Ranchers are reminded that they have a little over a month in which to file their 1956 income tax reports and social security payments with the director of internal revenue. There are still plenty of the 1956 Farmers' Tax Guides for Income and Self Employment Taxes in the county agent's office. If you are figuring your own return it would be well to go by and pick up one of these guides. It will answer a great many of the questions you may have. It might also give some tips on figuring your tax to the greatest advantage for you.

How much is a dead mesquite tree worth to you? According to figures recently released by Garlyn Hoffman, range specialist with the Extension Service, a dead mesquite tree is worth just a little over nine dollars.

A live mesquite tree ten inches in diameter will use a ton of water or approximately 250 gallons of water to produce a ton of beans. That same ton of water will produce four pounds of grass. For five cents that tree can be killed.

Hoffman recommends 2,4,5-T and diesel oil to kill mesquites now. The recommended treatment is the individual tree treatment using the above mixture. Trees above four inches in diameter should first be frilled with an axe or hatchet and the chemical oil mixture applied in the frill. Right now that is the best treatment. There are also some other promising methods but during the period of the drought when the normal growth cycle of the tree is upset, the individual tree treatment is the best. The 2,4,5-T and diesel should be mixed at the rate of one gallon of the chemical to 40 gallons of diesel oil.

Here's a tip on how to remove broken light bulbs where the bulb has been broken out and the metal socket remains in the light receptacle. Push a large cork into the base of bulb and screw out the metal base. Shocks and cuts are both eliminated by this method.

This week marks the end of the 1957 spring stock show circuit. The San Angelo Livestock Show which closes this Sunday is the last show on the circuit for this spring. Sterling County 4-H club members will be on hand for the last show. Every club member who has lambs on feeds or has had during the fall of 1956 and spring of 1957 will be on hand with lambs. Exhibitors are Don and Cecilia McDonald, LeRuth Reed, Jerry and Carolyn Payne, Reynolds Lee Foster, Jamie Kay and Freddie Fields, David Drennan, Mitzi Davis, David Durham, Johnny Augustine, Barbara Clark, Kenneth Fincher, Temple Ann Foster and Clayton Stewart. A number of Sterling County FFA members will also have sheep in the various classes. In addition, L. F. Hodges and Clinton will also be represented in the adult Rambouillet Show.

March 2-9 is National 4-H Club week. The proclamation for the National observance was issued by President Eisenhower and a second proclamation on the state observance was issued by Governor Price Daniel. Officers of the Sterling County 4-H Club are as follows: President, Don McDonald; vice-president, LeRuth Reed; secretary, Carolyn Payne; and reporter, Clayton Stewart. Adult leaders of the club are Chesley McDonald, Reynolds Foster, Leslie Payne and Ralph Davis. The program committee is made up of Jerry Payne, chairman; Temple Ann Foster and LeRuth Reed, vice-chairman; Johnny Augustine, secretary, and Carolyn Payne, treasurer.

4-H Club work in Texas covers a wide field. ## Seniors Sponsoring Special Assembly Program March 18

The senior class of Sterling City High School is sponsoring a special assembly program at the school auditorium March 18 at 7:30 p.m. Glenn Haywood will bring a program of comedy, jokes, laughs and fun. One of the features is a remarkable display of ventriloquism with the help of his little friend, Freshie. Magic tricks that are decidedly different are presented—a field in which he has won many trophies for designing. Comedy juggling is also included, along with some surprises.

Class president Lynn Glass said admission would be 25c and 50c. The lower admission price is for grade school age and the higher for high schoolers and adults.

Lions Club Luncheon

R. T. Caperton stressed the need of a Scoutmaster for the troop here in Sterling.

Dr. Swann talked briefly on the program of the Heart Fund organization, and the purpose of raising money for the organization.

CATTLE TRADE OPENS SLOWER

FORT WORTH—Cattle trade opened at Fort Worth this week to weaker bids from most interests in view of somewhat larger supplies. However, only a few sales were definitely weaker in view of moderate supplies and stronger prices at Northern points.

