AROUND THE COUNTY
by

ARTHUR BARLEMAN, JR. COUNTY AGENT

The certificate designating Sterling County as a Modified-Certified Area under the brucellosis testing program has been received. The certificate is good for three years—from March 14, 1970 to March 13, 1973.

Under the testing program regulations, it is necessary to retest a county every three years to qualify for the designation as modified-certified area. It would have been necessary to have done this prior to issuing the certificate but under the market cattle testing program, if enough cattle are tested as they go through the terminal markets and auction rings, a county can qualify without the retesting as we have done it in previous years.

Enough cattle were tested at these markets the last three years to qualify the county. According to the report for 1969 which we received from the Extension veterinarian, Dr. C. M. Patterson, 1720 head were tested. Of this total, one was designated as a suspect and two as reactors.

Under the market cattle testing program, cattle going through the markets are back-tagged, tested, and the results credited to the county of origin. This is done at the markets where previously, the owners had to obtain the back-tags, apply them, and fill out a card obtained from the county agent's office. This method did not work as well as intended and the market owners agreed to perform this task and have done a good job.

There have been several questions concerning spraying hoarhound. Hoarhound can be sprayed with ground equipment if the areas are small, or with aerial equipment if large acreages. The wind should be less than 8 miles per hour and the temperature between 55 and 85 degrees for the best results. It should be sprayed prior to the time when the plants flower and when there is enough moisture to produce vigorous growth. Fast growing, lush plants are much easier to kill than those not making growth.

To spray small areas around pens, water troughs, and such areas, an ordinary livestock sprayer will work well. Mix two pounds of low volatile ester 2,4-D per 100 gallons of water. Use one hundred pounds of pressure or less and preferably a number 6 orifice. Wet the plants thoroughly.

To determine how much 2,4-D to use, check the label on the container. The low volatile ester will contain either two pounds, three and one-third pounds, or four pounds acid equivalent per gallon. Thus if the product you have contains two pounds acid equivalent per gallon, use one gallon per hundred gallons water.

To spray large areas with aerial equipment, use one pound low volatile ester per acre in four gallons water. This is the same rate recommended for spraying bitterweed. Bitterweed should be sprayed before flowering under the same weather conditions as hoarhound.

Some have asked if it is possible to determine if a lamb has milk colic before it dies, or is found dead. Usually the lambs are found dead but occasionally in your rounds of the pasture you may find sick lambs. A lamb with milk colic usually is extremely nervous, and walks in circles if still on its feet. Usually they are found in a prostrate position with the head thrown back over the shoulder. Ordinarily, the course of the disease is four to eight hours. Death is almost certain. There is no treatment that is effective. A serum has been available for treatment but the lambs must be found at the very beginning of the disease if there is to be any chance for the serum to be effective. It has some value to feedlot operators but very little to the range operator.

Death losses this year have been high in some areas to the south of us where weather and range conditions are somewhat farther along than here. It may be that it will not be severe here this year or it may be a few weeks in the future. Lush grazing conditions and high milk production in the ewes cause the disease in the biggest, fastest growing lambs.

Jim Davis talked on the aspects of the rodeo or roping grounds — as to be used in connection with the Old Settler's Reunion here. He said Martin Reed offered a long term lease on the present site; and Stan Horwood had agreed to a lease on some land near the City Park. Due to moving costs, the Roping Club thought a move might be too costly.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that 25 million barrels of oil have been produced in Sterling County since 1947? That was the year that the Plymouth Oil Co. hit the Ellenburger production on its No. 1 Georgia Frost 11½ miles northwest of Sterling City on the Colorado City highway.

We will have a special paper recognizing the value of oil here in Sterling County — sometime next month.

Of course, the Plymouth Co. was not satisfied with the oil production — 8 barrels of oil per hour with gas ration 900 l. They kept on treating the well — and it finally quit on the company.

The U.S. Civil Service Commission has issued three nationwide announcements of mid-level Federal career opportunities in professional fields, and a fourth outlining opportunities for Stenographers and Typists in Washington, D. C. and vicinity.

Interested applicants can get the announcements from Federal Job Information Centers in many large cities, from many post offices, except in cities where Federal Job Information Centers are located or from the Interagency Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, 1900 E St. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20415.

