AROUND THE COUNTY

ARTHUR BARLEMANN, JR. COUNTY AGENT

If you haven't already done so, there is still time to spray your fruit and nut trees for the control of scale. This is a tiny pest that attacks these trees and can eventually cause the loss of the tree. The little insect is harbored under a dirty whitish shell and sucks the sap and vitality from the tree. Quite a few trees around here show evidence of scale.

The recommended treatment is three and one-half gallons of an oil emulsion in one hundred gallons of water. The entire scaffold of the tree—trunk and branches—should be well covered with the spray. It should be applied while the tree is dormant as the oil can harm the tender buds when they begin to put forth.

Two Sterling County bred steers placed in the Fort Worth show last weekend. Fed by 4-H Club members, the steers were a Santa Gertrudis-Beefmaster cross owned by Greg Davis, was shown in the American Cross Class on Friday. It placed fifteenth in the lightweight class. Breeder of the steer was I. W. Terry. The steer sold in the auction on Tuesday morning of this week for 44c per pound. Beverly Miller and Deborah stayed over to take the steers through the auction but were unable to get the buyers name.

Deborah's Hereford placed twentieth in the middleweight class on Saturday morning. Breeder of the steer was Maggie and Ruth Reynolds. Deborah's steer sold for 44c per pound and the buyer was the Dairy Queen of Midland.

Beverly says the buyer from Dairy Queen was sitting next to her at the sale and said the chain had a new policy of each store in the state buying one steer at one of the shows. He found out Sterling City's location from her, bought the steer and charged it to the Midland store.

Also, in judging at Ft. Worth over the weekend, Amy, Becky and Wesley Hodges showed their Ramboulllets in the Open Sheep show there. Paula and Delmar Radde Jr. also showed in the Open Sheep show in the Delaine division. Both groups placed very well but unfortunately, I do not have their placings at this time.

Both groups of breeding sheep will be shown again this Saturday morning but in the Junior Show. Also, Amy, Becky, Wesley, Paula and Reed Stewart will be showing market lambs on Friday morning.

Also participating in the Fort Worth Show, two club members showed Hereford heifers in the Junior Breeding Beef Heifer Class last Sunday afternoon. Lonnie Horwood showed his heifer bred by Weldon Edwards of Clyde, to an eighth place in winter calf class, heifers born in November-December 1974.

Lenard Horwood's heifer won ninth place in the Senior Calf Class, heifers born in September-October 1974. She was also bred by Weldon Edwards. All of the Junior Hereford heifer classes were deep in quality with heifers that would not have hurt anyone's herd. Several of the classes had over 50 animals in them.

Mohair producers are reminded of the mohair referendum to be held on Tuesday, February 10. Another article in this issue of the paper gives the details on the local voting place.

Mohair Referendum February 10

Courthouse To Be Polling Place in Sterling County

The Sterling County Courthouse will be the official polling place for mohair producers of Sterling County. Mrs. Billy Joe Blair will be the official for the hallooting. Voting hours will be from 7:00 A. M. to 7:00 P. M. Tuesday, February 10.

From 7:00 A.M. until noon producers may pick up their ballot and vote in the sheriff's office where Mrs. Blair will be located. After noon, she will be located in the justice of the peace office and producers may get their ballot and vote there until 7:00 P. M.

All ballots must be signed by the producer to be valid. One item on the ballot, Verification of Production, is for certification that the voter is a bona-fide producer of mohair and that he or she sold mohair in the 1975 production year. As an alternate, the voter can certify eligibility to vote by stipulating that he or she is a bona-fide producer and would be affected by the assessment should the referendum pass.

Mohair producers will vote for or against the proposition to assess themselves an amount not to exceed 2 1/2c per pound at the point of the first sale to finance programs of education and advertising as well as promotion of mohair. In addition, they will vote for one person to represent this district, District 8, on the board to administer the program. Candidates are David Bratton of Brady and Austin Mills-paugh of San Angelo. In addition producers will vote for three of the seven who are candidates for director at large. The seven candidates are: Sid Harkins of Sanderson; C. T. Helekamp II of Junction; James T. Hunt of Sonora; Joe L. Jackson of Ranger; W. M. McKinzie of Comanche; Dallas Miller of Brady and David Winters of Del Rio.

