RAILROAD MATTERS

It is now settled that the International railway has been sold, and the first mortgage men have getten their work in to a degree that will undoubtedly disturb the consciences of a few individuals. The price paid for the road by the first mortgage men was in the neighborhood of $1,000,000, and they encumber themselves with no dues except such as their mortgage men have purchased the road for a merely nominal sum, and the minnows have been swallowed up by the whales. All encumbrances afflicting the International are to be paid off by the whales and the road is to be pushed forward to San Antonio as promptly as possible. Our reporter learns that the first mortgage men have their millions and are capable of building the road very cheaply. If they can, of course their purposes will be very saving. But it remains to be seen what is to be done. No one is not be trusted, at any rate.

But the question is, would the completion of the road to San Antonio pay them. At any rate they propose to hold back until the de-cision of the court gives them possession of the road.

quired to deliver the flour in San Antonio, wagons are found to transport it to our city at 80 cents per hundred. Thus the saving of 25 cents per barrel is easily realized, but the Feirce railway loses the freight. Many of our business men are now preparing for the advent of the International railway—that is regarding its force and the backing that it has.

Editors San Antonio Expuss:

An amount of correspondence has appeared in different papers relative to the act of congress passed in 1878 abolishing all laundresses in the army at the expiration of their husbands' present term of service. I would be as well as a woman; another thing, he has not the improved patent washing machine, and even if he had it would be a very nice thing when a company should move to take and even if he had it would be a very nice thing when a company should move to take up his wash machine and even if he had it would be a very nice thing when a company should move to take up his wash machine and walk. Should the laundress be entirely ignored, it would be laundress be entirely ignored, it would be a very nice thing when a company should move to take the same who have previously received in struction in the details of a laundry, or perhaps in the same who have previously received in struction in the details of a laundry, or perhaps it would be more suitable to employ the "heathen Chinee." By having a laundress, is the converges one of the main points, viz: cleanliness, which, of course, is at all times most desirous. There are times when a man would not be able to do his week's wash. It is the desire of a soldier to be most particular as regards cleanliness, and nothing should be placed in his way to oppose this desire.

Bat the question is, would the completion of the road to San Antonio pay them. At any rate they propose to hold back until the decision of the ocurt dives them possession of the road.

A recruit imagines on joining the army that he will receive a free outfit. The community outside of the army are perhaps not that the road is to be completed at once. It this is so, many a min's heart will be happy. The international is relied on to reduce freights, for we have suffered from a railroad monopoly that has oppressed us in every way imaginable. A military gentleman, who ought to be well informed, if he is not, thinks that the road ought to be well informed, if he is not, thinks that the road ought to be well informed, if he is not, thinks that the road ought to be well ought to be completed within six months. Of course, a direct communication with Austin and Central Texas would be of yast benefit to San Antonio.

His kindhearted companions put the thing more strongly than the relative had done. They did not envy his chance of fortune, but be sought him to remember his aged father, who was longing to forgive him. And, without mentioning the quarter of a million, they urged the filial duty so strengly that Horsee, in one-quarter of an hour, sold his teem, brought a mule, telegraphied to the relative, who had reached Elko, and started after him. He is now regaling himself on paternal forgiveness and a quarter of a million of fatted calf. How is that for a prodigat?

BEST ROUTE TO THE NORTH and EAST

Louisville & Great Southern R. R.

From all points in Southern and Southwestern Texas, it is over one hundred and fifty notes shorter, and many hours quicker, to Louisville than by way of St. Louis.

It is also shorter and quicker, and has the most fedicitous arrangement of Puliman Palace Sleeping Cars that can be offered, to Cincinnati and all points beyond. It is the only rouse by which we can take in the Great Manmoth Cave of Kentucky. The scenery is lovely, the equipment unsurpassed, the speed unrivailed.

More definite information may be obtained by addressing C. P. Atmore, G. P. A., Louisville, Sky., or J. F. Thompson, Passenger Agent, Dalfas, Texas. Tickets by this route can be had of