The announcements are:

1. Professional Opportunities for Social Scientists. GS grades 9 through 12. Covered are such positions as Economist, Social Science Analyst, Social Science Program Specialist, Sociologist, Historian, Anthropologist, Manpower Analyst, Social Work Program Specialist, and additional closely related positions in other social science fields. Many of the opportunities are in various Federal agencies in Washington, D. C. and vicinity and in foreign countries. Some are in other parts of the United States. Annual starting salaries currently range from $8,462 to $12,174. They are expected to increase by about 9 percent in the middle of this year. There are no written test requirements. Applicants will be rated on the basis of professional experience, education, and training. Work descriptions and the necessary qualifications, along with special credit provisions for graduate study, superior undergraduate academic achievement, subsequent work experience including part-time or unpaid experience, and certain teaching experience, are detailed in Announcement No. WAS-827, Professional Opportunities for Social Scientists.

2. Professional Opportunities for Social Worker and Social Service Representative. Social Worker positions, GS grades 9 through 12, are in the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the U. S. Public Health Service, and the Veterans Administration, throughout the United States and Puerto Rico; and in agencies of the District of Columbia Government and other Federal agencies located in Washington, D. C. and vicinity. Social Service Representative positions, GS grades 8 through 12 are primarily in the D.C. Government and other agencies in the Washington metropolitan area. Annual starting salaries currently range from $7,699 at GS-8 to $12,174 at GS-12; they are expected to increase by about 9 percent in the middle of 1969. No written tests are involved. Applicants will be rated on the basis of education, experience, training and personal aptitude for the nature of the work. Federal agencies, principally in the metropolitan area of Washington, D. C., need Electronics Technicians. The work involves maintenance, testing, and development of various electronic equipment, ranging from radio, radar, and sonar devices to computer systems. Both general and specialized experience are basic requirements for Electronics Technician positions, except where education may be substituted for such experience. CONGRESSMAN BURLESON

Cong. Omar Burleson Up for Reelection

Congressman Omar Burleson has formally announced his candidacy for re-election to Congress, subject to the Democratic Primary on May 2 and the General Election in November. The 17th Congressional District, which he represents, is composed of 31 Counties, covering approximately 30,000 square miles. Within this area live about 440,000 people.

Burleson says, "During my tenure of office I have followed two guiding principles: First, to know the views of my constituents and reflect their sentiments to the greatest degree possible in my actions in the Halls of Congress. Second, to inform and advise as closely as I can those issues which affect our District, our State and our Nation."

Burleson termed his approach to Government as one of "common sense," gained through the years of public service. I have tried to see that the people's tax money is spent wisely and as judiciously as you would have spent it had you been in my place," he said.

"The record will show that a greater part of the time I have found myself in the minority in opposing the vast spending programs of doubtful value which have been put into effect in recent years. In every Session of the Congress the record will show my votes for expenditures below that recommended by the Executive Department and far less than actually appropriated by the Congress, except in the field of National Defense," Burleson said. He continued, "Without meaning to appear boastful, if the Congress had followed those of us who have voted consistently over the years for fiscal responsibility our financial affairs would not be in the shape they are today."

"In areas providing for the defense of our Country, I have always supported those things to make and keep our Nation stronger than any other in the world," he said.

"I have been discerning in separating those activities which the Federal Government was not designed to do, from those which are truly its responsibility," he said.

Burleson stated that activities of State and local governments, in accordance with the Constitution, should not be infringed and encroached upon by the Federal Government.

"The Federal Government does have specific missions," he said. He gave as examples the conservation of our natural resources, the defense of the Country and its general welfare.

"At the same time," he said, "the Federal Government can not and should not try to take care of everything from Washington, either foreign or domestic. The Federal Government has grown to colossal proportions and centralized power in Washington has increased," Burleson pointed out. "To this, I am opposed and my record is clear in this respect."

Burleson is among the senior members of the U.S. House of Representatives in point of service. He was elected to the 80th Congress from the 17th District and has been re-elected to each succeeding Congress. He is a member of the Ways and Means Committee, considered to be the most powerful and prestigious in the House.

Burleson is a former County Attorney and County Judge of Jones County. He was appointed an FBI Agent, and served in a number of assignments over the U.S. He resigned from the FBI to join the Navy in World War II, and saw duty in both the Atlantic and the Pacific.

Burleson ended his formal announcement by saying, "Although not having opposition in this year's election, it is my hope to visit my constituency as opportunity affords. The Congress being in session at this time and expected to be long after the Primary Election, there will be little time to leave duties in Washington. I expect, however, to get back home at short intervals to do the best I can in seeing my friends and to make new ones. I believe it is incumbent upon a Congressman to know people and that they know him, to have the best representation. This is fundamental to our system."

Livestock Judging By 4-H & FFA

Eight Sterling City youngsters entered the livestock judging contest at the San Angelo Livestock Show on March 1970. Pat Foster, Bill Blanek, Allen Price and Bobby Bynum made up the FFA team. Bill Blanek tied for high individual in cattle judging with a score of 196 out of a possible 200. Pat Foster was second high individual in sheep judging with 189 out of a possible 200 points.

