Jaycees Give $14,620 To Hosp.

Mike Armstrong was named Jaycee of the Month during the regular meeting of the Muleshoe Jaycees held Monday, September 8 at the XIT Steakhouse. Armstrong was chosen for his outstanding performance in organizing and carrying out the Miss Muleshoe Pageant, sponsored by the Jaycees.

Hunter, chairman of the citizens committee to raise funds for the new addition and renovation of the West Plains Medical Center in Muleshoe. Curtis Walker was asked to make the presentation since he was the Jaycee who had sold the most tickets on the 1975 Ford LTD which was given away to raise funds for Project HELP.

It was noted that in the past two years, two cars were given away by the Jaycees, raising a total of $38,860 for the project.

Kyle Kimbrough, president of the senior class and Marilyn Black, class reporter, of Muleshoe High School, were guests of the Jaycees for lunch Monday.

Kyle addressed the group and told of plans for a chili supper to be held at the school cafeteria prior to Friday night's football game between the Mules and Olton. Tickets are on sale for $2 per person.

AUSTIN -- Governor Dolph Briscoe today signed an official memorandum proclaiming September 21-27 as Highway and Transportation Week in Texas. By that action, Texas joins with the other 49 states in a national observance, the theme of which will be "Transportation, America's Lifelines."

"Transportation services and facilities are vital to the social and economic well-being of all citizens and their institutions in the State of Texas," the memorandum noted.

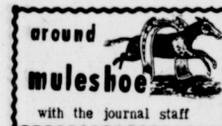

"Maintenance and development of transportation facilities we now possess and which we plan in the future provide the framework for our ultimate and continuing progress," it continued.

Disbursements Expected To Be About $555,000

The Bailey County Commissioner's Court met in regular session Monday, September 8, 1975, at which time a hearing was held on the County Budget for the year 1976. The Budget was prepared by the County Judge and was approved as presented, with only a few minor changes.

The total budget anticipates revenues of approximately $620,000, an increase of about $70,000, or thirteen per cent, over the 1975 budget. Disbursements will be about $555,000, leaving a budget surplus of $65,000.

As a result of the recent re-evaluation program, the tax value of the County increased from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000 but the county rate was lowered from $1.25 per hundred dollars valuation to .80%. The State ad valorem and water district tax, .12% and .05% per one hundred dollars valuation respectively; are in addition to this. Cont. on Page 3, Col. 4

Francisco Torres, 814 W. Second Street, was the winner of the first Football Contest sponsored by the Muleshoe Journal this season.

Torres missed one game, as did Winston Wilson and Mrs. T.L. Glasscock. All three missed the same game, played between N.E. Louisiana and Pacific. The reason being that it was a tie game, score 3-3. Torres was only 15 points off the tie breaker, which made him the winner. He will receive $5 and 10 points in the contest.

Winning second place, who was 43 points off the tie breaker, was Mrs. T.L. Glasscock, who was 43 points off the tie breaker. She will receive $3 and six points in the contest.

"We lack in size in our offensive line and speed in the backfield," Coach Miller said, but added, "Quickness and experience as well as depth are our strongest points."

The Mustangs have a 10-2 1974 record and 4-0 1974 District or Conference record. Assistant Coach Miller, who has been coach at Olton for the past three years, has racked up a 15-7 career record. He will be assisted by coaches Larry Shackelford, Jim Rich, Larry Ledbetter and Tom Duncan.

Local Breeders Win At Char-Swiss Show

On September 4, 1975, the first open competitive showing of Char-Swiss cattle was held at the Curry County Fair, Clovis, New Mexico.

Two local breeders, Bailey County Judge Glen Williams and Benny Splawn, Lazbuddie entered some of their cattle. Other breeders entering cattle were Jim Paul, Seminole; Blair and Son, Plains; and Howard Fowler, Levelland.

The show was a big success and plans are being made for this to become an annual event with more breeders and cattle competing to make an even bigger and better show.

In the Heifer Calf Class (6-12 months) Judge Williams won first place with an eight month old heifer weighing 632 lbs.