Since the recent rains in much of the territory most cattle and calf prices had moved up sharply to position in many cases higher grade for grade than at Northern points, and the trade Monday featured efforts of major buyers to try and work the list back into focus with other parts of the country.

Calves were again active and fully steady. Comparative prices: Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings $17 to $21, the top for a lot from the Spur Experiment Station. Common and medium offerings sold from $12 to $17. Fat cows drew $10 to $13.50, and canners and cutters cashed at $8 to $12.50. Bulls sold from $10 to $14.50. Good and choice slaughter calves cleared at $17 to $20, and common and medium sorts sold at $14 to $16.50. Culls cashed at $10 to $13. Good and choice stocker steer calves brought $18 to $21, and good and choice stocker steer yearlings sold at $17 to $19.50. Replacement cows drew $9.00 to $14.00.

GRAIN PASTURES PUTTING GOOD GAINS ON CATTLE

Reports reaching Fort Worth this week indicate that in most sections of the Central Texas, East Texas and North Texas areas the recent rains have developed grain field grazing amazingly fast and cattle and calves on these fields are putting on big gains. Some difficulty with bloat has been reported in some areas due to the lush growth.

Visitors to the market report that in view of the good gains in recent weeks, a good portion of the calves and yearlings will be carrying considerable flesh when taken off these fields around the middle of March. Some areas report red spiders and green bugs making inroads on prospective grain crops.

Many of these cattle reportedly will carry enough flesh to take a short stay in the feedlot and come out as fat cattle. This situation has focused the attention of feedlot buyers on the special Move-Off at the Fort Worth Market March 15. Buyers from Western States especially reported interested in these "near fat" kinds of cattle for placement in feedlots there.

SHEEP RUN BIGGEST IN OVER A MONTH

The near 4,500 sheep and lambs that arrived in Fort Worth Monday represented the largest offerings since January there. Trade opened slowly, as packer interests sought lower prices following the recent sharp advances. However, strong demand was uncovered in the feeder buyer and shipper outlets and the trade soon developed steady on slaughter classes and strong to 50 cents higher on feeders. Both feeder and fat lambs topped at $20 and $20.50, the latter the highest of the season on feeder lambs. Older sheep were very scarce, fully steady.

Good and choice slaughter lambs in the wool sold from $19.50 to $20.50 down; fall shorn and No. 1

THREE YEARS AGO—today—the Puerto Ricans sprayed the House Chamber with bullets fired from the gallery where the four revolutionists had quietly entered, fatally bent on mischief.

Looking back, it was indeed a miracle that 32 bullets fired wildly from four automatic pistols into a crowd of nearly 300 members who were gathered on the House floor during the climax of a debate on a bracero bill, did not result in a single fatality.

I was seated in the middle of the fusillade. Rep. Fallon of Maryland, immediately behind and to my left, was shot in the hip. Rep. Davis of Tennessee, next row in front and to my right, was shot in the leg. Mr. Roberts of Alabama, a little more to my left, a few seats back, suffered a leg wound.

As I watched one of the terrorists trying to reload his gun, a gallery visitor approached and grabbed him pinning his arms to his sides. The visitor received a Carnegie Medal for his action.

USDA'S FEBRUARY 27 Wool report says prices of most merino wools at the British Dominion auction centers ranged 25 to 30 per cent above last March, with crossbred wools up between 15 and 25 per cent.

Boston quotations showed some domestic wools up over the same period by 27 per cent.

The U. S. sheep population is down 2 per cent during the year, due largely to the Texas drought.

WILSON JORDAN of Brady, on a tour of wool and textile markets, stopped by to see us last week. Col. Willard A. Beauchamp, shortly to be CO at Laughlin AFB, Del Rio, was also a caller. Mrs. Ola Bosworth of San Angelo, enroute home from a tour that took her into Canada, visited with us briefly.

UVALDE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE has just published a brand new brochure, featuring the area's varied assets and attractions. A copy sent me by Joe McCauley, C. of C. Manager, contained this hand written inscription on the front, which I very much appreciated: "Friend Fisher—Joe McCauley ask me to say 'hello' to you. Feb'y 23—57. Jno N. Garner."

