If we happen to get to be one of the World War II millionaires, we are going to start a huge factory to make clothing for small boys, say from three to twelve years of age, and this will include hats for these little gentlemen. If we can just start such a factory, we have no fear of winding up as a bloated plutocrat, and not exactly profiteer on the price, either, as we would be the only such a manufacturer, seemingly.

Boyce House, whose column appears in this and other weekly papers in this area, frequently, has for many months given south Texas, and the Valley in particular, a heavy buildup at the expense of the north and west Texas papers. If Mr. House has ever made a trip to this area, except to Amarillo to address the Panhandle Press association, we have not heard of it. We do not, however, infer that some of the press agents in the Valley have been working Boyce over.

Facism and Nazism are the two isms that purport to reward the man who is a failure, the coward and the parasite. The leaders tell him that he has nothing to fear, as we will take from the energetic, the prosperous manager, the worker who won't stay down, and give to you, making all mankind equal. And we might add, these isms go by different names in different countries. Some say that our country is drifting into such an ism. Shall we reward the drone who has never labored hard and long hours all his life? If you don't believe in supporting the parasite from the cradle to the grave, better keep posted and watch your ballot box—and vote. If a man chooses the quagmire to decency, that is his ticket. But let the man with a will and decency live from his own larder. That's our ticket.

The bosses of the army and navy draft boards, as well as the volunteer recruiting stations, have consistently refused to take men in the army and navy who are classified as illiterate. Shades of Washington, Wellington and Napoleon, or even Lee and Grant. What would these men have done for an army? There are thousands of such men, we are told, in the mountains of Tennessee, Georgia, the Carolinas, Kentucky, and Virginia, while classified as illiterate, are by no means ignorant, and are among the world's best shots. And these men and boys are not too ignorant or illiterate, if you wish, to understand any reasonable order given them. We have an idea that Dan Boone,

Three Ways to Beat Japan

Military strategists see three ways to beat Japan. Above, advance, island by island, up the Pacific to Japan.

Reopening of overland supply to China rolling back the Japanese to the coast, thus providing air bases from which Japan could be blasted from the West, while long range bombers strike at her from the Aleutians.

Combined attack. Naval sweep from Hawaii and other Pacific bases timed to coincide with bombing from China and the Aleutians.

The War Food Administration was given $500,000,000 for subsidies to cover the loss to producers occasioned by "rollback" in some retail food prices. Before the ink is dry on the first $500,000,000 authorized, Administrator Jones wants $500,000,000 more.

Once the "cost of living subsidy" is established, look out for it to be extended, billion by billion. The farmer doesn't want the subsidy because he knows he will be at the mercy of the government to pay him such a handout, under one name or another, as it deems sufficient to keep him going.

The food subsidy is an indirect method of making the government boss of every farm in the United States.

The cost of production, which is based largely on the cost of labor, will always establish the price of a commodity when the cost of production is going up. There isn't enough money in the world to maintain peacetime prices by subsidizing wartime production costs. The people pay, through taxes or prices, and there is more waste via the tax-subsidy route.

Mrs. J. B. Knight spent the week end at Dallas, visiting her daughter, Miss Jean Knight, who is a freshman student at Southern Methodist University.

IT DOESN'T ADD UP

Commenting on the situation of the oil industry, O. D. Donnell, president of the Ohio Oil company, says: "The petroleum situation in the United States has now reached the point where industry can no longer guarantee sufficient crude oil to meet war and essential civilian requirements unless petroleum products, particularly gasoline, domestic heating oils and fuels, are used conservatively.

"More and more of each barrel of crude oil that formerly went into civilian automotive gasoline is now going into 100 octane aviation gasoline, toluene for TNT and munitions, butadiene for synthetic rubber, diesel oil for the navy and distillates for reprocessing in catalytic cracking plants for the manufacture of war products.

"The situation is aggravated by tremendous decline in discovery of sufficient new large fields over past two years to maintain an adequate backlog of crude oil reserves."

