ANNOUNCE ADOPTION OF A DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lowe of San Angelo, formerly of Sterling City, announce the adoption of a 5 month-old daughter on Monday April 30. The baby has been named Janet Ruth.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Webb R. Hudson of Sterling City and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lowe of San Angelo.

It looked like rain; it smelled like rain; it WAS rain.

Last Saturday night .35 inch of rain fell here in town, followed up with .21 inch Sunday night. This totals .56 here in town. The fall was spotted over the county, some sections getting more and some even less.

Monday night, a cool norther seemed to blow away our chances of precipitation. Some drops fell, but not many. High winds blew with cool intensity, making one last stab at the coming spring.

Some sections of West Texas got rains of an inch or more. Others got small amounts of rain and it was accompanied by hail in some spots and windstorms in others.

Texas, along with fourteen other southern states, is undergoing a period of drought which has increasingly become more serious. It has kept stockmen feeding and has ruined most of the plains and high plains wheat and grain crops.

To California on Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Donalson are on their vacation. They went to California and will visit some of the movie studios there among other things.

They left on the Santa Fe streamliner out of Lubbock Wednesday morning of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bade are visiting relatives in El Paso.

WHILE THE TRUMAN-MACARTHUR tangle simmered, the House proceeded with disposition of appropriation bills last week, trimming them of surplus fat, and the Senate Armed Services committee set the stage for a full-dress hearing on the Far Eastern military policies.

Meanwhile, there is increasing evidence that General Ridgeway, MacArthur's successor, and General Stratemeyer, Air Force Commander in the Far East, share many of the views of General MacArthur regarding strategy in Korea. The Senate hearings should reveal basic agreements and disagreements relative to policies in the use of Chinese Nationalists and what should be done about the "privileged sanctuary" in Manchuria.

Along with this, was the announcement that the U.S. will send some 600 military experts to Formosa to help train the Nationalist troops there to be bolstered by $50 million in aid and equipment to that strategic island.

THERE ARE FEWER NEGROES in Texas now than there were 10 years ago, according to a recent census report. While our state upped its total count six and a half to nearly seven million, the colored population had a net loss of 4.5%. There are now 886,000 Negroes in Texas.

What happened was that vast numbers of colored people moved away to greener fields. They went north and west. Nonwhites in Ohio, for example, increased by 37.8% while the whites there gained by 13.9%. In Illinois is was the same story, the non-whites gaining by 59.8% while the white folks increased by only 13.9%. Similar results are noted in Pennsylvania, New York and California. While the Census Bureau has not released details covering the other southern states, it is evident the exodus was general from the south land.

Rev. H. Marshall Smith, pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church of Kerrville recently completed a 2 week revival at the Petworth Baptist Church in Washington. While here Mr. Smith was honored in the House of Representatives by being invited to give the prayer at the beginning of one of the sessions.

A Texan who is doing right well by himself in Washington in Virgil Johnson, a Baylor graduate and former manager of the Chamber of Commerce at Lampasas. He came to Washington earlier this year to take a post-graduate course in Foreign Affairs at Georgetown University. By arranging his courses for evening and night sessions, he has been able to accept a position with the Washington Board of Trade as manager of the Foreign Travel, Business Development and Transportation department.

The political crisis in England's labor government has attracted a lot of attention in Capitol Hill, particularly the darts at the United States and its foreign policy by blazing-eyed A. Bevan, resigned resigned left-wing Labor Minister. We can only hope that Bevan speaks for but a disgruntled minority in venting his spleen toward a benefactor that has been endorsing Britain's checks since the end of the war.

Bevan's huff and resignation resulted from rebellion against Britain's increased preparedness budget which would mean less money for social welfare. Winston Churchill has pointed out that most of the $4 billion post-war U.S. loan (gift) to Britain (which I voted against) has been "frittered away" on welfare projects and uses not conducive to permanent economic improvements.

But Britain's $10 billion three-year rearmament program, despite Bevan's outburst, is a sign of John

East German Police Arrested by U. S.

BERLIN, GERMANY — These eight members of the East German Peoples Police from the Soviet Zone are shown after they were arrested in U. S. Sector for carrying weapons, including machine pistols, in violation of the Allied Agreements. They will come up for trial before a U. S. Military Court. The U. S. Prosecutor said he will make the case "an indictment" of Russian and German Red policies. He will attempt to prove that the youths are "not police but soldiers who get infantry training with weapons outlawed by four-power agreement."

To Websters Collins Gets 42.5 For Yearling Steers

Ed Webster & Sons of San Angelo took delivery of 214 head of yearling steers from Claude Collins Wednesday here. Webster paid 42½¢ per pound for the steers and there were 214 head. They will go to a feed lot in Kansas.

