lean and scraggy look out for your investments carefully if you would profit by them.

With the few exceptions noted the lambs and muttons of Dreamland are much to be desired and come far cheaper than in the markets of the world of actualities, the food profiteer not as yet having obtained a foothold in the realm of shadows.

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good

By JESSIE ROBERTS

JOB AND YOUR HEALTH

IS A WOMAN as strong as a man? Given the same stature and weight, can she do equally hard work and not suffer for it?

Among many other matters that the war proved or disproved, this seems also to be settled—and settled in the negative. She can't!

Woman can do the same work, given a like training. But she breaks down under it where the man remains un-injured.

In France and England women for five years did the work of men. They have not stood up under the strain as men do. In England, physicians' reports show that of two thousand five hundred women examined in one industry, 42 per cent were found to be suffering from severe physical exhaustion or actual ill health, brought on by overwork. Yet men stood up under the same work without difficulty.

We are none of us likely to go into munition factories or to undertake heavy labor. But there is more in this than the fact that a woman ought not to attempt such feats. A girl who is looking about for a job ought to think of it in regard to herself—in regard to her health. The nervous and high-strung girl should not take up telephoning, for instance, nor should she go into a large and noisy office. She won't stand the strain.

A girl I knew who made a success of a small tea and lunch room got ambitious and took the whole house. She rented rooms and served a dinner as well as breakfast and lunch. She gave good meals and good service, had a large force of assistants to manage, and in six months she broke down and had to go to a sanitarium.

What's the use? Your health is priceless. And once shaken, it isn't easy to get into good shape again. Look at your health as part of your capital, and conserve it. Never let your job borrow from that capital. There are times when you cannot control the thing, and when you do you must do the best you can and hope to get through with it. But most of us are just careless. It doesn't pay.

HOLIDAY GOOD THINGS

As Christmas draws near we turn to the good old fashioned cakes and caudles.

Gala Cake

Cream one-half cupful of shortening, add one cupful of granulated sugar. Beat two egg yolks until light, add to them one-half cupful of sugar. Beat the egg and sugar mixture into the butter and sugar, and when thoroughly blended add one cupful of milk alternately with three cupfuls of flour, sifted with four teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Beat well and fold in the stiffly beaten whites and pour into a single loaf cake pan, buttered and papered and bake thirty minutes. When cool, spread with

A Christmas Bowl

Take six greenings and three Baldwin's without removing the skins or cores. When tender add four quarts of boiling water, the thin yellow rind of three lemons and four oranges and two bay leaves. Let simmer twenty minutes then strain through a bag, pressing out the juice. Boil three cupfuls of sugar with a pint of water 20 minutes. Add to the liquid with one cupful of black tea infusion and set aside to become cold. Then add the fruit juices and a small bottle of maraschino cherries with the syrup. Let stand several hours before serving.

Corn Balls

Put three tablespoonfuls of butter into a saucepan and when melted add

two cupfuls of molasses and two-thirds of a cupful of sugar. Stir until the sugar is dissolved. Boil until the mixture is brittle when dropped in cold water. Pour over six quarts of popped corn. Butter the fingers and shape into balls before it gets too cool.

Peanut Brittle

Melt a cupful or more of sugar in a smooth frying pan stirring until a good brown; pour over a pan of peanuts and put to cool.

THE MYSTERY.

Heard a rustle in the brush Only yesternight; Heard a rustle in the hush, Somethin' out of sight— Jest a footfall on the ground, Shakin' of a tree; But we argued all around What the thing could be.

Jack, the stable-boy, he said Likely 'twas a colt— Farmer's colt that got its head, Broke its halter holt. Bill, the cookhouse flunkie, swore 'Twas a bear or cub Huntin' round the cookhouse door Fer a snack of grub.

Pete, who likes to hunt when fall Comes around each year, Said it wasn't that at all— That it was a deer. Frank, who drives the two-ox pair, Said they made him luff, Said their colt or deer or bear Simply was a cuff.

So they set an' argued What the thing could be; Ev'ry fellow took a side, Had a theory. Jack he chimed it with the claps, Bill with all the boys; Mac, who's deaf, he said perhaps There wasn't any noise.

What the rustle was about, No one ever knew; But one fact I figgered out From that gabby crew: People look with different eyes, Hear with different ears; That 'what closest to them lies Ev'rything appears.

Ev'ry nation is the best To the man from there, Ev'ry state beats all the rest —When their own compare. Do you wonder at the lot Of religious creeds?— Each a special God has got Fer his special needs.

Harps an' music fer the gay, Huntin' fer the red; Atheists expect to stay Permanently dead; Streets of sapphire fer the Jew; Fer the weary, rest— Each, accordin' to his view, 'Thinks his 'heaven best.

Aw' I'm puzzled, I admit, Puzzled at the maze— Heaven, you kin figger it Forty-seven ways: Heaven with a street of gold; With a Jasper gate; Heaven where the very old Still must sit an' wait.

If there are so many there, There beyond the blue, Heavens round an' heavens square, Gentle, injun, Jew— All that I can do is trust, Since they can't agree, When I lay me 'dust to dust' There'll be one fer me. (Copyright.)

THE ROMANCE OF WORDS

"CIGAR"

A NUMBER of prominent etymologists, among them Littré, have endeavored to prove the word "cigar" is derived from the Spanish cigarra, meaning grasshopper, and that it was applied to the rolled leaves of tobacco by reason of their similarity in shape to the body of this insect. This explanation, while ingenious, hardly fits the facts in the case, for when tobacco was first introduced into Spain from Cuba, it was grown in gardens or cigarrales, as the Spanish call them.

The wealthy Spaniards had a fad of raising tobacco in their cigarrales and making their own cigars, which they would offer with the explanation "Es de mi cigarral" ("It is from my garden" as proof that the tobacco was wholesome—and home-grown). Before long the expression changed to "Este cigarro es di mi cigarral," which might be literally translated, "This garden product from my garden," and it was from this that the word "cigar" originated.

However, in the final analysis, the grasshopper does have something to do with it—for the Spanish "cigarras" or "garden" is so-called because it is the place where the grasshopper ("cigarras") resides. (Copyright.)

PECULIAR TYPE OF ORATOR KING HAS SUPREME POWER

Small Wonder That in This Bombastic Age He Created Something of a Sensation.

But There Are Reasons Why British Monarch Does Not Exercise His Royal Prerogative.

The speaker of the occasion was of such unusual appearance that the audience gasped or goggled, according to the preference of its members, when he came upon the rostrum. "Ladies and gentlemen," he harshly began, "poverty would be abolished in this country if we could only save and devote to some useful purpose the time we waste in listening to Hons. Chautauqua lecturers, pointers with pride and viewers with alarm, singers who cannot sing, babbling bards, parents of bright children, bearers of messages to the waiting world, and sundry other bores whom it is not necessary to mention at this time."

The Proverb Refuted. "My husband's a doctor." "Has he practiced long?" "Yes, but it hasn't made him perfect."—Boston Transcript.

Probably the most serene situation in life is not to have to "manage" anybody.

One of the duties of today is to qualify for tomorrow.

If the king did all he might do without exceeding his royal prerogative the nation would be startled. He can veto a bill passed in both houses; he can dissolve and summon parliament; he can select or dismiss his ministers; he can declare war; he can make treaties and create peers; he can appoint bishops, governors and judges—and all "on his own." He could cede the duchy of Cornwall to a foreign power, disband the army and navy, and sell the dreadnaughts and naval stores. He could give every government official, from the highest to the lowest, the "push," could pardon all criminals, and could stop the whole machinery of government. But there is an unwritten law of common sense, fortified by long usage, which makes it unthinkable that the king should do these things; and in the last resort, which is never likely to occur, the king, being a constitutional monarch, reigns by the will of the people, and could be deposed by act of parliament. —Montreal Herald.

NOTICE
WICHITA FALLS & SOUTHERN RAILROAD COMPANY hereby gives notice that on the 12th day of November, 1920, it filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, at Washington, D. C., an application for certificate of public convenience and necessity and permission to construct and operate a standard line of railroad from Newcastle, Young County, Texas, to Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Commission, the said application is now published as follows:
 Before the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C.

In the Matter of Application of the Wichita Falls & Southern Railroad Company for Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity and Permission to Construct and Operate a Standard Line of Railroad from Newcastle, Young County, Texas, to Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas.

To the Honorable Interstate Commerce Commission:

Your applicant, the Wichita Falls & Southern Railroad Company, files this application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity and for permission to construct and operate a line of standard gauge railroad from Newcastle, Young County, Texas, to Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas, as provided for in paragraphs (18) to (21) inclusive, Section 402 of the Transportation Act of 1920, and would respectfully show:

(1). That the full name of your applicant is the Wichita Falls & Southern Railroad Company;

That the postoffice address of your applicant is Wichita Falls, Wichita County, Texas;

That the name of its President is Frank Kell; that the name of its Secretary is T. J. Taylor; the postoffice address of each being Wichita Falls, Wichita County, Texas; that the name of its Attorney is Charles C. Huff, whose postoffice address is Dallas, Dallas County, Texas.

(2). That your applicant was organized as a railroad corporation under the laws of the State of Texas.

(3). That the making and filing of this application has been duly authorized and approved at a meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Wichita Falls & Southern Railroad Company, held at the office of the Company in the City of Wichita Falls on the 3rd day of November, 1920, a certified copy of the resolutions so passed by the stockholders and directors being hereto attached, marked exhibit (a) and (b) respectively.

(4). That the line of railroad your applicant asks for authority and permission to construct will lie wholly within the State of Texas, and will be situated wholly within the counties of Young and Stephens.

(5). That the railroad to be built will be located in Young and Stephens Counties, and that the route of said line will be from Newcastle, Young County, Texas, in a southerly direction through Graham, South Bend, and Ellassville, Young County, Texas, to Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas, and that the termini of the proposed line will be the towns of Newcastle, Young County, Texas, and Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas.

(6). Your applicant would represent and show that there is now already built and in operation a line of railroad extending from the City of Wichita Falls, Wichita County, Texas, through Archer County, Texas, into Young County, Texas, and to the town of Newcastle, Young County, Texas, the name of the said railway company being the Wichita Falls & Southern Railway Company; that the stockholders of your applicant are the same parties that own all the capital stock of the Wichita Falls & Southern Railway Company, the line extending from Wichita Falls to Newcastle, said parties having acquired said line of railway in the year of 1919 and prior to the passage of the Transportation Act of 1920.

That the City of Wichita Falls is a city of 40,000 inhabitants and is a progressive manufacturing city, is an important grain and milling center, and is the distributing point for a territory from 75 to 100 miles in every direction.

That at the town of Newcastle, Young County, Texas, is a large coal mine, where fuel coal is mined in large quantities, and that there are extensive deposits of coal in and around Newcastle which it will require a great number of years to mine.

That the territory lying between Newcastle, Young County, Texas, and Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas, is fast developing into important producing oil fields.

That all of the territory lying between Newcastle and Breckenridge and for a great distance south thereof can and will be supplied with fuel coal from the mines at Newcastle, if the proposed railroad is constructed, and said coal can and will be supplied to all of these communities at a much lower price than similar coal can be secured from any other point, and can be supplied to the town of Breckenridge and points south thereof in large quantities to meet the pressing demands, at a cost lower than same can be secured from other points further situated.

That fuel at the present time is scarce in the State of Texas, there being only three or four mining points of any importance, and the majority of the coal for both fuel and domestic purposes has heretofore been shipped in from surrounding States.

That in the territory between Newcastle and Breckenridge two important oil fields have already been discovered, which are producing a large quantity of oil, and these locations will afford a great volume of tonnage for the proposed line; that this territory is considered by experts to be the best portion of the oil fields of the State; the wells being of large production and the life thereof being of greater duration, than in any other territory.

That with the discovery of oil in this territory building and improvements have gone forward rapidly, and great numbers of people are now engaged in useful pursuits all along this entire proposed line; that the construction of this railroad will greatly facilitate the development of this oil territory and bring its products into commercial channels much quicker than could be accomplished without a railroad connection.

