Service Award Presented To G. Nickels

Local Man Honored At Meeting

During the Texas Independent Ginners Association meeting in Houston, Guy Nickels was honored with a distinguished service award. This was the first award of this kind that has ever been awarded during the history of the organization...

Nickels has had ginning and compress interest in this area for many years; having started sixty-two years ago in Spur, in 1914. Both his father and grandfather were cotton ginners and it just came natural for him to end up "ginning"...

He went into the cotton compress business in 1955, feeling that he knew what ginners needed in cotton compressing and services for storing cotton.

Recently, the Nickels Ginning Company acquired 100 percent interest in Central Compress and Warehouse Company.

It's a family group that is involved in the ginning and compress business. He and his wife live in Muleshoe and they have seven children. Most all of them are involved in some way with cotton.

Nickels has served the cotton industry during the past sixty-two years. He has helped promote cotton and services in many ways. He has held offices in many local, state and national organizations of related interest to these allied businesses.

Not only has Nickels helped cotton but he is a community helper also.

Ray Joe Riley reported that a study was being made by researchers of Texas A&M on the impact of increased natural gas prices on all phases of agriculture, and that the results of this study would be available for the area meetings.

President Miller reported that growing out of the meeting between the Executive Committee and Senator Kent Hance and Senator Max Sherman in Hereford held on March 23, 1976, Senator Kent Hance had already called on Governor Dolph Briscoe to call a special session of the Legislature to try to do something about the spiraling prices of natural gas and all utility bills, and particularly about the pass-through billing which many feel is being seriously abused by the utilities.

Trinity Baptist Church Begins Spring Revival Sunday

The Trinity Baptist Church will begin their spring revival, Sunday morning, April 25, and will continue through May 2. The theme of the meeting is Christ is King. Many activities are planned to enhance a city-wide participation from all Muleshoe churches.

Pastor David C. Everts has expressed the desires of every member of the Trinity Baptist church by saying, "We believe the greatest need in America is a heaven sent revival of God's people, no matter what denomination. Without Christian concern for the teaching of the gospel and genuine repentance our country and community is in a hopeless condition. We want to see every church revived to the point that God takes control of all our affairs."

Tommy Popelka will lead the teaching and preaching with Marvin Lewis leading the song services. Evangelist Tommy Popelka is from Las Vegas, Nevada. He is widely known for his powerful, Christ centered Bible preaching.

Rev. Popelka spoke in the Arizona-Nevada Southern Baptist Convention in 1975. He was chosen as one of the preachers to be sent to Korea last year, to speak among some of the worlds best known evangelists. Popelka has been the pastor in Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi and Nevada. Rev. Popelka holds a BA degree from Texas University and a Master of Theology degree from the New Orleans Theological Seminary. Before entering the Gospel Ministry, he was an executive with the Foleys Department stores. Rev. Popelka is married and has three sons.

The Music Evangelist Marvin Lewis is well known to the residents of the Muleshoe area. Lewis is one of the finest music ministers and devotes a great deal of his time to the gospel ministry. Lewis is the Minister of Music, in the Trinity Baptist Church and a member of the Crusader Quartet that has performed in churches and civic organizations all over this area. He attended Wayland Baptist College in his preparation for ministry.

Noon services will be held each day from 12:10 to 12:40, Monday through Friday. Cold cuts and sandwich fixings will be served to all participants, in this mid-day worship time. Evangelist Popelka will be preaching from the book of Malachi during noon time.

The service times will be strictly enforced in order to give the congregation ample time to be back to work on time. The services on Sunday, April 25, will begin with Sunday School, at 9:45 and preaching at 10:55. Sunday evening services will begin at 7:00 p.m. and preaching at 8:00 p.m.

Muleshoe Receives City Tax Rebates Of $4,131.31

Comptroller Bob Bullock mailed checks totaling $11.9 million to 516 cities and towns Thursday, as payment for their April city sales tax rebates. Muleshoe received $4,131.31 which will be used in the general fund account.

Bullock said he has remitted $87.4 million to the 845 municipalities collecting the one-cent sales tax so far this year, compared to $80.4 million remitted during the same period last year.

"Both city and state sales tax collections are growing far faster than inflation alone," the Comptroller said.

