

JUST STARTING TO TURN . . . Approximately 50 acres of maize is just beginning to turn color on the W. B. Kittrell farm located eight miles south of Muleshoe. The grain sorghum is just part of the 1200 acres of land farmed by W. B. and Kenny Kittrell. Besides the grain, the Kittrells have planted cotton and wheat. Of the 1200 acres, the Kittrells own 500 acres and rent the rest. This particular crop of maize was planted in May and the farmers are very well pleased with the stand and the size of heads on their crop. Kenny Kittrell stated that last year the field was planted in alfalfa, which they plowed under to plant the grain sorghum this year. The field is irrigated and young Kittrell said they could use some more rain.

Sportcycle Association Organized

Several local persons have put their heads together and plan to organize a Sportcycle Association if enough interest is shown. Anyone interested in joining or supporting a local Sportcycle Association is asked to attend a meeting Saturday, August 30 at 7 p.m., at the Muleshoe State Bank Community Room. The purpose of the organization is to try to obtain a place for area cyclists, young and old, to ride. At the present time there are not many safe places for people to do off-the-road riding. A place is needed for area people, children through adults Cont. on Page 3, Col. 1.

The West Texas Primitive Baptist Association held their annual meeting last weekend in Cone. Several people from this area attended the get-together.

Mrs. G. D. Kersey's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kersey and son, Sam from Las Animas, Colorado were visiting here last weekend. Cont. on Page 3, Col. 5

Farm Equipment Prices Ease

COLLEGE STATION -- Farmers shopping for needed equipment in the coming months may be faced with a rather pleasant change--wider selections and, maybe, somewhat lower prices. After a year of record low farm equipment inventories in 1974 and the resulting skyrocketing prices, equipment supplies are once again increasing to the point that prices may ease somewhat during the remainder of the year. That's the contention of Cont. on Page 3, Col. 2

Improper Adjustment Could Result In Seed Losses

"Seed losses due to improper combine adjustment can result in substantial financial losses to sunflower producers," says Spencer Tanksley. To minimize these losses, combine operators need to equip their machines with special sunflower header attachments. In addition, operators should frequently check the performance of their machines and make adjustments as harvesting conditions change. The agent says that studying the operator's manual is the first step toward efficient harvesting and should not be neglected for this new crop by even the most experienced operators. Most manuals list recommended machine settings and other tips for sunflower harvesting. The agent points out that combine manufacturers generally recommend that the reel speed should be matched to ground speed. Cylinder speeds of 350-600 r.p.m. are suggested, with the lower speeds being best for dry conditions. Concave clearances range from 1/2 to 1 1/2 inches. It is suggested that an initial concave clearance of 3/4 inch be used, then adjusted as necessary. The agent cautions that excessive cylinder speed and close concave settings break up the heads excessively causing overloaded sieves and difficulty in separation and dehulling of the seed. Most manufacturers also suggest a chaffer setting of 1/2 to 5/8 inches and sieve opening of 1/2 inch. The air adjustment must be watched carefully to prevent seed from being blown or carried over the sieves. In setting the air, Tanksley suggests starting with a slow fan speed and gradually increasing the speed until the desired results are obtained. "Some producers have voiced concern about removing 'pops' or unfilled seed during the harvest operation. Removing pops has not been a big problem in other areas," states the county agent. "A sufficient amount of air to remove chaff usually carries out the lighter unfilled seed." Cont. on Page 3, Col. 8

Loss Devastating

The amount that retail food prices deserve to rise because of the Russian grain sales will be hardly noticeable to consumers, while the loss taken by farmers if these sales are shut off would be truly devastating, according to Jay Naman, member of the executive board of the National Farmers Union (NFU). Naman, who is also president of Texas Farmers Union and represents a major wheat production area, made the statement following a meeting of the NFU executive unit at Denver. "In the first place, the news of the grain sales did not come until early in July so it could not have any effect on retail prices yet," Naman explained. "Normally, it is three to six months before an increase in raw materials prices is reflected through the production and marketing channels.