CUB SCOUTS HAVE SUPPER MEETING

The three Dens of the local Cub Pack had a supper and program meeting at the Legion Hut last Friday night. The Cubs and their families were present for the affair.

Pins were passed out to some of the advancing Cubs and a program was put on. Modeled after the Dr. I. Q. program, the Cubs were asked questions by Milton Reed (Dr. I. Q.) He was assisted by Den Chiefs David Durham and Johnny Augustine, program assistants. The Cubs were awarded U.S. Flags for their answers.

Cub Master Harvey Latham was master of ceremonies for the affair. R. T. Caperton made a talk to the group at the close of the program. Cub Troy Murrell gave a one-man skit that delighted the audience, especially the younger set.

Mrs. Martin C. Reed and Mrs. Chesley McDonald returned home Wednesday following a trip to the Scott & White Clinic in Temple.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By G. WILSON HARDER

Again and again there is demonstrated wide gulf between grass roots sentiment and the socialistic and international schemes entrenched along Potomac's banks.

Latest manifestation was brought forth at annual convention of National Wool Growers Ass'n, nation's oldest livestock grower organization, when J. H. Breckenridge, Twin Falls, Idaho, dynamic president, made keynote address.

Significantly, he cannot be labeled as "Old Guard." Not only is he perhaps youngest head of any major farm organization, but he reached voting age after second Roosevelt inauguration.

He called for renewed opposition to U.S. joining Organization for Trade Cooperation, one of the many United Nations spawned blow-bys.

He also called for tariff protection for U. S. carpet makers instead of cancelling duty on imported carpet wove.

Mentioning long fight waged by wool growers for protection for all U. S. mills, Mr. Breckenridge said, "It is my judgment we are coming closer to time when there will be chance to increase tariff on imported wool; that time may not be too far distant. More and more industries are feeling pinch of foreign competition with products based on lower production costs. More working people are realizing their job security is being jeopardized by importation of goods produced by cheap labor. Therefore, although tariffs may not be thought favorably upon by Congress today, the time when our views will be presented by those in majority is rapidly approaching."

Dramatically highlighting these views is recent background. The 1954 Wool Act gives part of duties on imported wools to maintain support price on domestic wool to spur increased production.

"But," says Mr. Breckenridge, "the Wool Act of 1954 was passed in lieu of adequate tariff protection. Some of us feel this act, especially if it were applied to all of agriculture, leads in a socialistic direction. We must be constantly on guard to see we are not enticed or lead in that direction. To be sure, we can find example and precedent in other sections of the industrial economy leading that way. The last thing wool growers want is to see who gets most at public trough, but neither do we want to be the final, fatal casualty in the rear guard defense of our domestic enterprise."

"I make these statements," he continued, "because in the not too distant future the law providing for incentive payments on wool and lamb will expire. I am of the firm opinion that the form of protection we seek should be in increased tariffs. When this day of decision comes, we wool growers should take a very long look and be doubly sure our economic stability of today is not paid for with a mortgage on the economic freedom of our children, and children's children."

There are perhaps those along the Potomac who will say wool growers are biting the hand that feeds them. Yet, here again is evidence that among younger leaders at grass roots level there is growing realization that hands today engaged in socialistic spoon feeding an economy can be used tomorrow to choke out life of a free economy. And perhaps nation's shepherds also remember another shepherd, Esau, who once sold his birthright for a mess of pottage.

FRIENDLY RELIGIOUS SURVEY

Religious Census Sunday Afternoon

Through the cooperative efforts of the churches of Sterling City there will be a friendly religious study conducted next Sunday, Mar. 10. An effort will be made to call on every home in the city and make a record of the church affiliation or preference of each member of the family.

Those willing to participate in this effort are asked to meet at the Presbyterian Church at 2:30 p.m. for assignments and instructions. The workers will go out in teams of two, and will obtain the information concerning those assigned to them.