He noted that 1975 city sales tax collections totaled $263.9 million, nearly 10 percent more than the $240.8 million collected in 1974; and state sales tax collections in 1975 totaled $1.266 billion, 12.5 percent more than the $1.126 billion collected in 1974.

Bullock attributed the increases mainly to increased consumer spending and improved collection procedures by the Comptroller's Office. "Because tax collections are running so high, I've been able to project that state government can easily get by another two years without a tax increase," he said. "And with careful planning, we might be able to avoid new taxes for years to come."

Jury Finds Mrs. Lowe Guilty Of Kidnapping

U.S. District Court jury, apparently convinced that Eileen Lowe was mentally capable of controlling her actions, found her guilty Monday, of the gunpoint kidnapping of a new born baby.

The nine-man, three-woman jury returned its verdict shortly after 2:00 p.m. (MST), less than two hours after deliberation began.

Mrs. Lowe, age 30, faces a maximum sentence of life in prison. She wept openly as the verdict was read, then Mrs. Lowe collapsed as a deputy federal marshal attempted to lead her from the courtroom. Judge Howard Bratton, U.S. District, said he will sentence Mrs. Lowe, May 5, in Albuquerque, New Mexico, following a pre-sentencing report.

The jury, which heard four days of often emotional testimony, apparently accepted prosecutor, Charles Sandoval's closing argument that Mrs. Lowe was attempting to mislead it by appearing mentally incompetent.

In her testimony, sobbing Mrs. Lowe admitted the kidnapping but denied that she had planned

The Pastor Speaks

By Rev. Evetts

THE FINE ART OF PERSONAL WORK: Jonah 1:14-17. In this short book of only four chapters we find some of the most practical and fundamental truths of all the Bible. And when we give them careful consideration and study a great deal can be learned that every Christian ought to know. God called Jonah three times - he accepted only one of those calls - and it is doubtful that he would have responded then but for the great tempest that God set before him. He acted not too differently than many of us act today when God calls us. He fought like a mad-man against God's will - and he did everything he could to keep God from having His own way. His only interest was himself - Selfishness... and pure unadulterated wickedness. And this I believe characterizes the lives of a lot of people today. Some of them are pretty high up in the world - but spiritually and morally - they are just as wicked as God's mercy will allow. When Jonah learned there was a power greater than his - and that God would not be mocked nor ignored - and when he saw that his own life could be snuffed out in a moment - he repented... he prayed... and submitted himself to the will of God. Multitudes of Christians - both men and women today are going to be obedient to God only when they are forced to do it. Sometimes it takes death and trouble and heartache. But God will show how and sometime have His way. If we could only see what Jonah learned through his experience I believe we would be more faithful to the task to which He has called us. When Jonah repented and prayed - God saved a multitude of men, women and children. For a few moments lets think, not about Jonah in particular, but of the 'Great Fish' that God had prepared. FIRST OF ALL THE GREAT FISH WAS ON HAND AND READY WHEN GOD NEEDED HIM: The whale or great fish obeyed without question God's commandment and he performed his task according to God's direction. Again, he was where God could get in touch with him. And when God commanded - he obeyed immediately. Wouldn't it be wonderful if men would react in this same manner? Too often when God needs us we are not available. And even if we do hear Him - we act more like Jonah than we do the great fish. But you say: "Preacher, this was fish was an animal or mammal - God predestined certain things and he had to conform to them." But let me ask you one question: "Who is your master?" You had better be careful now before you answer that question. Read Matthew 21:23-27 before you answer - you may want to change it. ANOTHER THING THE GREAT FISH DID WAS STAY WITH JONAH UNTIL HE GOT

