jected to the payment on the ground that the witness had said he had deliberately and intoutionally deceived the parties who sub-powned him. The committee should protect itself and the scene, and do nothing that would make it convenient for any man to come here at the expense of the government and impose on somebody by testifying directly contrary to what he may have stated in affihavit or other form. There should be protection from such imposition. Kernan remarked that he had sever heard of a run, to dany payment of London, June 10.—The race for the As-cot stakes, which takes place to-day will be run at 4 p. m. THE GRAND JURY'S REPORT. The report of the grand jury, published in the Express yesterday morning, presented some interesting if not rather startling facts to the tax payers of this county. We are told that thirty-one persons in the county are carrying on the liquor business without loss to the state and county of from $8,000 to $10,000, and, what is even more remarkable, none of the officers seem to consider themselves responsible for that state of af fairs-in fact it seems to be nobody's business to enforce the collection of this occupation tax. How long these defalcations have been going on, and the amount of revenue lost thereby, would prove interesting information to the people who do pay their taxes, but here we have undisputable evidence that for the present year there are at least thirtylaw is plain, and the duty of officials is so they shall be subordinate to the civil power. clearly set forth that there can be but two horns to the rather embarrassing dilemma the officers charged with the collection of country is not worth saving. MAGNOLIA BALM will gratify you to your heart's content. It does away with Sallowness, Redness, Pimples, Blotches, and all diseases and imperfections of the skin. It overcomes the flushed appearance of heat, fatigue and excitement. It makes a lady of THIRTY appear but, TWENTY; and so natural, gradual, and perfect are its effects, that it is impossible to detect its application. Atlanta Constitution It is rather difficult to understand what means bull-dozing in the south is by n means bull-dozing in St. Louis. Otherwis it is time to call out Mr. Hayes, the amiable of the south is by n means bull-dozing in St. Louis. Spotterd investigation now going on. About Mr. Rogers and the rest of the land and Spefford investigation now going on. About half the witnesses go back on affidavits bearing their signatures, or swear that they swore to lies on former occasions. Should the testimous of such witnesses be received under any direumstances? Hansas, and no went. So far as good. But the refused to stay, and when he got as far as St. Louis ou the return trip, and informed those connected with the affair that he proposed to advise his people not to emigrate, he was then and there incontinently manded he was then and there knoontinently insuled and bruised by a member of the colored re-lief board. We conclude from this that the colored "relief" board is making money by "relieving" the emigrants; but the troops should be called out all the same.

A sad case of ingratitude has been developed by a trial in sa English court. Vernon Montgomery, who passed himself as the "Marquis Montgomery," and Ethel Vivthe "Marquis Montgomery," and Enter Viv-ian were getting money out of people by the charitable dodge. They played the game boldly and successfully, getting as much as a five-pound note from some of the more liberal of their victims. They were discovered to be frauds in collusion, were tried for "offences involving dishonesty," and he got five years and she twelve months. OLD SAFES EXCHANGED. The essential and principal witness against Ethel Vivian was Arthur Doisy, a gay young fellow, who visited Ethel at her cry of distress and took the liberty of kissing her for charity. He testified to this, and stated that he had given her in all thirty shillings at various times. And his was the evidence that convicted her and seut her to hard labor kissing and telling and dooming a pretty