Claude said he had been aiming to take them to his New Mexico ranch but it was dry there, too and feed is pretty high. So, when he was offered a good price, he took it.

The steers weighed out on the average 564 pounds, said Collins.

Mrs. Fred Allen presided at the business session. The members decided to have their name and year put on the hospital room plaque.

Mrs. Ross Foster gave a report of the Sixth District Convention, at Junction, April 5-6-7, which she attended as junior chairman.

Bridge was played following the business. prizes went to Mrs. W.J. Swann for high score; Mrs. Martin C. Reed, high cut, Mrs. Dayton Barrett and Mrs. Neal J. Reed, bingo.

Others present were Mmes. Fred Allen, Alvie Cole, Forrest Foster, R. T. Foster, Jr., J. Q. Foster, William Foster, Garlyn Hoffman, Ewing McEntire, G. C. Murrell, Foster S. Price, Finis Westbrook, Hubert Williams, Bill J. Cole, J. S. Augustine and Ross Foster and Miss Sue Nelson. Guests were Mrs. J. E. Wyckoff, Mrs. Allie Foster, Mrs. Robert Foster and Mrs. Swann.

Undergoes Operation

Henry Merrell, proprietor of the City Barber Shop here, underwent a major operation in the Shannon Hospital in San Angelo Thursday of this week. He has been out of his shop for two weeks.

Bull's cooperation under the Atlantic Pact.

Back to Bevan's reasons for resignation—it was provoked when the Atlee government a few weeks ago broached a disturbingly old-fashioned plan. It would require patients to pay for at least half the cost of their false teeth and specs, thereby saving an estimated $70 million a year.

Mr. Bevan, who wants more socialism instead of less, has been ranting about it ever since. He complained that the rearmament expense would seriously cripple his beloved welfare state.

At least it seems fitting, and heartening, that Britain's free false teeth finally put the bite on a would-be socialist dictator.

Sunny as Spring CAKE OF THE MONTH

By BETTY BARCLAY

Here is a tempter to woo the dieters at your table right off their good-resolution perches! Oh, well, it's Spring! The occasion calls for occasional deviations from routine, and here is a dessert that is certainly off the beaten track. Could anything be more festive looking than this Spring Glory Cake? A sunburst of luscious orange segments, a cloud of snowy white coconut, creamy butter frosting—all topping two moist and delicious cake layers! What a treat!

Spring Glory Cake
 2 1/4 cups sifted self-rising cake flour
 2 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/4 cup shortening
 1 1/2 cups sugar
 2 eggs, unbeaten
 *Milk (see below for amount)
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 *With butter, margarine, or lard, use 1 cup milk. With vegetable or any other shortening, use 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons milk.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating very thoroughly after each. Then add flour mixture alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla and blend.

Turn into two deep 9-inch layer pans which have been lined on botoms with paper, then greased. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 25 to 30 minutes, or until done. Frost with Orange Butter Frosting.

Orange Butter Frosting
 1 tablespoon grated orange rind
 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
 1/4 cup orange juice (about)
 2 teaspoons lemon juice
 3 tablespoons butter
 1 egg yolk, unbeaten
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 3 cups sifted confectioners' sugar

Add orange and lemon rind to fruit juices and let stand 10 minutes; strain if desired. Cream butter; add egg yolk and salt and mix well. Add part of sugar gradually, blending after each addition. Add remaining sugar, alternately with fruit juices until of right consistency to spread. Beat after each addition until smooth. Makes enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 9-inch layers. Sprinkle sides of cake generously with shredded coconut and garnish top with orange segments.

SOME VIRUS DISEASES ARE "CITY SLICKERS"

Prepared by the State Medical Association of Texas

Many of the virus diseases seem to be "city slickers" creating epidemics in heavily-populated areas and spreading slowly if at all in rural communities. Sometime that is good and sometimes it isn't; it wasn't good during the last war when so many men from small towns and farming country got the mumps because they had never been exposed to them before.

The mumps, like most of the childhood diseases, usually are a minor affair in healthy children. In adults, however, they became more serious and created a lot of suffering among the servicemen during World War II.

The mumps cause a swelling in those glands that feed the saliva to the mouth, mainly those parotid glands right in front of the ear. Anything that makes the mouth water causes more congestion in those sore glands and any movement of the jaws seems to make them hurt worse. It's more of a hurting disease than a real sick disease in children but in adults when it spreads to the sex organs it is a real sickness in addition to a lot of pain from the swelling.

You need rest in bed with the mumps and lots of liquid to drink. Hot or cold packs to the swollen area will make the pain seem less; sometimes hot packs do the trick and sometimes cold packs seem to give most relief.