HIM TO PRAY: Too often we let down and quit - when if we had done just a little more - or gone a little farther - victory would have been ours. I have about come to the conclusion that if God is not in our lives and in our church - and if we are not willing to follow His commandments and leadership - we might as well quit for all the good we will be able to do. I know this is an unusual story - but God works and God expects us to work in an unusual manner. If there is something unusual about a Christian - then there is something drastically wrong with him. THIS LAST THING ABOUT THIS GREAT FISH: HE DID NOT QUIT UNTIL HE LANDED HIS MAN: My grandfather - my mother's father said to me one day: "Sam, I prayed for thirty years for one man before God saved him." Too often we look at our Christian work - the work of our church - as something that must be done in a hurry. And we even look at it sometimes as a painful task that we are forced to do. God does not expect us to get in a hurry - He doesn't - and when we rush into a thing without first sitting down and counting the cost - we are gravely in danger of getting ahead of God. I really believe it is drudgery and misery for some of us to come to church and spend two hours on Sunday morning at 1 Sunday evening. And an hour on Wednesday night is just too much to ask of anyone. It all boils down to just one thing - if it suits me - and if it fits my personality - and if it doesn't require too much of my time - I'll be happy to do it. But if it doesn't - I'm afraid you will have to get somebody else.

Arthritis Is Number One Crippler

The American Revolution didn't break out overnight. It had been building for years. The symptoms of arthritis can sneak up on you slowly too, warns the Arthritis Foundation. Arthritis now is America's number one crippling disease.

"Maybe you think your aches and pains are just signs of getting old or working too hard, but see a physician right away if symptoms persist," cautions Dr. Bruce R. Bartholomew, Medical Committee Director of the health agency's West Texas Chapter.

He said that persistent pain and stiffness when you get up in the morning is one sign of arthritis. Another is pain, tenderness, or swelling in one or more joints, particularly the wrists, hips, neck and knees. Other symptoms that are important include tingling sensations in the fingertips, hands and feet, unexplained weight loss, fever and weakness. These can be signs of many diseases including arthritis.

"The most common form of the disease is osteoarthritis and there's a revolution against arthritis now going on," reported Dr. Bartholomew. To find out more, send for a free booklet on osteoarthritis, available from the West Texas Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation at 3701 North Big Spring, Midland, Texas 79701.

Cattlemen Should Be Pessimists Now

COLLEGE STATION - An optimist always believes things will be much better next month while a pessimist isn't so sure. Right now a pessimistic attitude by cattle producers could help speed up recovery in the cattle industry.

That's the contention of Dr. Ed Uvacek, a livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"An optimistic feeling among cattlemen that everything is now all right in the cattle industry could be disastrous for the industry as a whole," he believes.

Uvacek fears that cattlemen who think the industry is recovering rapidly will delay calf marketing, cull only a small number of cows, and hold heifers for breeding.

"That fact is that there are still large numbers of cattle on hand, and any delay in the liquidation of breeding herds could result in a herd buildup and set the industry's recovery back a year or more.

"Only by heavy culling of cows, reduction of breeding herds, and early calf marketings will the large cattle numbers be cut down and recovery speeded up. Producers who reduce their herds now would benefit from higher salvage values for cows and increased income from the sale of calves," says Uvacek. Producers should try to sell cows as soon as possible rather than waiting until this fall, adds the Texas A&M University System specialist. Also, they should be cautious of prices paid if purchasing new cows.

"If all cattlemen take actions to cut down herd size, the industry will probably recover by 1977," predicts Uvacek.

I really believe it is drudgery and misery for some of us to come to church and spend two hours on Sunday morning and Sunday evening. And an hour on Wednesday night is just too much to ask of anyone. It all boils down to just one thing - if it suits me - and if it fits my personality - and if it doesn't require too much of my time - I'll be happy to do it. But if it doesn't - I'm afraid you will have to get somebody else.

GREENBUG REPORT . . . Producers of the Texas High Plains who use "greenbug resistant sorghum hybrids" this crop season can expect the new hybrids to live up to their name. In evaluations of the varieties last fall, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station scientists found that under greenbug infestations the hybrids far out-perform their "susceptible" counterparts. Experiment Station technicians Charles Woodfin (left) and James Phillips evaluate greenbug damage to sorghum varieties growing in greenhouse flats.