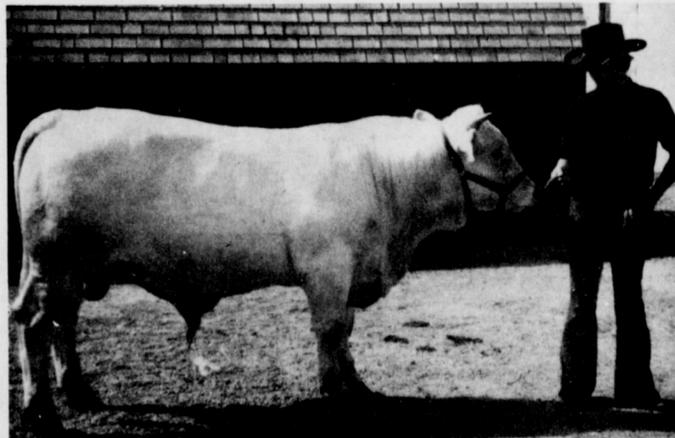

In the Yearling Heifer Class (12-22 months) Benny Splawn won first place with a sixteen month old heifer weighing 984 lbs. This heifer went on to become Grand Champion Female. Splawn also took third place in this class with a fifteen month old heifer weighing 904 lbs.

In the Senior Cow Division (22 months and older) Splawn placed third with a cow "Samantha" weighing 1,287 lbs. This cow is raising a set of four week old twins. In October 1974 "Samantha" won first place in the Open Heifer Division at the Char-Swiss sale held at Texarkana, Texas.

In the Bull Calf Class (6-12 months) Judge Williams placed third with an eight month old bull weighing 850 lbs. Williams placed first in the Yearling Bull Class (12-24 months) with "Judge 125". He is eighteen months old and weighs 1,453 lbs.

Splawn won second with "Pedro" who is twenty-four months and weighs 1,804 lbs. The Grand Champion Bull was shown by Barron Blair, Plains, Texas. One feature of the show was a ten and one-half month bull calf, weighing 1,275 lbs. Cont. on Page 3, Col. 2.

Cotton Market Outlook Better

COLLEGE STATION -- The cotton market is showing signs of resurgence after being in the doldrums for more than a year. However, Texas farmers won't be able to capitalize too much on the improved prices because they planted only a limited number of acres to cotton this year.

"The price of lint cotton from the 1975 crop should average about 40 cents a pound," believes Charles Baker, economist in marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "The August 27 spot price taken from a 10-market average for strict low middling cotton with one-and-one-sixteenth-inch fiber was 50.43 cents per pound, the highest for the past 12 months and 15.5 cents above the season low." The economist looks for prices to remain steady over the next month or so and then possibly to move up a bit. He sees a strong market over the long run due to a short crop nationwide and a strengthening in the demand for cotton by textile mills. Mills are once again looking favorably at cotton due to increased prices in synthetic fibers which are by-products of petroleum. "As far as the Texas crop is concerned, farmers planted some 4.5 million acres, and about 4 million of these will be harvested," notes the Texas A&M University System specialist. "This means harvested acres will be down about 400,000 from last year. However, yields are expected to average about 340 pounds per acre, up almost 70 pounds from a poor 1974 crop."

The Texas crop should produce some 2.8 million bales, with the entire crop grossing more than $670 million. This would be up $125 million from 1974.

"Cotton acreage was cut back drastically this year due to poor market prices last year and in early 1975," points out Baker. "Most of the state's crop is in the South Plains where almost 2 million acres are expected to be harvested and should account for about 1.5 million bales.

Harvesting is nearing completion in South Texas and has started in South Central and Southeast Texas and in the Central Texas Blacklands. Heavy Cont. on Page 3, Col. 7.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Senate impeachment trial of 229th District Judge O.P. Carrillo has been postponed until September 29.

Senators agreed to the delay since Carrillo faces trial this week in a Corpus Christi federal court on an income tax indictment.

In opening preliminaries, the Senate resolved itself into a court of impeachment and adopted rules for the historic trial—third proceeding of the type in a century involving a Texas public official.

Carrillo's attorneys filed a 170-page answer to the House impeachment resolution of August 5, denying all 10 charges and challenging sufficiency of the allegations. The answer remains as pending business when senators return to Austin late this month to begin taking testimony.

