Alumni Banquet Tonite

Dr. James Knight To Be The Chief Speaker

Dr. James Knight of the Texas University staff, will be the chief speaker at the Sterling High School Alumni banquet on the night of June 23. The affair will be held in the Cactus Hotel in San Angelo, said president Mrs. Robert Foster.

Dr. Knight (class of '10) has been with the staff of Texas University for the past 20 years. He is now the director of the Teachers Extension Bureau. He is the only known alumni holding a Ph. D. His degree is in education. There are 458 graduates—or alumni of SHS.

Mrs. Bill Barbee will act as the mistress of ceremonies, said Mrs. Foster. Following the school song and the invocation, Mrs. Nick Reed will welcome the class of '49. Trina Reed will respond for the '49 group. (No affair was held last year due to the polio scare.) R.D. Garrett will welcome the class of '50 with Fern Garrett responding.

Miss Mavis Douglas will render vocal selection. Mrs. Harvey Hennigan will give the history of the association. Following Dr. Knight's address business will be attended to. Mrs. Anna Lee Johnson will furnish music for the affair.

The association's 1950 officers are as follows: Mrs. Robert Foster—president, Mrs. J. I. Cope—vice-president, Trinnon Revell—secretary, Clyde Reynolds—treasurer, Mrs. Harvey Hennigan—historian, and Marvin Churchill—chairman of the dance committee.

A dance follows the banquet and will be held in the ballroom of the hotel. Harrison's Texans orchestra will furnish the music. Everyone is invited to the dance, but only alumni are welcome at the banquet.

To be eligible to take the examination applicants must actually reside within the delivery of the Sterling City Post Office or be bona fide patrons thereof. Lions To Have Chicken Barbecue Monday Night

The Sterling Lions will have annual ladies night next Monday night at 7:30 in the park, said H. L. Hildebrand this week. Captain of a losing side in a new-member contest, Hildebrand said barbecued chicken, salad, pickles, peas, bread, tea and ice cream would comprise the menu.

New officers for next year will be installed. Judge E. C. Grindstaff of Ballinger has been invited to install the officers said Worth Durham, who will act as master of ceremonies that night.

A television performance, held in the community center following the festivities, will be shown, under the auspices of Lion C. D. McEntire. He has arranged for an Abilene group to present such a demonstration here. The antenna will be put atop the courthouse tank tower for the evening, he said.

HESTIR TO PREACH NEXT SUNDAY MORNING

Rev. B. B. Hestir, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, said this week that he would preach at the morning hour next Sunday at his church. He invites his regular attendants and visitors to the service.

There will not be an evening service, said Hestir.

GETS DEGREE FROM INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Charles L. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell, Sterling City, was a member of the 1950 Indiana University graduating class for which commencement exercises were held in Monday, June 12 in the University's Memorial Stadium.

Mr. Campbell got his degree in music.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Augustine spent last Sunday in Robert Lee with Mrs. Augustine's father, J. I. Murtishaw. They attended the opening of the new Coke County hospital there that day.

The Truman Brattons went to Comanche Wednesday for a visit. Mrs. Bratton and her two children plan to stay there visiting until the first of July.

Democratic Candidates Assessed Filing Fee

The Sterling County Democratic Committee met Monday and set the assessments for candidates for the Democratic Primaries. Places for the ballot printing were drawn by lot at the meeting, as required by law.

Assessments ran about three per cent of the salary or remuneration of the office that the candidates seek. Sheriff candidate R. H. Emery's assessment was $110. With no opposition he had to pay the entire amount. The county judge's office seekers were assessed $100, but it was split between G. C. Murrell and V. E. Davis. Clerk Bill Durham was taxed $85 to get his name on the ballot. The County Treasurer's office has two for a place on the ballot, O. M. Cole and Mrs. Sallie Wallace, who split the $12.50 filing fee. The commissioners were assessed $9, with Dan Ritter and John Copeland, Jr. splitting theirs.

Worth Durham, county attorney, seeking re-election, had a charge of $37.50 for his place on the ticket, and A. W. Dearen, Justice of the Peace, was taxed $15 for his fee.

