Memphis, September 3.—Nine cases, 4 white and 5 colored, were reported to the board of health this morning, and four deaths since last night—Julia Castapover, James E. Lanns, Frank E. Graves, Calvin C. Moore. The last named died at Buntyn station, six miles east of this city. Weather warm.

Memphia, Sept. 3.—Twenty-nix cases in all equally divided between whites and colored, were reported to-day. Among the number are Maud Moore, John Roquet, Geo A. Avent, Adolph Dargo and two children. Four additional deaths have occurred—Mrs. Ryan, Otto Sartorious and two colored.

This was in order to give license to unlawful acts on election day and every other day. The army was mancled not only on other days, but on that very day when it should be most ready to act in the support of national liberty. This was all for the purpose of strangling the elections in behalf of a brotal candidate.

Four southern states, Mr. Conkling said were certainly republican, and two others would be on the same side if the votes could be recorded, but he thought there would be no election there worthy of name, and New York would decide the contest of 1880.

If the socalled democratic party of Yazoo had heretofore taken the register to the sound of th that they were interested as well as the veterans of the twenty-third Ohio volunteer whites in having the most capable and intel-ligent citizens at the head of their affairs, cultural fairs in the western states. ligent citizens at the head of their affairs, fairly and protect them in their rights of ing thousands upon thousands of dollars to person and property, there would have been no 'necessity,' as they claim, for a resort to intimidation to save the country from the hands of political tricksters rode into power through the ignorance and prejudices of a through the ignorance and prejudices of a clection of a dog-catcher, with two depaties through the ignorance and prejudices of a race. This is sufficiently proved by the workings of the Hampton policy in South Carolins, where no trouble has been experienced since that policy was inangurated, and in some parts of which the colored people predominate in a railo of three to one. It has also been as clearly demonstrated in other parts of the south where the colored population is in the majority; but the Yazoo leaders chose to resort to shot guns instead of reason, and they have forced the colored people to combine and draw race lines, placing them as a consequence as political tools in the hands of unprincipled men who may see fit to manipulate them, and the whites have lost a natural vantage ground they cannot recover in years.