"Secondly, it takes a one dollar change in the price of wheat to justify a 1.2 cent change in the price of a pound loaf of bread, so there is no basis for the hysteria that bread may go to a dollar a loaf." The NFU Executive Board noted that there is only 3.6 cents worth of wheat in a one-pound loaf of white bread now selling for 36 cents. A bushel of wheat provides enough flour Cont. on Page 3, Col. 7

Estimates Labor Day Traffic Death Toll At 42

AUSTIN -- State Public Safety Director Wilson E. Speir today estimated that Labor Day Weekend traffic in Texas will claim 42 lives. The holiday period extends from 6 p.m. Friday, August 29 through midnight Monday, September 1. During a comparable period last year, Texas traffic killed 51 persons. "Traffic will be particularly heavy near recreational areas such as beaches, lakes and campgrounds. Actually, in these situations, motorists need to be extra watchful for children playing and other pedestrians. Also, persons towing recreational vehicles and boats should be mindful of extra stopping distances and other problems unique to trailers," Speir said. The DPS director called on motorists to cooperate in law enforcement efforts to hold speeds down during the holiday, noting that "excessive speed is still our top accident problem."

He also urged motorists to work with officers to eliminate the serious threat posed by drunk drivers. In an effort to reduce the toll, Speir said extra DPS troopers will be on duty statewide He said troopers and local officers will be especially watchful for speeding, reckless and drunk drivers. In addition to these efforts, the Texas Department of Public Safety will be conducting Cont. on Page 3, Col. 2

The By-Law amendment proposal provides a mechanism for adding minority elected officials to the Board such that the final Board is composed of 25 percent minorities. The at-large members would be selected in the October Board meeting by the Board of Directors from a list of all elected minority officials of general and special purpose member governments of the South Plains Association of Governments as provided by the executive committee.

Currently, there are six counties within the SPAG region: Bailey, Cochran, Dickens, Floyd, Lynn, and Motley, which qualify for grants and loans from the Economic Development Administration, EDA, through their designation as redevelopment areas. Provided a district is formed, governments in these counties would be eligible for 60% grants for public works projects instead of the current 50-50 ratio. In addition, two to five growth centers, cities in counties which are not qualified for assistance, could be designated and made eligi-

Finally, the South Plains Association of Governments would be eligible for a planning grant which would be used to employ an economic development specialist to work with every member government, regardless of their qualification for EDA assistance, to assist them and their citizens in developing industry and public works and community facilities for their community.

This proposal will be considered by the General Assembly in the South Plains Association of Governments' Annual Meeting on September 9, 1975, at 6:30 p.m. in the Ballroom at the Hilton Inn, 505 Avenue C, Lubbock, Texas.

Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Although farm income was down last year and is projected to be down again during 1975, expansions in crop acreage and the recent strength in livestock prices may stimulate some equipment purchases later in the year," points out the Texas A&M University System specialist. "Of course a big factor would be the softening or at least stabilizing of equipment prices."

During the first half of 1975, tractor sales have been 19 per cent below the pace set during the first six months last year. However, the sales of self-propelled combines increased 25 per cent during the first half of 1975 compared to the same time period last year.

The average price farmers paid for farm machinery rose 14 per cent during the first half of this year while wholesale prices increased only 5 per cent. Also, motor vehicle prices rose only 5 per cent. "This indicates that dealer margins on farm equipment have increased in recent years, and with inventories increasing, the time may be ripe for farmers to do some bargaining," points out Hayenga.

"Overall, it looks like the supply-demand situation for farmer equipment is shifting back from the imbalance of last year to a more traditional level," adds the economist.

The store can thus provide students with the virtually unlimited tasks that are performed at the various operating and managerial levels of a full scale retail organization. Some students will participate only in the extent of learning the most rudimentary skills and acquiring the relevant competencies, while others can get more involved through conducting "In-Depth" projects and by assuming responsibilities at more advanced levels.

The store will be equipped to handle a fairly comprehensive assortment of items including staple school supplies and school spirit items as well as soft goods (gym supplies, T-shirts, jackets, etc.) If there is substantial demand the store will also carry record albums, eight track cartridges, paperbacks, candy, and gifts.

Yett said the club will welcome any other door prizes that anyone wants to contribute for a worthy cause.

CB radio operators constitute one of the largest growing hobby groups in the U.S., and some cities such as Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Yuma, Arizona have had jamborees in which thirty to forty thousand persons attended - so local CB'ers feel the annual affair here could grow each year if enough people take an interest.

The jamboree will start at 9:00 a.m. on Sunday, August 31st, with activities planned around the clock, but mostly the CB'ers and their wives and families will just get acquainted and visit with one another in person even through some of them are old radio friends.

For Jamboree information write Flatlanders Jamboree, P. O. Box 1045, Lubbock, Texas, 79408 or call Charles Yett at 806-765-5370 or Jack Morris at 806-792-0542 or Dave Tyler at 806-797-4271.

A Farwell duo, Jim Berry and Jack Kirkland, beat a Muleshoe pair, Don Williams and Dave Marr, by scoring 6-4, 5-7 and 7-6 in a tie breaker.