Special 5th Sunday at Methodist Church

Special services are being planned for the First United Methodist Church on the 5th Sunday, February 29. This date (coming on a Sunday) will not be repeated until 2004.

As a bicentennial project of the church, it is hoped that a homecoming day for former members and pastors can be realized. Besides the morning worship there will be historic displays, lunch, fun and fellowship.

A time capsule will be started on this date in which church histories, family and personal mementoes, pictorial directories, etc. will be sealed on Sunday, July 4 and buried, to be opened on the fifth Sunday in February of 2004.

Behind the 8-Ball

By the editor.

High and dry. Or something. The only thing that just might be good from this long winter drouth is that the bitterweeds can not get a start. But that is too high a price to pay for such a long drouth.

We had such a winter in 1950 and then several more followed and gave us the drouth of the early fifties.

It just may take a Democratic Administration to change this weather pattern.

8-BALL

Not too many persons filed for the district or state races in and around here. Or at least I do not know about it if they did.

Incumbent Mike Ezzell of this legislative district drew a last minute opponent from his home town of Snyder. Pete Snelson is not up for election this year. I understand that someone is coming out for district attorney against the present appointee. I do not get such filings here, as they have to file with the State Democratic Committee in Austin. Later their names are filed with us for placing on the ballot.

8-BALL

I see where Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs are showing in a movie in San Angelo. It has been re-released, I guess.

I remember one time hearing Bob Burns on his radio program saying his drinking uncle went to the movies the night before; and asked as to what he saw—he said he saw The Snow White Twins and the Fourteen Dwarfs.

8-BALL

The San Angelo Press Club is presenting their Gridiron Banquet and 'roasting' of elected officials of San Angelo, Tom Green County and the district—on Saturday night, February 21. The ROAST will be held at the La Quinta Motel on the loop. At the last club meeting I attended, it was said that the fee or charge for the steak dinner and the show would be $10 a person. Profits would go towards a scholarship fund for journalism students at ASU or somewhere.

Am not sure what old Sam Pendergrast has cooked up for the roasting, but I did hear of a number of the skits or spoofs, and I plan to go and enjoy it. It should be good.

8-BALL

Democratic hopeful presidential candidate Jimmy Carter of Georgia (former governor of that state) seemingly has a way of winning support. He had a lot of young people working for him to get his list of delegates on the ballot in May. They got enough signatures to get his delegates on the ballots in every district, it seems.

He seems to be a front runner so far. Bentzen also got enough signatures to have his name on the ballot all over the state.

Reagan and Ford will have their electors or delegates on most of the Republican ballots.

Looks to me like that guy,

Mike Ezzell for Reelection

Michael H. Ezzell of Snyder, announced last week that he would be a candidate for reelection to the office of State Representative from the 63rd Legislative District. Sterling is one of the counties in the district.

Mike won out in a runoff in the Democratic Primary in 1974 and then beat Rich Anderson in the general election. Anderson ran on the Republican ticket.

Mike stressed that he would continue to work hard for the district if reelected.

P.T.A. NEXT MONDAY

Chesley McDonald is to be the main speaker when the Sterling City P.T.A. meets at 3:15 in the school auditorium, February 9.

There will be a special Founders Day program honoring the past presidents of the local organization.

Projects voted on at the last meeting will be presented.

New officers for next year will be elected during the business hour.

Noratadata Club

The Noradata Club members met in the home of Mrs. Foster S. Price last week. A dinner plate was served.

Appearing on the program were Mrs. Danny Stewart and Mrs. Dayton Barrett.

