LATEST YELLOW FEVER NEWS.

Byracuse, N. Y., September 1t.—The democratic convention was called to order, and after considerable and lively discussion a resolution was adopted requesting the delegates from several congressional districts to select and name their respective members of the state committee, and if in any case a majority cannot agree upon its member, to report to the convention for its action.

Syrsense, Sentamber 11.—The platform will continue to uphold the system of untrammelled suffrage, absolutely free from federal force or supervision.

Syracuse, September 11.—After the adoption of the platform, the convention proceeded to make nominations. Samuel Hand, of Albany, presented the name of Lucius Robinson, which was greeted with cheers, hooting and hisses. C. W. Brooks, of New York, put in nomination Gen. Henry W. Slocum. [Great applause.] After speeches against the nomination of Robinson, by T. Grady, of New York, and J. McGuire, which were frequently interrupted by bises and applause, Cowen, of Albany, presented the name of John Jacobs, chairman of the convention, and asked the secretary to put the question of his nomination by acclamation. The plain duty of the law-makers is to provide for a more equitable assessment or appraisement of property than now exists. Let more efficient measures be instituted to secure the return of all property, and let the per cent. of assessment be equal an all property, according to its value as well as is the per cent. of taxation.
