In a little editorial note yesterday the Express placed the estimated number of cattle in Texas at 5,000,000,000. There was a little error of 4,995,000,000 head, the intention being to place the number at five millions instead of five billions.

In his recent Indianapolis speech Mr. Hendricks came out fair and square in favor of the re-election of Senator Voorhees, "the Tall Sycamore of the Wabash," with all his 1880. In a few days we will have an expression of views upon national topics from Mr. Thurman, who has been carefully preparing himself for the great occasion, and no doubt the Ohio Senator expects to be kindly remembered when the balloting comes off in the eventful year aforesaid. Meanwhile, the patient eyes of Uncle Samuel T. are cast in the same direction, and unless parties, like republies, are ungrateful, he thinks he will have a sure thing of it when the faithful melt in National Convention. Yet, notwithstanding these great expectations, some dark horse, still in the background, may be trotted out and distance all competitors, for ted out and distance all competite in this world there is nothing so doubtful

True Greenbackers cheerfully calculate that they will get all the Republican vote and forty or fifty thousand Democratic votes, while about half the remaining Democratic voters will abstain from voting. This would

The third regular meeting of the San Antonio Workingmens Association held at Muench's hall last evening was very well attended. About twenty new members were added to their list, making a total membership of nearly one hundred. The meribers in general indulged in a lively discussion regarding the necessity of a piatform of principles, and taking an active part in the present campaign—supporting men only who are friends to the laboring classes. A committee of five was appointed to draft a platform of principles, for discussion and adoption at their regular meeting on next Thursday night.