Unsafe Practices Contribute To Farm Accidents

COLLEGE STATION -- Accidents on Texas farms and ranches claim more than 200 lives each year. Nationally, there are about 1,400 accidental deaths and 140,000 disabling injuries per year involving farm residents.
An agricultural safety engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service points out that recent studies show that many farm and ranch accidents are related to falls, use of tractors and other machinery, drownings, electrocutions, fire arms and motor vehicles used in work activities. About 30 percent of all farm and ranch injuries result from falls.
Dr. Gary Nelson cites tractor turnovers as causing the highest fatality rate involving farm machinery. In almost two-thirds of these tractor related accidental deaths, the victim first fell from the tractor. This points out the importance of a protective roll-over cab and seat belt.
"Although accident prevention begins with the design of safe equipment and facilities to fit man's needs and capabilities, safe operating procedures are also paramount," emphasizes the Texas A&M University System engineer.
"Agricultural workers need to recognize "high risk situations" and conduct their work accordingly to avoid accidents, maintains Nelson.
He lists a number of poor work procedures that often lead to accidents on the farm and ranch: failure to secure objects or machines from unexpected movement, operating at an unsafe speed, removing or making safety devices inoperative, using defective tools or equipment, using good tools or equipment improperly, assuming an unsafe position or posture, working with hazardous materials, using hands or feet instead of tools, creating dangerous combinations of objects or materials, and deviating from recommended job procedures.

"These are only a few of the many unsafe practices that occur on farms and ranches," points out Nelson. "Accident prevention involves correcting these practices as well as recognizing hazardous conditions."

These awards will be presented to honor women who have had an active part in the development of the Panhandle. There will be nominees from 32 counties of Texas. These women have distinguished themselves by serving not only as homemakers but also in business, professional and volunteer service.

The Epsilon Chi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha has nominated two Muleshoe women for this honor. These women were nominated because of their outstanding contributions to the Muleshoe community. Those nominated by ESA are Mrs. John Watson and Mrs. Willey Moore. They will be recognized, along with others, at the April 24 luncheon on the Canyon campus.

She has also held membership in several local groups and is a member of First Baptist Church where she has served as a Sunday School teacher. Mrs. Moore, and her husband, Willey, have two daughters. Converting A Standard Recipe to Metric

The Texas Department of Agriculture home economist offers this recipe for Texas Strawberry Ice Cream as an illustration of how to convert a standard recipe to metric. Some quantities are rounded up or down for convenience.

(standard)	(computations)	(metric)
1/2 cup sugar	.5 x .24 c = .120 l; .120 l x 1,000 = 120 ml (rounded up to 125 ml)	125 ml sugar
1/4 tsp. salt	5 x .25 t = 1.25 ml	1.25 ml salt
3 egg yolks, beaten	5 x 2 t = 10 ml	3 egg yolks, beaten
2 tsp. vanilla	.47 x 1 pt = .47 l; .47 l x 1,000 = 470 ml (rounded up to 500 ml)	10 ml vanilla
1 pint whipping cream	.24 x 2 c = .48 l; .48 l x 1,000 = 480 ml (rounded up to 500 ml)	500 ml whipping cream
2 cups strawberries		500 ml strawberries

Method for crank-type freezer: Mix salt, milk and egg yolks in saucepan and cook over medium heat until bubbles appear around edge of mixture. Be sure to stir constantly. Allow mixture to cool to room temperature. While mixture cools, crush strawberries with sugar. Then add strawberry-sugar mixture, vanilla and cream (unwhipped). Freeze according to freezer directions. Method for refrigerator: Combine sugar, salt, milk and egg yolks in saucepan; cook over medium heat stirring constantly until bubbles appear around edge of mixture. Allow mixture to cool to room temperature. Stir in vanilla. Pour into refrigerator tray and freeze 1/2 to 1 hour, or until mixture is partially frozen. Beat cream until peaks form. Spoon the milk mixture from tray into a chilled bowl; whip until smooth. Fold in whipped cream. Then fold in crushed strawberries. Pour into two refrigerator trays and allow to freeze approximately 3 hours, or until firm, stirring from time to time. Yield: 1 quart or nearly 1 liter.

Metric System Explained

AUSTIN--The metric system is easy to learn, the experts keep saying. But the thought of an entirely new system of weights and measures can be bewildering to most people.

Weights and Measures personnel of the Texas Department of Agriculture have devised a conversion chart that contains information pertinent to household operations.

The basic metric units are the meter (length), kilogram (mass), liter (volume) and degree Celsius (temperature).

