★★★ Kelton Found Guilty Of Murder; Appeal Imminent

Following a week of trial hearings, testimonies and deliberations, a jury, late Saturday night, found Robert Kelton guilty of the charge of murder in 287th District Court in Muleshoe.

Kelton was charged with the slaying of his brother, Omer Kelton on February 8, 1981, culminating years of feuds between the two brothers and other family members according to testimony revealed in the courtroom.

Judge Robert E. Montgomery of Memphis, Texas pronounced sentence on Kelton following the jury's verdict on Monday morning. Kelton was sentenced to 15 years at the Texas Department of Corrections as well as a $10,000 fine.

Attorney for Robert Kelton, Clifford Brown, well known defense lawyer, indicated that an appeal or new trial would be asked for Kelton.

The Judge allowed Kelton to remain under a $20,000 appearance bond until such time as an appeal was filed. According to laws, the defense has prior or to within 30 days after the date of the sentencing to appeal.

In a trial where testimony and witnesses displayed much emotion, Kelton told of his trials and troubles with his brother, also stressing the fear that he had of his brother for his own life. The day of the murder, Kelton stated that he thought Omer was going to shoot him so he shot Omer three times, as the brothers stopped in front of the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center.

Kelton stood as the Judge pronounced sentence upon him and made the statement that "Omer's wife had embraced me in the courtroom downstairs before the Jury began their Cont. Page 6, Col. 2

★★★ Three Lettermen Will Be Returning For Play

Coach Robert Brandon is very optimistic about his Varsity Mullettes Basketball team this year. With three returning lettermen-two of these all-district in '81-three up from starting on junior varsity last year and two up from the Freshman squad, Brandon feels that his Mullettes can be very competitive from a District standpoint.

Not one to put all his "eggs in one basket", Brandon also foresees that the varsity squad might be aided by several junior Varsity players a little later on in the season. The girls varsity played their first game against Shallowater on Tuesday night to kick off the 1982-83 season.

Brandon gave a rundown on the nine girls that will head up the varsity team beginning with Denise Wilson. Wilson, a senior, is a returning letterman and was named all district in 1981. This 5'4" guard helps the Mullettes in handling the ball and is above average shooter from the outside. According to the Coach, "When she is 'on", she can kill a zone with her shooting.

Sherry Ellis, also a senior is a 5'3" guard and returning letterman. Ellis was also named all district last year and is more or less the "quarterback" of the offense according to her coach. She does a good job penetrating with the dribble, and is a good position defensive player.

A junior, Marylyn Lewis is a 5'3" guard and post and is "the best jumper on the team and probably the quickest player we have," Brandon stated. Lewis plays well inside for her size and is a good rebounder. She heads up the point on our press defense and is an inside and outside threat on offense," the coach said. She is also a returning letterman of one year.

A 5'8" post girl, Kelly Hamblen "will have to provide our inside threat this year," according to Brandon. She does a good job on positioning herself inside and helps by shooting well from the high post area. Brandon feels that Kelly has improved greatly so far this year and will have to carry the load inside on both offense and defense.

Calvert keeps first place lead intact

With the contest of November 18 under his belt, Scott Calvert took a decisive lead in the Journal Contest with a first place win. Calvert however, tied with Coach Jim Pope for first, which split the points for first giving each five points. Calvert now has a comfortable lead with 25 points and unless he is knocked out by a first place win next week, will probably win the contest. Both Calvert and Pope missed three games and were four points off in the tie breaker score.

Taking second this week was another previous winner, J.E. McVicker. Mac however does not have enough points to bring him up into the top standings. McVicker missed four games and was eleven points off in the tie breakers.

Third place was won by Terry Field. He had pre- Cont. Page 6, Col. 7

Rotarians Tour Co-Op Gin

The Muleshoe Rotarians toured the Muleshoe Coop Gin on Tuesday as a part of their weekly program and were given facts and figures regarding area cotton crops by gin manager, Charles Moraw. Moraw pointed out the fact that with the decrease in bale count this year from approximately 24,000 in 1981 to the expected 3500 of this year has resulted in the plant only using one gin.

