

LIVING WALLS

BY NANCY BRADY

DINING ROOMS AND AREAS

Dining rooms—like old-fashioned parlors—give much pleasure. They enhance the ceremony of eating; their decoration, likewise, partakes of ritual: the centered table, the sideboard, the chandelier or wall sconces.

Somehow a deep dado is right for such a room, and above it a wallpaper mural or a large repeating pattern should be considered. Painted walls, or heavily paneled ones of wood, should be firmly rejected: the former because they lack richness and atmosphere, the latter because they have too much, like a clubroom.

In country houses, over a dado, a scenic "toile" might be an excellent choice, or even—if there is no dado—a broad floral stripe.

At present, the dining room is often just around the corner from the living room, and hence easy to decorate quite differently, with regard to both furniture and wallcovering. But it must be constantly remembered that even here, as in all adjacent and visible areas, the colors should be related, from one area to the next, although the change in pattern and texture can be as abrupt as you wish.

In a small apartment the "dining room" may consist of nothing but a table and some chairs. Should you attempt to enclose them by screens or curtains? If you do, you may make an already small room seem smaller. Rather than cut up your floor space it might be wise to define the different areas by means of well-chosen wallcoverings. It would be sad not to point up a dining room in some way. The evening meal in particular should be heightened by romantic lighting and a colorful background.

For further information on wallpaper and wallcovering, send $1.00 for a 208-page book to "Living Walls," Wallcovering Industry Bureau, 969 Third Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022.

U.S. Border Patrol Seeks Applicants

The U.S. Border Patrol of the Immigration and Naturalization Service has an urgent need for physically fit young men desiring a career in Federal law enforcement work. This is a career opportunity for those who like action and outdoor work.

The Border Patrol is the mobile, uniformed enforcement branch of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Its principle purpose is to prevent the smuggling and illegal entry of aliens into the United States. The border patrolmen, called Immigration Patrol Inspectors, work along international boundaries, although their duties are not necessarily confined to these areas. They work in jeeps, cars, on foot, in boats and even in airplanes. Officers investigate violations of the immigration laws and frequently make arrests. They are often required to work irregular hours, under all weather conditions. These duties demand mental alertness as well as exceptional physical vigor and stamina.

The entrance salary of an Immigration Patrol Inspector is $7,639 a year (Grade GS-7). There are promotional opportunities up to executive levels in the Immigration and Naturalization Service. On-the-job training offers splendid opportunities for promotion to positions of greater responsibility.

No experience is required for these positions. To qualify, applicants must pass a written test of verbal abilities, judgment, and aptitude for learning a foreign language. Candidates who pass the written test are called for oral interviews in the order of their standing on the list. The oral interview is designed to determine if the candidate has the personal qualities needed for the work. Applicants must also pass a rigid physical examination. Candidates who are selected for appointment are assigned to the Border Patrol Academy for a period of intensive training in such subjects as immigration laws, Spanish, physical training and marksmanship. Trainees receive full pay while in the academy.

Information concerning the patrol inspector position and this announcement may be obtained from the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, P. O. Box 2539, San Antonio, Texas 78206, or by calling 512-225-5511, Extension 214.

What's New Pussycat?

NATIONWIDE SEARCH UNDERWAY FOR KING OR QUEEN OF HOUSECATS

Cats are nature's aristocrats, and through history in many lands cats have been accorded high honor, even worshiped as deities. With an estimated 36 million housecats in this country, the feline is far and away America's most popular housepet. Now, at last, housecats are being recognized as "Royalty" in the U.S. A nationwide search is on for the King or Queen of America's housecats.

The Royal Pussycat Pageant of America is looking for "royal", not pedigreed, housecats. The champion of all contestant cats will be crowned (with a real crown) King (or Queen) of America's tabbys with all the pomp and circumstance of a regal coronation at the Hotel Fontainebleau in Miami Beach.

Along the way to the throne, these royal pussycats can win a color TV set, $100 spending money, a trip to New York and Miami Beach, perhaps even the gold and pearl crown and necklace, valued at more than $1500.

Any housecat is eligible to enter the Royal Pussycat Pageant, which is sponsored by Tabby cat food. Official entry blanks are available free at participating supermarkets selling Tabby. However, cats may also be entered in the contest merely by sending a descriptive essay about the cat and a photo of the pussycat, along with the name and address of the owner, to: Royal Pussycat Pageant of America, Box C.A.T., Philadelphia, Pa. 19107. The contest closes April 30, 1971.

After all the entries are in, the judges will select 100 Members of the Peerage, who will receive "Right of Ascension to the Throne" certificates and a two-month supply of Tabby. One of these cats will eventually be chosen as the King or Queen of America's housecats. Fifty of the original 100 winners will then be designated Princes or Princesses (depending on the sex of the pussycat) earning a medallion, specially inscribed scroll and more Tabby cat food.

Next, 10 lucky pussycats will be picked as Pretenders to the Throne and the real competition starts for the $1500 crown. The 10 Pretenders, in addition to winning portable color TV sets, will be flown to New York with their owners for a gala press reception at the famous Waldorf-Astoria, long the New York home of visiting royalty.

Then it's off to Miami Beach for a week-long tournament at the fabulous Hotel Fontainebleau. The tournament consists of a series of competitive events especially created to test the interest, agility and curiosity of the pussycats. Among the events are a cross country obstacle course, mechanical mouse chasing, high jumping, target ball rolling, hall of mirrors puzzle and bell ringing.

Under the supervision of Pageant Director Mrs. Virginia Hunter, a nationally-known cat fancier, the 10 tabbies will also be judged on owner-designed costumes representing their "principality."

Finally, on stage in the Fontainebleau's plush nightclub LaRonde, one housecat will be crowned King or Queen of all U.S. Catdom.

Social Security

Are you a social security beneficiary receiving his monthly check a few days late? According to J.M. Talbot, social security manager, it may be because you did not report a change of address.

When a beneficiary changes his address, he should notify the social security office in writing or in person. Reports should include the name of the person or persons moving, the social security claim number, and the old and new address.

Mr. Talbot said that notifying the Post Office alone is not sufficient. Even if the Post Office has a current address a delay still occurs because the check must be forwarded from one address to another.

Temporary financial hardship often results when checks are a few days late, particularly when social security benefits are the only source of income for a worker or his family. Beneficiaries can insure timely benefit payments only by keeping their address current.

Changes of address which have not already been reported to the Social Security Administration should be reported without further delay. Beneficiaries may report changes of address to the Social Security Office at 3000 West Harris Ave. (P.O. Box 3808) in San Angelo, Texas, or see the representative when he is in your area.