Proceeds from the tennis tournament, expected to be an annual event sponsored by the local Jaycees, will be used to help the Jaycees carry on projects such as youth football, youth basketball, the Jaycee Little League team and will be used to help Girl's Town and Boy's Ranch.

The Jaycees expressed their appreciation to everyone who helped make the tennis tournament a success.

Farm wheat prices would have to go to $45 to $50 a bushel before a dollar price-label on a pound loaf of bread could be justified, Farmers Union insisted.

The Farmers Union leaders maintained that while the retail price impact of the Russian grain sales would be nominal for consumers, the hold on grain sales ordered by Secretary Butz and the dock workers boycott could have a disastrous effect on farmers if it continues for any length of time.

The statement cited estimates that Russian grain purchases, if consummated, could improve the wheat market price by 75 cents a bushel and the corn market price by 30 cents a bushel.

"If the sales are shut off, farmers will not only have to forego that potential gain, but the value of the whole crop will be depressed," Naman said.

MULESHOE GROWN, NOT CALIFORNIA . . . "These may look like California grown grapes," said H. L. Vandiver of Muleshoe, "but they were raised in Muleshoe." Vandiver who has one California white-seedless grape vine in his back yard said this is the first time the vine erred did this well. He picked over a bushel and a half of grapes just like these clusters. In fact he pointed out that the grapes were so thick and heavy he had to put tubs underneath to help hold them up and keep them off the ground. Vandiver lives at 217 E. Birch in Muleshoe.

Back To School Fashions

COLLEGE STATION -- Back to schoolers will wear prettier, more sophisticated clothes than last year, Marlene Odle, clothing specialist, reported this week. "Big tops and striped and figured sweaters coordinate with pants and skirts for a stylish appearance. "Pinafores and jumpers take the head of the dress class. And the butcher apron will be a new look this fall," this specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said.

Sportswear stays popular with the two-piece denim look in plain and patchwork for jeans and shirtjackets as a favorite. "Fall colors are loden, forest and olive greens, and earth tones and rusts. Burgundies and plum, camel and gray will be fashionable too."

Turning to fabrics, the specialist noted that corduroy in prints and solids, and flannels with suede trim are the favorites. Saddle oxfords and crepe-soled platform loafers teamed with brightly colored knee socks and toe hose complete the school look, she reported.

Hard work hurts few people because so few work hard.

Richard Lackey, chairman of the Maid of Cotton Committee at the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, announced recently that the dates for this year's South Plains Maid of Cotton selection will be October 17 and 18.

The selection finals will be broadcast over Lubbock's KMCC-TV station at 9:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 18. The selection will be presented at a formal ball. The ball will be the social highlight of the year for the members of the local cotton industry.

Home Freezing Vegetables, Fruits

Freezing, one of the simplest methods of preserving fruits and vegetables, retains their natural color, flavor, texture and food value, points out the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Frozen-food quality varies with freshness of the product used, preparation methods, packaging and freezing conditions. Select high-quality products for successful freezing, as it cannot improve low-grade food. Before freezing, vegetables require blanching -- a simple process of heating vegetables in boiling water to stop enzyme growth and retain freshness. Also, to avoid drying out of flavors or undesirable flavor and appearance, use moisture-vapor-proof packaging.

Use glass, metal, rigid plastic or plastic bags, but do not use ordinary waxed containers, cottage cheese and ice cream cartons.

Freeze fruits and vegetables at 0 degrees F. or below. Space packages of unfrozen food at least an inch apart since they must give off heat before freezing. Put no more unfrozen food into the freezer than will freeze within 24 hours.

For quickest freezing, place packages against freezing plates or coils. Freezing does not sterilize food, but the low temperature prevents the growth of harmful yeasts, molds and bacteria, explains the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

One example of the easy freezing process is green snap beans. Select only fresh tender young beans. Harvest them in the cool of the morning. Wash, snap or cut off tips and sort for size. Leave small beans whole if desired. Cut or break larger ones into one to two-inch lengths.

Put beans in a blanching basket, lower into boiling water and cover. Keep on high heat and begin counting heating time immediately. Heat small beans for three minutes and large beans for four minutes.

Plunge basket of heated beans into a large container of ice water or into running water. It takes about as long to cool vegetables as to heat them. When beans are cool, remove them from the water and drain.

Pack the beans in moisture-vapor-proof containers, leaving one-half inch headspace. Or pack in plastic bags. Label containers with Hosts will be the couple's children: Mr. and Mrs. Arlan Womble, of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Bill G. Sybert, of El Paso; and Dr. Jim and Elette Sybert, of Denton.