The Petroleum Industry War Council blames the falling off in discovery of new reserves on arbitrary and inadequate price ceilings on crude. The cost of wildcatting, including labor, material and taxation, prohibits necessary risk taking in this field. Must the nation suffer an oil famine before this simple fact is recognized?

THE LOW DOWN from HICKORY GROVE

The pictures in front of the side-show never did mean, that what you see there is gonna be what you will see after you get on the inside. I been thinking about how they began working the same idea on us voters. One thing we do on here in our Land of the Free is our right to be a sucker—day or night.

"Who told you this was the land of the free?" says Henry. "Tell me," he says, "about something that is free except maybe air at the service station." "Free enterprise," he says, "is hanging on the ropes—freedom to work where you please and not dig up dues, how about that? And radio—it is being threatened and elbowed."

"Well," I says, "but I stick to my story about the side-show pictures. Look at the half-way sensible kind of ducks all the time being set to big jobs, there on the old Potomac. Every time it looks like it might be an entirely new show. But once they get inside, is's the same old bearded ladies and India-rubber men." "You got something there," says Henry.

Yours with the low down, —Jo Serra

I GIVE YOU TEXAS by BOYCE HOUSE

A negro sergeant said to a bunch of colored rookies: "From now on when Ah blows dis yere whistle, Ah wants to see a huge cloud of dust come boilin' outa dem tents an' when dat dust clears away, Ah wants to find two rows of statues."

Texas is threatened with the loss of 200,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day through the construction of a pipeline that will build up the factories of the East and deprive our State of an opportunity for industrial development. Austin is talking against it. Let's have action.

If you visit the Lower Rio Grande Valley, the miracle of its development is right before your eyes—the "before" and "after." You see not only the great groves of grapefruit and orange trees, which produce thousands of carloads of fruit a year—but, in many instances, you see just across the road, the "brush country" in its untamed condition: Spanish bayonet, prickly pear, ebony trees, mesquites, vines and thorny bushes so thick as to seem almost impenetrable except to a man swinging a machete.

There was a negro sergeant who said, "When I says 'Eyes, right', Ah wants to hear dem eye-balls click."

The other day I was in line to pay my lunch check, I noticed on the counter a small stack of chocolate bars—the first ones I had seen in several months. The man ahead of me picked up five, but the cashier explained that the limit was one to a customer, so he put back four. As a result, four other persons—who had just as much right to enjoy a chocolate bar as that human hog—were able to buy one.

And yet there are some people, including one or two in public office, who insist that rationing is unnecessary.

Tom Foster, widely known Texas newspaperman, now in the Seabees is happy over the fact that the 99th U. S. Naval Construction Battalion of which he is a member has been christened by Governor Stevenson as the "Lone Star Battalion." One-fifth of its members are from Texas. Commander Richard R. Cook said that, while he is a loyal West Virginian and the battalion has men from every state, "we are proud to be signally honored by such a great commonwealth."

First 1944 political forecast noticed is that of B. H. Broiles in Gladewater Times-Tribune that Governor will run for Congress and that candidates for Governor will be present Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General and R. R. Commissioner Jester; that District Attorney Fred Erisman of Longview will run for Attorney General.

Chapultepec Castle is one of the most interesting places in Mexico City. The castle, known as the "White House of Mexico," has served as the residence of presidents and was the home of Emperor Maximilian and Empress Carlotta. "Chapultepec" means "grass-hopper" and there is a huge bronze statue of a grasshopper beside the pool in the yard. Situated on top of a hill in the edge of a great park, the castle commands a magnificent view of the city. The edifice is a show place, open to the public, and one admires the ornate and costly furnishings which the luxury-loving empress imported from France. Some of the rooms have silk walls; the dining room is lined in satin.

My old school teacher used to say, "Never use a preposition to end a sentence with."

