The Trausit of Venus.

Description of the Scientific Instruments to be Used by the Expedition. [New York Times.] The astronomical instruments to be used by the southern portion of the expedition charged with observing the passage of Venus across the sun's dise, on December 8, arrived at the Brooklyn Navy yard, by the Gettysburg, in the beginning of the week. They were immediately transterred to the Swatara, on which the five southern divisious of the expedition are quartered, and were stowed away in readiness for the voyage. The probabilities are that the Swatara will sail to morrow or Sunday. Each division is supplied with three principal instruments, and besides these is turnished with a complete set of magnetic instruments, by which it will be enabled to judge with accurracy the force of what ever magnetic elements may come within its calculations. Each party will also have two chronometers, an astronomical clock, and a quantity of tools suitable for all kinds of work. Three of the division will be obliged to five in tents, a necessity which arises from the nature of the localities from which they will take their observations. The three principle instruments are the transit instrument, by which time and latitude will be determined; the equatorial instrument, which is to be used in observing the transit of Ve nus over the sun's dise, also the 'occultation" or hiding of the stars by the moon, and for the purpose of determining longitude. The equatorial instrument has an aperture of five inches. The most interesting of the instruments is that by which the photographs of the transit will be taken. It is the invention of Prof. Winlock, of Harvard Univers ity, and was first applied in this country. It consists of a telescope forty feet long, with an aperture of five inches. The tube is intended to be horizontal and stationary, and the sun will be thrown into it by means of a heliostat. The heliostat is an instrument which runs like a clock, and corresponds with the motion of the sun, and thus throws its light all the while into the telescope, which is itself stationary. One end of the tube enters a small time of the transit. The superiority of this instrument over those which have been heretofore in use is held to consist in the stationary condition of the tube or telescope. In that of the sun, but in this case the beliostat fulfills more effectively all the objects which could be gained by a moving telescope. Each por tion of the expedition will carry three small houses, one of which will be used as mentioned above, for a photograph-room. The others will be used in connection with the transit and astronomical instruments respectively. Although the divisions intended for the five

Southern stations, and now quartered on the Swatara, are under the necessity of starting almost immediately; the three other divisions

selected for the Northern stations will not leave until the summer is considerably more advanced. The RAIFORD's land locked water road, or inland canal, along the coast from the mouth of the Rio Grande to the mouth of the Mississippi, and thence along the coasts of Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, and Georgia, to Savannab, or some other point, has at last got the ear of Con gress. On Monday last a bill for its survey passed the Senate, and it was thought it would pass the House before adjournment.

It will be one of the grandest works of internal improvement in the world. All along the lengthy coast line of Texas nature has almost completed the canal, and, when the work is finished, it will be of incalculable value to the coast region of this State. An artificial river will furnish safe and continuous navigation from the Rio Grande to Galveston and New Orleans, and the whole coast country will be settled and cultivated, flourishing towns will be built, and this almost desert region will "blossom as the rose,"

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL, question is very ably treated by the Houston Telegroph. We give its views on our first page. While we do not as much right to stop the drawing of water agree with that paper in all the details of the outline of an effective school system, yet we agree with of Austin have sense and manliness enough its general views and purpose. We commend its remarks to the careful and candid consideration of every friend of free popular education in the State. The people of Texas de mand a practical and successful sys tem of popular education, and they must and will have it. We give voice to that demand as far as we can, and we intend to continue to sists in mardering a marderer is just as do so. Although we are opposed to any partizanship in connection with our public schools, yet, in order to attain a good system at all, we are compelled to call attention to the tacts. Under Republican ad ministration, we had a good system. The Democrats destroyed it, and have given us a mere burlesque in Church, but we think the danger is exagits place. As a party, they show neither conviction, zeal, knowledge, or skill in the establishment and management of public schools. Their leaders and journals merely deny that they are opposed to public schools, but the party never succeed at the public school business.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVEN TIONS were held on the 17th just. at Springfield, Illinois, at Indianapolis, Indiana, and at Burlington, Vermont. The conventions in Illinois and Indiana possess more interest for our readers than others, from the fact that in those States the "inflation" heresy has taken stronger hold upon the Republican party, and upon the people generally, than anywhere else in the Union. In them the first fight took place between the specie resumption policy of the President and the policy of the inflationists. In Illinois the inflationists were headed by Senator Logan, and in Indiana by Senator Morton. In Illinois the President's Ir is stated in diplomatic quarters that policy was sustained, and in Indiana the British government has offered its Senator Morton's influence carried the inflation policy. But, notwith-standing, the President was heartily endorsed.

to the programmie of the President, and of all the wise and sound statesmen and fluanciers of the country, Democratic and Republican. There fore, we have no doubts as to the verdict of the country. The battle has already been fought, and the victory has already been won. Con fidence will be established throughout the country, and throughout the world, and President Grant will stand at the head of the safe und progressive men of the Union.