The Syberts have seven grandchildren, who will assist with the hospitalities. Mrs. Sybert's sisters, Mrs. R. L. Kimbrough, of Muleshoe; Mrs. Finis Kimbrough, of Muleshoe; and Mrs. F. B. Gaede, of Limon Colorado will also help at the serving table.

The former Miss Hallie Horslev and Sybert were married Sept. 29, 1925, in Snyder, Texas. They moved to Rains County, Texas and taught school for a number of years. Sybert also served as County Clerk of that County. In 1938 they moved to Muleshoe, where they continued their teaching and Sybert did accounting and Mrs. Sybert worked in the County and District Clerk's office. In 1970 they retired and moved to Lubbock. They are members of Southcrest Baptist Church.

The serving table will be covered with a white lace cloth and will have a centerpiece of yellow and white flowers and gold candles.

Proteins have been likened to a jigsaw puzzle in which all the pieces -- the amino acids -- are linked together to form the complete protein. Of the twenty or so different amino acids that make up protein, our bodies can synthesize all but eight. If any one of these eight amino acids is missing, the protein is said to be "incomplete." For this reason, these eight amino acids are frequently referred to as "essential" since they must be supplied in the food we eat.

On Wall Street By Bob Hill

There are four ways to get fluid out of a bottle; pour it, squeeze it, spray it or pump it. Recent publicity over the use of aerosol sprays and their possible damaging effect to lungs and the ozone layer above the earth, has made it highly probable that aerosol sprays may be banned permanently or altered dramatically enough to make their effectiveness questionable. So, it's back to the pump or old-fashioned mechanical sprayers. Only 300,000 mechanical sprayers were manufactured last year, just a tiny amount compared to the 3 billion aerosol cans. But pump manufacturers are running full-blast to meet orders flooding in from makers of household products, drugs, cosmetics and toiletries.

Actually, there's little new about pump sprayers--they have been around since the 1940's and several cosmetic manufacturers were pushing them before all the hubbub about aerosol sprays and their damaging effects. It seems that a spray pump controls more easily the amount of liquid being pumped out of the bottle. The pump is also more conserving because it does not spray out in a fairly large pattern nor in the large volume an aerosol container will spray. The relative cost of the pump spray over the aerosol is about even. Contents of an aerosol spray can are more expensive than the contents of a pump container. However, the pump costs more than the aerosol spray valve.

A big drawback of the pump spray is that it can be used only on fairly thin liquids. Pumps for thicker liquids and for dry powders are now under development. Mechanical spray pump containers won't do all the work of aerosol sprays, however. Manufacturers estimate that pump sprays cantake over only about 30% of the products now dispersed in aerosol cans.

Cow Herd Profits Tied To Reproductive Performance

COLLEGE STATION --- How important is a 90 per cent or better calf crop at today's low market prices?

The number of calves weaned from all breeding cows in the herd at the start of the breeding season is more important today than ever as cattlemen try to stay in business, believes Don Parks, area economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Increasing the per cent calf crop is second only to increasing market prices when considering ways to improve profits.

Calf crops vary from 60 per cent to 90 per cent and over in today's herds. The 60 per cent crop may be due to inadequate nutrition, limited genetic capability, semen infertility or disease. Whatever the cause, it must be identified and corrected, contends Parks. Some producers feel that the depressed market will not justify feeding cows as well as when prices are good. This is not true when nutrition is limited enough to delay the cow's heat cycle and conception.

Parks estimates at $7.80 the cost per cow of each 21-day heat cycle delay, considering a 26-cent per pound market price, a 1.6 pound daily gain, a 90 per cent calf crop and all calves being weaned the same time. A rancher who cannot afford to keep them.

Another way to look at the expense of low per cent calf crops is by figuring the production cost per pound at different calf crops. For example, out-of-pocket pasture, livestock and labor expenses of maintaining a cow a year in South Central Texas approach

Former Local Man Wins Tourney

Rick Botkin, formerly of Muleshoe, sank two straight birds to win the Anthony Invitational Golf Tournament, a resident of El Paso for just about a year. Botkin raced past Sammy Lujan with back-to-back birdies.

Lujan, the defending champ, was one-up with five holes to go when he found himself behind trees, after his tee shot on 14. He tried to weave the ball in the woods but was unsuccessful as it bounded to the 18th fairway.

Just short of the par-five hole, Botkin chipped to within seven feet and made the putt for a birdie while Lujan double bogied. The match was tied.

Botkin said "the short game usually isn't one of my strongest points, but all week, I was able to get up and down from anywhere."