The Sterling City FFA team scored 1,528 points out of a possible 1,800. The winning team in the contest scored 1,635 points.

Sterling 4-H team members at the San Angelo Livestock Show judging were Payton Wilson, Tommy Bynum, Lee Igo, and Janis Igo. This team did not win any individual honors; however the team score of 1,588 points was only three points below the overall fifth place team.

Lee Igo had an individual score of 540, just one point lower than the tenth high individual. There were 62 teams in the contest.

FFA Exhibitors at San Angelo Show

Sterling City FFA members exhibited 41 lambs 3 range ewes, 6 registered Rambouillet, 4 barrows and one Hereford steer at the San Angelo Livestock Show March 9-15.

Lamb exhibitors included Steven Foster, Skeete Foster, Robert Bliznak, Pat Foster, Bill Blanek, Kenny Blanek, Payton Wilson, Bobby Bynum, Tommy Bynum, Darrow Atkins, Brandt Badger, Janis Igo and Lee Igo.

Steven's lambs placed 13th and 25th in the crossbred class, and Pat Foster had a 14th. Others in the crossbred class were Kenny Blanek with 23rd, and Tommy Bynum with 24th. In the finewool showing Janis Igo had a 23rd, and Lee Igo took 8th and 31st places. His 8th place lamb sold in the premium sale for 100.00

The Sterling group exhibited the second place pen of 15 crossbred lambs in the show. This was the first group of lambs that the FFA exhibitors have ever placed in San Angelo.

Allen Price's group of three Debouillet ewe lambs bred by his father placed first in the wool judging with 92 points, and then placed first in the shorn groups of ewes again with 92 points. Allen's three fleeces were placed first in the wool judging with 92 points again. This is the second consecutive year for the Price ewe lambs to win the show at San Angelo.

Payton Wilson exhibited the 8th place heavyweight Hereford steer. Payton's steer was raised on the home ranch. A number of the local boys appear to be interested in feeding steers for the next show year.

Bobby and Tommy Bynum exhibited two barrows each in the show. However they failed to place in the top three of any class, which is required to make the premium sale.

Janis and Lee Igo exhibited 6 registered Rambouillets in a very competitive show. They had the 11th place yearling ewe and 11th place yearling ram.

U.S. Border Patrol Seeks Applicants

The U.S. Border Patrol of the Immigration and Naturalization Service has an urgent need for physically fit young men desiring a career in Federal law enforcement work. This is a career opportunity for those who like action and outdoor work.

The Border Patrol is the mobile, uniformed enforcement branch of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Its principle purpose is to prevent the smuggling and illegal entry of aliens into the United States. The border patrolmen, called Immigration Patrol Inspectors, work along international boundaries, although their duties are not necessarily confined to these areas. They work in jeeps, cars, on foot, in boats and even in airplanes. Officers investigate violations of the immigration laws and frequently make arrests. They are often required to work irregular hours, under all weather conditions. These duties demand mental alertness as well as exceptional physical vigor and stamina.

The entrance salary of an Immigration Patrol Inspector is $7,639 a year (Grade GS-7). There are promotional opportunities up to executive levels in the Immigration and Naturalization Service. On-the-job training offers splendid opportunities for promotion to positions of greater responsibility.

No experience is required for these positions. To qualify, applicants must pass a written test of verbal abilities, judgment, and aptitude for learning a foreign language. Candidates who pass the written test are called for oral interviews in the order of their standing on the list. The oral interview is designed to determine if the candidate has the personal qualities needed for the work. Applicants must also pass a rigid physical examination. Candidates who are selected for appointment are assigned to the Border Patrol Academy for a period of intensive training in such subjects as immigration laws, Spanish, physical training and marksmanship. Trainees receive full pay while in the academy.

Applications are now being accepted for the civil service examination for Immigration Patrol Inspector which will be held on Saturday, January 24, 1970. An additional examination is scheduled for April, 1970. However, those wishing to be tested in January must submit their applications before December 19, 1969. Full information is given in Announcement No. WAM-911 which may be secured from Interagency Boards of Examiners and from many post offices as well as any office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Applications should be submitted on the tearout application form on the announcement or CSC Form 50000AB and forwarded to the Interagency Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners for Washington, D.C. 1900 E St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20415.

Information concerning the patrol inspector position and this announcement may be obtained from the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, P. O. Box 2539, San Antonio, Texas 78206, or by calling 512-225-5511, Extension 214.