It is hoped that in addition to those who have volunteered for this effort many more will come to the meeting and volunteer to take part. The effort is sponsored and carried out by every one of the Protestant churches. With a goodly number at work each couple should have only a few houses to call on, and the work should be quickly and easily completed. Only the homes within the city will be called on at this time.

A special request is made that you remain at home if at all possible until the callers have been to your home. This is in order to prevent the necessity of making callbacks. The churches of the city will appreciate your cooperation, both your helping with the study and your staying home until called on.

Give now to the Heart Fund.

It's The Berries!

By Betty Barclay

WHAT a pretty party dish to treat a little girl . . . or a big one, for that matter! Strawberry Ambrosia. made of dainty pink Strawberry
Instant Pudding (the latest,
newest instant
pudding flavor),
snowy white
coconut and the
all-popular fruit
—bananas. It's all so fast and enjoyable to prepare,
too . . . no cooking, no waiting, no
wondering what's going to happen!

Strawberry Ambrosia
3 cups cold milk; 1 package
strawberry instant pudding mix;
dash of salt; 2 small bananas,
sliced; 1/2 cup shredded coconut.

Pour milk into mixing bowl. Add pudding mix and salt. Beat slowly with egg beater just until well mixed, about 1 minute. Do not overbeat; mixture will be thin.
Layer alternately with banana slices in sherbet glasses. Top with coconut and let stand to set—take 5 minutes. Chill, if desired. Make 4 servings.

Chevy is America's "hot" car —officially!

Chevrolet Wins Coveted Manufacturers' Trophy at Daytona Beach as "best performing U. S. automobile"!

Want facts about performance?

Then look at the official figures from NASCAR's* internationally famous Daytona Beach competition for stock cars. Here's what you'll find: Chevrolet, in two weeks of blistering competition, proved itself as America's Number One performance car. Nothing in the low-price field could touch it.

No other car, regardless of price, scored such a sweep. And Chevy walked away with the famous Manufacturers' Trophy, hands down!

The 1957 Chevrolet is, by all odds, the most astonishing performer ever produced in the low-price field. Best of all, this superiority isn't limited to just a few extra-cost high-performance models. Every type of Chevy—from the six-cylinder models right up to the 283-horsepower "Super Turbo-Fire" V8's, from the single-carburetor V8's with Powerglide to the stick-shift "270's"—is a championship car.

pelts sold from $19 down; No. 2 skin lambs $18.50 down; No. 3 skins $18.25 down; and recently shorns $17 down. Cull to medium killers $12 to $17.

Stocker and feeder lambs $17 to $20.50, choice shearing lambs at $20.50, and most offerings from $20 down. Slaughter ewes drew $6 to $8.50. Old wethers $12 down. Yearlings $16.00 down. Aged bucks $6 down.

HOGS SHOW LITTLE RALLYING POWER

Butcher hogs sold mostly steady with last week's close at Fort Worth Monday, as choice meat type hogs scored $17.25 and $17.50. Sows at $15.75 were also steady with last week's close. Medium grades and lighter weights sold from $14 to $16.50. Stags drew $7 to $11.

Despite a moderate offering at Northern points Monday the trade showed little rallying power on live hogs at any point in view of continued rather lack-luster wholesale meat quotations from major centers.

PROMINENT MARKET MEN DUE AT FORT WORTH

Gene Gunter, Wichita, Kansas, and R. J. (Bob) Riddell, Peoria, Ill. will address the annual meeting of the Fort Worth Livestock Market Institute. They are president and executive vice-president of the National Livestock Exchange.

Gunter will discuss current market developments and Riddell will discuss the livestock market situation in Canada, where hogs are virtually all sold on a rail-grade basis and as a result farmers have found returns highly unsatisfactory.

The Market Institute is the educational foundation for the livestock market at Fort Worth, and at the meeting leading livestock representatives of press, radio and the land grant colleges will be guests.

PALACE TO HAVE ONLY ONE SHOW A WEEK

Beginning next week, there will be only one show a week shown at the Palace Theater, said Horace F. Donalson, owner, this week.

The show will be shown each Thursday, Friday and Saturday Donalson. This short week is to run until further notice, he said.