Peter Molyneaux, noted author and magazine writer of Dallas, tells of a wealthy Fort Worth man who, some years ago, went to Europe to consult an eminent specialist. The physician said, "Return to America and go to Texas"—he had not asked where the man was from—"to a place called Mineral Wells and drink and bathe in the

O. H. GARNER, PIONEER CITIZEN PASSES ON

O. H. Garner, aged 90, died last Friday at the local hospital, city, and was buried Saturday evening at the Union cemetery, after funeral services were held at the Methodist church here, with Rev. H. W. Hanks officiating.

Mr. Garner had resided in the Union community for over 25 years, and left surviving him four sons: Clay and Dick, who are well known farmers of this county, and Walter and John, living at Childress, and two daughters: Mrs. J. C. Bond, Brownfield, and Mrs. Ruby Robinson of Plainview, and several grand-children, including Shirley Bond, former deputy county clerk, now in the WAACs. His wife predeceased him in death several years ago.

Active pall-bearers were: Hayden Griffin, Arthur Green, Tobe Howze, Robert Luker, and Edd Evans.

Honorary pall-bearers were: H. M. Pyeat, Joe Bryant, T. J. Lamar, Rex Headstream, W. B. Tudor, W. G. McDonald, J. C. Crowmover, L. C. Green, J. C. Green, T. J. Bowers, Tom Cobb, and Gus Pollard.

And when a European sent a great coin collection to the United States to be sold, he sent it to the governor of New York, who communicated with a Manhattan authority on coins and was advised that the greatest coin dealer in the United States is Max Mehl of For Worth.

Just two more evidences of the greatness of Texas!

While one Austin statesman says that gasoline rationing is unnecessary because "the people of Texas are drowning in oil," the oil industry of the State has been pleading for more than a year for an increase in the price of oil on the basis that wildcatting needs to be encouraged so new fields can be discovered and a famine in oil prevented!

Personally, I think the oil men know more about the oil situation than the Austin politician does.

The people of Texas may be in danger of "drowning" in something but I never heard it called "oil" before!

Your County War Fund is another "Victory weapon."

The United War Chest of Texas through war fund organizations in every county of the state is charged with the responsibility of raising $4,885,781.00 for the 17 approved war appeals of the National War Fund. The national goal is $125,000,000.

Each of the 17 participating agencies was carefully budgeted to stretch every dollar contributed before it received the approval of the President's War Relief Control Board.

Texans now are being asked to take a Texan's share in their County War Funds to aid three fronts with one gift—the Military Front, the United Nations Front, and the Home Front. Remember, President Roosevelt has said that a share in the National War Fund is a share in winning the war. Use this "Victory weapon." Give to your County War Fund.

WHY BE COPY CATS?

The argument has been advanced that if one believes in a free public school system, one should not object to "free medicine" controlled and paid for by the state.

There is considerable difference between a public school system to give every individual a chance for mental equipment with which to earn a living and care for himself, and furnishing the individual, at state expense, the various necessities and luxuries of life.

"Cradle to the grave security" sounds appealing, but a nation which accepts that plan sells its independence and admits that its people cannot care for themselves.

The American medical system has been a wonder of the war. It was not developed or fostered by the state. It was the result of enterprise and initiative of American doctors who over a long period of years have been determined to make American medicine supreme.

American medicine probably gives more actual free service to those who need it, than do the so-called socialized medical systems of foreign countries, which load the cost of their "free" service on to the individual in the form of special taxes.

Why should we in this country even consider disrupting the greatest medical system in the world to copy experiments of nations which cannot match ours in medical progress?

Mrs. J. W. Hogue visited at Tulla, Canyon, and Amarillo, over the week end.

TEXAS CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS FALLING OFF

Austin, Oct. 9.—Based on awards for the first nine months of the year, construction contracts in Texas indicate a tapering off to a normal trend of necessary projects, the Texas Contractor, trade publication, reported today.

