The speaker, after quoting precedents in support of his position, stated that the house had control over the journal, and that he would therefore submit the question to the house. He intimated it that he had his own will about it he would let the petition stay in the record for what it is worth. If objection to the petition had been noted by the reporter and inserted in the report, the petition could not have been printed. Just the face of that objection, therefore, a correction of the record by masting the objection would not have been granted. The petition.

Prices are not so high by several cents as they were last year, but there is reason for believing that prices will advance within a few days providing that the failure of the large wool house of Whittemore, Peet, Post & Co., of New York, does not produce a depression in the market. Advices by mail from Boston, Mass., are more favorable and the wool interests appear to be looking up there, but the news alluded to is dated prior to the failure of the great wool firm of New York.

The terrible tragedy which occurred in the town of Seguin some months ago, when Exum Hollamon, an esteemed young business man of the place, was met at the dead hour of night and had his brains beaten out, aroused a popular indignation that has rather intensified than moderated with time. The circumstances incident to the killing are well known to the readers of the Expanse, and though everything connected with the killing in the way of evidence is of a circumstantial nature, yet the links found here and there were used to make chains of facts. Who committed the murder, was a mystery—is yet far from determination—still John Baker and Billy Duggan, as our reporter learns from Capt. Phil Wagner, who returned last evening from Seguin, have both been indicted for it. Baker is now at Seguin, or, at least, was last evening, and enjoyed the ilberty of the streats, though under bond. Duggan was arrested last evening and imprisoned in the county jail. Officer Wagner states that the feeling generally among the people is very strong.

From what District Attorney Grimes says, the case was another of those malicious prosecutions which have become no frequent here in our own county of late.

This is to certify that I, this 7th day of May, A. D. 1879, in the district court of Live Oak county, dismussed cause No. 592, the state of Texas vs. H. Gluce, charged the state of Texas vs. H. Gruce, charged with embessiement, for want of the testimony of J. R. and B. Horton, the alleged owners of the money charged to have been embessied; and, further, it is my opinion from the known facts in the case that said prosecution was malicious; and I have been unable to discover any facts, after diligent inquiry, that would warrent a continuance whether a prospection against said defend. inquiry, that would warrant a continuance or justify a prosecution against said defend-ant, H. Glaze.

of Felix Gortarri, of this city, at his ranch on the Caleversa inst Sunday. The deceased was in the act of mounting his horse, when the animal, being of considerable spirit, rose upon his hind feet and staggered backward until a fence was reached. Gotarri fell over the funce, pulling the animal with him and its weight down upon his body. The result was instant death, the causes being, it is said, a broken back-bone, besides internal injuries. Killed by His Horse.