Members present were Mrs. Reynolds Foster, Mrs. Chesley McDonald, Mrs. Danny Stewart, Mrs. Martin Reed, Mrs. D. Kirk Hopkins, Mrs. Bill Brooks, Mrs. Bill Watts, Mrs. Finis Westbrook, Mrs. Dayton Barrett, Mrs. Hubert Williams, and Mrs. J. I. Cope.

Mrs. Jack Peel was a guest.

In bridge high score was made by Mrs. Westbrook, low by Mrs. Watts, and table cuts went to Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Reed.

F.H.A. BAKE SALE SET

On Valentine Day (Feb. 14.) at 9 a.m. there will be a bake sale in front of the post office. The F.H.A. members will appreciate your coming and buying cakes from us, in order to purchase dining room furniture for the home ec department.

Carol Jones, Reporter

Moynihan would be good presidential timber for the Republicans at some time in the future. Or sooner.

8-BALL

It has been said that the stock market generally leads the country by at least six months, whether by falling when a depression is coming on, or rising when good times are ahead. Well, maybe good times are just six months ahead of us.

But the stock market can do some crazy things, sometimes backwards and sometimes sideways.

8-BALL

It is a wonder that there has not been more grass fires this winter than has been. The grass and broomweeds are so high and dry. And the new cars and pick ups are equipped with a sort of catalyst (or something) to eat up all the pollution that comes out of tail pipes, that it (or they) get red hot. In driving over a pasture, off the road way, it can be hazardous.

8-BALL

We see in the paper where Jeff Copeland, outstanding Eagle backfield man, has signed up with the Texas Tech Red Raiders for football next year. Jeff will make an outstanding back for the Raiders and I am looking forward to watching him play in the coming years.

Oklahoma! Musical at MCT

OKLAHOMA, that great and joyous classic of the American musical stage, opened on January 30th, ushering in the thirtieth anniversary season at Midland Community Theatre.

It's a good thing to see OKLAHOMA every now and then to keep a firm hold on standards. So much has happened in and out of the theatre since it was first produced on Broadway in 1943 you may have forgotten just how rapturous it is—wrote Brooks Atkinson in the New York Times.

The fabulous musical, based on the play GREEN GROW THE LILACS, by Lynn Riggs, first brought together the team of Rodgers and Hammerstein and catapulted them into top place in American theatre. OKLAHOMA is still as sparkling and fresh as when it burst upon a surprised New York audience in March 1943, and completely revolutionized musical comedy in world theatre.

MCT's first production of OKLAHOMA in 1958 opened the present theatre building to full houses every night, breaking all records. From the 1958 cast Marg Samples and Bill Shaner are performing in the 1976 production, and Paul Luvrty, musical director and orchestra conductor today, was at one of the two pianos comprising the 1958 orchestra. Art Cole is again director and designer of the show.

Heading the cast for the current production are Louis Kluck of Odessa as Curly, the ardent and optimistic cowboy, and Sharon Hyde as the lovely Laurey, object of his affections. Virginia Scott will play Ado Annie, the girl who 'cain't say no' to her suitor, Will Parker, played by Bob Holmes. Erich Evered will appear as the menacing farmhand, Jud Fry, and Bill Shaner will be seen as Ali Hakim, the comically sly Persian peddler. Marg Samples will once again portray Aunt Eller. Other important roles have been assigned to Loree Fitz-Gerald, Louis Pare and Doug Brown. A dance corps of seventeen under the choreography of Cherry Jones, and a singing chorus of fifteen complete the company.

Performances are scheduled at Midland Community Theatre on January 30 and 31, February 5, 6, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 18, 19, 20, and 21. Curtain times are 8 o'clock on week nights 8:30 on Friday and Saturday nights and 2:30 for Sunday matinee. Box office prices to non-members are $4 and $5. Memberships are now available at MCT for the six productions scheduled during 1976, representing a saving of over 50%.

Make reservations by phone or mail now to see the most imaginative, most popular musical show in American history. What a great way to start celebrating America's Bicentennial.