That with the construction of the proposed line, the territory from Breckenridge north and from Breckenridge for a considerable distance south will be brought considerably closer to Wichita Falls, an important trading center, and the people along this proposed road will thus be able to secure supplies and manufactured products from a point less distant by 75 to 100 miles than any other trade center that could serve this territory.

That in addition to the oil and coal interests and production, a part of the community served by this proposed line is very fine agricultural land, a large part of which is now in cultivation, and the farming communities along the proposed line will be enabled to market their products at a great deal less cost and with greater facility than is possible now.

That refineries and other interests will be established in the oil fields along the proposed line and that will materially aid in the production of gasoline and other oil products.

That the distance between Newcastle and Breckenridge is approximately 44 miles, and that the tonnage in sight at this time in the proposed territory is sufficient to make the railroad enterprise a reasonably profitable one, and such a railroad would be of incalculable benefit to the communities which it would serve.

That none of the towns or communities between Newcastle and Breckenridge, with the exception of Graham, have any railroad or railroad connection at this time, and that it is essential to the permanent welfare of said towns and communities that this railroad be built.

That railroad line would fill the gap between Newcastle and Breckenridge and would thus afford the territory a direct line of railroad from Oklahoma, and give these communities and the town of Breckenridge and communities south thereof a north and south line; something that no part of this territory now has, and will give these towns and communities direct connection at Wichita Falls, Texas, with the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway Company of Texas, the Fort Worth & Denver City Railway Company and the Wichita Valley Railway Company.

That at the time of the acquisition of the Wichita Falls & Southern Railway Company by the stockholders of your applicant a valid and binding contract was made with the city of Breckenridge, binding the stockholders of your applicant to construct and operate a line of railroad from Newcastle, Young County, Texas, to Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas; that said contract is in full force, and that this railroad enterprise was conceived and contracted for by the City of Breckenridge long before the enactment of the Transportation Act of 1920.

(7). Your applicant would respectfully request that after the issuance of notice as required by the act, and official publication of notice as required, that your Commission grant the applicant a speedy hearing at Washington, D. C.

VACCINATION FOR BLACKLEG

Vaccinated fifty head of cattle for H. A. Tinlin, near Montgomery, reports J. F. Combs, County Agent in Montgomery county, and have assisted Mr. Tinlin each season for the past three years in vaccination against blackleg. Before I started this work for him, he had an annual loss of about 8 per cent out of a herd of more than one hundred. Since he introduced of blackleg vaccine the losses have been entirely eliminated. He has a healthy herd and attributes it entirely to my assistance. His neighbors in adjoining pastures have continued to have as high as 8 per cent losses.

This was proved by a test made at Mr. Rachmaninoff's home in New York City. He played the Second Hungarian Rhapsodie (Liszt) in direct comparison with the RE-CREATION of his perform-

The Tercentenary Celebration of the Landing of the Pilgrims was observed with a special program by the C. L. S. C. at its meeting with Mrs. Hathcock last Wednesday afternoon. Rollcall was answered with patriotic quotations after which America was sung. "The American's Creed" was said in concert, led by Mrs. E. H. Morrison. Biographical sketches of John Robinson, William Brewster and William Bradford were given by Mesdames A. A. Morrison, H. B. Cogdell and H. Bennett. A quiz on American History was given by Mrs. Clark. Mrs. R. G. Hallam and Mrs. Gary Smith delighted the Club by giving, in appropriate costume, "The Lover's Errand" an act from "The Courtship of Miles Stanish." Something good is always expected from these members, but they far exceeded themselves on this occasion. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Z. A. Hudson.

"EVERYWOMAN" AT NATIONAL THEATRE.

The news that Walter Browne's famous morality play, "Everywoman," had been made into a moving picture was no surprise to those acquainted with the dramatic masterpiece. Its striking story and manifold opportunities for spectacular scenic effects make it admirable screen material. The basis for the magnificent cinema spectacle was there. It remained for the directing skill of George H. Melford, the acting ability of an unusually excellent cast, and fine artistry in arranging the elaborate scenic effects to transform "Everywoman" into the beautiful photoplay to be shown at the National Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, December 13 and 14.

Here is a dramatic production that is manifestly even better to the screen than it is to the stage. It requires an expansiveness that the quarters of the largest stage will not admit. Quite probably the screen version of "Everywoman" has realized more perfectly the author's conception of his story than have all the productions of the play since its famous premier in New York in 1911.

The title role is portrayed in masterly style by beautiful Violet Heming, the young actress who made such favorable impressions in "Three Faces East" and "Under Cover." Miss Heming lends the dignity and universality to her interpretation of Everywoman that the allegorical character of the story demands. The remainder of the cast is far above the usual in merit, including as it does such names as Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Monte Blue, Charles Ogle, Raymond Hatton, Bebe Daniels and Tully Marshall. Mr. Roberts as Wealth, Miss Hawley as Beauty and Mr. Blue as Love are perhaps the high spots in an interpretation that is uniformly excellent.

As is quite well known, "Everywoman" is in the main allegorical in character. The story opens much as a drama of ordinary life. A beautiful girl at a banquet is wooed by a millionaire, an actor, and a poor physician. She is also beset by the offer of a stage manager to embrace a dramatic career. Thereupon the story becomes a transcript of the journey of life. The heroine becomes Everywoman, the millionaire is Wealth, the actor Passion, and the other characters bear similar names. Everywoman is urged to go upon the Stage of Life by Flattery to seek King Love. Her long journey leads her through many pitfalls, past the temptations of Wealth and Passion, until finally she reaches the humble hut of love, who turns out to be the young physician.

Scenes of lavish splendor form the setting for the story. The revels in the magnificent palace of Wealth, port at a monster banquet board, one where scores of beautiful women disport of which encircles a swimming pool and the other a dance hall, and the episodes in the great gaming hall, are among the most elaborate ever screened. The bazaar at the opening of the story is virtually a real fashion show. Women arrayed like birds move through the picture like extraordinarily clad mannaquins exhibiting the latest creations of the modistes.

In the midst of this pleasing pageantry, however the character of the story has not been lost sight of for a moment. It is convincingly and logically developed as the simplest drama. The players do not merely walk through their parts, as is sometimes the case in a spectacular film of this sort. The settings are extravagant, but the story is the thing, and everything has been fittingly subordinated to this great moving drama of life itself.

The screen needs more pictures like "Everywoman." A film of this kind makes the most skeptical admit, "The motion picture is an Art." In these days when so many cheap, meaningless photoplays are wasting so much of our time, "Everywoman" comes as a great pleasing flood of beauty. To George Melford, the director, to the producers and to the rare good taste of the individuals responsible for the beautiful settings, the motion picture public is indebted for a great production of one of our greatest plays and a picture that ranks with the screen's best. It is a Paramount-Artcraft production.

NEW PUBLICATION

An editorial board has been organized at the University and similar action is expected within a short time from other schools of the state, which are said to be co-operating in the proposition.

If you should be unfortunate enough to select an inferior instrument (no matter how low in price it may be) it will mean dissatisfaction as long as you own it. In buying an instrument take into consideration what it will be in 10, 20 or 30 years from now.

The "Exide" Type XC Battery is especially designed for automobile starting and lighting. It represents 32 years of storage battery experience. It was the first commercially successful starting and lighting battery made, and has been a big factor in making starting and lighting apparatus so popular in automobile service.

TELL OF WORK OF CENTENARY AND WHAT IT MEANS.

Some months ago the Methodists launched a centenary program as a five-year proposition. The pledges were made in a blaze of glory, with an enthusiasm unmatched by any former endeavors. The movement spread and around the world to the mission fields. The whole religious world was thrilled by this pioneer campaign of the Methodist. A general view of centenary activity with the money that has been paid in to date on these pledges is wonderful proof of the success of this great movement.

In Mexico a normal school is going up at Saltillo, the hospital has been reopened and enlarged at Monterrey, a hospital property has been purchased at Chihuahua, Laurens institute at El Paso has received a magnificent addition, and a publishing house and book room has been established at Chihuahua.

In Cuba, Candler college is being overhauled and extended, an evangelistic movement is in full swing, and a great publishing house is being projected.

In Brazil a college property has been bought at Porto Alegre, Granberry college has received additional buildings and an endowment. A great publishing house is under way in Rio de Janeiro. Work is starting in a school building at Passo Fundo. A union college is being erected and new churches are going up at Santa Anna, Sant Maria, Cachoeira, Sao Paulo, Pocos De Caldas, Biriguy, Penapolis, Aracatuba, Aluquerque Lins, Glyceric, Hector Legru, Casadura, Realengi, and Cafo Frio.

In Japan the first real centenary building has been completed at Oita. The famous Hiroshimn girls' school is operating now as a full college, while Kwansai has become a university, each of these institutions receiving large centenary help. Churches are being built in large numbers and the whole centenary program is being carried out under a staff of secretaries.

Work in Korea.
In Korea the centenary revival is saving thousands and centenary literature is educating them. Ivey hospital has been reinforced and the Songdo school gets large assistance. In Songdo a great evangelistic center has been established and score of churches, parsonages, and chapels are being erected.

The same record is being made in China. The cornerstone of the great Soochow hospital has been laid and the buildings are going up, while Huchow hospital will be erected immediately. The law school at Shanghai has been reinforced and new members have been added to its faculty, while the church guiding enterprises are extensive.

Dr. D. L. Mumpower is enroute back to Africa, carrying workers to reinforce those sent ahead of him by the centenary. The steamship which will ply the rivers of the Congo has long since been constructed, and a large number of new villages will soon be occupied by the Methodists.

Work in Europe.

In Europe wonders have happened. The centenary has a great orphanage, a girls' school and a central plant in the city and suburbs of Brussels, while relief evangelistic centers are operating at Ypres, Menin, Lille, Calais, Aubengue, Boulogne, and Valenciennes. In Serbia there is a children's hospital at Belgrade and another at Ragusa, while Serbian orphans are being cared for at Faversham, England. Centenary workers are in Poland and Czecho-Slovakia, and are opening plants in each country.

At home the record is the same. The women are strengthening plants at Richmond, Brevard, Thomasville, Biloxi, New Orleans, and in the Arcadian country. Thirteen mountain schools have each received large aid. A score or more of home missionaries have been sent out and 14 churches have been built.

All this makes no mention of the 100 new missionaries sent out to all the field, the progress being made in enlisting native workers, the churches which have become self-supporting the salaries that have been raised, the inculcation of the stewardship idea; the souls that have been saved, the liberality that has been cultivated.

"The centenary has made good in a wonderful way. To Methodists who had a part in the great enterprise is should be a cause of thanksgiving. The showing that has been made with the money already received should challenge every congregation pastor and person in the church to put forth supreme efforts in collecting all the pledge that are due," says J. E. Crawford, missionary secretary of the Central Texas conference.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The teachers of Young county will join with the teachers of Jack and Palo Pinto counties in a joint institute to be held in Mineral Wells, December 20-24, 1920. A good program has been arranged and the Young county teachers are looking forward to a profitable institute. Several educational leaders of state and national reputation will conduct the institute this year. The training and inspiration received from institutes of this kind are invaluable to the teachers. The institute will be held in Mineral Wells this year and the plan is for it to be held in Graham or Jacksboro next year. When it is held in Graham, no doubt in addition to the three counties now co-operating, Stephens, Throckmorton, Baylor and Archer counties would gladly join in and in that way one of the best institutes in the state would be held in Graham. Then the new railroad is completed Graham will be a local center for conventions, etc.

BAYLOR LAW DEPARTMENT.

Waco, Texas, Dec. 2.—The law department of Baylor University is steadily growing. This year marks the first attempt of the University to revive the law school since it was abandoned during the time of the Civil War. While the University was at Old Independence the law department was one of the big departments of the University. Men who expected to take part in the politics of the Republic came to Baylor to study law; for at this time there was no other law school in the state. Even after Texas was admitted to the Union, and after other law schools were established, Baylor still held the supremacy. At present there are 25 men enrolled in the law department. Nine of these expected to take degrees in law. Judging from the number of interested inquires that have come to the attention of the dean, next term will show a decided increase in the number of students enrolled in the law department.