The 51-year-old judge, whose district includes Duval, Jim Hogg and Starr counties, is accused of abusing judicial authority, political conspiracies and use of Duval County personnel and equipment for personal benefit.

Carrillo's motion to disqualify Atty. Gen. John Hill and his staff from assisting the House prosecutors was rejected 23-7.

Senators imposed on the prosecution a duty of proving its charges "beyond a reasonable doubt" to gain a two-thirds vote for removal of the judge, whose troubles date back to a break with the old George Parr political faction in Duval County.

Oil Theft Aired

Texas and Louisiana met here last week to share information on reports of a widespread oil theft ring.

The thefts came to light with arrest of four men in Runnels County. Investigators have been trying to solve the reportedly organized plot to steal crude oil and sell it to refineries. Runnels County Sheriff Don Atkins said five men in Texas, New Jersey, Illinois and Louisiana are centers of the investigation.

A possible Oklahoma connection is also being explored.

Cost Revised

Comptroller Bob Bullock, who once estimated the proposed new Texas constitution would cost a billion a year and possibly as much as $11 billion overall, reversed himself and said nobody really can tell.

"Only history can write the final cost report," Bullock said. "The ultimate

13 College Football Highlights For September

Just about everybody in college football gets in the act this Saturday as the bigs, the littles, and a lot of in-betweeners open their 1975 seasons.

Last year's national champion, Oklahoma, entertains the Oregon Ducks. The "on-paper" point spread looks like a mismatch, but season openers can be foolers. The powerhouse Sooners are favored by a whopping 52 points.

Two games will give some quick answers to just where the power is in the Big Ten conference. Michigan State meets Ohio State in Lansing, and Wisconsin challenges Michigan. The Buckeyes and Wolves have been 1-2 in the conference for the past two hundred years (seems that way to this ex-Badgers and Spartans fall by the wayside in these contests, make it two hundred and one! Wisconsin is an 11-point underdog and Michigan State is picked to lose by 13 points.

Another big test - this one an inter-conference struggle - pits L.S.U. of the Southeastern Conference against Nebraska, Big 8 power. L.S.U. had a down year in 1974, winning only five of eleven. The Sugar Bowl Champion Cornhuskers had another strong season, and are the favorites here by 22 points.

Tennessee edged Maryland in last year's Liberty Bowl game, 7-3, and they're right back at each other just nine months later. The Terps won the Atlantic Coast championship last year while the Vols finished eighth in the Southeast Conference. Even though it's a home game for Tennessee, we're going with Maryland by chalk-line.

And in what may prove to be a real tough opener, Notre monetary impact of the proposed constitution would depend on innumerable future decisions by elected representatives of the people in the city halls, county courthouses, school boards and legislature.

The new constitution will be voted on November 4.

Bullock earlier pegged direct cost to state government at about $100 million a year. He had concluded the new constitution would permit levying another $53 million a year in new taxation on bank deposits, stocks and other intangible property.

Auto Insurers Hurt

A spokesman for auto insurance companies said claim costs during the first quarter of this year averaged 22.5 per cent more than in 1974.

And 1974, the spokesman said, was the worst year in history for the companies. The statement may have offered an indication of what the industry will ask in the way of new rates at a public hearing tentatively set October 1.

AG Opinions

Attorney General Hill told the Public Welfare Department it can transfer appropriated funds among programs without specific appropriations. Legislative budget writers objected.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

A commissioners court may enter a contract without competitive bids for personal or professional services involving coordination of crime investigation.

Advertisements for bids for supplies costing more than $2,000 in counties of over 800,000 population must be published in accordance with law requiring publication in a daily newspaper.

Balances and receipts appropriated to a board of county and district road indebtedness may be spent for administration of the fund but may not be utilized to employ personnel whose salaries were voted by the governor.

crimes rose 17.4 per cent during the first six months of 1975, according to Texas Department of Public Safety.

DPS report showed a 24.7 per cent increase in rural areas and a 16.7 per cent jump in the urban areas.

A total of 310,920 major crimes for the period were recorded for a rate of 5,160 per 100,000 population. This compares to 259,267 offenses during the first part of 1974 and a rate that year of 4,396 per 100,000.