1976-77 Texas Almanac Out

The American Revolution of 1776 set in motion events that led to the colonization of Texas and eventually to its own struggle for self-government, notes the new 1976-77 edition of the Texas Almanac, published by A.H. Belo Corporation, publishers of The Dallas Morning News.

Those historic events affecting Texans have been traced in an article written especially for the Texas Almanac by the late R. Henderson Shuffler, editor, historian and, at the time of his death in the summer of 1975, executive director of the Institute of Texas Cultures at San Antonio.

What we call the American Revolution was simply the first stage of the revolution of the Americas, Shuffler wrote. Texas was affected directly by the American Revolution and the course of its history for centuries to come was shaped by the outcome.

Also in the Almanac's Bicentennial section, Sam Kinch Sr., chairman of the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission of Texas, tells of the American Bicentennial in Texas. A commission listing of Texas events during the bicentennial year is included.

The new edition also contains a special section on Gardening in Texas prepared by specialists of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. It is a guide for planting vegetables, fruit and nut trees and ornamentals in all sections of the state.

The LBJ Hill Country—written by Art and Elise Kovert, publishers of the Fredericksburg Standard, presents a description of the home of the late Lyndon B. Johnson, 36th President of the United States.

Nowhere else in this land is a place where, within a distance of a few miles, the story of an American President can be retraced through visiting the settlement of his grandparents, the birthplace, boyhood home, his White House away from Washington, and his ranch where he lived in retirement and where he died and is buried, they wrote.

Other special features of the new Almanac include a history of the Texas Railroad Commission, the latest U.S. Census on manufacturing, wholesale and retail trade, the service industries and transportation in Texas, an account of the 10 Travel Trails of Texas, and a history of Texas A&M University observing its 100th anniversary in 1976.

Included also are data on election results, listings of county, municipal and state officials, appointive boards and commissions, officials of state and regional civic and trade organizations, and sections on agriculture, manufacturing, transportation and government.

Each Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area, the urban concentrations in which most Texans live, has an editorial page devoted to it.