CAN THE FUTURE BE FORETOLD BY PLAYING CARDS?

Do cards foretell the future? They are weirdly prophetic in "The Fortune Teller," the Robertson-Cole Super-Special, starring Marjorie Rambeau, the greatest emotional actress of the American stage, which opens at the National Theatre for Thursday, December 16. The screen version of the celebrated stage success dealing with mother-love and psychic phenomena is even more powerful than the play, the big scenes of which necessarily were limited by the stage restrictions. "The Fortune Teller" shows a great actress in a great story, a story filled with tense, dramatic situations. The action is rapid and big scene follows big scene with almost breath-taking swiftness. But the "big scenes" are only "pot-boilers" in comparison with the truly great moments of the picture which show Miss Rambeau at the very pinnacle of her art. Whether cards are false or true prophets is a debatable question, but in "The Fortune Teller" they form the basis of a plot inextricably woven with the appeal of mother-love and the mysteries of psychic phenomena. The Ace of Spades. Renee Browning, (Miss Rambeau), the young and beautiful wife of Horatio Browning, scientist, believes in the superstition that cards reveal the future. Her jealous, tyrannical husband, occupied with his scientific researches, scoffs at her only pastime. But Renee braves his displeasure by reading the cards whenever the opportunity offers. The ace of spades, the card of ill-omen, persists in turning up. And at the very moment when the cold, calculating scientist is engaged in a diatribe against the futility of his wife's harmless enjoyment tragedy stalks in. And tragedy holds the attention of the spectator until mother-love triumphs over seemingly hopeless obstacles, convincing the hard hearted husband of the insecurity of his position and brings to the lone-suffering wife the happiness she had longed for. Miss Rambeau, who completely dominates the picture, is supported by an excellent cast, including E. Fernandez, who played the heavy in the stage production, Frederick Burton, Raymond McKee, T. M. Goupal, Franklin Hanna, Virginia Lee and Cyprian Giles. Wallace Bros. and Benson have opened a real estate business in the Tidwell building on the northwest corner of the square. All the gentlemen have lived here a long time and are well informed along the real estate line. Miss Ruth Doty, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Saint Paul's Sanitarium in Dallas, November 21 is now convalescing. She left the Sanitarium this week for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Petty, at Muskogee, Oklahoma. Miss Doty has been teaching in Meridian College this session. MUSIC CLASS Mrs. S. L. Norris will open her School of Music, in the home of Mrs. Mary E. Timmons at 1001 Kentucky St., Graham, Texas, Monday, December 6, 1920. 14-15c

$125,000 DAMAGE CAUSED BY FIRES.

Wichita Falls, Dec. 5.—Nine fires apparently of incendiary origin in various parts of this city between 2 p. m. and 4 p. m. today caused damage estimated at $125,000. Five men have been placed under arrest and are being held pending an investigation of the fire. The fires were confined to warehouses and stores and were as widely scattered as possible. Firemen answering some of the calls found what they characterized unmistakable evidence of incendiarism. In one place they found a fire brand smoldering under trash and were able to exterminate the blaze before any damage was done.

Before the equipment returned to their respective stations, other alarms were sounded from boxes across town and the apparatus was divided between fires. The burned business houses, which all were on the outskirts of the business section included two hardware warehouses, a grain and feed storage house, a car of cotton, empty dwellings, and a poultry commission house. In one hardware house firemen were chased away from the blaze by the discovery of several hundred pounds of black powder and several cases of dynamite, but by keeping a stream pouring on the powder from a distance managed to prevent it from exploding and setting off the dynamite.

NEGROES IN GRAHAM.

It seems strange to think of negroes living in Graham. I have been many years since negroes lived here. No negroes have been allowed to come to the county until recently when a contractor brought a few here to work on the new railroad. They are camped on the outskirts of the city and have not been disturbed. The labor conditions are such that the contractors are glad to have the negroes and as long as they conduct themselves properly they will be permitted to pursue their work unmolested. HEAVY FLOW FROM GIGANTIC GASSER NOW UNDER CONTROL

WALKER HOUSE HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DESTRUCTION

QUICK WORK OF FIRE DEPARTMENT SAVES BUILDING STREAM OF WATER WITHIN THREE MINUTES GOOD SERVICE APPRECIATED

Great excitement prevailed in Graham last Saturday at 1:30 o'clock when a fire alarm was turned in from the Walker House on West 3rd Street.

The Walker House is the largest rooming house in Graham and is located west of the business houses on the west side of the square. It is a large frame structure and as the wind was blowing from the west it would have been difficult to have saved the business houses on the west side of the square if the fire had gained much headway, but our efficient fire department was in the house just one minute after the alarm was turned in. Graham has a very efficient fire alarm system and as good a volunteer department as can be found in any town.

And as soon as the alarm is in the department is on the scene of the fire immediately.

The boys in their meetings discuss the different business sections of the town and have already made their plans in case a fire breaks out. When the boys learned that the fire was in the Walker House last Saturday they knew just how to proceed to extinguish the flames in the shortest time, and the fact that the flames were not allowed to spread from the room in which the fire originated proved the efficiency of the department.

The fire originated in a corner room on the second floor. The fire damage confined almost wholly to this one room, but there was some water damage to a large part of the building. Firemen had to make some small openings in the roof, but everything considered, the damage was light. If it had not been for the quick work of the fire department the entire west side of the square would have been destroyed.

The fire was supposed to have been caused from smoking in the room, according to reports to the Leader office.

The damage was fully covered by insurance.

MAJOR DALRYMPLE IN GRAHAM.

Major A. V. Dalrymple of Chicago is visiting the Graham oil fields. He has made one $30,000.00 deal and investigating other propositions.

He is a boyhood friend of J. W. Hughes and has been his guest this week. Major Dalrymple has been the prohibition enforcement officer in Chicago, but has resigned and has resumed the practice of law.

He is well pleased with the oil situation in this section and will likely make some more important deals before returning to Chicago.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Virginia Ellen Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Riggs, celebrated on the anniversary of her third birthday, December 4, with a twelve o'clock turkey dinner and afternoon party.

The guests for dinner were Mrs. Julia Baynes, Mrs. H. L. Ward, Misses Pearl Matthews, Eula McCain, Eula Lassater, and Ruby Andrews, Mrs. J. W. Elledge, John Raymond and Eldon Elledge, Mrs. R. A. Robert Young of Elliasville and Mrs. R. A. Wells, Virginia Ellen's great grand mother.

After dinner the little party guests were: Margaret and Dorothy Hodges, Audrey and Leo Masser, Thelma Colors, Lois Frantz, Lorene Shumate, Morris Henson and Bennie Lee Beach. Each of the little guests left a little gift and reported a nice time.

ROOMS WANTED.

All who have rooms to rent by day, week or month are requested to notify the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce or the hotels in order that Graham may take care of the large number of people coming here daily.

MISS WILLMER GIVES A SPLENDID PROGRAM.

Never has Graham had the opportunity of hearing a better program than that given by Miss Mildred Willmer last Saturday night at the school house. She is by far, the best reader ever sent us in the Lyceum or Chatauqua work. As she told of her personal experiences "Over There," in her endeavor to make her audience see and realize some of the things, "Our Boys" had to endure, she read several of the poems with her audience spellbound with her excellent command of language, her wonderful powers of expression, her deep feeling of love for the American soldier, and her hatred for every thing which tends to take away any of the honor due him.

The audience was not a large one; due partly to the fact that it was Saturday night and the business men were tired, but chiefly due, no doubt, to the tendency so prevalent these days, to care only for the "light" forms of amusement. In this way so much of real worth is passed by, for that which, while it may not be really harmful, yet does not contribute one iota to the upbuilding of character. This, every number sent out by the Lyceum Bureau, does and that given by Miss Willmer will have a lasting influence upon every one who heard her.

The 3rd Lyceum number is a lecture to be given December 25, by Ralph Parlette.

SHERIFF SAYE APPREHENDING VIOLATORS OF LAW.

Sheriff John W. Saye has entered upon the duties of his office and is maintaining the high degree of efficiency that has been maintained in this office in the past.

The first day he was in the office he raided a poker game in the oil fields and arrested ten men. He has since arrested and collected fines from three others in the same section. He jailed one man in Graham last Saturday who was drunk. The man had a bottle of bitters in his pocket when arrested. The sheriff's department is not provided with sufficient funds to carry on the work in Young County as it should be, but Sheriff Saye is hard at work and is giving those who indulge in vice and crime to understand that they will find rough sailing in Young County.

HOTEL GRAHAM SOLD TO P. L. NICHOLS OF BRECKENRIDGE.

J. F. McNabb has sold the Hotel Graham to P. L. Nichols of Breckenridge and today made the transfer.

Mr. McNabb opened the hotel only a short time ago and had nearly every room occupied every night. He is an efficient hotel manager and has made many friends during the short time that he has had charge of the hotel.

The new management will continue the same service and we feel sure the Hotel Graham will continue to be very popular with the traveling public.

THE TURKEY MARKET.

The turkey market is good in Graham this fall. The local demand is unusually heavy and many are being shipped away to the Eastern markets. The farmers of this and surrounding counties are bringing in large numbers of turkeys daily.

The turkey crop is more profitable this year than the cotton crop. It proves that to diversify on turkeys is a paying proposition. There is a ready market for turkeys, chickens, eggs, milk, butter and all farm products. Less cotton and more of the good priced produce ought to be the slogan of the farmers.

GRAHAM SCHOOL CHILDREN JOIN JUNIOR RED CROSS

In response to the "Fourth Roll Call" of the Red Cross, the teachers in the Graham schools worked with the students in securing members for the "Junior Red Cross." A great many of the students responded to the call, and some rooms numbered 100 per cent members. About 50 per cent of the students have become members.

It seems just and right that any group of children joining 100 per cent deserves to be on a high honor roll. The teachers are pleased to know that all the children in the rooms joined. All the children in the high 7th grade, Miss Bates' room; and all the children in the low 6th grade, Miss Jones' room, joined, this placing the two rooms on the high honor roll.

Mr. E. S. Graham, County Chairman, states that in case sufficient funds are secured, a red cross nurse will be employed with headquarters at the school building. This would enable the children in the Graham schools to have physical examinations and expert medical advice without cost.

MODERN HOSPITAL ERECTED IN GRAHAM

After many years of waiting and much talking and urging on the part of the physicians and people of Graham and Young County, Graham is to have a modern up-to-date hospital, due to the direct efforts of Dr. H. E. Griffin of this city, who is building and equipping this hospital at a cost of about $15,000.00.

In building this institution in Graham, Dr. Griffin has indeed proved himself to be a public spirited man and interested in relieving suffering mankind.

Up to the present time a large majority of the surgical cases from this section of the county have gone to Fort Worth and Dallas owing to the fact that Graham had no hospital.

With the erection of this hospital we shall have the benefit of all modern methods at our door. This will be especially beneficial in emergency cases.

This is not a private hospital or Sanitarium. It will be open to all Practicing Physicians and Surgeons. Patients may have their own private nurses, but like all well regulated institutions the hospital will be under the supervision of a thoroughly competent and efficient graduate nurse.

The institution will have room for 14 patients each with a private room. All patients' private rooms will be furnished in white enamel and equipped with a special health and ventilating system, modern adjustable hospital beds, sanddown mattresses and push button for patient which lights a red light on nurses desk and continues to flash until call is answered. All furniture will be white enameled steel. A modern hot water plant will be installed for the entire building.

In addition to the special equipment for the patients in the private rooms provision is being made for visiting physicians and surgeons, who will have benefit of a well equipped laboratory for nuroscopical and chemical examinations and analysis together with modern x-ray machine for diagnosis. The operating room will be especially lighted for either day or night work. A live steam sterilizer and all other equipment necessary to make the hospital first class in every way is being installed for the convenience of all physicians and surgeons using the hospital.

The work is being rushed as rapidly as possible and it will not be long until the hospital will be opened. The need for this institution is imperative and since there are so many people here there is no doubt, but that it will be filled to its capacity through the entire winter and will be of great service to the traveling public as well as our own people in need of hospital accommodations.