Guests included Joe Stock, Delton Wilhite, Walter Hughes, Bobby Redwine, Harry Sheets, Bud Dicky and Charles Moraw.

Local Woman Heads WIFE Meet; Summits Talks Sought

At the Annual Convention of Women Involved in Farm Economics (WIFE) in Denver, Colorado, National President June Saylor, Muleshoe, Texas, announced that WIFE had voted unanimously to begin immediate preparations for an Agricultural Women's Summit Meeting to be held as soon as possible. "In light of the severity of the economic situation in which the agricultural producers of America find themselves, we must seek unity of purpose in finding solutions to our problems," Saylor stated.

The Sixth Annual Convention of Women Involved in Farm Economics (W.I.F.E.) was called to order Thursday, November 11th at the Holiday Inn, Denver, Northglenn, Denver, Colorado by National President June Saylor of Muleshoe, Texas.

Saylor gave the President's address Saturday morning reminding the membership "Time has run out on the economic clock for many producers. We who have survived thus far are only making time." Saylor went on to say "It is time for all to admit the Free Market oriented agriculture policy has bankrupted too many and led producers to the lowest commodity prices since the Great Depression. The repercussions of the loss of income to agriculture has led our nation to the highest unemployment of 10.42 and lowest corporate profits since the '30's Depression."

Saylor also noted the fact that America is the envy of almost every country in the world, not for our military, our social life, our welfare system, or our banking system...but for our agriculture.

Mrs. Saylor's address was closed by saying that "Farmers must have a program designed with protection for producers which will allow the farmer to continue producing plentiful food and fiber supplies, reasonably priced, but at the same time must be a no cost program to the government.

GTE Faces Hunting Problem

A word of caution when hunting this year, suggests O.D. Hearn, GTE operations manager in Brownfield. This is the time of year we experience an increase in service outages as a result of cables and other outside equipment being damaged by gunshot.

Hearn estimated that hunting accidents for eight to ten outages a week in his area. Most of the damage is unintentional he added.

Particularly during hunting season, the number of outages increases. "It is possible that an average of ten customers lose service each time a cable is shot," Hearn stated. "Over a one year period, if only one cable is damaged a week, more than 500 customers could be affected."

He added that cables are not always completely severed and that often times the cable is just "nicked" which will eventually result in service problems for customers.

To avoid unnecessary sserious inconvenience to the customer as well as an expense to the Telephone Company, hunters are advised to use caution when hunting near telephone facilities.

"A service interruption can be a serious problem," he said. "Not only is it aggravating for our customers, but it also poses a safety problem when people cannot call for emergency services."

Yitzhak Shamir, Israeli Foreign Minister, on making peace in the Middle East: "I am optimistic we're going to work out these problems."

Creative Woman

By Sheryl Borden

Sewing with Simplicity and making waterbed sheets will be the topics to be presented on "The Creative Woman" on November 30 and December 4 on Channel 3.

Do you ever think about why people sew? Zoe Gaul, Educational Services Coordinator for Simplicity Pattern Co. in New York will talk about reasons different people sew and also explain the steps involved in how a pattern is developed from start to finish.

Waterbeds are becoming very popular but the bedding for them can be pretty expensive. Also, choices are somewhat limited as far as colors, prints and fabrics are concerned. Joy Best, Extension Home Economist from Portales will show how to make waterbed sheets in less than an hour and for about one-half the cost of readymade ones.

On December 2 Margaret Bailey from Clovis will share recipes for English cooking. She will show how to make Yorkshire Pudding, Trifle and Lemon Curd and many other typically English recipes.

"The Creative Woman" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden. The show is seen on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 12:30 p.m. and at 2:00 p.m. on Saturdays on KENW-TV. The show is also carried by KRWG-TV in Las Cruces and by KNME-TV in Albuquerque.

Check Long Distance Phone Options

Consumers with touch tone dialing can save money on long distance calls by investigating discount services available to them.

