received a warrant for the arrest of Hacon, which was done and Bacon lodged in our county jail. His attorneys applied for a writ of habeas corpus, the hearing for which took place yesterday morning, when the County Judge ruled that the warrant was informal, owing to the absence of the District Judge's signature, and the warrant was returned to Austin for said signature, and the prisoner remanded to jail. What will be the result of the proceedings it is a matter for the courts to decide, comments are refrained from, but to put a man in jail for a libed is not of daily occurrence, and the result will be closely watched, not only by our people, but by the press all over the country.