The lot on West 4th Street on which the Ragland-Cordell lumber yard has been located has been bought by John Ware, who recently moved here from Stephens county, at a consideration of $12,500.

Quail are plentiful this year and many Nimrods are to be found in the fields each day trying to bay the maximum number permissible under

NEW LAUNDRY MACHINERY PURCHASED

Gallaher and Faunt Le Roy have closed a deal for new machinery for a new laundry in Graham.

A larger and better arranged building than the one recently burned will be erected on the site of the old laundry building on Cherry St. Work will begin at once and it is the plan of the management to have the plant in operation by March 1st or sooner.

The capacity of the new plant will be double the old one and in connection with the new laundry will be installed odorless dry cleaning department.

Graham has been greatly in need of a laundry since the old one was destroyed by fire a short time ago, and everyone is delighted that Mr. Faunt Le Roy will assume the management of the new plant. He has made many friends here and will have a good business when his new plant is ready for operation.

In the meantime he will continue his agency to take care of the laundry business until the new plant is completed.

The Civic League is devoted absolutely to the betterment of Graham. Its sole aim is to make Graham a better and more beautiful place in which to live. Will you not help? The next meeting of the League will be on the first Wednesday in January, 1921, at 2:30 P. M. at the Beckham National Bank.

MUDDY ROADS GREATLY DELAY HAULING OF HEAVY MATERIAL

McCLUSKEY AND O. P. & G. WELLS SHOW NO ACREAGE IN PRODUCTION—SEVERAL AT INTERESTING DEPTH—LEASING ACTIVE

The spirit and enthusiasm of the oil situation is running high, but the heavy rains and the cold weather during the past few days have delayed, to some extent, the field developments. In spite of the muddy roads, however, the heavy haulers have moved a great deal of material this week and rigs are going up at a rapid rate.

Oil men are coming from every section of the country and considerable high priced acreage is being secured by experienced oil men from other fields.

There are several wells that are now at interesting depths and before many days we shall know the extent of the South Bend pool.

The Shamrock-Graham No. 1 Block survey 2,000 feet west of the O. P. & G. No. 1, Chapman et al., lot 5 Tankersley survey 300 feet north of O. P. & G. No. 1, and Colcord No. 1, Samuel Wood survey, 2,500 feet northwest of the McCluskey No. 1 are being watched closely. They are expected to come in any day. All acreage in the vicinity of these wells is hard to obtain at any price. All contractors are working as fast as possible to complete their well before the close of the year.

The Young County Oil and Gas Company Stephen Denison survey is drilling at 1630 feet. One sand has been encountered in which there was a good showing of gas. The log of this well is very similar to that of the O. P. & G. and the McCluskey. A. L. Barnes, the manager of the company, is encouraged over the prospects of his well.

The price of the stock has been raised from $10.00 to $12.50 and as soon as oil is struck all stock will be taken off the market as the individual members of the company are financially able to finance the company.

A 300 barrel well will make this lease worth one half million dollars. Shamrock Oil and Gas Company, Block No. 19, rig burned down Wednesday morning, but another is being erected and drilling will be resumed by Tuesday. The well is 2765 feet.

Konawa Oil and Gas Company has had rig completed for some time on west 30 acres, Block No. 19, Stovall Plantation.

Hall & Patterson-Harris No. 1, Block No. 30, Stovall Plantation rig up.

Erle Oil Company, Block No. 43, shut down waiting on casing, 2450 feet.

BAD CHECKS

The Leader carried an editorial on "bad checks" a few weeks ago. There is a law against giving bad checks, but it seems that it does not prevent the writing of them.

We give below an article clipped from the Baylor County Banner giving the course the business men of Seymour are planning to pursue:

At a meeting of all of the business firms in Seymour, Tuesday evening, November 30th, it was unanimously decided that every business house in town would co-operate in taking immediate action to stop bogus check giving and the giving of checks by individuals where such individuals do not have sufficient funds in bank to cover.

It was pointed out that bogus checking, promiscuous checking on insufficient funds should be stopped, as same causes so much unnecessary trouble to all parties holding such checks, and same is a violation of the law.

It was decided in order to stop such promiscuous checking, that all the merchants in town would use certified checks and that each check will have stamped above the place for signature the following:

"I hereby certify that I now have and will have funds in the above bank to cover this check when presented for payment."

It was further agreed that all violators under this system should be promptly notified and given a chance to make such check good and failure to take care of such check after having been duly notified should be prosecuted.

It was also agreed that a list of all bad checks would be kept on file for inspection by all the merchants of the city and if found necessary free publication be made of same.

Such action by the merchants will be of much interest to the town and country as it will save a vast amount of time, trouble and expense.

United Home Builders of America

A National Loan, Protective and Investment Society Operating Under a Declaration of Trust and Agreement and Under Department of Insurance and Banking of the State of Texas.

Home Office DALLAS, TEXAS 911 Main Street

Depository Bank American Exchange National Bank of Dallas, Texas Assets over $44,000,000.00

INTRODUCTION

The United Home Builders of America, operating under a "Declaration of Trust" and Agreement, with the Home office located in Dallas, Texas, have appointed W. M. Webb and A. A. Cocke as Trustees to handle the "Trust Fund," to be administered strictly according to the terms and conditions set out in the co-operative contract issued to the co-operators, or "members," who help to build the business, known as the United Home Builders of America. The aforesaid Trustees have given a good and sufficient bond in the sum of $100,000.00.

OUR PROPOSITION AS A LOAN

The owner of a contract is entitled to a loan in the numerical order of the application therefor, according to the year, month, day, hour and minute the application is signed and when funds are accumulated therefor, in the "Loan or Trust Fund," as stated in the terms and conditions of the contract issued.

ACCUMULATE MONEY BUY A HOME, BUILD A HOME, IMPROVE PROPERTY, OR PAY OFF A MORTGAGE carrying a high rate of interest, and you can repay the United Home Builders at the rate of $10.00 per month, with 3 per cent per annum on unpaid yearly balances, on each $1,000.00 borrowed, with the privilege of paying off the unpaid balance at any time, without bonus or premium. No loan will be made until at least 15 per cent of the "face value" of your contract has been paid in, but if your contract should mature in six months, or any time prior to the payment of 15 monthly installments, you have the right to advance the difference and secure the loan at once; or you may continue your payments until 15 "monthly installments" have been paid, then take the loan according to the terms of your contract.

OUR PROPOSITION AS AN INVESTMENT

When the contract has matured for a loan under the terms thereof, the United Home Builders will, if the holder so elects, pay to the "member" the full amount of all monthly installments paid on the contract, and in addition thereto One Hundred and Fifty Dollars in Cash for each $1,000 carried.

Monthly installments of $10.00 each, paid on a contract reached for a loan in fifteen months the estimated average time for maturing our contracts would be as follows: Fifteen monthly installments...$150.00 Cash bonus paid in lieu of a loan... 150.00

Total amount paid contract member $300.00

A clear net profit of... 140.00 On an investment of... 150.00

This means an average of about 100 per cent per annum on the money you have invested in our contracts. CAN YOU BEAT IT? The above cash bonus of $150.00 on a $1,000 contract is paid in lieu of a loan in whatever month the contract is reached for a loan, and said bonus is ABSOLUTE-LY GUARANTEED.

CHOICE OF OPTIONS

When a contract has matured for a loan, the contract member has the choice of three options:

FIRST. The contract member can accept the loan at 3 per cent per annum, computed annually on unpaid balances, repayable in small monthly payments, less than rent.

SECOND. The member may reject the loan and cash in his contract for $150.00 more than he has paid in on "monthly installments." A net profit of $150.00 on each $1,000 contract carried.

THIRD. The contract member can refuse the loan; reject the bonus of $150.00 and carry his contract for 120 months, making payments for 100 months only, and receive his proportionate share of all profits accruing from the simple and compound interest earnings, not, however, to exceed the estimated maximum amount named in Section 14 of the contract.

RE-PAYMENT OF A $1,000 LOAN

Monthly Payments on a $1,000 Loan With 3 Per Cent Interest on Yearly Balances

Fifteen monthly installment of $10.00 each... $150.00

Placed to credit on your loan... $150.00

Amount by the Society... 850.00

A loan of... $1,000.00

Table with 7 columns: YEAR, Balance Due on Loan, Yearly Interest % Per Cent, Principal Paid Yearly $10 Per Month, Total Yearly Payments Principal & Interest, Payments Monthly from Year to Year. Rows 1-8 and Totals.

Totals... $108.20 $850.00 $958.20

If you adopt our plan the landlord will soon cease to call. See our agent and take out the amount you can carry.

IS THE HAPPIEST

So Mrs. Poe Says After Tanlac Re-

Thirty Pounds.

"The results I have got from Tanlac are so wonderful that I feel compelled to tell everybody about it," said Mrs. John Poe, 601 Third St., Pekin, Ill., "and my recovery, after fifteen years suffering, has made me the happiest woman in Illinois."

"Why everything that I ate caused me agony. Gas pressed up around my heart so I would faint, and when I recovered consciousness I would be limp as a rag. Lots of times my neighbors came in thinking I was going to die. I also suffered with rheumatism so bad I would have to sit for days at a time with my feet on a pillow in a chair and my elbows were so stiff and painful I could hardly use my arms. I could hardly sleep at all and have stayed awake many a night from pain."

"My husband urged me to try Tanlac and the way it restored my health was the gladdiest surprise that I ever had. Why, I have gained thirty pounds since I began taking it, my troubles have disappeared completely and I feel as splendid as when I was a girl. I just feel like I owe my life to Tanlac and I only wish I had known of it long ago."

Tanlac is sold in Graham by Sloan Drug Company, and in New Castle by Leon Slaughter & Co.

FLIER MAKES 385 MILES AN HOUR IN GALE.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Dec. 11.—Forty-five miles in seven minutes or a speed of 385 miles an hour, is the airplane record claimed here Saturday by Jack Knight, air mail pilot.

When the De Havilland 4 plane which he was piloting to Salt Lake with 400 pounds of mail encountered a hurricane at a low altitude, Knight turned tail in the wind forty five miles west of this city and returned to a point over the local field in seven minutes.

While 3,000 feet in the air the wind so exactly counteracted the push of the 400-horsepower Liberty motor that the plane hung motionless over the field while consternation prevailed in the air mail hanger below.

Knight finally managed to come to come to earth through a series of perilous "side slips," executed with the nose of the machine squarely in the wind, making the last 200 feet on an even keel, but almost vertically.

Knight is widely known as an aviator. He carried botulinus antitoxin from New York to Chicago by airplane at the time of the ripe olive tragedy.

The "Ultona" a Brunswick patent is found only on the Brunswick.

HIGH COURT HOLDS
CHIROPRACTORS MUST PASS EXAMINATION.

Austin, Dec. 1.—Chiropractors must pass the required medical examination and hold certificates entitling them to practice medicine in Texas before engaging in their profession, the court of criminal appeals held in effect today in affirming the judgment against D. M. Hicks of Anderson county, given a $50 fine and one hour in jail for unlawfully practicing medicine. According to the statement of fact, Hicks was a chiropractor and had failed to register the required certificate with the district clerk.

Presiding Judge W. L. Davidson dissented from the majority opinion.

LAST NIGHT'S DREAMS

—WHAT THEY MEAN

(Copyright.)

DID YOU DREAM ABOUT SHEEP?

MOST dreams of rural life and country scenes appear to be regarded by the authorities of Dreamland as favorable omens. To dream of seeing a flock of sheep, for instance, is a very good indication for the future. To be surrounded by them increases the good luck and a flock of lambs foretells even more good luck than a flock of sheep. But just to gaze upon a flock of sheep feeding in the pastures of your dreams means that you will have success in life.

If you are unmarried and dream that you are watching the little lambs, skip about, your sweetheart is faithful and of a good disposition. Also, if you are a man, the lady of your choice is inclined to say "Yes," if you will but pop the question. If you are married and see sheep or lambs in the visions of your slumbers you will have children who will acquire riches and be a great comfort to you. If you pick up a lamb and carry it in your dreams you will be a lucky person indeed.

