LOYING A SOLDIER

Love is a magic or not always given. For with the love you must give it, it's really needed but not to be had. You're young and feeling old, sending a letter on up into the sky.

To be away from you is a far-away day. Being in love with merely your dreams.

Brings thoughts of heaven with bright lights.

It's having him whisper his love to you.

And whispering back that you love him more and more.

"This is a kiss, a promise of love" Knowing you're waited for by the God above.

Reluctantly, painfully, letting him go.

While you're crying inside, wanting him so.

The day goes by, No mail for a week. And you wait for word that he is well.

And when letters come you sigh when he says they're being sent and that he's on his way.

It's loving a soldier, the boy you love, loving the world, yourself and him.

And it's being church, by hand down and pray.

And really mean the things you say. And though you know he is far away.

You love him more and more each day.

Loving a soldier is bitterness and tears.

It's loneliness, sadness and well-laden tears.

Not Loving a soldier is so hard. But it's worth the price when the love he gives is real.

FOR ATHLETE'S FOOT A KERATOLYTIC IS A MUST.

What is a keratolytic? An agent that destroys the infected skin. It stops peeling off, extracts water from the infected skin and makes the skin harder, it is easy to use. If not applied in one hour, your 45 foot towel will be too small.