The assessments were not quite 3% in this county, but were a little higher than last election year, due to the newer, costlier type of secret ballots, and other rising costs. This compares with a five per cent assessment in Tom Green County and eight per cent in Tarrant County.

The first primary will be held on July 22. All local or county races will be decided then, but generally a state or district race will command enough attention that most of the voters want a shot at the second primary, which will be held in August.

The Ed Lovelaces Have 25th Anniversary

(Taken from the Goldthwaite Eagle of last week)

The Rev. Ed. H. Lovelace, Pastor of the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite, and Mrs. Lovelace were honored last Sunday night at a reception at the parsonage in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary.

The "Open House" which followed the evening service of worship, also was an expression of gratitude that Brother Lovelace has been returned to his Goldthwaite charge for another year.

As the guests entered they registered in the bride's book that was used 25 years ago. On the register table was a lovely miniature bride.

The dining table was a thing of beauty with the table laid with a lace cloth handmaide by the mother of Mrs. Lovelace and centered with an elaborate white floral arrangement. A three tiered wedding cake topped by a bride and groom held the place of honor on the table. Mmes. R. L. Steen, Jr., and Ray Duren, cut the cake, and Mrs. Bob Johnson, Jr., and Miss Love Catlin served punch. Mmes. T. C. Graves, Julian Evans, Fred Reynolds, Marsh Johnson, La Vera Jones, Clyde Cockrum, W. C. Barnett, Aubrey Hudson and Malcom Jernigan assisted in the dining room.

Musical numbers by Carolyn Graves, songs by the youth choir and men's quartet were enjoyed. Mrs. Marsh Johnson sang "I Love You Truly" as the bride and groom cut the cake.

Dr. T. C. Graves expressed the feelings of the membership in his talk on "appreciation" and concluded with congratulations to the Lovelaces and presented them with a box of silver dollars from the church members and friends.

Group singing accompanied by Mrs. Ray Little concluded the evening. As good byes were said all wished for this fine couple many more happy anniversaries.

Spending Sunday at Mrs. D. C. Durham's and the Roy Morgans here in town were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris and Jill of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davis of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Clyde Davis and the Worth Durhams.

The Homer Hagertys of McCamey are visiting the Lee Hunts this week-end. Mrs. Hagerty is the former Tineie Hunt. They have just returned from a vacation trip to St. Louis, Mo. where they went to sight-see and the points of interest between here and there.

Last week visitors at the Hunts were the Stencil Hunts of El Paso.

Sad Plight Of A Subscriber

DEAR SIR:

"In reply to you request that I renew my subscription, I wish to inform you that the present condition of my bank account makes it almost impossible. My shattered financial condition is due to federal laws, state laws, county laws, corporation laws, brother-in-laws, mother-in-laws, sister-in-laws, and outlaws.

"Through these laws I am compelled to pay a business tax, amusement tax, head tax, school tax, gas tax, carpet tax, income tax, food tax, furniture tax and excise tax. I am required to get a business license, car license, hunting and fishing license.

"I am also required to contribute to every society and organization which the genius of man is capable of bringing to life; to women's relief, the unemployment relief, the gold digger's relief. Also to every hospital and charitable institution in the country, including the Red Cross, black cross, purple cross and double cross.

"My business is so governed it is no easy matter for me to find out who owns it. I am inspected, expected, suspected, disrespected, rejected, dejected, examined, reexamined, informed, required, summoned and fined.

"I can tell you honestly that except for a miracle that happened, I could not enclose this check. The wolf that comes to many doors just had pups in my kitchen. I sold them and here is the money."

Visitors at Mrs. J. H. Buggs last Sunday were three of her sons and their families: Mr. and Mrs. H. Bugg of Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bugg of Colorado City, and the L. L. Buggs of Tucumcari, N. M.

June 27-28 are the nights for the annual Sterling City rodeo. This year the events are open to all—both professionals and amateurs, said Garlyn Hoffman, secretary.

A free barbecue will be in the park at 5:30 p.m. on the 27th. A big parade will open the rodeo.

Included in the events will be bronc riding, bull riding, bull-dogging, calf roping, a matched roping, and possibly other events.

It is not known at this time just who will be lined up for the matched roping, but a good team is promised.