He demonstrated the short game finesse on the 15th hole when, after watching Lujan chip to 10 feet up the cup, Botkin put the ball to within three feet on a shot from the rough. Lujan two-putted while Botkin sank a birdie putt to go one-up.

The next two holes they played even then Lujan gambled three times on the final hole and failed to produce the shot he needed to win it.

Botkin is the son of R. D. Botkin of Muleshoe and a graduate of Muleshoe High School. He played golf while in high school.

$125. Considering a 450-pound weaning weight, the production cost per pound would be 31 cents with a 90 per cent calf crop but 46 cents with a 60 per cent calf crop. Adding the annual fixed cost to the $125 out-of-pocket cost will increase the production cost per pound even more, points out the economist.

After correcting the environmental limitations of reproduction, such as nutrition and diseases, Parks advises beef producers to consider the genetic reproductive capability of the cow. Herd records are useful in identifying the breeding regularity of each cow. Such records frequently indicate that a cow identified as a slow breeder will continually be a slow breeder. Eliminating such cows from the herd can increase the herd's reproductive performance and provide better replacement heifers.

Palpating cows 45 days after removing bulls is helpful in eliminating non-breeders or slow breeders. As calves are weaned, the unbred cows can be sold. This eliminates the feeding expenses of keeping the cows until the next calving season.

Increasing the reproductive performance of the cow herd is a profitable management practice, contends the economist.

Boycott Of Grain Shipments To Russia 'Stab In Back'

WACO -- (Spl) -- Boycott of grain shipments to Russia by U.S. maritime unions is a "self-serving gesture that stabs American farmers in the back," the president of the state's largest farm organization said.

Carroll Chaloupka, head of the 175,000-member Texas Farm Bureau, said the unions are not as concerned about protecting American consumers as they are with forcing exporters to use American ships and sailors.

"Their patriotism stops at the pocketbook," the farm leader said.

The Dalhart cattle and grain producer said the principle of freedom to market is at stake.

"Farmers have won legitimate markets around the world by being competitive," he said. "The maritime unions, on the other hand, have priced themselves out of work. Now they want to use the boycott weapon to capture jobs."

Chaloupka said the Russian grain sales this year have amounted to less than one-tenth of the amount of grain that is available for export.

"U.S. grain exports to Russia over the past four years averaged only 3.2 percent of all U.S. farm exports," he said. "The 1972 sales, which triggered the export dispute, amounted to only 7 percent of total farm exports that year," he added.

"Farmers must export to stay in business," the Farm Bureau leader said.

"In the past year, we exported about two-thirds of our wheat and rice, more than a third of our cotton, and about one-fourth of our feed grains. On the national average, the production of one acre in four is sold abroad,"

The farm leader said exports are not only essential for farmers, but good for consumers as well.

"Our large farm export business enables us to have volume production and lower per-unit costs," he said. "This results in lower prices to American consumers."

Chaloupka said that farm exports of $21.6 billion in the past year produced an agricultural trade surplus of $12 billion for fiscal 1975.

The TFB president said bumper crops this year assure Americans of adequate food supplies at reasonable prices.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture on Aug. 11 estimated that wheat production is up 19 percent over 1974.

Chaloupka said it is ridiculous to blame grain exports to Russia as the cause of higher food prices.

"We sold very little grain to Russia last year, yet food prices increased by 14.5 percent--and more than three-fourths of that increase took place after the food left the farm," he said.

Hanks-James Golf Champs

Kenneth Hanks and Willis James of Muleshoe, "brought home the bacon," in the form of a large trophy, after winning the Championship Flight during the annual International Harvester West Texas Classic played in Lubbock on Thursday, August 21.

The local golfers teed off at 2 p.m., Thursday and took the championship by a score of 72. They were presented the trophy during dinner held at the country club. The two men represented Wooley-Hurst, Inc. of Muleshoe in the gold tournament.

Twenty-three teams participated in the classic and the Muleshoe pair won the tournament under the Calloway Handicap System.

Gin Recorder Leads To Better Management

RALEIGH -- Cotton Incorporated engineers are perfecting an inexpensive new electronic record-keeping device that logs minute-by-minute activities of important cotton gin functions.

"With it gin managers will be able to obtain detailed, unbiased information on which to base management decisions affecting productivity and profits," said Dr. W. F. (Bill) Lator, manager of systems and cost engineering at the Cotton Incorporated Research Center here.

"Good management is based on good information," said Lator, "and good management can increase gin output and cut costs by as much as 50 per cent."