THE TWO CONVENTIONS, in Hisnois and Indiana, are capitally hit off by the St Louis Globe. It says that the platforms of the two con ventions "appear to be subjects for contrast rather than comparison, in the wide difference between the bold and straightforward declaration at Springfield, and the weak and windy manifesto uttered at Indianapolis. The former is a model of brevity and condensation, epitomizing a party creed in the space of an ordi nary paragraph; the latter is a platitudinous ebullition of sentiment in some parts, a piece of ill-concealed demagoguery in others, and a poor effort at Talleyrandish dodgery in others. If the object of a platform be to commit a party to certain doctrines of political faith, Illinois has furnished a model which may be followed for all time, while Indiana has set an example which will be valuable only as teaching what to

The Globe further says that "the Illinois Convention was a deliberative body; the Indiana Convention was a mass meeting. The Illinois Convention affirmed a policy; the Indiana Convention endorsed a man. The Illinois resolutions were written in Springfield; the Indiana resolutions were written in Wash ington. In Illinois, they decided by votes; in Indiana, they decided by yells. The Illinois delegates discussed before they voted; the Indiana delegates shouted their approval before they knew what they were approving."

THE MAYOR of Austin has been pigheaded enough to prohibit the sale of ice after 9 o'cleck on Sunday mornings. The States man proposes that he now close up the drug-stores after that hour. He has just after 9 o'clock. Of course, everybody knows that he has no authority whatever to issue any such order, and we trust the citizens to pay no attention to it. Save the c try from fanatical ignoramses.

THE Houston Age seems to be supporting lynch law. We say it seems, for we never see that paper-because the Galveston Civilian very earnestly takes the other side of the question. We trust that the Age is not so unqualifiedly guilty as the Civilian makes it out. The man who asguilty of murder as the murderer whom he murders. Both have violated precisely the same law, human and divine, which simply says" thou shalt not kill." There is no possible evasion of the truth of this law.

The mob also attacked other houses in the same quar ters, and injured several persons severely The French police finally quelled the riot, with the assistance of the English police About 5,000 Chinese were engaged in the riot. Dr. Bille is deservedly renowned no lady suffering from AMENOR RHCEA, HYSTERIA, PRCLAPSUS UTER! or any other disease peculiar to the female system, should fail to call on Dr. Bille, as they will quickly be releived of their suffering and ultimately restored to perfect health.

Diseases of a Private Nature Dr. Bille has made a speciality, and this scourge of humanity, unsuccessfully treated by most practitioners, is easy and quickly overcome by his new treatment. Being a pupil of the most renowned Phy-sician for syphilitic diseases in the world, Prof. Ricord, in Paris, Dr. Bille will al ways guarantee a cure in any case of syphilitic disease which may come under his treatment; and hundreds in this city and vicinity can testify that in cases of syphilitic nature, where other physicians have failed, Dr. Bille has always been suc-

RAIN in the city has not, as yet, been equal in quantity to that which has fall en in the country. Many delightful showers have fallen within the last week, but, considering the previous very dry weather, we have not had a single rain yet which has thoroughly soaked the ground. But we have cloudy and rainy weather nearly. every day, and the soil and atmosphere are damp, and vegetation grows wonder

FREE FLOATING BATHS.—The New York

Herald of the 14th says : Yesterday two of the public floating baths were thrown open—one in the East River, at the foot of Fifth street, and the other in the North River, foot of Eleventh street. A large crowd of bathers availed themselves of the privilege.

