Hospital-Nursing Home Board Reviews Year

The Sterling County Hospital and Nursing Home board of directors met and elected officers for 1974 Tuesday evening.

They reviewed figures showing the operation of the institution for the past year.

Dr. Wm. J. Swann was reelected chief of staff. F. S. Price was named chairman of the board and Finis Westbrook was elected vice chairman. H. L. Hildebrand was elected secretary. E. L. Bailey was excused — as he is in a Temple hospital for treatment. Worth Durham is the outgoing chairman.

Also present at the board meeting and dinner were county judge Roland Lowe and county commissioner Cledis Smith, Danny Stewart, and Bill Bynum. Also hospital administrator Mrs. Mildred Emery and Jack Douthit.

Figures showing the year's activities were handed out by Mrs. Emery. It cost $215,562.11 to run the combined institutions in 1972 and that figure was $216,091.81 in 1973. The biggest cost factor is salaries — which was $131,534.67 in 1972 and was $141,947.10 in 1973.

The largest item of income is for rooms—which was $31,758.00 in 1972 and $28,500.00 in 1973.

Groceries for the institution in 1972 were only $18,056.23 and had jumped to $23,069.02 last year (1973).

The nursing home pays its way better than the hospital. Slightly higher room rates for the hospital were put into effect January 1, 1974.

Consensus of opinion is that the hospital and home is a well-run and operated institution and a credit to the county and area.

Sterling Stock Show Set for January 21

The 1974 Sterling County Livestock Show will be held Monday, January 21 in the show barn in Sterling City. This year's show will include classes for finewool lambs, finewool crossbred lambs, medium wool lambs, registered Rambouillets, registered Delaines, Hereford steers, crossbred steers, and market pigs.

A time for the judging has not been set at this time; originally the time was set for 8:00 a.m. but because of the change to Daylight Saving Time, it may be moved to another hour. This will be decided in the next few days. If this time is changed, the sale time will also be changed.

Show superintendent this year is Raymond Thomas Foster. Assistant superintendent is Pat Foster. Auctioneer this year will be Chesley McDonald. Sales clerks again are Worth Durham, Charles Probandt, James Thompson, and Hugh Lackey.

City 1% Sales Tax Vote Here Tuesday

LIONS CLUB

Fred Igo, FFA sponsor, and Arthur Barlemann, Jr., 4-H Club sponsor, told the Lions Club members Wednesday about the spring stock show circuit now beginning. Barlemann also told of a youth's food show contest scheduled for January 9.

Chesley McDonald, program committee chairman, told of plans for lining up coming programs.

Jim Cantrell plugged the 1% city sales tax which will benefit the city park facilities and keeping the city streets in repair. He said almost every city anywhere had the 1% sales tax and if Sterling City had it, passers through would help by paying it here. He urged all members to support the 1% tax.

XMAS DECORATIONS TO BE TAKEN DOWN

Weather permitting, the town's Christmas decorations will be taken down today. Work will start at 1 p.m. and volunteer helpers are needed. The W.T.U. pickup will be available if it was said. The fixtures will be stored in the old depot this time. Any workers will be appreciated — and needed.

Collin Douthit was a guest. The prize went to Jim Cantrell.

Rosson Not to Run For Reelection

Renal B. Rosson announced today that he would not be a candidate for the office of State Representative of the Sixty-Third Legislative District for the next term. Representative Rosson, serving in his eighth term, will be continuing in office until the present term expires at the end of December of 1974.

In making the announcement, Representative Rosson states: Serving as State Representative for sixteen years has been a rewarding experience in my life. I have enjoyed associations with people throughout the various counties in West Texas since my district has changed to include different counties at different times. These associations have led to friendships and pleasant memories for myself and for my family. People have been kind to me by electing me to the office and by encouraging me in my efforts to serve effectively. I appreciate the confidence citizens have placed in me through the past years. I shall continue to serve actively during the coming year. I intend to give full time and my best efforts in the important Constitutional Convention which convenes in January. Not facing a political campaign will be an advantage in giving my time to be devoted to all matters related to legislation. While I am in office, I will continue to serve the district in a responsible way for the best interests of our area and the future of the State of Texas. (signed) Renal B. Rosson

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith of Las Vegas, N. M. have been here visiting her mother, Mrs. Rufus Foster, and other relatives.

A special sales tax vote will be held here next Tuesday, January 15 in the city hall. Up for a vote is the 1% city sales tax. The state already has a 4% state sales tax everywhere and any city can add 1% which will revert to the city each quarter as the merchants pay it in to the state comptroller.

Locally the city plans to apply the money to help at the ball park and on the city streets — it was said.

Very few cities are left in the state now without the 1% tax. All the surrounding towns and cities — San Angelo, Big Spring, Robert Lee, Midland — have the 1% tax and whenever Sterling residents buy in those places — they pay the tax.

Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Crisp Williams

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Williams of Sterling City and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Matthews of San Angelo. Mrs. Mattie Meyer of Sterling City is a great grandmother.

John Brock received his ribbons from the West Texas Regional Pecan Show held in Odessa in mid-December. Five varieties of pecans raised by John were entered in the show by reason of their placing at the Trans Pecos Pecan Show in Rankin.

John earned one blue ribbon, one red ribbon, and one white ribbon in the Regional Show. His first place ribbon came on a John Garner entry. His entry in the Mahan class won him a red ribbon. The white ribbon was awarded to his entry in the variety seedling class—this means no one knows what variety it actually is.

The three ribbon winning entries will be entered in the State Pecan Show to be held in El Paso, July 9-11, 1974.

Excellent meeting facilities on the campus of Texas A&M University have made possible the combination of all animal and forage production shortcourses into one. Formerly, shortcourses for beef cattle, swine, dairy cattle, horses, and forage were held at different times.

The completion and opening of the new J. Earl Rudder Continuing Education Center provides ample meeting facilities for this type group now. The Texas Animal Agriculture Conference will be held January 21, 22, 23, 1974 in the new center.

The five areas—beef cattle, dairy cattle, swine, horses, and forage production—courses will be arranged so that those attending can hear the ones of their choice. Full information on the shortcourses is available in the county Extension agent's office.

The FARMER'S TAX GUIDE, 1974 EDITION, for use in preparing the 1973 income tax returns is now available. Anyone desiring a copy of the guide can have one by coming by or calling the county Extension agent's office.

The guide provides information on the preparation of farm income tax returns, self employment tax, and social security. Different methods to achieve the best way of handling the many items associated with an agricultural operation are illustrated in the guide.

New brucellosis regulations become effective in Texas on January 15, 1974. Texas was the last state in the union to qualify as a Modified-Certified area. The new regulations will move the state toward the brucellosis free designation which has already been granted thirty-one states.

The new program is designed to (1) locate infection; (2) contain the infection, and (3) assist the owner of infected herds to eliminate the disease. This will be accomplished through ring testing of dairy herds, market cattle testing of all breeding cattle going to slaughter, and

FOOD FOR THOUGHT THE WAY IT WORKS?

Editor, The Wall Street Journal:

A familiar pattern of events has occurred in American politics, economics and government these last four decades.

First, the need for legislation and regulation is found by some do-gooder or crusader.

Second, a government bureau is established to regulate and its budget is steadily increased.

Third, the regulated industry soon experiences corruption, scarcities or shortages.

Fourth, a crisis develops and the same government that created the problem now rushes forth with a solution.

The solution, of course, is still more regulation and more government.

Every crisis always results in crisis legislation. The result is that the politicians at the top get more power and the naive, gullible citizens at the bottom get less freedom, less for their money in the marketplace and more taxes.
