Behind the 8-Ball

By the editor.

All right, folks, it's time to turn back your clocks again. Sunday, that is.

About one or two o'clock Sunday morning (early) you are supposed to get up and turn all your clocks back one hour—that is if you want to be in time with the rest of the state and nation. Daylight saving time ends then.

OR, you can be chicken-like me—and turn yours back as you go to bed that night. Anyway, we get back on what I call regular time—or the kind I grew up on—and my stomach hasn't really gotten away from yet.

I'm not sure that Daylight Saving Time does anything for me anyway.

The only thing is when I get used to one or the other—then, wham, it changes all over to the other.

8-BALL

Methodist Church

The fall revival or meeting will be held at the Methodist Church here November 12th through the 16th, reminded the Rev. Harold Orr, this week. The preacher for the meeting will be the Rev. Dean Franklin of Burleson.

Services will be held at 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. daily, said the local pastor.

To the Voters of Precinct 1:

I have decided to ask for your support with a write-in vote for the office of Sterling County Commissioner of Precinct 1 on November 7, 1972.

I feel that our residency here and the knowledge you already have as to the capabilities that I may have are well known, and if you can see fit to elect me to the office of Sterling County Commissioner, Precinct number 1, it will be so very much appreciated.

Thanking you for your support in the past, I am again asking for your vote and influence come election Day.

All help will be appreciated.

President James Thompson appointed a committee to look into buying a wall clock for the community center. The county has just about finished having the community center remodelled and repainted, etc. and hostess Mrs. Bess Blagg suggested a new wall clock might be in order. Thompson named Jack Peel, Albert McGinness and Rev. Andy Daniels.

Mrs. Blagg has been hostess at the community center for one year the first of October. She said there had been 168 meetings of various kinds held in the center during the year-44 of them being Lions Club affairs.

The prize went to Roland Lowe.

MORE RAIN HERE

With Sterling City getting three inches of rain last week end before it quit, and the surrounding areas all receiving varying amounts, again Thursday morning of this week saw more moisture falling. About .75 inch had fallen by noon Thursday here in the town, and south of town got heavier rainfall, it was reported.

State Fair Lamb Show

The Sterling City FFA members exhibited 22 lambs at the State Fair of Texas Junior Lamb Show Wednesday of last week. Exhibitors included Jeff Cantrell, Sheri Foster, Randy Hord, Ronny Hord, Oss Hord, Mark Sullivan, Jim Terry, Lee and Carl Igo. Freddie Thompson, local 4-H Club exhibitor, also had lambs in the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Foster, Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson accompanied the group to Dallas to assist in the many ways that parents and adults can be very useful.

Finewool exhibitors included Randy Hord 27th, Lee Igo 49th, and Ross Hord 60th. Jim Terry exhibited the 9th place Columbia crossbred lamb and Mark Sullivan the 15th.

Sterling City exhibitors pulled nine lambs into the Suffolk crossbred class group and judge Bill Crutcher of Oklahoma State, took seven of the nine in his first pull of lambs out of a class of approximately 100 lambs.

Placings in the Hampshire crossbred class included Carl Igo 10th, Sheri Foster 37th, Jim Terry 38th, Ross Hord 40th and Randy Hord 42nd, and Jeff Cantrell 48th. Some of the Hampshire crossbred lambs were carrying just a little too much finish, according to the judge.

Twenty of the lambs entered by FFA members made the premium sale at the fair, and the local exhibitors collected $115.00 in premium money at the fair.

Lee Igo's first place Suffolk crossbred lamb bred by the T.F. Foster estate, was selected as the reserve champion crossbred lamb of the show. Lee sold his lamb on Saturday at the sale for $150.00. The other lambs in the sale brought from 40c to 50c per pound.

The local exhibitors would like to express their appreciation to the James Thompsons and the Melvin Fosters for their assistance and support at the fair. Lambs exhibited at the fair by local exhibitors were bred by the T.F. Foster Estate, I.W. Terry, Clinton Hodes and Foster S. Price.

I have a write-in opponent in the coming election. In the past, as senior member of the county commissioners court I have done my best to help the county save money and will continue to do my best to run the county in a safe, business-like manner. I consider it my job to run the county's business in a very safe and sane manner, and I consider it a public trust.