Lator says the new gin recorder logs when each gin stand is in or out of operation, when each bale of ginned cotton is pressed out, when the suction pipe is feeding the gin, when the mechanical gin feeder is operating, total ginning time, and moisture content of seed cotton entering the gin.

"Its cost will be only about $2,000.00, and it can be very easily wired into the gin console," said Lator. "Its simplicity and low cost will make it an effective item for gin managers."

Lator pointed out that a modern gin is a million dollar-plus investment which demands good management. Through good management a gin can easily achieve its rated output and cut its costs per bale.

As an example, Lator cited what happens to power costs at a 10-bale an hour gin when production falls below capacity.

"At six bales an hour, the power cost is $1.50 a bale," he calculated.

"At the same gin, output of 10 bales an hour means a power cost of 70 cents a bale."

Lost gin time always means unused gin capacity, Lator said.

He said that the new Cotton Incorporated gin recorder, installed at a modern gin last year, revealed that lost time for six gin stands ranged from a low of 17 per cent to a high of 83 per cent.

The engineer said the new gin recorder will be available to ginners who want it for the 1976 season.

Details of the benefits of the new gin recorder are contained in an "Agro-Industrial Report" just published by Cotton Incorporated. It is entitled "Productivity and Profits in Ginning."

Dr. Lator is one of three authors of the report. The others are J. K. ("Farmer") Jones, associate director of agricultural research.

Copies of the report are available from Dr. Lator at the Cotton Incorporated Research Center, 4505 Creedmore Road, Raleigh, N.C. 27612.

HALFWAY -- Weed scientist Jim Schrib with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Halfway, evaluates a new experimental herbicide for the control of barnyard grass (watergrass) in corn. Grassy weed control problems in corn have increased in importance due to their difficulty to control, reports the TAES researcher. Weed control in corn will be one of the spotlighted topics set for discussion at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Field Day at Halfway, Thursday, September 11.

TAES Field Day At Halfway

LUBBOCK -- A potential volunteer sunflower weed control will be spotlighted Tuesday, September 9, as the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station marks its 66th Annual Field Day.

Heading up the field day weed control program is Dr. John Abernathy.

The TAES weed scientist reports that research information gathered from several thousand test plots will be stressed in the field day tour stop set to focus on resistant annual and perennial weed species plaguing area cotton, sorghum, soybean and sunflower fields.

Says Abernathy, with some 400,000 acres of sunflowers being grown on the High Plains this year, a potential volunteer sunflower problem exists. The threat is especially significant in the rotational crops like cotton and soybeans, notes the scientist.

Resistant weed species on tap for the field day discussion are lanceleaf sage, morning glory, thornapple, wild sunflower and watergrass. Perennial weed problems scheduled to be covered are yellow nutsedge, lakeweed, johnsongrass, Texas Blueweed, and Whiteweed.

Current status and use of new herbicides such as Roundup will also be highlighted in the weed control tour stop, Abernathy adds.

Several new types of herbicide application equipment can also be viewed during the tour of weed control research plots.

A recirculation sprayer for Johnsongrass control in cotton and soybeans, a shielded sprayer for directing powerful herbicides beneath cotton plants and new types of spray nozzels and additives for controlling spray drift will be de-

Beware Of Illegal Savings Bond Chain-Letter Schemes

If someone asks you to join a money-making plan involving chain letters and U. S. Savings Bonds, you'd better refuse. You aren't likely to make any money -- it's more likely you'll lose your "investment" to get in on the deal -- and it's possible you may be prosecuted for violation of federal, state or local laws.

A few months ago, a number of endless-chain schemes were launched in Southern California. The intermingling organizations were active under several misleading names -- "Your March of Bonds", "Inflation Defense Foundation", "Century Club", "Exclusive One Million, Inc.", "Uncle Sam Investment, Inc.", and "Six-Pack Club".

The scheme most often used worked this way -- the victim became an "active member" by paying $37.50 to a "sponsor". In return, he received a membership list of 10 names and a $25 Savings Bond, recently purchased for $18.75, made payable to the first person on the list. The new "member" made two new membership lists, crossing off the top name on the original list and adding his own name at the bottom. He then purchased two $25 Bonds, payable to the person who was then first on the new lists. He delivered the Bond that came with the first list to the person named -- personally or by mail.

As a "new member", he was required to pay annual dues of $3 and to purchase membership books, at $1.50 each, to give to the two "new members" he brought into the seheme. The victim had spent $81, but was told he would recover most of his investment when he sold his two lists. He did, in fact, recover $75, if he was able to do so.

