Mr. Phillip Cross, the English pedestrian, is daily practicing for his proposed walking match this fall. Mr. Cross is a young gentleman of great endurance and muscular activity, and will undoubtedly make an interesting competitor for any one who comes along. The match will probably take place at Turners' hall.

—Yesterday morning three drunken men, while driving in a wagon on north Flores sireet, passed a negro pedestrian. While passing the negro, one of the ruffians drys a revolver and fired at him. The afrighted darkey ran and reported the case to Justice Symington, but the rascals have not yet been heard from.