One case of mumps, even if only on one side, usually makes you immune to the disease. There are other diseases of the salivary glands that may cause swelling quite similar to mumps; sometimes people who think they are getting the mumps a second time may be mistaking another kind of swelling of those glands for the mumps.

Poliomyelitis is another virus disease that seems to attack more often in cities than in country towns. How polio spreads and how you can develop immunity to it are two of the biggest research problems under study now.

THE AMERICAN WAY

No Wonder, With Those Scissors!

This young American, enjoying his tapioca pudding with bananas calls attention to an important day devoted to the welfare of youngsters—National Child Health Day, May 1.

A bright eyed eager child is usually a healthy child. And so that more little Americans may have a healthy happy childhood, a day each year is set apart by our government for calling attention to the well being of children. It is National Child Health Day, observed on May 1.

Puddings like this banana tapioca are favorites with children and like other good foods they help build sound health. Most youngsters like creamy tapioca pudding, a nutritious, milk-rich dessert, easily prepared with quick-cooking tapioca as in the following recipe:

Tapioca Banana Pudding

- 1 egg white                      2 or 3 tablespoons sugar
- 2 tablespoons sugar        ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 egg yolk                        3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
- 2 cups milk                      ½ teaspoon vanilla

Beat egg white until foamy throughout; add 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time, and continue beating with rotary egg beater until mixture will stand in very soft peaks. Set aside.

Mix egg yolk with small amount of the milk in saucepan. Add 2 or 3 tablespoons sugar, salt, quick-cooking tapioca, and remaining milk. Place over medium heat. Cook until mixture comes to a boil, stirring constantly—this takes 5 to 8 minutes.

Pour small amount of hot mixture gradually on egg-white meringue; blend. Add remaining mixture, stirring constantly. (The hotter the tapioca and the faster it is blended in, the thicker the pudding will be.) Add vanilla. Cool, stirring once after 15 to 20 minutes. Chill. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

When serving, top pudding with sliced bananas.

"City Slicker" Viruses

Much has been learned about polio from such research studies in the past. It is now known that many people get polio without ever knowing they have it. Since there are different kinds of polio, however, getting one kind doesn't mean you are immune to polio.

Polio is considered as contagious as the measles, but it doesn't show up as definitely as a sickness like the measles does. Many people may have an upset stomach or passing illness of some sort without realizing they did have polio.

Others become ill enough with the disease that it is recognized, but they have no crippling effects. Those who become crippled are a small percentage of the actual number of persons who do get the disease, knowingly or unknowingly, during an outbreak.

They are two main types of polio, called spinal and bulbar. The bulbar kind affects the breathing and swallowing system largely and is the cause of nearly all deaths from polio; bulbar polio rarely causes crippling, however. The spinal type of polio is the crippling kind and rarely causes death; this kind is much more common than the bulbar kind.

Many sources of spread of the polio germs are suspected but no one definite thing has been established as the cause. Psittacosis, however, another serious virus disease, is known to spread from birds. Known as parrot fever, psittacosis also affects other birds and can be spread to persons who breathe the virus into the lungs. It is believed that one person can give the germ to another, also, so that isolation of a person suffering from the disease must be a part of the treatment.

Psittacosis is very much like virus pneumonia, also called primary atypical pneumonia. In fact, laboratory tests are frequently necessary to tell the difference between the two diseases, they have so much the same effect on you.

A virus is known to cause psittacosis but the virus is a strong suspect in atypical pneumonia. It is called atypical because the "a" stands for "not", meaning that it is not the typical pneumonia. Your chest makes funny sounds in the doctor's stethoscope when you have lobar pneumonia but with atypical pneumonia the sounds are pretty normal; it takes x-ray pictures usually to tell for sure whether the sickness you feel is atypical pneumonia.

Though psittacosis and atypical pneumonia may frequently make you feel about the same way, there is a big difference in the diseases; atypical pneumonia rarely causes death while psittacosis may be fatal, especially in those over 40 years of age.

The symptoms of both these diseases are just about the same symptoms of general sickness that a great many other illnesses have. They both make you sick enough for you to want to call the doctor and by tests he can tell the difference in the diseases and treat them accordingly.

Iranian Oil In Headlines Again

TEHRAN, IRAN — This photo was made during World War II when Britain put Indian troops into Iranian oil fields and plants as a security measure to guard the vital "Black Gold." Recently the Iranian Parliament approved a proposal to nationalize the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company, controlled by the British government. Russia always has made a covetous eye on Iranian Oil and if the cold war ever became hot, it would be a big prize. The British government has protested the nationalization proposal.
