The H.L. Hildebrands Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hildebrand were honored on their golden wedding anniversary, June 26, at a morning coffee in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S.K. Horwood, their daughter and son in law. Relatives of the couple and the living attendants at the wedding were in the houseparty.

A reception was held the evening of the 26th at the River Club in San Angelo. Guests from Dallas, Temple, Palestine, San Angelo and area cities were present for both the coffee and the reception.

They were married in Sterling City on June 26, 1924 in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Foster, pioneer settlers of Sterling County. Performing the ceremony was the Methodist elder J.T. King. The attendants at the ceremony were Mrs. Fowler McEntire, Mrs. Guy Dayvault, Mrs. Fred Hambricht, Mrs. Dick Criddle, Mrs. Ross Gammon and Mrs. Robert Giles Thomas.

Mr. Hildebrand is currently president of The First National Bank of Sterling City, on the Board of Governors of Scott & White Hospital in Temple, Vice Chairman of the Board of the American National Bank and Trust Company in Dallas and on the Board of Directors of the Sterling County Hospital.

Prominent in the ranching industry of West Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Hildebrand are active in the local Methodist Church, where Mrs. Hildebrand was a teacher for many years in the nursery and kindergarten department, a member of the D. A.R. and a long time member of the Wimodausis Club of Sterling City.

City Sales Tax

The city sales tax of 1c will be collected in Sterling after the first of July, reminds city secretary Mrs. Horace Donalson. A total sales tax of 5c on the dollar will be collected after that date instead of 4c. The voters of Sterling approved such a sales tax back in January.

The merchants and all who collect such sales taxes are hereby reminded to go up to the 5c on the dollar sale July 1. The sales taxes will be remitted to the state comptroller as usual and the 1c will be returned to the city by the state.

New Baptist Pastor Here

The Rev. Traguott Vogel, First Baptist Church pastor, has settled in, along with his family, from Bitburg, Germany. He came after a call by the Baptist Church here earlier, having friends in America, who helped in many ways.

The Vogels have four children, Emanuel 17, Michael 16, Dolores 12 and Joanna 8. He had been serving as pastor of an American Baptist Church in Bitburg, Germany, attended mostly by air force personnel.

He is a graduate of German Baptist Seminary and Bible College of Wales. All of the family speak fluent English as well as German.

Sterling is fortunate to have the Vogels as new members of the community.

Welcome.

New Methodist Pastor Here

The Rev. Roy H. Wold, the new pastor of the United Methodist Church here, has arrived, and is moved in. He serves the local church and the Water Valley Methodist Church. His wife, the Rev. Constance B. Wold, is serving the Methodist churches (as pastor at Carlsbad and Lake View. They were on the new jobs last Sunday.

The Rev. Wold replaces Rev. Harold Orr, who went to the Big Lake Methodist Church from here.

The Wolds have three sons—Capt. H. L. Moore, stationed with Air Forces in Rochester, New York; Robert F. Moore of San Antonio; and Timothy Michael Wold, a graduate student at the University of Texas in Austin. The couple have six grandchildren.

Welcome.

Directions for Packing and Shipping Heads from Suspected Rabid Animals to the Laboratory

Increasing difficulty to confirm a diagnosis of rabies is being experienced with the submission of animal heads for rabies examination when shipment by air takes as long as four days between shipping date and receipt. If at all possible, we recommend to those who use the State Department of Health laboratory service in Austin, that they USE THE VARIOUS BUS COMPANIES. Pack the animal head in a leakproof plastic bag. Enclose a second leak-proof plastic bag filled with ice or use water frozen in plastic bottles. An outside container of sturdy construction (styrofoam serves nicely and is inexpensive) must be used. Also, use packing material to absorb water in the event of leakage. The box should be securely taped down and marked, KEEP UPRIGHT—PLEASE. A note to telephone the Health Department Laboratory (454-3781 Ext. 313) on arrival, should be prominently displayed.

The Lowell Ryans of Corpus Christi were up for the Hildebrands golden wedding observance this week.