"Companies offering these services provide a variety of rates and plans. Take time to investigate alternatives before selecting a service, since benefits and limitations vary," reports Beverly Rhoades, consumer information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A & M University System.

Discount service is presently available to 15 to 20 cities in Texas, but the locations served vary with the company. Rhoades recommends checking the local telephone directory for companies serving a particular location.

Names of companies include MCI, SPRINT, ITT, WESTERN UNION and U.S. TEL, the specialist adds, and there may be others. Many toll free numbers are offered through credit card companies and consumers receive an itemized bill for calls from the long distance credit card company rather than the regular telephone company.

"Perhaps the greatest drawback to the service is the amount of numbers that must be dialed before completing a call on the service. You are given a local access number and then your personal authorization code. These combined numbers are usually 12 to 13 digits. If you get a busy signal or a wrong number, you have about 20 numbers to re-dial," Rhoades explains.

Other considerations in order to select the best service are accessibility and line quality. Ask a friend who has the service if lines are generally available when needed, and if it is possible to hear as well on the discount lines as on regular long distance lines.

Before actually "signing up" with a discount service, ask these questions to determine if you can really save money with the service:

* Do you make enough calls? There's generally a monthly minimum charge and may be an additional per call, monthly or annual fee. If your long distance bills are not large enough, the service charges can "eat up" your saving. To determine the benefit, consider the amount saved per call. Discount rates offered range from 15 percent to 80 percent--depending on the company and the time of day the call is made. Get specific rates from each company that services your area. Naturally, if you make most of your calls during the highest discount times, you will save more. The discount rates are in addition to the normal discount rates offered through the regular telephone company.

* Are most of your calls to cities covered by discount services? Cities served vary with companies, but most large and some medium-sized U.S. cities are covered. U.S. TEL allows you to call any city or town in the U.S., except Alaska. However, Texas residents must call from a town or city currently serviced by the company.

* How much will it cost you to call the local access number from your home phone? If you live in the suburbs and the access number of the phone service is in the central city, the call to access the service might be a toll call.

* Do you make many long distance calls from other phones in your city and from other cities? Generally, calls can be made from other phones in your home area without charge. Also, calls can usually be made from any city serviced by the company, but some companies charge extra for this option.

Even with an extra fee, these "credit-card" calls can save you money if the initial discount is great enough. The service may also be accessed for calls generally made collect, if a family member lives in or visiting another city. You can give him or her the appropriate access number for that city, reminds Rhoades.

5'8" and plays post. She is up from the freshman team of last year, where she was out some with injuries. "Seaton has also improved greatly and will have to be a threat at the post. She is a good jumper and her shooting is improving each day," the coach said.

A junior varsity starter last year, Sherri Bessire is a 5'5" guard who according to Brandon is a good passer and a player who "sees all the court most of the time." Bessire also does a good job on position defense.

Keisha Johnson is a 5'5" guard who played on JV last year, doing a good job shooting the ball from the outside. Keisha is a junior.

Kacy Henry is a 5'8" post who will have to be responsible for helping the Mullettes on the inside on both offense and defense. Henry does a good job rebounding.

Mary Norman is a 5'4" guard up from the freshman squad of last year. Norman has been working at both post and guard and Brandon says she will have to help on the depth situation.

Managers for the Mullettes Varsity team are Sharla Morrison, Dana Spilwan and Candy Long. These girls are all juniors and depended upon quite a bit, since they have to secure all equipment, keep up with stats and just do a little bit of everything.

Brandon says that some other players might possibly help the Mullettes later on in the season and will be looking at Kristi Campbell a 5-6 post-guard, K.K. Flowers a 5-6 post, Becky Mardis, 5-5 guard and Tamera Bean a 5-6 post-guard. These girls will be playing on the junior varsity squad under the direction of Rosalind Stapleton.

Other junior varsity girls will include sophomores Zonell Gatewood guard, Polly Harrison guard, Vana Pruitt guard and Tina Rutherford guard. Kristi Spies is also a possible, who is out with an injury at this time. Managers and bookkeepers for the JV are Tammy Graham, Lori Ellis, Kristi Heathington and Connie Puckett.

