HORRIBLE INDIAN OUTRAGE.

Brackettsville, June 3.-A horrible mur der occurred at Colson's ranche, 25 miles Bracket, on the first instant. Mrs Colson and two children, returning from the the house, a few yards distant, were met by Indians and one little girl killed by arrows. The other's brains were beaten out with a club, Mrs. Colson was then outraged and killed. The sickening sight which met the husband and son's eve upon their return, and the anguish which wrung their loving hearts need never be chronicled. Colson had a wife and child killed by Indians a year and a balf ago He again married two weeks ago. He folhis sadening fate and heartrending end of the joyous but short honeymoon.

Jacksonville, Fla., June 3.—The extradition case of Gen. W. S. Littlefield, of this city, who was arrested by a warrant of Gov.
Drew upon requisition of the governor of North Carolina, and subsequently released on a writ of habeas corpus, terminated here to-day. The hearing, which was before Judge Archibald, of this circuit, began Friday. The judge, in a long and able opinion, decided that Gen. Littlefield is properly released and cannot be molested. The case exerties much interest, and the opinion generalts prevails that the decision is right both erally prevails that the decision is right, both in law and equity. The general, who is a member of the bar of this city and county, seked and was granted permission to say a few words after a rendition of the opinion. He said that he did not fear to stand trial for any charge against him that could be raised by the state of North Carolina, but did want some assurance that he could have a fair trial on a charge upon which he already has by the state of North Carolina, but did wans some assurance that he could have a fair trial on a charge upon which he already has had three examinations in the city of Raleigh without conviction of wrong doing. Philadelphia Lodger As if the unhappy people along the At-lantic coast have not had enough botheration at the hands of their legislatures and their congressional cancuses and their nuisaness of trade dollars, here comes commander Crowinshield, of the United States steamer portsaisons, teelling us that the gulf stream has gone astray. At capes Lookout and Hatteras, it is only three miles of the alream, and running at the rate of four sions, could make a summing at the rate of four miles per hour. He tells us that it carried his ship during a calm northeastward fifty six taken miles in fourier mouss. This is most extraordinary behavior on the part of that it a warning that we may all look out for and bed on the most in the summer now so near at hand. It also gives a warning to making the twentier during the summer now so near at hand. It also gives a warning to making the three hours along the opened coast, to attend to their lunars and their mid-day observations, to see that their chromometers are in good going order, and their homesters are in good going order, and their may be a very fatal reckoning when the gulf stream is running four miles an hour within three miles of the coast of Hatteras and thereabout.

We are differenced, on excellent authority, that within the past few days Mr. Tilden has seen now light on the question as to who shall be his candidate for governor; that he has reluctantly abandoned the effort to force governor Bobinson on the demonstrate convention, and that the Hon. Clarkson N. Tottes is to be the nomines. The reasons for this change are numerous, but the most weighty, as we are informed, are these: First. The implacable hostility of Tammany hall to governor Robinson; and, secondly, the opposition of a large number of democrate in the interior, who have been alienated by the governor's unprecedented use of the veto power. The astuteness of Mr. Tilden as a politician has thus been again damonstrated, and he will scaure the nomination of a friend and supporter, without risking the division of his party, by instanting on a nomination that would be a defiance of fifty or sixty thousand democrate. This means the union of the party on a man of decided atility, high standing and strong personal connections.

NOVEL EMPLOYMENT

Some time before the late election, James Gannon, of 1,509 Clay street, the ex-detec-tive politician and now in the real estate business, and a number of others were discousing the situation and the probable ef-fects that the adoption of the new constitu-tion would have on trade, when George V. Hussey, of 1,401 Jackson street, a carpenter, remarked that times were very hard and

"As long as you can hold out," was the reply.

The bargain was struck then and there, and last Sunday gave his amployer, notice that he would start in on the following morning. Accordingly, yesterday morning, Hussey, who had accepted the proposition to walk, appeared on the northeast corner of Clay and Larkin streets with a pressed brick, to which a handle had been fixed with wire, and removing his coat, which he left in a store on the corner, proceeded to walk the line marked out, by his employer. It extended to the opposite corner, a distance of sixty feet. He walked at a soldierty step until noon, and then a resumed his tramp and kept it up until 5 o'clock. At each and of the course was in American flag on which was painted in black letters, "don't give up the ship." Hussey, engaged in his peculiar labor, was watched by a large number of persons until 5 o'clock. At the pace which he kept up all day Hossey walked 129,000 feet, or 24 18.39 miles. This is a fraction over 21 miles an hour. Hussey is a native of New Hampshirs, fisty-fire years of age, a robust man, well preserved, who walks erect, with a firm step.

When he concluded his day's labor he was waited upon by a Call reporter who engaged him no conversation.