NOTICE — All women who would be interested in playing baseball this summer meet at the home of Mrs. Terry (Denise) Harris next Monday at 2 p.m. and help get organized.

Melvin Foster, who has been deputy sheriff for several years, is resigning that spot on the first of July.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK

Due to the 4th of July holiday next week and due to the fact that I have not had a vacation week off this summer and due to the fact that I need to work out a lot of job printing that is due out and do a little cleaning up and straightening up at the shop and due to the fact that the entire staff needs a vacation at this point in time—we will not put out a paper next week.

Ordinarily, we would skip a paper in June or July and take a trip somewhere, this year we have not found time for such—so we will take off a week anyway (with your permission.) We have a dental date next Tuesday, the holiday will cut in to our work week and it seems the best time now to knock off for a week. Any or all news of next week will be held over for the NXET issue and we will (hopefully) get caught up on some long due out job printing. Jobs got stacked up on us the past two months and we cannot seem to get caught up.

Any way, a skip week will save on newsprint, and help out to relieve the shortage and keep the mail service from getting clogged up.

8-BALL

Our custom of taking off two weeks a year for vacations is one that is followed by many small businesses. We do break our two weeks up, taking one in the summer and one in the winter. Some businesses close for an entire month and give all their employees off. THAT solves the vacation problem nicely. That is if the business can stand it.

8-BALL

An armadillo is cultivating my front and back yards nightly. He really does a good job, but I would kinda like to point out the places that need cultivating to the varmint. So far, I have had no understanding with him about the places needing the digging around. He just digs where he will. Maybe I will catch him sometime and show him a thing or two.

Pet Rabies Shots Here Next Monday

The annual rabies shots for pets clinic will be held on Monday, July 1 between the hours of 4:00 P.M. and 5:30 P.M. according to Arthur Barlemann, Jr. County Extension Agent. Dr. Percy R. Turner, veterinarian of Water Valley will be present to give all pets the shots at that time on the west side of the courthouse lawn.

The shots are good for one year so all pets that were given the shots last year during the annual clinic need to have them again. These inoculations are the only means of protecting an animal from rabies.

There have been several confirmed cases of rabies in the county recently and some pets as well as livestock have been lost to the disease. The confirmed cases have been in foxes, skunks, and calves with some of them on the outskirts of town. Once the disease becomes active in an animal, or person either, there is no treatment. Recovery is nearly unknown except in very rare cases and even then, there have been permanent after effects.

For peace of mind and protection, you are urged to protect you pets with the shots. The cost, like everything else, has gone up and will be $4 per animal this year. Receipts and tags will be furnished for all pets.

BAPTIST VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL IN JULY

The First Baptist Church here will hold their Vacation Bible School July 15-19. Classes will be from 9:30 to 11:30 each day, said Mrs. Troy Templin.

Commencement exercises for the school will be on Friday evening at 7:30 (July 19.)

Behind the 8-Ball

Friends from far and near gathered to help the H.L. Hildebrands observe their golden or fiftieth wedding anniversary here Wednesday. Old friends, business friends, friends who were present at the wedding in 1924 all came to be with the celebrating couple and family.

Leading active, travelling and meaningful lives, the Hildebrands are interested in their family, their community, civic activities, and life in general. They have friends all over, and always will.

Many more happy anniversaries to the couple.

8-BALL

This is a time of change and inflation and worry. Prices are going sky high and inflation is perhaps the biggest problem facing America today. If we don't solve that one the others really don't matter so it is said. With prices reaching for the sky, money getting worth less—day by day, what really counts anymore?

Friendships, morality, and the simpler pleasures of life are taking on new meaning. They mean more. Wealth is getting somewhat relegated to the back-ground. (Oh, I still like it) but a new set of values for the people is showing up and maybe it is good.

Harry Emerson Fosdick says in a song, that people are getting rich in things and poor in soul.

8-BALL

With prices of everything going up (except maybe farm—and livestock products) somebody or group is going to get hurt. We've got to go back to the old law of supply and demand and let prices be competitive, and let the markets find their own and proper level.

High prices will come down when people won't buy because prices are too high.

