rawn to and absorbed in the Democratic arty. It is the law of physics; the attraction of two bodies draws the smaller body to the larger, the latter being moved only in an inverse ratio to its size. It is the law of morals and politics as well, and so the squad of Cincinnati Greeleyites being brought by the sage and his fuglers within the influence of the great pro-rebel Democratic party, lo! they rush into it with all the haste with which an atom is compelled to rush toward a mass, while the great party tiself is not moved from its old resting place, just where it was in '60, 64, and '68. To return to the first illustration. If the larger drep of water is muddy and dark, and the smaller is comparatively clear, the larger is changed and made pure in no perceptible degree by their union; while the smaller become discolored and foul, a part of the general out this mass, and so longer retaining its distinctive cirtive purity. The Nucces Valley says:

"President Grant, during his next Administration will undoubtedly have the benov of placing Mexico in the hands of his Country. This will earich the Union, and Texas especially, by the vast wealth which will be developed. The International, the Texas Pacific, the Atlantic and Pacific, the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and other Railroads now pointing in the direction of Mexice, will be sooner than we imagine Scross the Rio Grando. It will not be long until the waters of the Gulf will be united with those of the Pacific. Grant enaures this, for he is known to

For forty years past Greeley has opposed the expansion of this country. Texass consider this fully in view of the great future for this State, and no true and thoughtful Texas will vote for Greeley in preference to Grant, who has acknowledged the necessity of having . Mexico in our hands, and he will do the work. On to Maxico.

The Atlantic Monthly has not been as dvocate of General Grant's re-election. It has played the part of a "fearless and adependent" critic of his administration, and has said many things to induce the belief that it opposed his triumph. But now that Mr. Greeley has been presented as the only alternative, it says :

" Mr. Greeley is believed to be capricious conceited, peculiarly open to flattery and storm had passed there appeared prejudice, bold in opinion, but timid in action, and with that indefinable something in his character which makes it impossible not to laugh at him however auch we may esteem him. He is unsteady grotesque, obstinate and ridiculous-cpi theta never yet justly applicable, all at once, to a President of the United States."

FORNEY'S Press has been received dy in exchange with the Express ee his visit to this State—the very se looked the most auxiously re is a nice little game that is played out. The New Orleans papers belonging to the Associated Press printed, on Sunday morning, a dispatch to the effect that the New York Democrat and the Abend-Zeitung had come out for Greeley. The truth was just the reverse. They had been Liberal organs, but have come out squarely for Grant and Wilson. This change is full of significance, and exceedingly cheering. It leaves Greeley utterly without an influential German organ in the State of New York, where that element holds, perhaps, York, where that element holds, perhaps, the balance of power. How the news distressed the Liberals here may be judged from the manner in which the Greeley papers altered the telegram—a triak only resorted to by journals that are desperate and without hope. The New York Democrat, which has just come to hand, any the nomination of Greeley at Baltimore makes traitors to their faith of all Democrats who do not support him, and of all Republicans who do. It advises all Liberals to return with it to the regulars ranks, and fight Copperheadism once more. The idea of seclaiming the Colorado leasert by means of artesian wells has been broached.
