The sensation of to-day was the announcement early in the afternoon that Rarus had been sold for $36,0000, and would not trot. He was bought by H. M. Whitehead, ostensibly for Z. E. Simmons, of New York, but Robert Bonner is reported to be the resi purchaser. Mr. Conklis, previous owner of Rarus, was then expelled from the association for failure to keep his engagement that Rarus should trot.

Havana, August 28, —Two bands of Insurgents have appeared in the Holgain and Santisgo de Cuba districts, but they are not headed by chiefs of any importance, and the government has taken the most energetic measures to put them down. Great difficulties are experienced in the attempt to carry into effect the provisions of the law for the gradual abolition of alswery, on account of incompletion and unintelligibility of the censuses of 1876 and 1871. An appeal has been made to the home government for advances.