We have already published the fact that St. Louis has also erected free floating baths on the Mississippi river. We have urged the same thing for this city. Will not our city conneil consider this matter ? In this climate such things are needed especially. We have the most beautiful stream to be found, perhaps, on the continent, meandering throughout the city, and furnishing an abundant supply of cool, clear, excellent water. The baths we speak of would cost but little, but would be of incalculable benefit, and a great attraction to the city. Everybody favors

REAL ESTATE in fhis city, which was ments being made, has come to a stand-still rince the incertainty has prevailed containing only advertisements of ladies very active, and many sales and investregarding the speely completion of the railroad to San Antonio. It was well for something to bring down prices, for they were entirely too speculative. Now is a good time to buy real estate here, for the railroad is certain to reach here before very long. The money to buy and build is very plentiful in this city, and more is finding its way here for the same purpose. No city in Texas has half the surplus capital that San Antonio has, for the purchase and improvement of real estate, and for investing in public improvements. Had we a class of men here devoted to public improvements, as they have in Kansas City, and elsewhere farther North, they would accomplish wonders for San Antonic in the way of manufactures and pub lie improvements.

DISTRICT COURT.-Ramon Ruiz, for avsault with intent to kill Guerra, with an axe, was before the court. He had chopped Guerra nearly to two in the night. The defense was insanity; and a jury was called on to decide this question. After hearing evidence and argument, they de clared him "sane at present." This will put him on trial. To us, he looks like a very weak fool, but like he might be a dangerous one.

Walter Patterson was on trial for aggravated assault with a razor upon his wife, Josephine. They are both young, handsome, very bright people of color. He is a barber, keeps late hours, is gay and festive, loose in his associations with wo men, and comes home drunk and jealous. She claims to be the daughter of a very distinguished military gentleman well known to fame. She testified that he came bome on Monday night, June 8th, and, after quarreling with her, swore he was going to cut her throat with a razor, and ran her out of the house with it. She had her child in her arms, and staid all night with another colored woman. Several other witnesses testified, but nothing to the point.

Charles Green and Robert Saunders were convicted of theft, and sent for two years to the Penitentiary.

Laura Jenkins light Jim Wakefield tried yesterday, through a grand jury indictspecie from her, which was taken out of a tin box. We did not hear all the evidence, and we do not know what the jury will do with the case; but we shall hear tomorrow.

NEXT SATURDAY, at eight o'clock in the evening, a meeting of the Agricultural, Stockraising, and Industrial Association of Western Texas will be held at the Hall of Fire Company No. 1. It is hoped that a general attendance will be secured, as business of importance will come before the meeting. If we hope to have a Fair in the fall that will be an honor to San Antonio and Western Texas, no meeting of this kind should be neglected. Every man, and woman, in the community, and in the whole country, should begin now, and work with all possible vigor, natil the time of the Fair arrives. No half-and-half business will do. Are we equal to the work before us? That is the question. Let it be answered in the affirmative on Saturday evening.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEA WEED TONIC, AND MANDRAKE PILLS.— These medicines have undoubtedly performed more cures of Consumption than any other remedy known to the American public. They are compounded of vege-table ingredients, and contain nothing which can be injurious to the human con-stitution. Other remedies advertised as cures for Consumption, probably containopium, which is a somewhat dangerous drug in all cases, and if taken freely by consumptive patients, it must do great injury; for its tendency is to confine the morbid matter in the system, which, of course, must make a cure impossible. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is warranted not to contain a particle of opium: It is composed of powerful but harmless herbs, which act on the lungs, liver, stomach, and blood, and thus correct all morbid secretions, and expel all the diseased matter from the body. These are the only means by which Consumption can be cured, and as Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are the only medicines which operate in this way, it is obvious they are the only genu ine cure for Pulmonary Consumption. Each bottle of this invaluable medicine is accompanied by full directions. Stars and Meteors.

At certain seasons meteors dart across the firmament between the earth and the fixed stars. But they quickly vanish. while the fixed stars remain. In the medical firmament the great vegetable invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has long been a fixed star of the first magnitude. Little meteors, in the shape of imitations, bearing various names, now and then at tempt a glimmering competition with it, but they soon disappear, from the field of vision, leaving the glory of the true remedy nampaired. The number of these will of the wisps that have come to grief within the last twenty years is beyond computa tion, and those now in existence are in the last agonies of extinguishment. The standard tonic and alterative, that cares READY made clothing in style and make and prevents so many distressing diseases, took without receiving a wonderful accesincreased popular ty from the attempts of charlatans to run their failures in the Hostetter groove.