If a sailor dreams of sheep it means great luck and a safe and prosperous voyage to him. If you see yourself shearing sheep it is an indication that you will shortly make money by a business enterprise, though, according to some of the wiseacres, it means that you will have to struggle hard for this success. But it isn't good to see the sheep running away from you, for that indicates that some of your pretended friends are really trying to injure you. It is a warning to be on your guard. Also it is a bad sign to hear the lambs ban or to see them killed. If you see your flock of dream sheep lean and scraggy look out for your investments carefully if you would profit by them.

With the few exceptions noted the lambs and muttons of Dreamland are much to be desired and come far cheaper than in the markets of the world of actualities, the food profiteer not as yet having obtained a foothold in the realm of shadows.

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good

By JESSIE ROBERTS

JOB AND YOUR HEALTH

IS A WOMAN as strong as a man? Given the same stature and weight, can she do equally hard work and not suffer for it?

Among many other matters that the war proved or disproved, this seems also to be settled—and settled in the negative. She can't!

Woman can do the same work, given a like training. But she breaks down under it where the man remains uninjured.

In France and England women for five years did the work of men. They have not stood up under the strain as men do. In England, physicians' reports show that of two thousand five hundred women examined in one industry, 42 per cent were found to be suffering from severe physical exhaustion or actual ill health, brought on by overwork. Yet men stood up under the same work without difficulty.

We are none of us likely to go into munition factories or to undertake heavy labor. But there is more in this than the fact that a woman ought not to attempt such feats. A girl who is looking about for a job ought to think of it in regard to herself—in regard to her health. The nervous and high-strung girl should not take up telephoning, for instance, nor should she go into a large and noisy office. She won't stand the strain.

A girl I knew who made a success of a small tea and lunch room got ambitious and took the whole house. She rented rooms and served a dinner as well as breakfast and lunch. She gave good meals and good service, had a large force of assistants to manage, and in six months she broke down and had to go to a sanitarium.

What's the use?

Your health is priceless. And once shaken, it isn't easy to get into good shape again. Look at your health as part of your capital, and conserve it. Never let your job borrow from that capital. There are times when you cannot control the thing, and when you do you must do the best you can and hope to get through with it. But most of us are just careless. It doesn't pay.

HOLIDAY, GOOD THINGS.

As Christmas draws near we turn to the good old fashioned cakes and candies.

Gala Cake.

Cream one-half cupful of shortening, add one cupful of granulated sugar. Beat two egg yolks until light, add to them one-half cupful of sugar. Beat the egg and sugar mixture into the butter and sugar, and when thoroughly blended add one cupful of milk alternately with three cupfuls of flour, sifted with four teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Beat well and fold in the stiffly beaten whites and pour into a single loaf cake pan, buttered and papered and bake thirty minutes. When cool, spread with

A Christmas Bowl.

Bake six greenings and three Baldwins without removing the skins or cores. When tender add four quarts of boiling water, the thin yellow rind of three lemons and four oranges and two bay leaves. Let simmer twenty minutes then strain through a bag, pressing out the juice. Boil three cupfuls of sugar with a pint of water 20 minutes. Add to the liquid with one cupful of black tea infusion and set aside to become cold. Then add the fruit juices and a small bottle of maraschino cherries with the syrup. Let stand several hours before serving.

Corn Balls.

Put three tablespoonfuls of butter into a saucepan and when melted add

two cupfuls of molasses and two-thirds of a cupful of sugar. Stir until the sugar is dissolved. Boil until the mixture is brittle when dropped in cold water. Pour over six quarts of popped corn. Butter the fingers and slip late balls before it gets too cool.

Peanut Brittle.

Melt a cupful or more of sugar in a smooth frying pan stirring until a good brown; pour over a pan of peanuts and put to cool.

THE WOODS

BY DOUGLAS MALLOCH

THE MYSTERY.

Heard a rustle in the brush Only yesternight; Heard a rustle in the hush, Somethin' out of sight— Jest a footfall on the ground, Shakin' of a tree; But we argued all around What the thing could be.

Jack, the stable-boy, he said Likely 'twas a colt— Farmer's colt that got its head, Broke its halter hot, Bill, the cookhouse flunkey, swore 'Twas a bear or cub Huntin' round the cookhouse door For a snack of grub.

Pete, who likes to hunt when fall Comes around each year, Said it wasn't that at all— That it was a deer. Frank, who drives the two-ox pair, Said they made him laugh, Said their colt or deer or bear Simply was a calf.

So they set an' argued What the thing could be; Ev'ry fellow took a side, Had a theory. Jack he chimed it with the chaps, Bill with all the boys; Mac, who's deaf, he said perhaps There wasn't any noise.

What the rustle was about, No one ever knew; But one fact I figgured out From that gabby crew: People look with different eyes, Hear with different ears; That what closest to them lies Ev'rything appears.

Ev'ry nation is the best To the man from there, Ev'ry state beats all the rest When their sons compare. Do you wonder at the lot Of religious creeds?— Each a special God has got For his special needs.

Harpers an' music fer the gay, Huntin' fer the red; Athelists expect to stay Permanently dead; Streets of sapphire fer the Jew; Fer the weary, rest— Each, accordin' to his view, Thinks his heaven best.

An' I'm puzzled, I admit, Fuzzled at the maze— Heaven, you kin figger it Forty-seven ways: Heaven with a street of gold; With a Jasper gate; Heaven where the very old Still must sit an' wait.

If there are so many there, There beyond the blue, Heavens round an' heavens square, Gentle, Injun, Jew— All thet I can do is trust, Since they can't agree, When I lay me "dust to dust" There'll be one fer me. (Copyright.)

"CIGAR."

A NUMBER of prominent etymologists, among them Littré, have endeavored to prove the word "cigar" is derived from the Spanish cigarra, meaning grasshopper, and that it was applied to the rolled leaves of tobacco by reason of their similarity in shape to the body of this insect. This explanation, while ingenious, hardly fits the facts in the case, for when tobacco was first introduced into Spain from Cuba, it was grown in gardens or cigarrales, as the Spanish call them.

The wealthier Spaniards had a fad of raising tobacco in their cigarrales and making their own cigars, which they would proffer with the explanation "Es de mi cigarra!" ("It is from my garden" as proof that the tobacco was wholesome and home-grown). Before long the expression changed to "Este cigarro es de mi cigarra!" which might be literally translated, "This garden product from my garden," and it was from this that the word "cigar" originated.

However, in the final analysis, the grasshopper does have something to do with it—for the Spanish "cigarra" or "garden" is so-called because it is the place where the grasshopper ("cigarra") resides. (Copyright.)

PECULIAR TYPE OF ORATOR KING HAS SUPREME POWER

Small Wonder That in This Bombastic Age He Created Something of a Sensation.

The speaker of the occasion was of such unusual appearance that the audience gasped or giggled, according to the preference of its members, when he came upon the rostrum.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he harshly began, "poverty would be abolished in this country if we could only save and devote to some useful purpose the time we waste in listening to Hons, Chautauqua lecturers, pointers with pride and viewers with alarm, singers who cannot sing, babbling bards, parents of bright children, bearers of messages to the waiting world, and sundry other hores whom it is not necessary to mention at this time."

And peculiar as was his personal appearance, his procedure was more unique, for, having said his say, he bowed grimly and retired from the rostrum.—Kansas City Star.

But There Are Reasons Why British Monarch Does Not Exercise His Royal Prerogative.

If the king did all he might do without exceeding his royal prerogative the nation would be startled. He can veto a bill passed in both houses; he can dissolve and summon parliament; he can select or dismiss his ministers; he can declare war; he can make treaties and create peers; he can appoint bishops, governors and judges—and all "on his own." He could cede the duchy of Cornwall to a foreign power, disband the army and navy, and sell the dreadnaughts and naval stores. He could give every government official, from the highest to the lowest, the "push," could pardon all criminals, and could stop the whole machinery of government. But there is an unwritten law of common sense, fortified by long usage, which makes it unthinkable that the king should do these things; and in the last resort, which is never likely to occur, the king, being a constitutional monarch, reigns by the will of the people, and could be deposed by act of parliament.—Montreal Herald.

Then I tried Ware's Baby Powder, and was gratified to see almost instant relief, and shortly my babies were entirely well. I do not believe they would have lived had it not been for Ware's Baby Powder."

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

First Step in Treatment Is a Brisk Purgative With Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets that are Nausealess, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess calomel tablets called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Druggists sell Calotabs only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Your money will be cheerfully refunded if you do not find them delightful.—(Adv.)

What Women Love

There is a world of pretty neckwear that every woman will love to wear and almost any woman can make. A favorite piece consists of a collar with vestee to match, like that shown above.

Pretty Powder Bowls

Lace and Satin Piece

Wide satin ribbon and Val lace give a good account of themselves in the attractive neck-piece shown above. It is a vestee and collar combined, with a small "V"-shaped chemisette of lace, set in the vestee. The collar and chemisette are edged with narrow lace.

Charm to Ribbon

A morning jacket, a boudoir cap, a powder puff and little hand mirror, all owing their charm to lovely ribbons, are gift suggestions appearing above. The jacket and cap are made by setting together strips of narrow satin ribbon and Val lace.

Christmas Circus

Crepe paper offers any number of good opportunities for making Christmas gifts, especially for the children. Printed figures of wild, or of domestic animals, are cut out, to make menageries or familiar barnyard friends, that delight the youngsters. The pictures are pasted over stiff cardboard and then cut out, following the outline of the animal, but leaving a straight piece to provide a support.

Pretty Breakfast Caps

Every dear lady, young or old, has a right to expect that Santa Claus will bring her a pretty new breakfast cap. Three of this year's models, all easy to make, are shown in the picture and they employ ribbons, net laces and flowers, as usual.

The Christmas Candle

Every Christmas brings its new candle and lamp shades that do so much to make the house gay and please their recipients. Parchment, silk, ribbons and crepe paper are used for making these gifts. The lovely shade pictured is made of crepe paper.

Gift Bags of Ribbons

Plain satin, satin with pleated edges and handsome brocaded ribbons in great variety, or silks go to make up the lovely shopping and opera bags designed for the holidays. Mountings of metal or composition, to harmonize with the patterns, and ornaments, including silk cord, beads, pendants and milk-covered forms, are all at hand to help in the finishing of these gifts.

DODSON WARNS CALOMEL USERS

You Cannot Gripe, Sicken, or Salivate Yourself If You Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel listless, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition, and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.—Adv.

TREE HAS "CANDY" FLOWERS

Indian Product That Rivals the "Gingerbread House" of the Remembered Fairy Tales.

We have all read the story of the "gingerbread house" in the fairy tales. Well, there is a family of trees in India that have "candy" flowers, or the next thing to it. These trees are known as the "Bassia" trees, and of the three important kinds, two have sugary flowers and the third is called the "Indian butter tree." The petals of the flowers are rich in sugar and drop from the tree in the early morning. They are picked up by the women and children and are spread out on mats to dry in the sun. A single tree will furnish 300 pounds of flowers in a year. When fresh, the flowers are very sweet and taste much like figs. They are eaten fresh or cooked with rice, shredded coconut, or flour. The seeds of the butter tree are full of oil, and this oil is used to make a kind of butter, and also for soap and candles.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

LEWIS S. STONE IN BIG WOODS DRAMA.
"Man's Desire," starring Lewis S. Stone, distributed by Exhibitors Mutual, is a vivid drama of the timber country with a "kick" in every reel, is coming to the National Theatre, December 17th.

By "kick" is meant punch, and following out the line of thought, "Man's Desire" at the present time, in some instances, seems to be concentrated on something with a "kick" and a "punch" to it. The k and p in this galvants drama, however, leave no headache in their wake.

The "desire" of Tom Denton was a normal, healthy and manly craving—to make a good woman happy,—to make a good woman happy. Tom had no other desires, too, which were more or less praiseworthy. One was to "get" the scoundrel who had killed his brother in cold blood and had terrorized the girl Tom wished to make happy, into a compulsory marriage.