The six basic prefixes for each metric unit are: kilo (1,000), hecto (100), deka (10), deci (0.1), centi (0.01) and milli (0.001).

At this point, most housewives probably wonder how all this information will affect their daily activities.

Here are a few examples of how the metric system will affect our lives:

Instead of buying 10 gallons of gasoline, we'll buy 38 liters.

Instead of using one-half pound of ground beef, we'll use either 200 grams or 250 grams (slightly less or more than one-half pound).

Milk and other liquids will be sold by the liter, which is slightly larger than a quart.

To make a skirt, you'll need approximately 1.5 meters of 112.5-centimeter wide fabric, instead of 1 1/2 yards of 45-inch wide fabric.

If it all sounds complicated, remember that metric units already are used to measure many items, including prescription drugs, camera film and light bulbs.

Meanwhile, manufacturers are making available such measuring instruments as measuring cups and spoons, rulers and thermometers with both standard and metric units to help make the transition easier.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said.

Hog Outlook Bright But Caution Needed

COLLEGE STATION -- For hog producers 1976 should be a profitable year if they don't get overanxious and expand operations too quickly.

That's how the hog picture looks to Dr. Ernest Davis, livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Hog prices should continue strong during most of the year due mainly to a continued shortage of pork supplies.

"Pork supplies per person in the United States last year were the lowest since 1935," notes the Texas A&M University System specialist. "This caused market prices to reach an average record of $48.32 per hundredweight, more than $8 above the record level set in 1973."

For the first half of 1976, Davis estimates pork supplies to run 9 to 10 percent below the same period a year ago. However, increased farrowings during this period could boost pork supplies for the second half of the year as much as 16 percent above those of the second half of 1975.

"Producers can expect to see market barrow and gilt prices average near the $46 to $48 per hundredweight level during the first half of the year," he believes the specialist. "But prices will probably drop off during the second half of 1976 and average in the $40 to $42 range during the last quarter."

Bicentennial Concerts

The Texas Tech University Department of Music will sponsor two Bicentennial band concerts during the last week of April. The theme will be the development of American bands and band music.

The first concert, April 27, will feature performances by four Texas Tech bands and a special appearance by a replica of Lubbock's first band. The United States Air Force Academy Band will be featured in the second concert on April 29.

Texas Tech's Brass Band, Varsity Bands I and II, and Concert Band will perform during the April 27 concert, beginning at 8:15 p.m. in the Municipal Auditorium. The program will feature traditional patriotic music and marches written and transcribed by American composers.

A 19-piece band reminiscent of Lubbock's first band will perform during the concert. The band, made up of members of the Concert Band, will perform David Lotter's "The Three Days of Overture," a section of which was excerpted to become the Texas Tech Fight Song.

Smylie Wilson organized Lubbock's first band in 1905 as an attraction to help the city grow. The band rented a Lubbock building in which it gave free public concerts and appeared regularly in Lubbock parades.

The big-band sound also will be a part of the concert as Tech's Mark Anthony Band plays the Dixieland background to "The Shiek of Araby" in a special arrangement for band by John Tatgenhorst.

The Air Force Academy Band will perform at 8:15 p.m. April 29 in the Municipal Auditorium as part of its Bicentennial Concert Season, an official Air Force Academy Bicentennial event.

The Air Force Academy's 55-piece Symphonic Band will perform patriotic music, many arrangements of which were written by its own staff members.

The Air Force Academy's Dixieland Band also will perform during the April 29 concert, performing such pieces as "Yankee Doodle," arranged by Gould and Lang, and "Wizard of Oz," arranged by Arlen and Thompson.

The two concerts will be free and open to the public.

Just as a red face signifies embarrassment and red spots indicate measles, plants also show signs of stress and problems. The Texas Agricultural Extension Service advises home gardeners to inspect plants frequently to detect insect infestations before they cause severe damage. Any plant which appears abnormal should be examined immediately for possible insect infestation. Some symptoms of insect infestations include these:

1. Yellowing of leaves.
2. Discolored spots on foliage.
3. Holes in leaves or fruit.
4. Wilted plants.
5. Stunting of plants.