DPS Director Wilson E. Speir said 25 per cent of all reported crimes were cleared during the period, compared to 22 per cent a year earlier. Thirty-one per cent of the rural crimes were cleared by arrests.

Speir said the record indicates a major criminal offense in Texas every 34 minutes.

Appointments

Gov. Dolph Briscoe reappointed Frank H. Lewis of Bay City to Texas Water Quality Board.

Harry E. McAdams of Austin and Washington succeeded Alan R. Erwin as director of the Office of State-Federal Relations in Washington, D.C.

Steve A. Lillard III of Laredo and Dorrance H. Guy of El Paso were named to the Good Neighborhood

The Texas highway traffic toll Labor Day weekend was the lowest since 1966.

Veteran Sen. Bill Moore of Bryan will be honored October 14 at a barbecue and entertainment event in Washington-on-the-Brazos Park.

Voters' guide to proposed new constitution to be voted on November 4 are now in the mails in most sections. Texas mobile home dealers and manufacturers are challenging a new regulatory and bonding requirement. Attorney General Hill defends it.

An Austin district judge declared the Texas theater admissions tax (which yields about $5.5 million a year) unconstitutional.

Construction activities are showing strong signs of recovery, according to the Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Williams and Splawn are presently working with other breeders to form a West Texas Association. The purpose of this association will be to promote Char-Swiss cattle. Char-Swiss is a relatively new breed but is becoming increasingly more popular. Many well established Charolais and Brown-Swiss breeders throughout the nation have enrolled their cattle in the Char-Swiss program for the purpose of producing Char-Swiss which is a 3/4 Charolais - 1/4 Brown-Swiss cross. The deadline for registering Charolais and Brown-Swiss cattle into the Char-Swiss Association is September 30, 1975.

Char-Swiss breeders have the protection of a U.S. Patent. This means that no one can use the name "Char-Swiss" except those who have registered stock approved by the Char-Swiss National Association.

Char-Swiss cattle are known for ease of calving, they are excellent milkers, and make rapid gains. They are believed by many to be the "Cattle-of-the-Future".

but the county has nothing to do with them. All rates combined make a total of .97%. Also Revenue Sharing money and Lateral Road funds will be received, but they are not affected by tax valuations or rates. Fees of office are expected to remain about the same as last year - up only $5,000.00.

Broken down into more detail, the County General fund will receive $192,000.00 tax revenue, as opposed to $143,000.00 in 1975. This will be used for general expenditures, office supplies, election expenses, janitor and utility bills, operating county cars, feeding and transporting prisoners, audit expense, welfare, etc. This fund shows a budget surplus of $38,000.00.

The Road & Bridge fund will receive $40,000.00 tax money as opposed to $31,000.00 in 1975, and $160,000.00 from the sale of license plates. This will be used for maintaining and operating the county roads - salaries, fuel and oil, repairs, equipment purchase, etc. This fund will show a budget surplus of $20,616.49.

$52,500.00 Special Road money and $21,000.00 Lateral Road funds will be used for similar purposes. It is expected that all these funds will be used. The Jury Fund will receive $8,000.00 and spend $7,568.47, leaving a small surplus.

The Permanent Improvement Fund, from which Law Enforcement Center bonds are paid will receive $20,000.00 and will have a small surplus.

Fees of office, paid into the officers Salary fund is expected to total approximately $119,189.35. This includes all fines and court costs.

"As near as is reasonably possible, tax values are now fairly equal and all taxpayers should be paying their fair share," said Judge Gen Williams, "but no more." He said the additional money needed will be provided, and Bailey County should continue to grow and prosper.

JUST AVERAGE BUT STILL FAILING...GOOD NEWS AND BAD NEWS FOR LIVESTOCK...CROP HARVESTS MOVING ON.

With all the flak raised recently by the sales of grain to Russia it might be wise to put the farm income situation in proper perspective. Because of modest increases in prices of wheat and sorghum to producers, consumers have been warned to expect higher and higher prices for food.

It is interesting to note, however, that during the past year or so wheat prices have been steadily dropping, almost $2 per bushel decline before the price began to rise again. But during that time, the price of bread did not decline in amounts relative to farmer price declines. Yet the farmer is now being blamed for increasing food costs since his price has seen some increases in recent weeks.