There will be dances both nights following the rodeo, it was announced.

The way to have a good rodeo, among other things, is to have a good crowd. The way to have a good crowd is to talk up the affair.

There are circulars and window cards to be had for distribution at the News-Record office. If you are going on a trip and will take a few for distribution, the publicity committee will be glad to furnish you with some circulars, etc. There were some bills run up last year that are hanging over, due to the cancellation of the rodeo. This year it is hoped that a successful one may be had.

Dude Creasy of Gatesville will furnish the stock for the performances. Each performance there will be 20 calves roped, 10 bulls dogged, 10 bulls ridden and 10 to 15 broncs ridden.

Entry fees are: $10 for calf roping and bull-dogging; $5 for bull and bronc riding; and $5 for barrel race. Entries for both events will close at 2 p.m. on June 27.

In charge of entries will be Bill Reed and Garlyn O. Hoffman. Offices for entries will be in the Reed wool warehouse.

In charge of the barrel races will be Taylor Garrett. Pete Hanson is head of the bronc riding division. For the calf roping events, Foster Conger and Thurman Rich have charge.

"Covering the County"

By Garlyn Hoffman, Co. Agent.

Sterling County was well represented at the Sonora Wool Show Wednesday and Thursday. Clinton Hodges took a bag and six single fleeces. Bill Brooks took a single fleece. Foster S. Price took 4 singles. Foster Conger and Tommy Foster took 2 fleeces each.

The boys will enter the grass, wool and mohair, livestock, and roping teams.

The Sonora Lions Club furnish the boys, dealers, and instructors with free meals and beds, if you bring your bed-roll.

There was not much time to find out what all was done on the rodeo as I got in Sunday night and left Tuesday morning. From what was heard the show was progressing pretty good.

Dude Creasy of Gatesville will furnish stock for the rodeo. He states that this is the roughest stock in the state. So all of you come out and see for yourself.

A free barbecue will be given to all Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 p.m. The rodeo performance will begin at 8:00 p.m. A dance will be given each night, probably in the gym—maybe open air.

The events are to include bull and bronc riding, calf roping, bull dogging, barrel race and a matched roping.

V. E. Davis Announces For County Judge

Verne Davis, now an investigator for the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association, announced last week that he would be a candidate for the office of County Judge, Sterling County. He filed for a place on the Democratic ticket for the July 22 primary.

Davis, who was sheriff here for 22 years, said that due to the fact that he was working away as a special investigator, he could not make a personal campaign, but he would contact voters by mail.

CAPITOL CARAVAN

BY MICHAEL C. ALLEN

Washington, D. C.—Prowling for a news story the other day, I was sitting in the House of Representatives press gallery, chatting with some fellow veterans of World War II about the multi-billion dollar program this government provides for ex-GI's.

This set me on trail of a yarn, part of which I want to tell here. As ex-GI's we newsmen have opinions about some things, while, as reporters, we tell the facts as they come to us.

Michael C. Allen

This is one little fact turned up during a Congressional investigation of the veteran's National Service Life Insurance Program. Virginia's Congressman Porter Hardy, Jr., directed the probe. Naturally, I, as both an ex-GI and a reporter, was there with my flapping ears and an Ever-sharp Pen to record what I heard.

The story deals with the $2.8 billion "dividend" the Veterans Administration began sending out last January to policy-holders of this life insurance. The refunds were possible because premiums paid by servicemen were higher than needed to take care of estimated benefits.

One reason for this happy situation, Mr. Hardy's staff found, is that the government has paid out of tax funds over $4 billion in benefits, not the NSLI fund.

Lindsay Warren, able ex-Congressman from North Carolina, now Comptroller General of the U. S., looked into the matter. Mr. Warren is Congress's watchdog of Federal spending. And Mr. Warren uncovered at least one gimmick in these insurance refunds.

Some servicemen, didn't actually pay for their insurance.

The beauty of this—for the men involved—is that they've been getting "dividends" for the premiums they didn't pay—some $20-$25 million worth. Mr. Warren told Congress it seems logical to him that since the government paid the premiums, the VA ought to pay the refunds back into the treasury from the NSLI fund.