Nine months of this year showed awards of $234,863,366 compared with $708,613,842 for a similar period last year and $385,091,065 in 1941.

ABOUT THE OIL SITUATION IN TEXAS

By G. W. N.

There is a famous old saying: "Oh Christianity, what crimes are committed in thy name," and there is a new one: "Oh, 'war effort' what inflation is sought in thy name."

The oil people are asking an increase of 35 cents per barrel to "Induce" more wildcat drilling to increase production, to save a shortage in oil, and win the war.

Several months ago, Secretary Ickes, expressed fear of an oil shortage, encouraged saving and gas rationing, then the anti-rationing group, published names of two companies, each could furnish enough gas and high octane to win the war, then the oil company union, scenting the 35 cents rise, express serious shortage to increase more production, and now a California company announces its completion of a refinery to make oil enough to run 100 fortresses to Berlin and back (quite a trip) and to operate a thousand trucks half round the world.

Last spring the cattlemen kicked at the price of feed, turned their herds back to grass, holding for higher prices, and all yelled a shortage in beef, the OPA tightened its ration belt, the pastures dried up, their convention met and said: we have biggest surplus of cattle in our history, can feed the world, don't object to price, or ration points, but raise the quota for shipment. The government then laid it wide open on quota shipments, they flooded the market, run the price of cattle down. Now another cattle official says a meat famine is around the corner; that whole herds will perish if the government don't send them feed, and that would interfere with war effort. The farmers, a war industry, demands high prices because of labor shortage, and wages.

Labor, claiming to be a war industry, demands increased wages because of the longage of food prices. So round and round the moneyberry tree we go, each group singing, "More, More About Jits," and Uncle Sam can only say, "I've heard that song before," and tries to hold 'em in an even tenor. Pore ole Government, its between a sweat and a shortage.

Aubrey Fore, Rt. 2, city, and the Best Yet Cafe, city, are new readers.

CHILD BEARING DEATHS STILL TOO HIGH

Austin, Texas, Oct. 14.—"Despite the development of scientific procedures that definitely reduce the hazards of child-bearing, maternal deaths in this country continue to remain much too high," Dr. Cox said today in a statement on maternal and child birth in Texas.

It is an encouraging fact, however, Dr. Cox said, that during the last 10 years the ratio of maternal deaths to the number of live births in Texas has dropped from 7.6 to 3.8. This shows a marked progress in the prevention of maternal deaths consistently maintained in recent years. In actual figures, during 1942 there were 132,175 live births in the state with 494 maternal deaths while in 1933 a total of 103,806 live births resulted in 835 maternal deaths.

"A factor in keeping our maternal death rate at its present level is the failure to prospective mothers to realize their greater safety in placing themselves under continuous supervision of a good physician throughout pregnancy," Dr. Cox said. "The value of this type of care cannot be over estimated. Until this attitude on the part of expectant mothers is changed, maternal deaths will not reach the minimum which today is possible. In short, the individual has a definite responsibility to secure for herself that high professional care which is today available."

FAIR PLAY

Four young men visiting the Orient before the war, who considered themselves exceedingly clever, had a Chinese servant upon whom they played all sorts of pranks.

One night they nailed his shoes to the floor. The next morning, without a word or sign of retaliation, he brought in their coffee.

Next day they put sand in his bed. The next morning he served their coffee smiling blandly, with no trace of resentment in his attitude.

So they decided to play no more tricks on such a good fellow, and told him so?"

"No more nailee shoes to floor?"

"No."

"No more puttee sand in bed?"

"No."

"Velly well, no more puttee mud in coffee."