The fact is that farm income on a comparative basis is still only three-fourths that of non-farm income. Parity as of July 15 is 75. And that figure would rate a "C" or average on any school grade paper, but it still shows the farmer has a long way to go yet before his income will be comparable with the rest of the economy. So until the farmer gets on an even basis financially, he is not guilty of causing an increase in food prices.

And though farm prices did increase nationwide an average of six per cent from a year ago, prices paid by farmers for production expenses were up 18 per cent from a year ago.

Take a closer look at prices received by Texas farmers and you find only three commodities—oats, hogs and mohair—are above parity. And even though the wheat price has advanced, it still is not at the parity ratio of $4.60.

Break down the price picture into commodities, and you find even more striking evidence of the income situation for farmers. Cotton and cattle are glaring examples.

The average cotton price in Texas is 36.4 cents per pound; parity for cotton is 78.23 cents per pound. Beef cattle averaged $32.50 while parity is $55.70. Calf prices in Texas average $25.40; parity is $68.10.

CATTLE NUMBERS may be finally showing their decline. Nationwide, all cattle and calves totaled 140,100,000 head, an increase of only one per cent from a year earlier. But economists note that if cattle slaughter continues as is now forecast, this year could be the end of the huge cattle build-up.

In Texas, the number of all cattle and calves totaled 17,000,000 head; this is a three percent decline from a year ago. The 1975 Texas calf crop is estimated at 6,100,000 head, down two percent from a year ago.

Stocker cattle numbers on Texas farms, however, are up three per cent from a year ago. All cows and beef cows are down one per cent from a year ago. The northeast part of the state has the highest number of stocker cattle; the Blacklands are second.

HARVEST OF CROPS in Texas continues to make good progress. The grain sorghum crop is now about a third harvested.

Cotton in the South Texas area is ready to harvest but has been slowed due to wet weather. On the High Plains and other sections of the state, the crop is reported to be making excellent progress.

In the Gulf Coast area, rice harvest is about 20 per cent complete; yields in most sections are reported to be satisfactory.

Corn harvest is just getting underway in the state.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN—Some home gardeners are facing a critical shortage this year of an item many have always taken for granted—home canning lids.

The problem has reached crisis proportions in parts of the country, where home gardeners have planted crops in hopes of saving on grocery bills. As harvest begins, these home gardeners are discovering that the canning lid shortage means there is no way of preserving their ripe fruits and vegetables for fall and winter use.

Texas gardeners are having their share of such problems, as evidenced by the complaints received in our Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division about the lack of lids.

Both our Consumer Protection and our Antitrust Divisions are currently looking into the canning lid shortage in Texas. On the national level, the House of Representatives subcommittee on small business has been holding hearings on the problem. The Federal Trade Commission and the Justice Department are also conducting investigations into the shortage and its causes.

Part of the problem is the tremendous increase in the number of home gardeners. The Federal Office of Consumer Affairs estimates that 12 million new gardeners have joined the market for home canning equipment in the last two years.

Another part of the problem is that, in addition to the greatly increased number of gardeners who need lids, some home canners have been buying far more lids than they will need. Because of this hoarding for future use, the shortage has been aggravated. Due to these real and exaggerated demands, some manufacturers have been unable to supply enough lids, although industry figures indicate that 1.6 billion lids have been produced. According to these figures, that ordinarily would be enough to supply 70 lids to each family engaged in home canning.

Without canning lids, home gardeners who hoped to save money by raising some of their own food may find that their efforts have been wasted. They could end up having to give away part of their harvest or watch it go bad.

Texas Department of Agriculture spokesmen say that many Texas home canners stop searching for lids after finding that their customary source has none in stock. They urge home canners to shop around for canning equipment, since some supplies are available in such non-traditional locations as department or discount stores and specialty shops.

Try the following additional recommendations, also, to avoid problems at harvest time: Buy only as many canning lids as you will need—don't hoard. If you cannot get as many as necessary, and you have a freezer, use it to preserve your fruits and vegetables. Remember, too, that some crops, especially fruits, can be dried with excellent results. And try checking with friends and neighbors to see if they might be willing to purchase your extra produce.

