A New Language. JOHN CARLYLE DEAD,

The language of postage stamps, isstead of flowers, has just been invented. Thus, when a postage stamp has been placed upside down on the left owner of the letter, it means "I love you," in the same crosswise, "My heart is another's;" "Bright up and down, "Good-bye, sweetheart, good-bye, sweetheart, good-bye, sweetheart, good-bye," switte no more;" in the centerat the top, "Yes;" opposite at the bottom, "No;" on the right hand corner at a right angle, "Down left the content of the you love me; "In the left hand corner, "I wish your friendship," bottom corner on the right, "I seek your acquaintance," on a line with the surname, "Accept my love," the same upside down, "I am engaged," as a right angle in the same place, "I long to see you," in the middle at the right hand edge, "Write jumediately."

immediately."

While this is all very good as far as it goes those who put a postage stamp on any but the upper right hand corner of an envelope, must hold thromselves responsible for all the swearing of the postoffice clerks.

HONORS TO THE DEAD.

Never more to meet us here.

When the last notes of this had died away, the rector read that portion of the service, "I am the resurrection and the life, suith the Lord; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosogrer liveth and believeth in me, shall never die." The anthem for the dead, from the 30th and 90th psalms followed this, and succeeding it was read the lesson of the evening, from I Oor. xv. 20. The choir them readered with admirable effect, the lines.

Not for the dead in Christ we weep.

Not for the dead in Christ we weep.
Their sorrows now are o'er;
The sea is caim, the tempest past,
On that eternal shore.

This brought the solemn service, rendered coubly solemn by the damp, dark, dreary right without, to the address of Judge Reagan. Without introduction, but simply and in tones tremulous with feeling, the distinguished gentleman told the record of the dead soldier's virtues cry of independence was sounded, followed by cries of wices Mexicol a roll of musketry, and then dancing. An oration was delivered, and patriotic songs were sung by little girls. The exercises incident to the celebration will continue to-day, the principal address to be delivered at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Many persons visited the springs last night, some to join in the festivities, others merely as lookers-on. The grounds presented a very lively appearance, being studded with the refreshment stands of men and women, who prepared their dishes on the spot.

The Courts Yesterday.

The following proceedings were had in the various courts yesterday:

COUNTY COURT.

30. W. B. Leigh vs L. M. Gregory, administrator, suit on note. Dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

503. Elmendorff & Co. vs Joe Ney, suit on note. Dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

407. A. Ladner vs Ed Braden, appeal. Motion Lb dismiss appeal sustained, plaintiff accepts. entor the markot where there is a cotton ex-change without enrolling themselves among its membership. Such a step is virtually an acknowledgment that the man in so doing is prepared for and seeking every petty oppor-tunity to defraud sellers, and that he cares nothing for the standard of honor maintain-ed by true business men."

A Card From C. H. Inselmann.

San Antonio, Sept. 16, 1879.
Editors San Antonio Expunsa:

A few weeks ago you published an item regarding the posting of a small-pox flag on my bouse, and its removal, which was hardly correct. Dr. Amos Graves was my physician, and sent a negro with a flag to the house after it was reported small-pox existed there, and the negro was not instructed where to place the flag. It was tacked up to the rear of my home. Policeman Zeigler thereafter came into my yard without authority and tore it down and placed it in front of the house. My wife afterwards took it from where Zeigler had put it, and again placed it where it formerly was. After this, Dr. Viade came and tacked is up on the chicken coop, after which nothing more was said about the matter. The statement given your reporter to the effect that my wife tore down the flag and stamped it was without any foundation.