Hearne Resigns As Tahoka Santa Fe Agent

Last week's Lynn County News regaled us with a story of the resignation of Joe Hearne, pioneer Santa Fe agent at Tahoka, who had been in harness there since 1915, although offered much larger stations, including Sweetwater. But Joe Hearne and wife had their home in Tahoka, just like the R. L. Harriss family are established here. They wanted to stay in Tahoka, and did. Bob Harris and wife came here soon after their marriage, have raised a young lady, now in high school, that most folks call Carolyn, but who was designated "Friday" by the writer, who lived next door neighbors to the Harriss family when Carolyn was born one Friday some 15 years ago. From childhood to a young lady, she has been "Friday" to us.

But we digress. All the old regular freighters like Uncle Jimmy Green, and more or less regular ones like Bill Fulton and others, will remember Joe Hearne, one of the most accommodating station agents you ever met. In the story Joe tells the News, that he took checks in those good old days when Brownfield, Plains, Tatum, N. M., and other points got their freight at Tahoka, and he only lost one, a $7.50 check given by a man who went bankrupt. Joe also said that he I aETAIONSHRDLU said that he loaded out the Herald's first cylinder press, a Country Campbell, on a freight wagon, and we might add that Joe took our check for the freight from Dallas to Tahoka, filled out and signed by our freighter.

There were very few people here those days, but they were straight shooters. Even the banks took few mortgages. Just a straight note when you needed the money. Joe went on to state that the people (men) drank less water and more liquor in those days, and that sometimes it took two baggage cars to carry the whiskey—nothing weaker in those days. Joe was accused sometimes by the few dries that were here then, that he was running a saloon at the Santa Fe depot. But Joe just grinned. So far as we know, he did not

WORLD OUTLOOK PROGRAM GIVEN AT METHODIST CHURCH

Mrs. G. S. Webber was program chairman when Methodist women met at the church auditorium Monday afternoon for a World Outlook program. She was assisted by Mesdames Glen Harris, J. H. Carpenter, Judson Cook, H. W. Hanks, Andrew Lloyd, U. Gorton, and Spencer Kendrick.

Several high school girls gave an interesting skit, "Where Our Mission Dollars Go." Mrs. Roy Herod sang "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross." She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harry Longbrake.

Others present were Mesdames Cleve Williams, B. L. Thompson, Lula Singletary, Lillie Roberts, Bob Lovelace, Mitchell Flache, Pete Crump and Jackie; J. L. Lee, W. E. Henson, Sam Montgomery, W. B. Downing, W. H. Culver, W. A. Wilson, Simes, Miss Lillian Lee and Herbie and Sammy Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hardin have received word that their son, Sgt. Bill Hardin, who has seen considerable action in the Solomons, will be home on leave soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey returned Sunday from Chihuahua, Mexico, where they had spent a few days visiting. They were accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haynes.

Well, when the wagon freighter would leave for Tahoka, any number of good, respectable citizens would authorize their freighter to sign up for their four full quarts. That was the law then, and still was when Texas went dry as a war measure about 1918. Joe sure did leave over many a gallon of liquor through the little window in his office, which in turn led to the express room.

Here we are feeding a lot of newcomers on the trials and tribulations of pioneering a country. But the above was in our bones and the Old He felt like writing about it. Joe, we hope you will have rest from your labors, although with just 57 years behind you, you are still just a kid. Come over to see us sometime—after the war with its tire and gas worries.

COTTON CROP IN TEXAS INDICATES A DECLINE

Austin, Oct. 9. — The United States Department of Agriculture today forecast a 1943 Texas cotton crop of 2,850,000 bales of 500 lbs. gross weight compared with 3,038,000 bales produced in 1942.

The 10-year (1932-41) average production is 3,419,000 bales. The indicated yield per acre of 173 pounds, compares with 192 pounds realized in 1942, 165 pounds in 1941, and 160 pounds the average 10-year period. Conditions affecting the Texas crop were varied during September.

Drouth Damaged Crop
Cotton in the northwest districts deteriorated further under drouth conditions, although spot rains were received that benefited a few favored localities. Over the balance of the state the crop was too far advanced to be helped by rainfall, and picking made rapid progress under favorable harvest conditions.