But, Mr. Warren admitted, the law gives Veterans Administrator Carl Gray final say-so in such matters. There's nothing he can do about that $20-odd million except "report" about it to Congress.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

For two weeks now the House has mostly marked time, passed a few bills and watched the Senate for signs of activity that would point to an early adjournment.

Right now the best guess is that the session will end about August 1st, but that will depend on the Senate which always lags behind the House on legislation. There is no debate limit in the other chamber and some of the Senators are prone to be long-winded at times. Only last week one energetic Senator talked for 12 hours on one bill without sitting down.

The Senate leadership has promised another attempt to bring up the FEPC and how much time they'll kill on that is anybody's guess.

It's a funny thing. With some Democrats and some Republicans eyeing the November election and the negro and CIO votes, they spend hours blaming each other for not passing an FEPC bill while very few if any of them sincerely believe in the soundness of this vote-getting scheme. The proposal is kicked around and extolled as a panacea, and the crocodile tears that are shed by its sponsors would turn a small desert into a verdant forest and almost float the battle-ship Missouri.

The House last week passed another rent control bill, continuing controls over rentals for 7 months. I voted against the measure. The war has been over for five years and I cannot justify arbitrary controls over what one segment of business enterprise can make while not doing the same to others. Why discriminate? If it's a good thing to control what a duplex owner can make on his investment, then why isn't it a good thing to control what a wage-earner can make, what a farmer or a sheep or cattle raiser can make? In other words, why pick on one group of our citizens who must, in operating their business, pay more for wages, more for the food they eat, more for repairs, paint, taxes upkeep and so forth?

Besides, individual States have authority to pass state laws controlling rents if they feel that they are needed. Texas voted to abandon rent controls a year ago and is getting along very well without Uncle Sam imposing federal controls down there.

This being a political year, and Washington being the center of politics, trends are being closely watched and activities of political groups scrutinized these days.

Last week Phil Murray, boss of the CIO, called his 300 political leaders to Washington to whip them into a frenzy and launch a million dollar drive for his political war chest.

The CIO leader told his Political Action Committee (PAC) the money is needed to elect a pro-labor Congress this fall and to defeat those who favor the Taft-Hartley Act. The latter, you will recall makes labor unions subject to the same labor laws as employees.

Thus far this year the PAC has had a low batting score in primary campaigns, and they are obviously marting from these set-backs. Money-raising attempts have been very disappointing to them. Their success in November will have a strong bearing on their 'welfare state' program and the question of whether we are moving toward a labor government in this country. Walter Reuther, a promising CIO leader, favors an outright Labor Party, but others frown on the idea at this time.

Among our visitors last week were four Brownwood High School graduates and the school principal Mr. Leroy Preston. The students were Betty Bell, Virginia Hallum, Don Friend and Wayne Dean. They were a part of a group now on a conducted sight-seeing tour which included Washington and historic points in this area. From here they went on to Philadelphia and New York. The party of 14 included students and others from Austin, Stephenville and two—Roxie Ann Burcham and LaVern Montgomery—from Ft. Stockton.

Other recent visitors included Miss Lena Strachbein of Rock-springs; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stroman and T. A. Henderson, Jr. of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. C.L. Sanson of Rochelle and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haensch of Goldthwaite; Mary Thompson of Sabinal; Miss Lucy Wilson of Mullin; William E. Oglesby of Del Rio; Walter W. Knopp of Stonewall; M.A. Campbell of Goldthwaite; Jesse Bettis and Lt. Jim Mitcham, Jr., a recent West Point graduate, both of Brownwood; Mrs. Floyd McMullan, Mrs. D. K. McMullan, Jr., and Mrs. Lewis Hershey, all of Big Lake, and Miss Bill McMullan of San Angelo.

J. S. Cole, Jr. has been in a Dallas hospital for several weeks for treatment and observation.

Delmer Rodde, Glenn Del Weimer and R. H. Rodde are attending the Methodist camp in Kerrville this week.

Joe Emery was taken to a San Angelo hospital Monday morning suffering with high blood pressure.

Pete Easley went to Temple to see Mrs. Easley last week-end. Mrs. Easley is in the V.A. hospital there for observation and treatment.