However, for one member to receive $19,200 -- the promised windfall -- 1,024 new members would have had to join after he did, without the chain's being broken. To achieve "optimum success", the schemes required a membership of 250 times the entire population of the world.

Since the membership lists were originally prepared by the promoters -- with their names and addresses or those of their associates heading the lists -- the scheme would provide Bonds for the promoters long before -- if ever -- new members reaped any harvest.

The promoters of that plan used two variations -- the "Six Pack", involving lists with only six names, and "Century Club", which used $100 Bonds, in lieu of $25 Bonds.

The California Attorney General, Los Angeles County District Attorney and the Los Angeles City Attorney cooperated in the investigation, arrests and convictions of the promoters, who were held in violation of the California Penal Code concerning endless -- chains and lotteries.

Rather than circulate the lists or the Bonds through the mails, those promoters relied upon meetings in private homes to further their schemes. Had the mails been used, the promoters would have been in violation of the U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 1302 -- the "lottery" statute -- which proscribes the mailing of material concerning a lottery promotion. It establishes criminal sanctions of a $1,000 fine or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, upon conviction. They would also have been in violation of Section 1341 -- the "mail fraud" statute.

Most of the "bottom-liners" involved in such schemes are relatively innocent of wrongdoing. They have no intention of perpetrating a fraudulent scheme or otherwise using the mails illegally. In addition to the promise of a dollar reward, they are often persuaded that they are being "patriotic" helping their government's Savings Bonds -- which are essentially get-rich-quick endeavors -- do a distinct disservice to the Savings Bonds Program. Instead of encouraging individuals to develop genuine savings plan, they create the illusion that participants are both aiding their government and themselves. Even in the rare case where an individual receives a large return, it is likely that he would quickly redeem the Bonds, thereby placing a further burden on the Treasury.

AUSTIN -- Campaigns for and against a new Texas constitution are getting off the ground.

Proponents of the far-reaching revision to be voted on November 4 have opened an Austin headquarters under the direction of former State Supreme Court Chief Justice Robert W. Calvert and State Rep. Ronald Earle of Austin.

Opponents, for the time being led by State Sen. Peyton McKnight of Tyler, are setting up shop in an office building across the street.

First copies of a proposed voter's guide to the revision document were placed in the mail last week. They present complete text of the eight propositions to be voted on, with a comparison summary of the "old" and "new" constitutional provisions.

Acknowledged opposition has centered largely on the proposal for annual sessions of the legislature -- a 140-day session during odd-numbered years and a 90-day meeting on even-numbered years.

House Speaker Bill Clayton and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, concerned over effect of the opposition, asked an attorney general's opinion on whether the short, even-year session could be limited by law or legislative rule to budgetary and emergency matters.

Their proposal immediately stirred strong disapproving comment from both proponents and opponents of revision, indicating, perhaps, a hot campaign during the next three months.

Public Notice
Sealed bids addressed to the City of Muleshoe, Texas will be received at the City Hall until 8:30 a.m., September 16, 1975, and then publicly opened and read for furnishing all plant, labor, material and equipment, and performing all work required for installing a butyl rubber lining in the 1.0 million gallon concrete reservoir. Bids shall be submitted in sealed envelopes upon the blank form of the proposal attached hereto and marked in the upper left hand corner.

All proposals shall be accompanied by a cashier's check or certified check upon a national or state bank in the amount of five (5%) percent of the total maximum bid price payable without recourse to the City or a bid bond in the same amount from a reliable surety company, as a guarantee that bidder will enter into a contract and execute performance bond within ten days after notice of award of contract to him. The bid security must be enclosed in the same envelope with the bid. Bids without check or bid bond will not be considered.

The successful bidder must furnish performance and payment bonds upon the forms which are attached hereto in the amount of 100% of the contract price from an approved surety company holding a permit from the State of Texas to act as surety or other surety or sureties acceptable to the Owner.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids and to waive any informality in bids received.

Plans, specifications and bidding documents may be secured from the office of the City Manager or at the office of Bill R. McMorries & Associates, Inc., 6300 Canyon Dr., Amarillo, Texas 79109, on deposit of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars per set which sum so deposited will be refunded, provided: (1) All documents are returned in good condition to Bill R. McMorries & Associates, Inc. not later than 48 hours prior to the time for receiving bids; or (2) The Contractor submits a bid and all documents are returned in good condition to Bill R. McMorries & Associates, Inc. not later than five days after the time that bids are received.

AG Opinions

A state representative who intentionally charges expenditures to the state in excess of the authorized amount is subject to prosecution under the penal code, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

• Teachers cannot be school board members in the same district which employs them.