Your vote and influence will be appreciated on November 7, 1972.

The Sterling County 4-H Awards banquet will be held Saturday, October 28, in the community center. At this time, the club members will receive their awards in the various programs, year pins, and be recognized for other activities. Invited guests besides the club members' families include buyers of 4-H club animals at the County Livestock Show and donors of the trophies and awards at the county show.

The grand champion fleece of the American Royal Wool Show in Kansas City was entered by Foster S. Price. The fleece was first place winner in the finewool class of the commercial wool show and was also the champion commercial fleece.

A fleece entered by Frank Price was champion fleece of the Territory Wool Show. It was first place winner in the finewool class of the Territory Show. As champion of the Territory Show, it competed against the champion of the commercial class and the champion fleece of the nine breed classes where the champion commercial fleece entered by Foster won grand champion honors. In addition, Frank also entered the second place finewool territory fleece.

This is the second time that a Price fleece has won grand champion honors at Kansas City. The fleeces had been entered in the 1972 Sonora Wool Show where they won class honors and were brought home for entry at Kansas City. All the fleeces were from Debouillet sheep bred on the Price ranches.

Screw worm cases in the county continue to increase. Thus far, 301 cases have been confirmed at the laboratory in Mission. There have been many more that have not been sent in to the lab for confirmation.

Eradication program officials urge producers to send in samples as often as possible.

While it is recognized that the taking and mailing of the samples does take time and labor, all producers are urged to send in as many as possible. Officials say that this is the only way of locating the trouble spots and may serve as a guide in future planning in the battle against this expensive livestock pest. Vials and mailing tubes are available in the feed store here and the county agent's office.

Americans have an unquenchable hunger for meats—beef, veal, broilers, and turkey. The big increase in meat consumption has come about since 1940.

In 1940, the average American consumed 61.3 pounds of beef and veal. Now, that same American consumes 116 pounds of beef and veal.

The biggest increase in meat consumption has come about in the poultry field, however. The average consumption of broiler meat in 1940 was only two pounds; today, it is 37 pounds. The consumption of turkey has nearly tripled and now stands at 8 pounds per person.

The per capita consumption of pork (excluding lard) has remained nearly the same. In 1940, the average American consumed 73.5 pounds of pork compared to 72.8 pounds in 1971.

Lamb and mutton consumption has been cut in two in the past thirty-one years however. The per capita consumption in 1940 was 6.6 pounds; in 1971 it was only 3.2 pounds.

Two reasons are given for the increase in meat consumption. Earnings and disposable income are at an all-time high in this country and meat is a status food. More housewives are working today in the labor market and making use of convenience foods—meat fits the bill as it can be quickly and easily prepared when the working housewife gets home in the evening.

Nearly $7 Million in Oil -- Gas Production

Sale of Sterling County oil and gas production accounted for $6,814,608 of the county's economic output for 1971, according to a study by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

In producing 1,718,825 barrels of crude oil and 5 billion cu. feet of natural gas, the county ranked 120 in Texas. Value of its crude oil was $6,050,264; natural gas value was $764,344.

The county is among 190 Texas counties with oil and gas production value topping $100,000, although 211 counties produce oil and gas.

Sterling County oil and gas wells made a significant contribution to Texas' share of the nation's energy needs last year, but growing demand is sapping reserves in Texas faster than they can be replaced, Robert A. Buschman, Association president said. As fewer new fields are discovered, due to less drilling, the continuing strong economy and tax base of many Texas counties may now depend on updating Texas oil conservation laws to encourage wider use of new recovery technology, he said.

The Association study showed that Sterling County farmers, ranchers, and other royalty owners received $851,826 as their share of production.

The county's wells generated $278,312 in crude oil production taxes for state government and $57,326 in state taxes on natural gas. Oil and gas producers spent $1,547,010 in drilling 11 wells in the county last year, $1,220,842 of which was lost in drilling 7 dry holes.

Texas Employment Commission figures showed 16 oil and gas industry employees in the county last year, with an annual payroll of $54,856.

WHO MUST FILE SOCIAL SECURITY EARNINGS

Most social security beneficiaries who earned over $1680 in 1970 are required to file a report of their earnings with the Social Security Administration by April 15, 1971. This report is in addition to any Federal or State tax return, and it must be filed with the Social Security Administration, according to J. M. Talbot, social security manager.

