Washington, March 14.—A communication was made public to-night by the national greenback-labor party, addressed to the republican and democratic manufactures of the house, maintaining that the national party holds the balance of power, not only in the present house, but in the states of Maine, Connectiont, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Char, Indiana, Ilmost and Michigan, and asserting that they intend following out their principles, and placing the responsibility of their temporary defeat against them. Continuing, the communication states that there must be no mistaking our single and residute purpose by our action to bring relief to our surfaing constituents, by giving full employment and adequate reward to labor, and impart new life and vigor to the prostrate business industries of the country, and give hope to despairing debtors. Hecomizing the fact that much reward to labor, and impart new life and vigor to the prostrate business industries of the country, and give hope to despairing debtors. Heroginizing the first that much will depend upon the organization of the house for securing legislation in their behalf, and that the result will make up the issue in the great struggle between the people and the money power in 1880, we propose to cooperate with you by electing as speaked, either 8 S. Cox, of New York, James Phelps, of Connecticut, W. D. Kelley or Hendrick B. Wright, of Pennsylvania, Thos. Ewing, of Ohio, Grueshur, L. Fort, of Illinois, Wim. H. Felton, of Georgia, John M. Bright or H. O. Young, of Tunnessee, each of whom, by their public record on the financial questions has secured the confidence of our constituents, or any other member of the house competent to conduct its business, who, by his previous adherence to our principles, has shown that in their behalf, he can rise above former political fulfilations.

this morning at the Metropolitan hotel by S. C. Baylon, of the Savaunah & Charleston railroad. The president of the association, Mr. Samuel C. Powell, of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, then called the roll and about one hundred delegates answered.

Among the delegates present were Thos. L. Kimball, of the Union Pacific; James Tillinghast, Canada Southern; W. L. O'Brien, Panhandle; E. A. Ford, Iron Mountain; C. Follett, of Vandalia; W. A. Thrall, Chicago & Northwestern; Frank Myers, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago; C. P. Atmore, Louisville & Nashville, L. P. Farmer, Pennsylvania; E. L. Cole, Baltimore & Ohio; W. P. Johnston, Illinois Contral; E. St. John, Chicago & Rock Island; Frank Chandler, New Orleans and Great Jackson route, and S. P. Parker, Cincinnati, Louisville & Nashville. The convention will sit two or three days. The fixing of rates for passenger tickets to and from all points in the United States and Canada will be the most important business. S. C. Boyleston was elected president of the association for one year. W. A. Thrall was elected vice president. The former is of the Charleston & Savannah railroad, the latter of the Chicago and Northwestern. S. C. Powell, of the Mariett & Cincinnati road, was elected secretary.

The young prince of Naples is a frank, manly boy of ten years of age, the only child of King Umberto and his first cousin wife Queen Margherita. He is not a handsome child. He has small light eyes, the heavy features of the present Savoy house, and his bristly light hair rises up above the forehead, but his face is very intelligent and bright, and it has a simple, childlike, naive expression; his sharp little eyes have the keen, inquiring look of his father's without the startled expression noticeable in those of King Umberto. Like all members of the house of Savoy, except, to be sure, his grandfather Vittoria Emanuele, he is very fond of court coremonles and court display. In the prosecution of the forty-nine citizens of Natchitoches, in violation of lay and decency, the government has been involved in an outlay of about one hundred thousand dollars. But this is a small item. The prosecutions have cost the people of that parish more than one hundred thousand dollars besides. During the last two months plantations and farms have been abandoned by their colors the write of the United States. indee in National Court of the Custom-house, gloating over the damnable raid the United States marshal, with his writs from the United States courts, had made upon one of the fairest sections of this State. More than a hundred of the best citizens of that section was been about from their houses, under were here, absent from their homes, under arrest, while Mr. Leonard, the law officer of the government, "God save the mark!" and other federal officials were drilling ignorum onp with a handsome top-knot. It was the victory of a sentiment all good citizens will appland.

In his sermon last Sunday Talmage pictured bigotry or sectarianism as a horned and hoofed monster which he intended to flay, and he called upon all churches to form in line against the common enemy. Mr. Frethingham lectured on the press and expressed the opinion that newspapers were becoming more useful but less powerful.

THE EXPLESS again desires to acknowledge of the continued favors of our senators. vatism, to live and become the tool of a damnable conspiracy, concocted in Washington and entrusted to the federal court here, to intimidate the white people of North Louisiana and disorganize and destroy the democratic party of the state. This, in the language of Chatham, was the barbarism of the government. But the partisan court, the stocked grand jury, the furious and determined prosecuting officer, the army of federal marshals, the villainous and illegal laws, the whole moral influence of the federal administration and of the republican leaders
