WATER NEWS.

Henderson is paying from five to ten thousand dollars a day for cotton.

The Texas State Grange will hold its next annual meeting in Sherman, beginning its session on the second Tuesday in January, 1879.

On Sunday the sugar house of M. Dunbar, Walker station, was blown down, destroying about 60,000 pounds of new made sugar and syrup.

Charles McAlister, a farmer living at Henderson, Red River county, was killed by being thrown from his horse a few days ago, while under the influence of liquor.

Last week, near Harmony Hill, Mr. Wm. Jackson, his wife and only unmarried child, a little boy, all died within the space of five days. The three deaths were from diphtheria.

Mr. League, living seven miles north-west of Sherman, has secured seventy acres of wheat, and has secured it remarkably early for the season of the year.

Over 50,000 bales of cotton have already been received in Brenham since the 1st of September. More than 5,000 bales were received last week.

There has been shipped from Sherman to the Texas coast only 100,000 bales of cotton. The average price per bale is $39, making a total of $3,900,000.

Dallas, December 10.—The three year old child of Jane Hales, colored, while at play in the yard, this evening, was attacked by a mad horriby torn which in the probability will result in its death.

Next Saturday, the 14th instant, Smith Jackson and Peter Johnson are to be hung in the jail house, west of the jail house, and the hanging will bring together a crowd of negroes fully as large as that of Bill Longley.

Canton Chronicle: Mr. W. P. Sikes made a fine one hour and a half of land in hundred of sirup, which he sold before it was cold for 20 cents per gallon.