Tom Denton was a "straight shooter" in everything. He played square with his partner whose wife tried to vamp him. He played square with the girl whose brute of a husband mistreated her. He was a "straight shooter"—and a fast one—when he came up with "Bull" Larkin and "got" him with his shooter. It's a high-pressure drama, with Lewis S. Stone in a role, that gives him plenty to do, and he does it in a snappy way. Stone himself wrote the play, which was produced under the direction of Lloyd Ingraham.

MINTS ESTABLISH RECORD IN COINAGE IN YEAR.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The mints established a record in coinage during the last fiscal year according to the annual report of Director Ray Baker made public tonight. A total of 809,500,000 coins were executed which Mr. Baker declares is a world's record. The figures show an increase of 466 per cent in coinage over 1915, the last normal year.

Public demand for smaller coins, particularly pennies is reflected in the report, which discloses that more than 512,500,000 coins in the record output were one cent pieces.

Mr. Baker said much modern equipment had been installed in all mints during the year.

DEATHS BY AUTO ACCIDENTS FEWER.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Three thousand, eight hundred persons met death from automobile accidents in the larger cities of the country during the last year, according to figures from the Census Bureau. Nineteen of these occurred in Dallas, fourteen in Houston and fourteen in San Antonio, all decreases from the year before. The bureau offers the following suggestions for traffic improvement:

At street crossings the erection of curbed saftet islands, which at the most dangerous spots should be very close together. Construction of additional crossings in the middle of blocks where automobiles can approach from only two directions. Demonstration of great skill in driving each machine before granting driver's license for that machine. Reduction of speed limit, especially at crossings. Fine, revoking of license and imprisonment, each to have its place as an actual penalty.

The tendency to exonerate automobile drivers and to place the blame of accidents upon pedestrians indicates lack of a full comprehension of the problems involved, says the bureau.

OREGON TO DROP PROPAGANDA FOR U. S. RECOGNITION.

Mexico City, Dec. 9.—Efforts to obtain recognition by the United States of the Obregon regime in Mexico will not be carried on as actively as they were under the administration of Adolfo de la Huerta, it is indicated here. It is declared he is inclined to allow his administration during the next few months to act as his appeal for recognition.

An indication that recognition by the United States is not far away, it is asserted, is the absence of Alberto J. Pani from the Obregon Cabinet. It is understood the former Mexican Minister to France is next as the President's choice as an eventual representative in Washington.

The fact that within the past few days, Japan, Germany and Brazil have recognized Mexico has aroused only mild newspaper comment. Several journals have urged editorially the necessity of recognition by the United States government asserting that would mean similar action by all the European powers. They argue that such recognition would add stability to the Obregon government, which faces critical months of reclamation.

President Obregon spent the most of his first week in official life at home recuperating from the strenuous program of the inauguration. He is taking a rigid system of diet and exercise.

QUALITY

When buying a musical instrument whether a Piano, Player Piano or a Phonograph, you should look well into the quality of same. A strictly high class instrument means a life time of pleasure and satisfaction.

If you should be unfortunate enough to select an inferior instrument (no matter how low in price it may be) it will mean dissatisfaction as long as you own it. In buying an instrument take into consideration what it will be in 10, 20 or 30 years from now

Probably no other one thing has brought to the farm so much of comfort and profit as has the Ford car. It has enlarged the social life, doubled the facilities for marketing, brought the town next door to the farm, multiplied for the farmer the pleasures of living. WILL SPEND TWENTY MILLION ON ORIENT

PRESIDENT KEMPER IS NOW EN ROUTE TO MEXICO CITY FOR INAUGURATION.

OF MUCH AID TO WEST TEXAS

Closing of Gaps From San Angelo to De Leon Is Planned At Once.

Dallas.—Confident that Mexico has returned to a basis of peace and stability, W. T. Kemper, president and receiver of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad companies of Kansas, Texas and Mexico, and a party of big financial men of Kansas interested in the line, spent a short time in Dallas Tuesday morning en route to Mexico to attend the inauguration of General Obregon Dec. 1 and to inspect the Mexico lines of the Orient railroad.

The expenditure of the $20,000,000 will connect the existing sections of the Orient line from Kansas to the west coast of Mexico, Mr. Kemper said. With the assurance of the Mexican government that it will aid the financing of the line, and after the Kansas interests have seen the country and gone over the system as it now exists, Mr. Kemper believes the financing of the project will be easily accomplished.

It will require the construction of 338 miles of road in Mexico and the building of a gap between Alpine and Mexico, 69 miles long to give a new transcontinental line. The line now runs from Wichita, Kan., to Alpine, via San Antonio. There are two unconnected lines in Mexico, one out of Chihuahua east and west, 154 miles long, and one from Topolobampo, on the west coast, 100 miles eastward into the Sierra Madras.

Completion of the road to connect with the Mexican system will mean much to west Texas. Even during the revolutionary troubles in Mexico, the Mexican divisions have paid money, while the divisions in the United States have lost. The road has 790 miles of track in the United States, with San Angelo as headquarters of the Texas division.

Another phase of the importance of the road is through the probable connection with the Mexican railways at Allendale from Del Rio, 30 miles. The contract has been let for the construction of this line. A dump has been built for a line by the Orient from San Angelo to Del Rio 260 miles. The building of these lines will give a new and shorter line from Kansas City and west Texas to Mexico City.

BANK IS ROBBED BY UNMASKED BANDITS

Fort Worth, Texas.—The First State bank of Polytechnic, a Fort Worth suburb, was held up and robbed of about $6,000 shortly after noon Tuesday when most of the employees of the bank were out to lunch. The robbers rode up in an automobile and one of the two leveled a pistol at an attendant in the bank. A package of currency of $2,000 was first taken. When they had gotten all the money in sight the two men backed out and jumped into their car and headed toward Fort Worth. The bank attendant said they both were about 25 years old and wore checked caps. They were of medium stature and one of them wore a brown overcoat. The man who held the gun on the bank official had his cap pulled down over his forehead, but neither wore a mask.

THE MARKETS

Supplied by the Bureau of Markets, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

HAY AND FEED: Hay market continues dull. Demand light. Heaviest receipts expected from now on as supplies everywhere are abundant. While prices remained unchanged in a few western markets, Kansas City reports inability to absorb increased receipts and prices declined from $1 to $2 per ton. Southern demand remains unimproved. Quoted—No. 1 alfalfa $33 Memphis, $28 Kansas City, No. 2 prairie $21 Chicago, $18.50 Kansas City. Wheat feed stocks at Lake ports 12,000 tons; stocks in markets reported greater than demand. Stocks of other feeds particularly high protein feeds, heavy; dealers well supplied. Prices unchanged to easier. Dealers continue to decline in corn price of gluten feed advanced by principal manufacturers on account low production. Market remains quiet; dealers well supplied and unwilling to supply heavily at prevailing prices. Quoted—36 p. e. cottonseed meal $35 Memphis, bran $3, middlings $2.50 Minneapolis; No. 1 alfalfa meal $29 Kansas City; white herring $53 St. Louis; gluten feed $43 Chicago; red clover $20 Memphis.

DAIRY PRODUCTS: Butter market barely holding its own with increasing tendency to greater weakness. Chicago market broke 2c on the 29th. Danish butter is being used, when necessary to supply family trade. The demand continues to be small lots to supply immediate needs. There is no snap to market and although undergrades are being cleared and show quite a wide range in prices most buyers are interested only in the lower grades, closing prices Chicago 50c. There has been increased demand for field cheese. Chicago points ruled firm during the week but reported weaker on the 29th. Young Americans have been in especially good demand at advancing prices. Lighter demand for Danishes. General tone of market good. Dealers keeping stock of fresh cheese well cleared up. Demand for field cheese will increase from now on.

COTTON: Prices for spot cotton and future contracts declined steadily throughout the week. The average price for middling spot cotton as quoted by the 18 designated seed markets lost about 230 points closing at 15.09c, a new low level for this season. This price represents a drop of about 58 p. c. since August 2, 1920, when spot cotton sold at 18.51c. New York December futures lost 292 points, closing at 15.25c, which is also the lowest point recorded for December future contracts so far this season. On August 2, 1920, when spot cotton sold at 18.51c, New York December futures lost 292 points, closing at 15.25c, which is also the lowest point recorded for December future contracts so far this season. On August 2, 1920, when spot cotton sold at 18.51c, New York December futures lost 292 points, closing at 15.25c, which is also the lowest point recorded for December future contracts so far this season.

LIVE STOCK AND MARKETS: Under record breaking receipts and generally poor quality, the Chicago cattle market declined sharply compared with a week ago. Best corn fed steers are 20c to $1 lower, butcher cattle $1 to $2 lower; stockers and feeders mostly 75c to $1 lower. Hogs declined steadily and the net depreciation for the week ranged 50c to $1.50 per 100 lbs. Sheep and lambs joined the downward movement, both fat and feeding stock declining 50c to 75c. Yearlings broke 75c to $1. November 20 hog prices: $12; yearling steers $17; good beef steers $13.25 to $14.25; heifers $12.25; cows $10; feeders $10.50; western $11.75; veal calves $15; fat lambs $12; feeding lambs $12.25, ewes. Under fairly liberal receipts and rather slow demand, fresh meat prices declined $1 to $1.50 per 100 lbs. during the week, beef being the weakest feature. Fresh pork held steady to a shade lower. Mutton $1 lower; lamb and veal generally $2 down. November 20 prices on good grade meats: beef $17 to $22; veal $4 to $26; lamb $24 to $27; mutton $12 to $17; light pork loins $22 to $26; heavy loins $26 to $34.

GRAIN: The wheat market was a little steadier the first two days of the week but later developed weakness in sympathy with corn. Chicago December wheat closed on the 29th at $1.68 3/4, the lowest price in four years. December corn appeared lower and duller on the 16th and Chicago prices declined continually closing on the 29th at new low of 64 1/4c. Kansas City cash corn broke more than 20c in three days, and this had bearish effect upon Chicago markets. There has seldom been such a lack of demand for all grains. American supplies of wheat small but milling demand also small, owing to light demand for flour. Mills running about half capacity. Oil corn in Chicago sold at 8 to 18c premium over December future on the 19th. Small receipts of wheat at Chicago have kept cash wheat prices at relatively high level. No. 1 and 2 soft winter 20 to 27c over December future on the 19th. No. 3 at 15 to 20c premium. No. 1 and 2 hard winter 2 to 6c over December. No. 3 at 2 to 4c premium. For the week Chicago December wheat lost 11 1/2c closing at $1.63 1/4 and December corn 19 1/4c at 64 1/4c. Minneapolis December wheat lost 16c closing at $1.52 1/2; Kansas City 27 1/4c at $1.55 1/4; Winnipeg 12 1/2c at $1.52 1/2.

$3,500,000 TRAIN ROBBERY IS BEING CLEARED UP. Council Bluffs, Iowa.—With the arrest of ten persons, five of whom were later released, the recovery of a large amount of money, all $10 bills, and the discovery of an automobile used by the robbers, government officials believe they have cleared up the robbery of a storage mail car on Burlington fast mail train No. 8 of $3,500,000 in registered mail in the local yards recently.

As now disclosed, the robbery, while apparently executed by mercenary men, was carried out in a way that would do credit to expert criminals. The car which was robbed was in the center of a mail train which the Union Pacific transfers about 7 o'clock in the evening for Chicago before reaching the city station where the train always stops for orders.

The automobile used by them was driven alongside the train as it began to slow down for the crossing. Almost before the train had come to a full stop the glass in the side door of the car was smashed. Reaching in, one of the culprits released the catch and leaped inside and threw out ten sacks of registered mail and re-entered the automobile.

CHRISTMAS SEALS.

Austin, Texas.—The 1920 Christmas Seal Sale, which began December 1st in Texas, continues to show gratifying response, according to a statement made today by W. I. Bracy, State Christmas seal sale director, of the Texas Public Health Association, who estimates that over $100,000 worth of seals have been sold up to the present time.