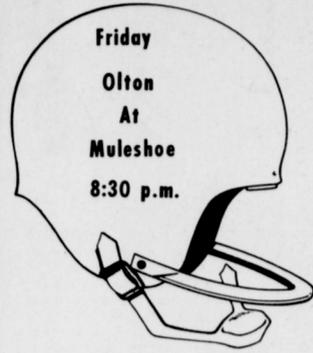

For health and safety reasons, always follow the correct procedures for canning, freezing, or drying of foods.

G.M. sets its hopes on new small Cadillac.

Cattlemen Tell Consumer Benefits Of Research Act

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 4, 1975 -- The Beef Research and Information Act will be voted on by the U.S. House of Representatives this month. According to the American National Cattlemen's Association, the bill will provide positive benefits to both the consuming public and the cattle industry.

will provide for an industry-wide referendum in which cattlemen vote on a self-help, "fair-share" uniform collection plan to provide funds for beef research information and promotion. The program would not go into effect unless producers themselves voted for it. All funds would be provided by cattlemen.

expanded research on beef production. "Frankly," he said, "our industry may have reached a plateau in its technological and production efficiency. We need increased research at a time when the federal government has cut back on agricultural research. This self-help program would provide for research that could make cattlemen even more efficient producers of beef. The ultimate benefit would be to consumers."

According to Van Vleck, identification of consumer needs would be vastly improved through expanded research. Once identified, these needs could be met by developing better beef products and methods of handling and preparation.

Research into health and nutrition is another area of vital interest to consumers and cattlemen. As it is now, cattlemen point out that science knows more about animal nutrition than human nutrition.

needed to come up with the answers. This program would take on that task." The proposed legislation calls specifically for information to serve consumers. Under the bill "facts, data and other information that will assist consumers and other persons in making evaluations and decisions regarding purchasing, preparation and utilization of beef and beef products" are required.

Distribution of beef is another major concern to cattlemen. Statistics show that 80 per cent of the increase in food prices last year resulted from increased costs in non-farm areas. Cattlemen say that unless beef distribution improves, farm-to-consumer margins will continue to mount.

The cattlemen's share is squeezed along with the consumer's budget by these rising non-farm costs," Van Vleck said. "Research can provide us with answers to many of our problems by improving productivity in distribution channels." Van Vleck pointed out that the Beef Research and Information Act has broad support from beef and dairy cattlemen. He observed that the industry is ready to proceed as soon as Congress has given its approval to the program.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhill Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm reviews the gasoline situation this week. Dear editor:

I have been puzzling over the idea some people in Washington have that the way to conserve gasoline is to raise the price.

As I understand it, this theory is based on the notion that people drive their cars needlessly, so if you can get the price of gasoline up high enough a man will think twice before getting in his car when he could have walked or taken a bus, less and less gasoline will be used and then maybe there'll be enough to go around, at least for those in the upper brackets.

However, some people already are as thrifty with their car as they are with their money, and a man of this turn of mind is already holding his driving down to a minimum which means, under the Washington theory, that while he won't drive fewer miles, he'll pay a lot more for the same miles. Right here, a man gets confused over whether raising the price of gas is a conservation measure or a revenue measure.

Now as far as making less thrifty people cut down on their driving is concerned, I don't believe Washington understands human nature. With a lot of people, driving a car is like drinking coffee. A cup of coffee used to cost a nickel, then a dime, and now it's all the way from 15 cents to 30 cents, but nobody is drinking less coffee. As a coffee-conservation measure, raising the price is a flop. The same goes for cold drinks, chewing gum, cigarettes and for all I know lollypops and all-day suckers. Why, Congress has just raised the price of a Congressman, but you don't see fewer of them, do you?

The American public is hooked on cars, and while it's hard to see how we can do it, if the price of gas goes to a dollar a gallon, there'll be just as many traffic jams as ever. Actually, the only sure way to conserve gasoline is to abolish weekends, holidays, summer vacations, and football games, require teen-agers during the week to stay at home and study, and then look out for a revolution.

I'm afraid Washington has been getting some bad advice. Raising the price of gasoline to cut down on its use is like raising the price of milk to keep babies from drinking so much of it. Even if it worked, you'd wind up with a lot of unhappy babies. Yours faithfully, J.A.

VIKING ON COURSE