A large number of 9th grade girls are out for basketball this year and are being coached also by Robert Brandon. A list of these girls includes Courtney Brown, Leonor Daniel, Andrea DeLeon, Brenda Ellis, Beatriz Garcia, Juanita Garcia, Caice Hendrix, Jessie Holmes, Kristy Landers, Adena Lindt, Sherri Stovall, Betty Lobaugh, Michelle Logsdon, Susan Lunsford, Deborah Nieman, Michele Perez, Julie Sanders, Nina Sandoval, Teena Sizemore, Stacy Smith and managers Nina Guillen, Debbie Hicks and Rosie Lopez.

The eighth grade team is coached by Brenda Scott and includes eleven girls out this season. Those girls are Debbie Isaac, Lisa Black, Jill Hamilton, Casey King, Jodie Wheeler, Tisha Cox, Shannon Pelton, Shannon Croazier, Genie Lopez, Kathy Horn and Jana Brown, along with manager Kristi Taylor.

Back again to the seventh grade players, where the actual discipline and fundamentals start, thirteen young ladies will be out for that team under the coaching abilities of Nanette Soto. A list of those girls includes: Amy Bean, Michelle Stevenson, Karen Kenemer, Quay Gregory, Joey Heathington, Misiti Brewer, Kim Glover, Lisa Laredo, Tonia Nowell, Carey Gonzalez, Elizabeth Posadas, Elena Perez and Ali Cage. Managers for the seventh grade team will be Jennifer Green and Melissa Burnett.

Attorney for the State was Roland Sauls District Attorney from Hereford.

The jury deliberated the charge from about 2 p.m. on Saturday until after midnight that same day, finally rendering a verdict of guilty. Members of the jury were William Bert

Law Enforcement Officials Handle Routine Cases

The Muleshoe Police, Sheriff's Office and DPS had a relatively quiet week last week, without too much activity being reported. Again, as in the past weeks a goodly amount of the activity was in relation to traffic violations.

As we stated, Calvert has the first place berth, with Kay Griswold behind him with 18 points. Field would be next in line and then Jerry Gleason. This next week's contest will be the last chance, football fans, so better make it a good one.

While Sudan and Lamb County will receive the tax base from the large facility, which is rumored to be in excess of $1 million, Muleshoe's economy has prospered due to the number of families that have moved into the town, boosting local trade. Over 60 families will remain with the Tok Station even after completion of the number two unit. They will be regular and permanent employees of SPS, doing their business with local merchants.

HIGHLIGHTS

At opposite ends of the country, two of the nation's powerhouses, Georgia and Arizona State, will close out a couple of extremely successful seasons. The Bulldogs from Athens host Georgia Tech in the finale of their 10 and 0 season. The Yellow Jackets are 6 and 4, so Georgia is in the role of very heavy favorite to nail down not only an undefeated season, but probably a national championship. Last season, the Bulldogs destroyed Georgia Tech 44-7. This Saturday could be a repeat.

Arizona State has a much tougher assignment in trying to finish its season with only one loss as it travels to Tucson to battle intra-state rival Arizona. The Sun Devils tangle with a group of Arizona Wildcats that has given everyone cat fits... and that includes a big 16-13 win over Notre Dame. Though neither team ever has difficulty getting up for this contest, we think Arizona State might have more of a problem after its recent disheartening loss to Washington. We think the pesky Wildcats will just nip the Sun Devils.

In 1981 Penn State methodically took Pittsburgh apart 48-14. Earlier this season, Alabama did the same to Penn State 42-21. And Pitt received the same treatment from Notre Dame 31-16. Toss out those losses and this match-up might well have been for the national championship. Penn State has rolled up 349 points in its 9 and 1 season while the Panther's total through nine games was 235. However, all past history will be forgotten when these two meet in University Park this Friday where the Nittany Lions are the hosts - and the favorites.