"No accurate tabulation can be made at the present time," said the Director; "but from scattered reports from over the state I believe the sale has passed the $100,000 mark. The small cities and communities in which seals have been mailed have responded wonderfully and thousands of dollars have been raised in unorganized counties to help carry on the fight against tuberculosis.

"Banks of Texas seem to be the largest purchasers of Christmas seals. Reports from all parts of the state show that the majority of the banks have purchased at least $10 worth of seals, and some of them many times that amount."

According to the Texas Public Health Association, the first county to "go over the top" in the seal sale was Deaf Smith county which reached the assigned quota the first day of the sale with Mrs. John Potts, of Hereford, as county chairman. This county asked for more seals to sell.

The intensive sale of Christmas seals will last until December 10th., but they will be kept on sale over the state in booths, stores, and shops until the holidays. Of all money raised in the sale of the little seals of health, 95 per cent will remain in Texas for health work. Should the seal sale be successful, as indicated by early reports, $190,000 will be available to the Texas Public Health Association and its many local affiliations to carry on extensive anti-tuberculosis work in 1921.

Stop-See these Xmas phonographs

YOU never saw more exquisite cabinets. The world has never produced any more exquisite cabinets.

These cabinets are descended out of the Golden Age of Furniture.

This was the age when Europe built its most luxurious palaces, created its greatest works of art, developed its finest types of craftsmanship.

Mr. Edison's designers went back to the furniture masterpieces of this period. They adapted 17 of them for the modern American home. They made every Edison Cabinet a period cabinet,—even the least expensive.

You must see these cabinets. Only then will you appreciate what wonderful richness and atmosphere one will add to your home.

Ask about our Xmas Budget Plan. It manages your money economically. It makes 1921 help pay; and that's good business.

A Word About Prices

In 1914, as you can ascertain through practically any investment banker, the Edison Laboratories were selling phonographs on a narrower margin of profit than the other manufacturers. Since 1914, the price of the New Edison has advanced less than 15%—and a portion of this increase was "Edison stood the gaff" to keep his favorite invention within the reach of everyone.

LOVE LETTERS OF AN OIL SCOUT

Graham, Texas,
December 8th, 1920.

My Dear Maggie:

Well, howdy honey. Here I am back again in this town after a wandering trip over this north and western part of the State of Texas. Where have I been? Well there is no need of enumerating all of the places that I have been. Except that I have been to Bridgeport, our famous little coal mining city to the east of us. There are lots of coal miners over there. I was right amused in talking to one gentleman of that city. I noticed that he was nicely dressed and that his hands were manicured and that they were as clean and soft as those of any woman, and when he told me that he dug coal I looked on with astonishment and was rude enough to look straight at those soft white hands. The gentleman said, "Don't look at my hands with so much astonishment, I mine soft coal." I saw OWH! and ordered the cigars.

There was very little else happening in the town, except one little incident at the depot. It was very pathetic and tears came in my eyes until yet when I think of it all. 'Twas at the depot. A fat man, handsomely dressed, rushed up just as the North Bound train was pulling out, seeing it had gone he exclaimed, "Luck, Luck, Hard Luck, I am the unluckiest man that ever lived, now I have missed a chance to make $5,000.00 in Wichita Falls." We all sympathized with him, except one little scrawny man who was leading a small boy of about 6 years and pushing twins in a baby buggy, this man exclaimed, "Hard Luck, Hard Luck, why man you know nothing at all of hard luck, look at me, my wife has just eloped with a jitney driver, my daughter eloped with a brakeman, this little boy has swallowed a penny, these twins have colic and I have lost my ticket, don't talk to me about hard luck." No one did.

I have kidded around for two or three days and here I am back at home. I am a little sick this morning, am just convalescing from a little spell. And while I was sick I had a dream, a wild dream, a dream that will never come true. 'Twas like this. I was lightly delirious and had called in Dr. C. A. Lomel he gave me some kind of medicine that made me go to sleep, and while I was asleep I dreamed the dreams of the heavy laden, Honey, I dreamed that I, an oil scout, had swapped my whopple off for a Cadillac Roadster, and I dreamed that all of the roads thru out the oil country were paved, those out thru South Bend, Eliasville, Burkburnett, Ranger, and Breckenridge were one solid mass of asphalt. You were with me and how we did run thru the fields my fever rose higher and my dreams became heavier. I thought that we went on a rig and it was spotlessly white and clean, a negro with knee breeches and a lace coat kept it wiped off with a greasy rag. The driller wore an evening dress suit and a high silk hat, the tool dresser wore a Prince Albert Coat and, the fireman had on a sweet little Tuxedo suit. It was also sweet and nice, and the awful happened, the drillers served cigars to me and to you they served tea and cookies.

I soon forgot this dream and dreamed more of oil. OIL, OIL, that filthy lucre called oil. I could see oil around me everywhere. And I thought that I owned a lease and that OIL was mine. And soon I awoke and one of Dr. Lomel's nurses together with Dr. Epsom Salts, (who had been called in for consultation), stood over me with a tea cup full of CASTOR OIL.

Well I am alright now, kiddo, and sure that I will pull through. Have just had a telephone call from the hospital, they inform me to come up that they have a serious operation on and want me to help. I have to help Dr. Lomel (for Dr. Epsom Salts has run off north, he heard that they were Lapsing Michigan, and he wanted to be present. The work they will do this morning, well it is simple, Dr. Lomel has to saw off a wooden leg, the man says that his leg is about two inches too long and that it bothers him when he tries to Tickle Toe.

So I won't write any more this time. Sure was glad to be with you this week-end? and more good time. You are some classy kid.

Goodbye honey, write to me from time to time.

Love,
AL. K. HALL.

ANOTHER GUSHER OIL WELL FOR YOUNG COUNTY

The Young County Oil & Gas Company's well at this date over 1600 feet will in all probability be completed within seven days. It is confidently expected that this well will come one thousand barrels strong. It is practically certain to be a large producer from the fact that the formation encountered in this well is identical with that in the O. P. & G. and McCluskey gushers, from which wells our lease is one-half mile west.

A GUSHER AT 2100 FEET

The formation in the Shamrock well and the Colcord Wood well differed from that encountered in the producing wells. They have neither of them secured production and the Shamrock is over 2700 feet deep and the Colcord is past 2200 feet in depth.

A GAS WELL AT 1500 FEET

The YOUNG COUNTY OIL & GAS COMPANY struck a splendid flow of gas at 1500 feet, which is a good indication of oil.

OUR STOCK OFF THE MARKET

As soon as the well is completed. It is selling at $12.50 per share, $10.00 par value. Capitalization $200,000.00. You have the chance to make ten to twenty for one on your money within the next ten days in this stock. If this is not the best proposition from any angle that you have ever heard of, don't buy. If you think this is GOOD, come to the office in Dolman Hotel or mail your check.

News of the Syndicates.

A depth of 2,000 feet has been reached in the first well of the Ivan Oil Syndicate, between Ivan and South Bend. The log of this well conforms with the structures encountered in the McCluskey and Lydon wells, it is said.

J. C. Edison, Wichita Falls and Oklahoma operator, has entered the Eliasville field. He has acquired 160 acres half a mile south of the McCluskey wells and will drill at once. Edison believes that the South Bend sands are the true mother sands of the Texas field.

News of the McCluskey and Lydon wells brought W. P. Garrison and J. S. Haney into the Eliasville district last week from California. They have acquired some leases and will commence drilling.

The Big Acreage Oil Syndicate is getting ready to put down the first well on its big tract of 396 acres on the Colcord, Burgess and Ingram land, six miles east of Eliasville. The company is capitalized for $185,000. It was launched last week, with D.

W. Young, well known operator, at the head of it.

The Northwestern Petroleum Co. has just entered the Eliasville area. It owns forty acres in between the McCluskey wells and the famous Lydon pool. The company is operating under the syndicate plan.

The South Bend Syndicate has made four locations on its holdings of 70 acres on the Ruth Campbell tract in the South Bend-Midway field. The acreage is close to the O. P. & Co's Goode No. 2, and less than a mile from one of the Roxana producers.

A Syndicate which will be composed principally of Texas and Oklahoma doctors has been formed into the Doctor's Oil Syndicate, with twenty acres south of the McCluskey wells and close to the Stephens county line. The rig for the first location is being built. Two other locations are to be paid. Dr. W. B. Stevenson of Breckenridge is at the head of the organization.

Dr. Stevenson is also sponsoring the Devil's Backbone Oil Syndicate, which will spud in within ten days on five acres in block 1,032 of the T. E. & L. survey, one mile from Ivan.

The Eliasville Pool Syndicate was launched last week by W. L. Nix of Fort Worth and several other operators and promoters who are well known in Texas fields. The organization has thirty acres on the R. Douglas tract just south of Eliasville and close to the Lydon pool. The contract for the rig has been let to R. H. Kimsey, and its construction will start at once.

Drillers are making fast time for the 2,100-foot sand in the first well of the Young County Oil and Gas Company, located just west of the McCluskey No. 3. The well is down 1,500 feet now. An oil sand was found at 600 feet that was capable of making twenty barrels a day. The company owns 120 acres in its lease.

Passing up the 2,600-foot McCluskey sand, the Shamrock Oil Company's No. 1 well, which offsets the Panhandle Company to the north, will be drilled to a depth of 3,200 feet.

The Sun Company's Black No. 1, two locations south of the big gasser, drilled in by the Texas Company, is down two hundred feet.

The Seven Well Oil Syndicate, which has acquired seventy-one acres on the Holderness survey two and a opened its main office in Eliasville opened its main office in Eliasville and has opened aggressive operations on its lease. The rig for the first well is being built.

The Co. will drill several wells. Its capitalization is $200,000. Units are being sold in a full seven-eighths production.

Edgar D. Smith, prominent operator, who floated the Block 43 well and the Breckenridge Mutual, two of the most successful ventures in Breckenridge, is at the head of the Seven Well Syndicate. He is optimistic over the possibilities of the Eliasville area, which he declares is the greatest practically proven but almost untouched field in the country today.

"This area looks better than Breckenridge," said Smith. "The next move will be north to Eliasville, Ivan and South Bend. We believe we have the best locations in this big new field. We have production on every side of the lease. In fact, there have been no failures in this field, nor do we look for any. We believe that every well put down will be an oil well."

"This great field has been untouched. As operations were centered on Breckenridge in the mad rush of offsets operators have not had time to get to this field. As Breckenridge is being drilled up you may look for the operations in the Eliasville-South Bend-Ivan field to eclipse the Breckenridge history."—Eliasville Journal.

THE SUPERIOR MATTRESS CO.

The Superior Mattress Company started the wheels of turning yesterday at the residence of C. E. Turner. Mr. Jenkins, the manager, expected to have begun several days ago, but owing to the delay in starting on account of his engine having not been delivered. However yesterday through the courtesy of Le Sage Motor Company he procured a Fordson tractor which he is using to operate part of his machine and which is serving the purpose to the fullest expectations. The machine now in operation is combination cleaner and filler, and removes all the dirt and dust from the cotton. It is the only one of its kind in Texas at this time.

The Superior Mattress Company will be located on the lots purchased on South Oak Street within a few days, where a factory building will be erected. The present quarters are crowded and they are swamped with work, which shows the people's appreciation of the enterprise and the demand for such a business in this community.

When the factory is moved into its new quarters it will be one of the most modern of its kind in the country, and equipped to do all kinds of cotton and feather work.

The Tercentenary Celebration of the Landing of the Pilgrims was observed with a special program by the C. L. S. C. at its meeting with Mrs. Hathcock last Wednesday afternoon. Rollcall was answered with patriotic quotations after which America was sung. "The American's Creed" was said in concert, led by Mrs. E. H. Morrison. Biographical sketches of John Robinson, William Brewster and William Bradford were given by, Mesdames A. A. Morrison, H. B. Cogdell and H. Bennett. A quiz on American History was given by Mrs. Clark. Mrs. R. G. Hallam and Mrs. Gary Smith delighted the Club by giving, in appropriate costume, "The Lover's Errand" an act from "The Courtship of Miles Stanish." Something good is always expected from these members, but they far exceeded themselves on this occasion.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Z. A. Hudson.