Spotlight on HEALTH

PROFILE OF A COLD VICTIM

What are your chances of catching cold? According to a booklet on the subject, they're especially good if you're female, live in a large city in the western or north-eastern part of the U.S., and are the mother of a child under 6 years of age. Young children are the greatest cold-spreaders. Your chances are further enhanced if you're going through a period of stress and strain. "Contentment preserves one even from catching a cold," the great philosopher, Nietzsche once said.

The booklet, which discusses the common cold, is distributed by Winthrop Laboratories, the makers of Neo-Synephrine nose drops and nasal spray that are widely used in the U.S. and abroad.

Keeping up one's resistance helps to avoid the common cold, according to the publication, which advises getting sufficient fresh air and exercise, well-balanced meals, and as much sleep as possible in a well-ventilated bedroom. In cold weather areas, an extra hour a night is recommended.

Early stages of the common cold are the most contagious. Every sneeze fills the air with thousands of virus-laden droplets. To help prevent spreading a cold to the rest of the family, to friends and to co-workers, everyone should have his own glass, cup, silverware and towels. Hands should be washed thoroughly and often, preferably with a liquid antibacterial skin cleanser. pHisoHex is the one that is used in most U.S. hospitals to help prevent spread of infections. Particularly during the cold season, it is wise to keep a handwashing preparation in the kitchen, as well as in the bathroom.

Your chances of catching a cold will be reduced if precautions are taken. However, the Winthrop booklet also states that it is not completely possible to avoid a cold. Just breathing the air that someone with a cold has merely talked into offers the possibility of infecting a healthy person.

NEWS OF ECOLOGY

ALUMINUM STRETCHES ENERGY RESOURCES

Now that pollution cleanup is underway, environmental concern seems to be shifting to energy supply. Some ecologists worry about America's accelerating use of fuels — coal, oil, gas and uranium.

These basic sources of energy, burned directly or transformed into electricity, propel all vehicles, heat and cool our homes, run appliances, cook and refrigerate foods and power our industries.

The use of aluminum, an environmentally thrifty metal, stretches fuels and energy, the people at Reynolds Aluminum point out.

"Aluminum does not deteriorate and is easily recycled with little expenditure of energy," said Dr. Robert F. Testin, director of environmental planning for Reynolds. "That makes it an energy bank that can be drawn upon again and again. When long-lasting aluminum products are finally discarded, melting them down for refashioning into new products takes less than 5 per cent of the energy used to make the aluminum originally."

Because it is so light — only one-third the weight of steel, copper or brass — aluminum provides a greater quantity of material per ton. "This phenomenon stretches the energy used in making aluminum products, as a ton of aluminum yields two to three times more items than are obtained from a ton of other materials," according to Dr. Earl E. Patterson, who heads up Reynolds metallurgical research.

An example of Dr. Patterson's point is beer and soft drink containers. A ton of steel produces 15,400 steel cans, and a ton of glass makes 5,000 bottles, but a ton of aluminum results in 32,680 all-aluminum cans.

An article in the Reynolds magazine reveals many other ways aluminum conserves energy.

Transportation of all kinds consumes 30 per cent of America's energy supply. The light metal cuts fuel consumption in all kinds of vehicles — aluminum highway trucks, automobiles with their aluminum parts, aluminum railroad cars, aluminum boats and ships with aluminum superstructures. The 1973 autos — average about 78 pounds of aluminum per car.

In heating and air conditioning, which take 27 per cent of the energy supply, aluminum insulation and ducts, because of their high heat reflectivity, cut fuel consumption.

Durable aluminum siding, windows and other construction items greatly reduce use of resources and energy in maintenance, repair and replacement. The article points out that aluminum will not rot or warp, and is immune to red rust, mildew and termites.

In cooking, the rapid heat conductivity of aluminum pots and pans — six times faster than steel, for example — conserves electricity and gas. In the refrigerator, foods in aluminum foil chill or freeze quicker than when wrapped in paper or plastic film, saving electricity.

The public depends on aluminum electrical cable for low-cost delivery of electricity to the home. Replacing expensive copper, aluminum cable has lowered every body's electrical bills.