• Beginning September 1, judges must contribute six per cent of their annual compensation paid by the state to their retirement fund, legislators eight per cent.

• A motion for discovery rather than the Open Records Act is the appropriate means for access to information in a welfare recipient's case file concerning pending criminal charges against him.

• There is no law authorizing Wharton County to cease operation of the county's Nightingale Hospital, other than by lease.

• Texas Board of Dental Examiners may not require dental assistants to register with the Board and pay an annual fee nor permit employment of more than one dental hygienist per dentist.

• A member of the board of commissioners of the Port of Houston Authority may also be a member of the Texas Amusement Machine Commission.

• A board of regents may not compel a college faculty member or employee to take a leave of absence without pay while campaigning for public office in a school district, city or other local governmental district, but may require that for candidates for any other public office.

• Information on inventories from grain warehouse reports of the Department of Agriculture is not subject to disclosure under the Open Records Act.

Appointments
Gov. Dolph Briscoe named Dr. June Hyer of Seabrook, Howard Richards of Beaumont and John Fainter of Houston to the economy-hunting Joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations.

AG Credit Sound In Texas

COLLEGE STATION -- A recent survey of agricultural credit conditions in Texas shows that the average size of agricultural loans has increased again this year, interest rates are lower, and more than half the banks are seeking new farm and ranch loans.

The survey was conducted by Dr. Wayne A. Hayenga, economist and project leader in farm management for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "Sixty-four per cent of some 100 lenders responding to the survey reported increased loan size but noted that the funds are going to about the same number of farmers and ranchers as in the past. Only 12 per cent of the lenders indicated that the average loan volume had decreased, and 24 per cent said it had remained stable," noted Hayenga.

"Increased loan volume may have stemmed from lower loan repayments reported by 49 per cent of the lending agencies," pointed out the Texas A&M University System specialist. "Higher than normal repayments were recorded by nine per cent of the lenders."

The greatest increase came in operating loans, followed by machinery and crop storage borrowing which were more in demand this year than in the past. Feeder cattle loans were down markedly this year while dairy loans only saw a slight decrease.

Interest rates also decreased, but lenders had expectations for them to stabilize. Over the last six months, feeder cattle loans declined from 9.84 to 9.32 per cent; real estate loans from 8.93 to 8.63 per cent; and operating loans from 9.57 to 9.13 per cent.

"If short term interest rates do move," Hayenga said,

"more lenders expect them to increase then decrease. But over the next six months 50 per cent of the survey respondents expected long term real estate rates to remain about the same."

The survey showed that lenders are favoring borrowers who contract some of their crops, with the majority preferring that the average borrower contract one-half of the crop prior to harvest. The number of lenders requiring low equity borrowers to contract crops was up slightly to 18 per cent compared to 15 per cent last fall.

Other topics covered by the survey--refinancing, expected loan demand and the Texas bank condition--reported positive answers from the majority of lenders, according to the economist.

More than half said short term loan demand will increase because of higher spending by customers. Also, the majority indicated that current demand for refinancing was higher, with an expectation for it to continue above normal levels.

"And to add a strong financial foundation for borrowers, 94 per cent of the state's lending institutions responding to the survey indicated no current or expected problems in obtaining funds to support loan requests," noted Hayenga. "In fact, more than half are actively searching for new farm and ranch loans."

A newspaper, like a friend, is missed when not available.

Facts are not always the easiest things in the world to face.

TSA Alerts Driver As Schols Open For Fall

AUSTIN, August 21, 1975 -- Labor Day is not only a holiday and long weekend, but it marks the beginning of school in most Texas cities.

The Texas Safety Association offers these pre-Labor Day reminders to motorists who will suddenly be encountering flocks of youngsters headed for their classrooms:

-Observe all school zones and speed limits. All zones are marked, and many have flashing signals. These are usually in operation only during the peak periods of pupil traffic, but children are frequently around schools and playgrounds long after school is out.

-Watch for school buses, and never pass a bus from either direction when it is stopped to receive or discharge children. Remember, too, that loaded school buses must stop for all railroad crossings, so don't "tailgate" a school bus.

-Going to school and proceeding on their own are new experiences for many youngsters, which cause them to be confused and unaware of traffic. Motorists must take the initiative to watch out for children in case they forget to watch out for themselves.

-Bicycles with juvenile riders will be everywhere, and very few of these youngsters know traffic laws and patterns as well as drivers do. Be especially cautious when passing bicyclists, as a bicycle is no match for an automobile, and remorse is a hard companion.