Use of insecticides for garden use in home vegetable gardens should insect problems develop are suggested:

1. Bacillus thuringiensis (Bitrol, Dipel, Thuricide) Wettable Powder.
2. Carbaryl (Sevin) 50 per cent wettable powder, 5 per cent dust.
3. Diazinon 50 per cent wettable powder; 25 per cent emulsifiable concentrate.
4. Dicofof (Kelthane) 35 per cent wettable powder; 18.5 per cent emulsifiable concentrate.
5. Endosulfan (Thiodan) 50 per cent wettable powder; 3 per cent dust.
6. Malathion 25 per cent wettable powder; 5 per cent dust; 50 per cent emulsifiable concentrate.
7. Methoxychlor 50 per cent wettable powder; 25 per cent emulsifiable concentrate.
8. Sulphur 100 per cent wettable powder, dust.

Before applying any insecticide, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service cautions home gardeners to read the label carefully and follow the manufacturer's recommendations.

SKYJACK - THE WEAPON OF MODERN TERRORISTS

One group of men more concerned than most with the ever-growing menace of hijacking for political gain, is the international association of airline pilots. They are the men in the hot seat; in their hands lies the safety of every passenger aboard. Their coolness under tremendous pressure determines the very lives of scores of innocent travelers.

Should an airliner ever be in distress, it is sure that any passenger conscious of gravity would pine for the consoling voice of a pilot sounding like Captain Norman Bristow. His is the voice of assurance, a comforting vocal experience which soothes anxiety and lulls sheer terror into a state of anesthesia.

That is one of the reasons why producer Peter Rawley cast this experienced ex-BOAC Captain-turned-actor for the role of Captain Denver, the pilot of a hijacked passenger liner, in his action suspense drama, "The Terrorists," premiering Friday at the XIT Theatre.

Captain Bristow has been concerned about the growing terror of hijacking for a long time. Before his retirement, at the age of 55, in 1972, he was the Manager of the VC 10 Flight Training and a Master of the Guild of Air Pilots and Navigators. Having appeared as the VC 10 Captain in an episode of the television series, "The Troubleshooters," he appeared as a real-life troubleshooter by flying out immediately to the Middle East, with a small team, to assist with the problems arising out of the multiple hijacking at Dawson's Field in Jordan in 1970.

As a senior pilot with BOAC, Captain Bristow advocated several methods which he believed would curtail the activities of the terrorists. In September, 1970, he wrote to the "Times" saying: "Many suggestions have been made to deal with hijacking of aircraft, but it is both surprising and disheartening that one course of action which can be taken immediately by the governments of the world, including our own, to introduce a powerful deterrent, has not been invoked."

"I refer to the power of the United Nations General Assembly now in session, through the International Civil Aviation Organization any member state that encourages or harbors hijackers, thereby depriving its airlines of landing rights and all other aviation facilities in all other member countries."

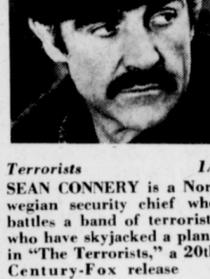

Because of his obvious personal and professional concern about this Twentieth Century phenomenon, he did not lightly accept the offer to appear in a film which, however remotely, involved hijacking. "I studied the script at great length," he says, "before coming to the conclusion that the hijack was a small but essential part of the plot. The film never shows the mechanics of a hijack; doesn't give a potential terrorist a manual on which to base his or her future activities. I was very impressed with the fact that the film deals with a determination to stop this sort of political outrage."

"Some countries, in effect, encourage hijacking," Captain Bristow continues. "One country entertained a hijacker. They gave him free tickets to go round seeing points of historic and tourist interest."

He is convinced that a firm stand should be made by governments throughout the free world. "To give in to the demands of these terrorists is to encourage them to try again. That is why I am convinced that films like 'The Terrorists,' which is against hijacking and capitulation to armed aggression, should be encouraged."

"The Terrorists" is a Peter Rawley Production for 20th Century-Fox release starring Sean Connery and Ian McShane. Produced by Peter Rawley and directed by Casper Wrede from an original screenplay by Paul Wheeler, the action-suspense drama is set in the sub-zero temperatures of Scandinavia and was filmed entirely on location in Norway.