Beneficiaries who were 72 years old in all months of last year are not required to file the annual report of earnings. Disabled beneficiaries should report immediately if they become self-employed or take a job. All other beneficiaries, including families of disabled persons, are under the retirement test and must report their earnings annually.

The purpose of social security benefits is to replace earnings lost due to retirement, death, or disability. If an individual continues to earn a substantial amount — $1680 or more — some adjustment is made in the amount of his benefits. One dollar for every two dollars earned between $1680 and $2880 is withheld. If a individual earns over $2880, he gives up a dollar for each dollar earned over $2880 regardless of the amount of yearly earnings. A beneficiary is entitled to his full social security check for any month in which he does not earn over $140 and is not self-employed. The annual report will allow us to determine whether or not additional benefits are payable.

For more information, contact the Social Security Office at 3000 West Harris Avenue (P.O. Box 3808) in San Angelo, Texas, or see the representative when he is in our area. Persons who are unable to meet with him are encouraged to call the office in San Angelo. The telephone number is 949-4608.

Rich Anderson is sure Texas doesn't need another Sharpstown scandal.

Rich Anderson believes the Sharpstown stock scandal occurred because elected state representatives allowed it to occur. These were men who, for reasons of favor, fear or carelessness, allowed their votes to be controlled by powerful committee chairmen and special interest groups.

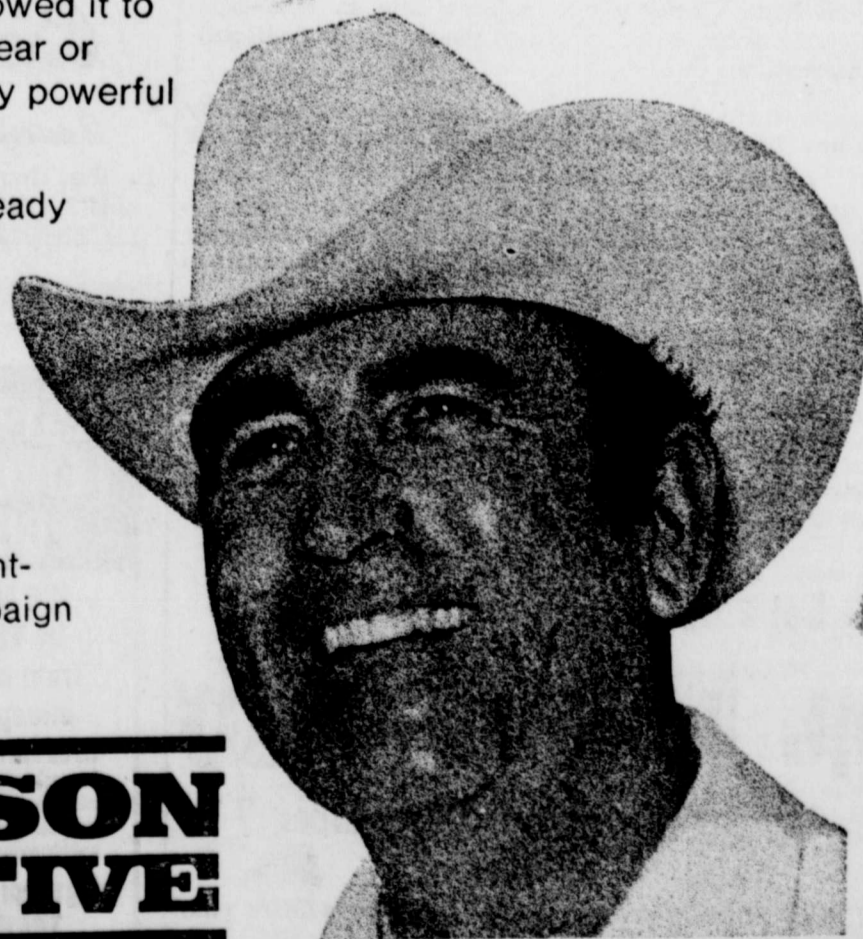

In many sections of the state Texas voters have already determined to change the way the state's being run from Austin. "Power politics" and "power politicians" hopefully have had their day.