Taking a quick look at the forecasting average through the first ten weeks of the season, the Harmon system is still fairly healthy. Through Saturday, November 6th, we forecast the results of 1,723 games, 32 of them ending in ties. Of the remaining 1,691, there were 1,264 winners and 427 losers for a .747 average. 'Nuff computations.

The other big contest on Friday: Oklahoma at Nebraska. The Cornhuskers were wylaid by Penn State early in the season, and the Sooners had identical problems first with West Virginia, then with Southern California. This one, again will be for all the frosting on the Big Eight Conference cake. Nebraska was a huge 37-14 winner last fall, and looks to do a little of the same kind of damage this year.

Turkey In Abundant Supply

Turkey, now a year-round favorite, is a traditional holiday food. It's protein-packed, low calorie, flavorful and economical, and consumers should find an abundant supply of fresh, wholesome birds this season.

Beverly A. Rhoades, consumer information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A & M University System, points out that turkey is one of the most economical meat sources available.

"Fresh turkeys displayed in meat counters are USDA inspected for wholesomeness and most are Grade A, indicating they are fully fleshed and meaty, well-finished with no parts missing and no skin defects," Rhoades says.

Lower grade turkeys are equally wholesome and nutritious, but may not be visually appealing in the package.

Processed turkey offered at meat counters is inspected again to approve label information and ingredients.

"Tenderness of the meat is determined by the age of the bird, rather than the sex, grade or size. A 25-pound turkey is just as tender as an eight-pound bird of the same age. Toms are generally as tender as hens of similar age. For greatest tenderness, look for the words "young" or "fryer-roaster" on the label," Rhoades says.

To determine how much fresh turkey to buy, plan for three-fourths pound per person, or for planned leftovers, purchase one pound per person. When choosing whole turkeys, large birds may be the most economical buy per serving, Rhoades explains, and leftover meat can be stored for later use.

Pre-basted and pre-stuffed whole turkeys are available but cost more per pound than plain frozen turkeys. "There is little difference between them in the cooking process for moist and tender meat," Rhoades says.

Turkey parts or processed turkey may be used instead of the whole bird for some occasions, but generally cost more per pound. Packaged turkey parts allow consumers to choose white or dark meat, or an assortment, to please the family.

Turkey roasts offer variety and are available in all-white or all-dark meat, or a combination of both.

Processed turkey is particularly popular because of convenience, versatility and storage ease. Cooked, cured or smoked turkey may taste similar to pork or beef counterparts, but usually has its own distinct flavor. Turkey "ham" is actually thigh meat rolled and seasoned to taste like ham. Ground or link turkey sausage is a reduced-calorie sausage. Turkey luncheon meats with a deli flavor and aroma are seasoned to resemble their counterparts in the luncheon meat field.

"With the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons approaching rapidly, families may want to plan creative uses of turkey in their holiday meals," Rhoades says.

Underway Search Now Rural Hero

The search is under way for Texas' rural hero of 1982.

The Rural Heroism Award, sponsored by the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, is presented each year to some person judged to have performed an act of exceptional bravery during a time of crisis, according to Ben Bullard, Council president and assistant safety director of the Texas Farm Bureau.

March 1, 1983, is the deadline for entries to be received by the Rural Heroism Award Committee, Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, P.O. Box 489, Waco, Texas 76703.

The heroic act or human-life-saving deed must have occurred within Texas during 1982 and should be related to farming or ranching operations.

Nominations should include a written account of the incident and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all persons involved. Newspaper clippings and pictures should also accompany the nominations, if available.

The award will be presented at the Monday morning opening general session of the 44th Annual Texas Safety Conference and Exposition, April 25, 1983, at the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel in Houston.

This is the time of the year when the busiest men find time to attend a football game.

IRS News

The Internal Revenue Service has $1,203,216.43 it wants to send to some north Texas taxpayers. Over 2,600 taxpayers in the northernmost 143 counties have not received their 1981 refund checks, which average $461. The smallest refund is $1, while the largest is over $96 thousand.