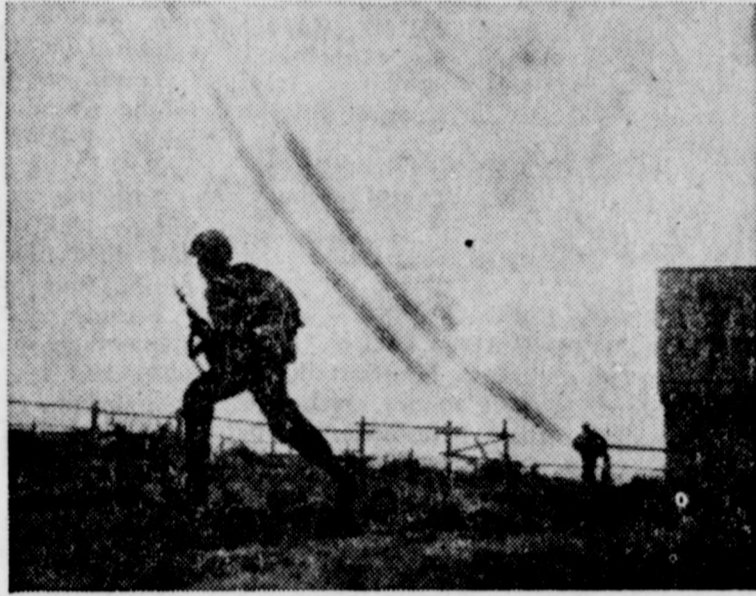

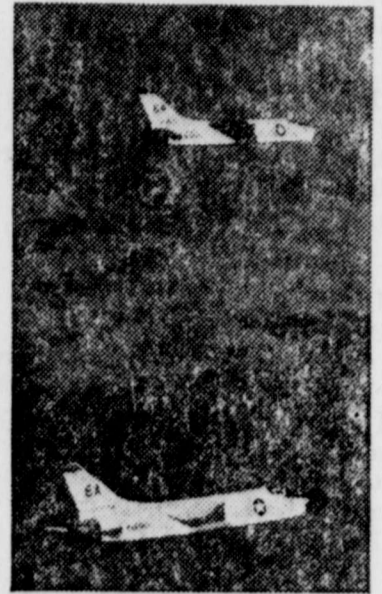

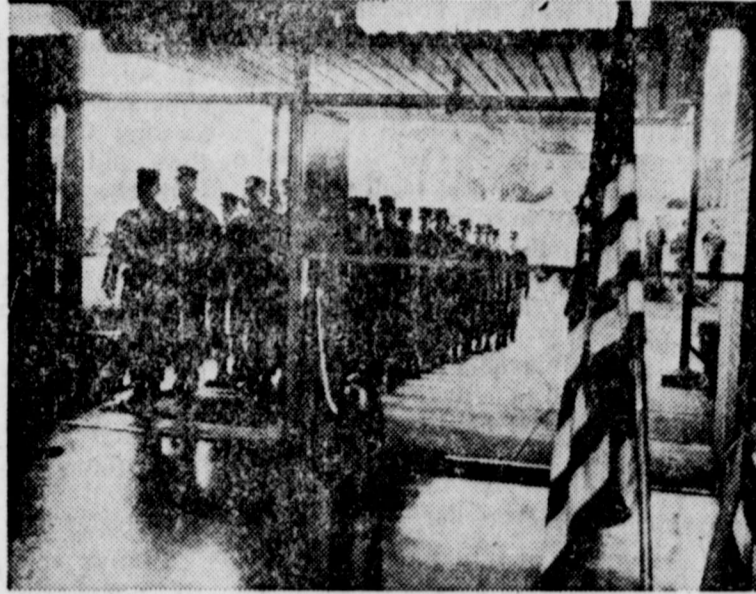

A new Texas map in color, with major highways, supplements 254 county maps, updated from maps prepared by the Texas Highway Department. Tourism and recreation also are featured, with listings of state and national parks.

This is the 48th edition of the Texas Almanac that has been published since 1857, said Joe M. Dealey, president of the Dallas Morning News. We believe it continues the high standards that have made this publication the Encyclopedia of Texas.

AMERICA'S PRACEMEETERS

HOW MARINE CORPS RESERVISTS PROTECT US

EMPLOYERS: HOW YOU CAN HELP

Perhaps you've seen them in a parade or during civic ceremonies. Some of them may live near you, some of them may work for you. Whatever your personal knowledge or contact has been, the Marine Reservists in your city are important to you and to the community. As civilians they hold jobs and contribute to the economic growth of the area. As Marines they help provide the security that makes it all possible—that permits our free society to prosper and grow under constitutional government. They are the kind of men who don't take freedom for granted, men who believe that America has a lot worth fighting for.

To a great degree, these Marines are able to maintain their high state of readiness because men like yourself have fostered a positive atmosphere for the concept of Reserve participation. Further contributions you can make are these:

- Assure Marine Reservists that they will not be penalized in hiring, promotion, transfer or the granting of other benefits because of their Reserve service.
- Permit them to attend their two weeks of summer training without charging this time to earned vacation.
- Pay the difference between their military and civilian pay during summer training, if the military pay is less.
- Give recognition to outstanding Reservist employees in company publications.
- If you have the opportunity, take the time to visit your Marine Reserve training center. Talk to the officers of the unit and learn firsthand what the Marines in your city do and how they do it. They will welcome your visit and appreciate your interest.

As a taxpayer, remember that the cost of maintaining a Marine Reservist is only about ten percent that of a regular fighting man. But if these men of your community are ever needed, they'll answer the call as 100 percent Marines. There's no ten-for-one bargain involved. The Marines make up the difference—through the hard work and dedication they put into their training.

For details about the range of enlistment programs and opportunities in the Marine Corps Reserve, get in touch with a Marine Corps representative.
