Pimientos Add Zest To Chicken Casserole

By BETTY BARCLAY

Chicken with rice is an always welcome stand-by, but it's zesty red pimientos that lend standout flavor to this easy-do casserole. Layers of rice, chicken, and pimientos are baked to tantalizing goodness in a delicious milk and wine sauce, topped with scarlet pimiento cut-outs.

Casseroles are here to stay, and this one is a luncheon or supper dish that's easy as pie to make and taste tempting down to the very last forkful.

Pimiento-Chicken-Rice Casserole

- 1 can or jar (4 oz.) whole pimientos
- 1 lb. chicken (breasts or thighs), salted.
- 2 cups cooked rice
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine

Sauce

- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup milk
- 1/4 cup California sherry
- 1 teaspoon salt

Put the salted chicken in a baking dish. Melt the butter or margarine, pour it over the chicken, and bake for 45 minutes at 350°, turning once. Remove the chicken from the drippings, and make sauce by adding the flour, milk, and salt to them; then pour in the sherry. Strip the chicken from the bones, and cut half the pimientos into strips. In a casserole make a layer of rice, one of chicken, and one of pimiento strips. Repeat the rice and chicken layers, and top with pretty pimiento shapes cut from the remaining pimientos. Pour the sauce over all and bake in a 350° oven for about 25 minutes. This casserole will make 3 to 4 servings.

Royal Mausoleum of Baghdad

TOMB OF A MONARCH: The Royal Mausoleum holds the remains of King Faisal I of Iraq, one of the Bible Lands, in the capital city of Baghdad. King Faisal I is known as the father of modern Iraq, a statue in his honor dominates one of the principal squares and several buildings are named after him. Baghdad is famous as the city of the Caliph Haroun Al-Rashid and the thousand and one nights of Scheherazade. It is filled with golden-domed Mosques, museums and Mausoleums. Within driving distance, are the ruins of Ctesiphon, the world's longest unreinforced arch, and those of Babylon, scene of the tower of Babel and the Hanging Gardens. Babylon was the place where the prophet Daniel foretold the downfall of the Emperor Belshazzar (Dan 5:25) in the fateful words "Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin."

Now.. DIAL when you call!

Cut over to Dial Telephone System will be made Tuesday, May 22, 1956

A NEW ERA OF PROGRESS is beginning in your community. For now a new fully automatic dial system replaces the old type service. The actual cut over from the old to the new takes less than five minutes, but it will climax the work of many months.

THE CONVERSION TO DIAL of your telephone system is a tremendous stride forward. The finest dial equipment available has been put into your telephone building. Mounted in rows of ceiling-high racks, this delicately engineered machinery will click off local telephone calls with startling speed, practically no chance of error.

DAY OR NIGHT, the dial system offers instantaneous response. The familiar "number please" becomes a humming dial tone which signals the caller to begin dialing. As he spins the dial, automatic line-finders seek out the number being called, and within a matter of seconds the called telephone rings — next door, downtown, or many miles away.

THE EMPLOYMENT OF DIAL EQUIPMENT makes it possible for hundreds more local calls to be completed during an average day. You will soon notice that the new dial service is much faster — especially if you make heavy use of your telephone in business, club work or planning entertainment. Each day your telephone will become more useful to you — will help you accomplish more with less effort.

TODAY'S DIAL TELEPHONE is a pleasure to use. On telephone stand, kitchen wall or bedside table, it is a symbol of security; a ready contact with friends and loved ones whether a mile or a thousand miles distant. On an office desk, it is an instrument of action, adding valuable speed to business.

GENERAL TELEPHONE COMPANY is proud to bring dial telephone service to you. The dial system here is big in many ways — a big step for General Telephone Company — a big step for you — and able to grow as the community grows.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Doc Nurses a Daydream

It's a treat when I get together with Doc Sherman. The Clarion keeps me much too busy—and Doc, well I think he puts in sixteen hours a day at the hospital.

But Tuesday—a beautiful day—he and I slipped away for a ride around Turtle Lake. Doc's driving a 1956 humdinger—it's like riding on a cloud.

Anyway, at one point Doc slowed almost to a halt. "Used to fish there as a boy, Joe," he said. "Used to sit and imagine myself up on the highway driving a high-powered car. Nowadays, I just sit here and wish I were down there again."

From where I sit, few of us are ever content with the way things are at any given moment. It's human nature. On the other hand, I've been rooting for years that someday everybody will show enough good American tolerance to respect his neighbor's right to enjoy a friendly glass of beer. When that day comes I assure you that I'll never want to change back.

"WE APPRECIATE YOUR BUSINESS"

RECENT FLOODS IN OUR area, which have left in their wake tragedy and destruction, serve to focus further attention on the need for more dams to control unruly flood waters.

Watershed flood prevention was accented by the House the other day when a bill, authored by Cong. Poage of Waco, was approved. This method of preventing—rather than controlling—floods, has proven very popular and successful. Still in a pioneering stage, it is gaining in public favor every day.

The Poage bill implements existing law by allowing all construction cost to be borne by the Federal government—just as is now the case with the bigger dams built by the Corps of Engineers. Local interests will continue to be required to provide right-of-way, easements, etc.

The bill also permits larger projects above the 5,000 acre-foot limitation now in the law) if the added capacity is for purposes other than flood prevention and the construction cost of such excess capacity is borne entirely by local interests.

Provision is also made for Government long-term loans to local organized interests to help finance, to a limited extent, the costs incurred in setting up irrigation, industrial, municipal, and other uses where the capacity is above 5,000 acre feet.

THESE UPSTREAM projects must first be found to be economically feasible by the Soil Conservation Engineers. The benefits must equal or exceed the construction costs. In our district, where pioneering in this field has been done, a half dozen watershed projects have been cleared, one has been completed, and others are being constructed. Others await engineering studies and surveys.

Congressman Les Arends (Ill.) is credited with this "Congressman's Lament":

"Among life's dying embers,
These are my regrets;
When I'm right no one remembers,
When I'm wrong no one forgets."

Bubba and Helen (Lawson) Adams have returned to Rapid City, South Dakota where he is stationed with the Air Forces. They have been here a week visiting with her parents, the Bunk Lawsons and her brother, A. D.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bob Long entertained them with a backyard barbecue at their home in Big Spring with guests from Sterling City, Flower Grove, Tokio (Texas) and Big Spring.

The meaningful emblem of Body by Fisher

When you see "sterling" on silver you know what it means—solid silver, all the way through.

And when you see the medallion "Body by Fisher" on an automobile it means much the same thing—quality all the way through, in things unseen as well as on the visible, gleaming surface.

The significance of this emblem cannot be tested on the showroom floor. Its meaning was not built up in a day but only after long years in which owners learned that "Body by Fisher" was a veritable symbol of solid, enduring satisfaction:

Only one who has owned a Chevrolet for several years can fully know the deep sense of satisfaction this emblem pledges. It is the warranty of an inner soundness that your eye or your touch cannot test. And only Chevrolet in the low-price field is entitled to wear the small, proud plaque that proclaims "Body by Fisher."