What about this district?

Rich Anderson believes this newly created district needs a strong new voice—not a hollow remnant from the past. Rich Anderson intends to be a straight-forward, independent representative. His only campaign promise is to be a representative you'll be proud of.

Let's Finish the Job

Last spring Texas voted to clean out those implicated in the Sharpstown scandal.

But there's one still around, State Treasurer Jesse James.

The State Auditor's Report shows that Jesse James, the State Treasurer, parked more than $10 million in the Sharpstown Bank. James left $4 million idle in a Sharpstown checking account for over two years, earning absolutely no interest.

The taxpayers of Texas, through state deposits placed by Jesse James, bankrolled the wheeling and dealing of Frank Sharp.

State Rep. Maurice Angly of Austin was one of the original small group of legislators who stood firm last year and spoke out for a full investigation of the Sharpstown case.

Rep. Angly needs your help to finish the job. He's running a hard race to clean up the State Treasury.

Angly's campaign pledges are simple: "I will never play favorites. I will put excess state funds to work earning maximum interest consistent with sound business practices. I will run the treasurer's office honestly and efficiently as a public trust for the taxpayers of Texas."

Let's finish the job. Vote for

Social Security Tips

"Did you know that if you operate any type of agricultural business, the hired workers you have in that business may be covered by social security?" J. M. Talbot, social security manager, asks.

Any employee who works and earns $150 or more for one employer during any year or works at least 20 days on a time basis for an agriculture business, is covered by social security. Even part-time employees could meet the earnings or work test. You, as their employer, would be liable to withhold social security tax from the employee's check, match that tax yourself, and report the earnings at the end of the year.

Worried about proving your age? J. M. Talbot, social security manager, said the people at your social security office may be able to help you make your claim. There are some things you can do ahead of time. If you were born in a state that kept birth records when you were born, write for your birth certificate. If the state where you were born wasn't keeping birth records at the time, the next best thing is a baptismal record.

If you were baptized before age 5, you'll be asked to find out if there is a record. If there is, it is all the proof of your age you'll need.

If you have no birth or baptismal record, the people working in the social security office will be happy to suggest some other possibilities. Some examples are an old family Bible, school records, and federal census records.

You may not recall now, but when you bought your marriage license you gave your age. You may also have some old insurance policies about the house. The list of proofs to try is quite long. When you file your claim, it helps if you have already fund the oldest thing you can that shows your age. Usually, the older the record the better it is for proving your age. It will help the people at the social security office pay your benefits sooner if you think ahead on your age.

Many times a telephone call before you visit the social security office will help. You may be able to file your claim by phone. Contact the Social Security Office at 3000 West Harris Avenue (P. O. Box 3808) in San Angelo, Texas, or see the representative when he is in your area. Persons who are unable to meet with him are encouraged to call the office in San Angelo at 949-4608.

NEWS OF EDUCATION

College Students: Bored of Education?

To many concerned parents, today's college students seem much less impressed with the importance of their education than were students of years ago. Sometimes, the students even seem bored.

But educators and psychologists point out—seriously, yet sometimes with a smile—that many college students today are learning far more at school than their parents ever did.

Today education is different. Not only do new teaching methods make learning easier and lots more effective, but also college is seen as a place for social—as well as academic—instruction.

Which is as it should be, when you consider that college is a mini-model of the tough outside world students will soon enough have to cope with and function in. And adjusting properly to that world is just as important and just as difficult as any course a school has to offer.

That's why so many students are getting involved with the running of their schools. The actuality of practical campus politics is a good deal more enlightening and instructive than classroom theories.

That's also why students seem to take their competitive sports more seriously than ever before. Trying to do one's best is very much a part of the outside world and these kids are very much aware of it. They play hard and work hard at keeping themselves fit with effective medications like Tinactin cream; solution and powder, which fight most fungus to kill and help prevent athlete's foot, that old college locker room nemesis.

Unfortunately, these kids—the good kids who make up the majority of this nation's student body—rarely make news on radio or TV. But their abilities and straight thinking have not gone unnoticed.

Each year, more and more of these grade-A students are being recruited by business and industry before graduation.

Which would indicate that they were far from bored with their college education.