"EVERYWOMAN" AT NATIONAL THEATRE.

The news that Walter Browne's famous morality play, "Everywoman," had been made into a moving picture was no surprise to those acquainted with the dramatic masterpiece. Its striking story and manifold opportunities for spectacular scenic effects make it admirable screen material. The basis for the magnificent cinema spectacle was there. It remained for the directing skill of George H. Melford, the acting ability of an unusually excellent cast, and fine artistry in arranging the elaborate scenic effects to transform "Everywoman" into the beautiful photoplay to be shown at the National Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, December 13 and 14.

Here is a dramatic production that is manifestly even better to the screen than it is to the stage. It requires an expansiveness that the quarters of the largest stage will not admit. Quite probably the screen version of "Everywoman" has realized more perfectly the author's conception of his story than have all the productions of the play since its famous premier in New York in 1911.

The title role is portrayed in masterly style by beautiful Violet Heming, the young actress who made such favorable impressions in "Three Faces East" and "Under Cover." Miss Heming lends the dignity and universality to her interpretation of Everywoman that the allegorical character of the story demands. The remainder of the cast is far above the usual in merit, including as it does such names as Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Monte Blue, Charles Ogle, Raymond Hatten, Bebe Daniels and Tully Marshall. Mr. Roberts as Wealth, Miss Hawley as Beauty and Mr. Blue as Love are perhaps the high spots in an interpretation that is uniformly excellent.

As is quite well known, "Everywoman" is in the main allegorical in character. The story opens much as a drama of ordinary life. A beautiful girl at a banquet is wooed by a millionaire, an actor, and a poor physician. She is also besieged by the offer of a stage manager to embrace a dramatic career. Thereupon the story becomes a transcript of the journey of life. The heroine becomes Everywoman, the millionaire is Wealth, the actor Passion, and the other characters bear similar names. Everywoman is urged to go upon the Stage of Life by Flattery to seek King Love. Her long journey leads her through many pitfalls, past the temptations of Wealth and Passion, until finally she reaches the humble hut of love, who turns out to be the young physician.

Scenes of lavish splendor form the setting for the story. The revels in the magnificent palace of Wealth, part at a monster banquet board, one where scores of beautiful women dispart of which encircles a swimming pool and the other a dance hall, and the episodes in the great gaming hall, are among the most elaborate ever screened. The bazaar at the opening of the story is virtually a real fashion show. Women arrayed like birds move through the picture like extraordinarily clad mannequins exhibiting the latest creations of the modistes.

In the midst of this pleasing pageantry, however the character of the story has not been lost sight of for a moment. It is convincingly and logically developed as the simplest drama. The players do not merely walk through their parts, as is sometimes the case in a spectacular film of this sort. The settings are extravagant, but the story is the thing, and everything has been fittingly subordinated to this great moving drama of life itself.

The screen needs more pictures like "Everywoman." A film of this kind makes the most skeptical admit, "The motion picture is an Art." In these days when so many cheap, meaningless photoplays are wasting so much of our time, "Everywoman" comes as a great pleasing flood of beauty. To George Melford, the director, to the producers and to the rare good taste of the individuals responsible for the beautiful settings, the motion picture public is indebted for a great production of one of our greatest plays and a picture that ranks with the screen's best. It is a Paramount-Artcraft production.

The proposed magazine is to be a monthly publication, the first number appearing in January, 1921. An editorial board has been organized at the University and similar action is expected within a short time from other schools of the state, which are said to be co-operating in the proposition.

TELL OF WORK OF CENTENARY AND WHAT IT MEANS.

Some months ago the Methodists launched a centenary program as a five-year proposition. The pledges were made in a blaze of glory with an enthusiasm unmatched by any former endeavors. The movement spread and around the world to the mission fields. The whole religious world was thrilled by this pioneer campaign of the Methodist. A general view of centenary activity with the money that has been paid in to date on these pledges is wonderful proof of the success of this great movement.

In Mexico a normal school is going up at Saltillo, the hospital has been reopened and enlarged at Monterrey, a hospital property has been purchased at Chihuahua, Laurens institute at El Paso has received a magnificent addition, and a publishing house and book room has been established at Chihuahua.

In Cuba, Candler college is being overhauled and extended, an evangelistic movement is in full swing, and a great publishing house is being projected.

In Brazil a college property has been bought at Porto Alegre, Granberry college has received additional buildings and an endowment. A great publishing house is under way in Rio de Janeiro. Work is starting in a school building at Passo Fundo. A union college is being erected and new churches are going up at Santa Anna, Sant Maria, Cachoeira, Sao Paulo, Pocos De Caldas, Biriguy, Penapolis, Aracatuba, Aluarque Lins, Glyceric, Hector Legru, Casca-dura, Realengi and Cafe Frio.

In Japan the first real centenary building has been completed at Oita. The famous Hiroshim girls' school is operating now as a full college, while Kwansai has become a university, each of these institutions receiving large centenary help. Churches are being built in large numbers and the whole centenary program is being carried out under a staff of secretaries.

Work in Korea.

In Korea the centenary revival is saving thousands and centenary literature is educating them. Ivey hospital has been reinforced and the Songdo school gets large assistance. In Songdo a great evangelistic center has been established and score of churches, parsonages, and chapels are being erected.

The same record is being made in China. The cornerstone of the great Soochow hospital has been laid and the buildings are going up, while Huchow hospital will be erected immediately. The law school at Shanghai has been reinforced and new members have been added to its faculty, while the church guilding enterprises are extensive.

Dr. D. L. Mumpower is enroute back to Africa, carrying workers to reinforce those sent ahead of him by the centenary. The steamship which will ply the rivers of the Congo has long since been constructed, and a large number of new villages will soon be occupied by the Methodists.

Work in Europe.

In Europe wonders have happened. The centenary has a great orphanage, a girls' school and a central plant in the city and suburbs of Brussels, while relief evangelistic centers are operating at Ypres, Menin, Lille, Calais, Aubengue, Boulogne, and Valenciennes. In Serbia there is a children's hospital at Belgrade and another at Ragusa, while Serbian orphans are being cared for at Faversham, England. Centenary workers are in Poland and Czecho-Slovakia, and are opening plants in each country.

At home the record is the same. The women are strengthening plants at Richmond, Brevard, Thomasville, Biloxi, New Orleans, and in the Arcadian country. Thirteen mountain schools have each received large aid. A score or more of home missionaries have been sent out and 14 churches have been built.

All this makes no mention of the 100 new missionaries sent out to all the field, the progress being made in enlisting native workers, the churches which have become self-supporting the salaries that have been raised, the inculcation of the stewardship idea, the souls that have been saved, the liberality that has been cultivated.

"The centenary has made good in a wonderful way. To Methodists who had a part in the great enterprise it should be a cause of thanksgiving. The showing that has been made with the money already received should challenge every congregation pastor and person in the church to put forth supreme efforts in collecting all the pledge that are due," says J. E. Crawford, missionary secretary of the Central Texas conference.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The teachers of Young county will join with the teachers of Jack and Palo Pinto counties in a joint institute to be held in Mineral Wells, December 20-24, 1920. A good program has been arranged and the Young county teachers are looking forward to a profitable institute.

Several educational leaders of state and national reputation will conduct the institute this year. The training and inspiration received from institutes of this kind are invaluable to the teachers.

The institute will be held in Mineral Wells this year and the plan is for it to be held in Graham or Jackboro next year. When it is held in Graham no doubt in addition to the three counties now co-operating, Stephens, Throckmorton, Baylor and Archer counties would gladly join in and in that way one of the best institutes in the state would be held in Graham. Then the new railroad is completed Graham will be a local center for conventions, etc.

BAYLOR LAW DEPARTMENT.

Waco, Texas, Dec. 2.—The law department of Baylor University is steadily growing. This year marks the first attempt of the University to revive the law school since it was abandoned during the time of the Civil War. While the University was at Old Independence the law department was one of the big departments of the University. Men who expected to take part in the politics of the Republic came to Baylor to study law; for at this time there was no other law school in the state. Even after Texas was admitted to the Union, and after other law schools were established, Baylor still held the supremacy. At present there are 25 men enrolled in the law department. Nine of these expected to take degrees in law. Judging from the number of interested inquires that have come to the attention of the dean, next term will show a decided increase in the number of students enrolled in the law department.

CAN THE FUTURE BE FORETOLD BY PLAYING CARDS?

Do cards foretell the future? They are weirdly prophetic in "The Fortune Teller," the Robertson-Cole Super-Special, starring Marjorie Rambeau, the greatest emotional actress of the American stage, which opens at the National Theatre for Thursday, December 16.

The screen version of the celebrated stage success dealing with mother-love and psychic phenomena is even more powerful than the play, the big scenes of which necessarily were limited by the stage restrictions.

"The Fortune Teller" shows a great actress in a great story, a story filled with tense, dramatic situations. The action is rapid and, big scene follows big scene with almost breath-taking swiftness. But the "big scenes" are only "pot-boilers" in comparison with the truly great moments of the picture which show Miss Rambeau at the very pinnacle of her art.

Whether cards are false or true prophets is a debatable question, but in "The Fortune Teller" they form the basis of a plot inextricably woven with the appeal of mother-love and the mysteries of psychic phenomena.

The Ace of Spades.
Renee Browning, (Miss Rambeau) the young and beautiful wife of Horatio Browning, scientist, believes in the superstition that cards reveal the future. Her jealous, tyrannical husband, occupied with his scientific researches, scoffs at her only pastime. But Renee braves his displeasure by reading the cards whenever the opportunity offers. The ace of spades, the card of ill-omen, persists in turning up. And at the very moment when the cold, calculating scientist is engaged in a diatribe against the futility of his wife's harmless enjoyment tragedy stalks in.

And tragedy holds the attention of the spectator until mother-love triumphs over seemingly hopeless obstacles, convincing the hard hearted husband of the insecurity of his position and brings to the lone-suffering wife the happiness she had longed for.

Miss Rambeau, who completely dominates the picture, is supported by an excellent cast, including E. Fernandez, who played the heavy in the stage production, Frederick Burton, Raymond McKee, T. M. Gougal, Franklin Hanna, Virginia Lee and Cyprian Giles.

Wallace Bros. and Benson have opened a real estate business in the Tidwell building on the northwest corner of the square. All the gentlemen have lived here a long time and are well informed along the real estate line.

Miss Ruth Doty, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Saint Paul's Sanitarium in Dallas, November 21 is now convalescing. She left the Sanitarium this week for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Petty, at Muskogee, Oklahoma. Miss Doty has been teaching in Meridian College this session.

$125,000 DAMAGE CAUSED BY FIRES.

Wichita Falls, Dec. 5.—Nine fires apparently of incendiary origin in various parts of this city between 2 p. m. and 4 p. m. today caused damage estimated at $125,000. Five men have been placed under arrest and are being held pending an investigation of the fire.

The fires were confined to warehouses and stores and were as widely scattered as possible. Firemen answering some of the calls found what they characterized as unmistakable evidence of incendiaryism. In one place they found a fire brand smoldering under trash and were able to exterminate the blaze before any damage was done.

Before the equipment returned to their respective stations, other alarms were sounded from boxes across town and the apparatus was divided between fires. The burned business houses, which all were on the outskirts of the business section included two hardware warehouses, a grain and feed storage house, a car of cotton, empty dwellings, and a poultry commission house.

In one hardware house firemen were chased away from the blaze by the discovery of several hundred pounds of black powder and several cases of dynamite, but by keeping a stream pouring on the powder from a distance managed to prevent it from exploding and setting off the dynamite.

NEGROES IN GRAHAM.

It seems strange to think of negroes living in Graham. I has been many years since negroes lived here. No negroes have been allowed to come to the county until recently when a contractor brought a few here to work on the new railroad. They are camped on the outskirts of the city and have not been disturbed.

The labor conditions are such that the contractors are glad to have the negroes and as long as they conduct themselves properly they will be permitted to pursue their work unmolested.