The most common reason for the failure of refund check and taxpayer to meet up is that the taxpayer has moved and not left a forwarding address. Others have changed their marital status and their names and failed to notify the Postal Service and the IRS. Still others are the victims of illegible address entries on the Form 1040.

When a check is returned to the IRS as undeliverable, the IRS follows up by mailing a notice to the address of record. If this fails, extensive efforts are made the the district level to locate the taxpayer's correct address.

If your name appears on the following list, please write or call the IRS. Write: Internal Revenue Service, 1100 Commerce Street, Mail Code 151-A, Dallas, Texas 75242, or call 742-2440 in Dallas, 335-1370 in Fort Worth, or 1-800-492-4830 elsewhere in Texas.

Hometown Youth Tops In His Field

"Basically, what you get here is like a head start in the race." Randall Whalin, a 1979 graduate of Commercial Art in Advertising (CAA), used this analogy to describe the training he received at TSTI.

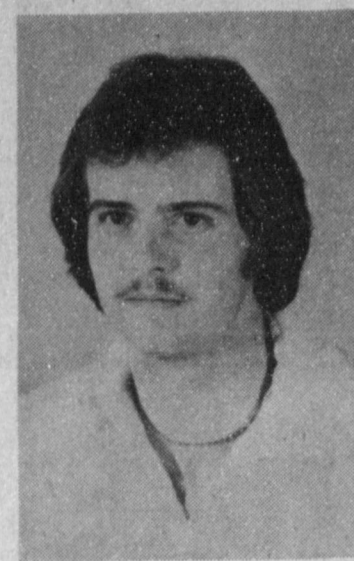

After graduation from high school, Whalin looked at several art schools across the state of Texas and chose TSTI on the recommendation of his art teacher at Muleshoe High.

Major emphasis is given to commercial art in the 18-month associate degree program at TSTI. The program is centered solely on a student's interests, without having to take such courses as math and history.

A Who's Who in American Junior Colleges award recipient during his training at TSTI, Randall feels that the accelerated pace necessary to complete the CAA program prepared him for the world of work.

He gained experience in all facets of commercial art, and took advantage of part-time jobs during his training to gain expertise in areas he was most interested in.

Instructors at TSTI maintain a personal, one-to-one teaching relationship with students, and give up a portion of their careers to teach, using their background and knowledge to help CAA students to succeed.

Randall has had a variety of commercial art jobs in institutional settings as well as maintaining an active free-lancing business of his own. His expertise as a graphics artist has been furthered by jobs he had held with the Texas Panhandle Library System, Amarillo College and Texas Tech Health Sciences Center. He has done voluntary artwork for the Amarillo Police Department and freelance jobs for a variety of companies, designing and producing everything from coupons to logos for semi-trucks. Some of the art he completed while working for Amarillo College is now receiving world-wide exposure, through circulation by the Texas Community College Consortium in China and countries of South America.

Whalin's current job as Medical Graphics Artists with the Texas Tech Health Sciences Center provides him with the type of challenge he really enjoys. An outstanding of a variety of medical topics is required to enable him to aid doctors with slides, illustrations, cartoons and graphs to present ideas for research grants, journal articles, books, posters and billboards for health fairs.

The high degree of respect industry holds for TSTI graduates of CAA was, to a large degree, responsible for his success in the field, according to Randall. "I was considered over graduates of four-year schools right out of TSTI."

Gentlemen Wash

A small boy had taken his mother's powder puff and was in the act of powdering when his small sister, aged five, snatched it from him. "You mustn't do that," she exclaimed. "Only ladies use powder-gentlemen wash themselves."

In Appreciation

At this time we would like to Thank each and everyone, (and especially those who put aside the trials of everyday life), for all of the most generous and loving help during the pass months, and for the many thoughts of others who have special memories for Mable which will be with us for ever.

When a woman borrows a man's heart very few possess it for a life time.

Death is not nearer to the aged than to the new-born; neither is life.

We often borrow from our tomorrow to pay our debts to our yesterday.

To our grateful friends and neighbors. May God Bless and Keep You Forever.

(Arnold Black and family)
