the state department?

John S. Byses,
County Judge, Walker county, Texas.

(To the News.)

Galveston, September 20.—Article 1085 of the Code of Criminal Procedure stands as submitted by the commissioners and amended, in the "Act to scopt and establish a Penal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure," on file in the office of secretary of state. If the amendment, vertified to by Mr. Lambert and Mr. Grace, was passed, it failed of enrollment, as it does not appear in the act, as submitted to the governor and filed, as a law, in the department of state, To be fully satisfied that the article as published in the Code was correct, I have, since your reference of this matter to me, addressed, a note to Capt Bowman, chief elerk of the state department, asking an examination of the law and a report. His reply will be found below.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, 1 AUSTIN, September 19, 1879. Judge J. N. Lyle:
Upon examination, I find that article 1,085 of Code of Criminal Procedure was not seconded. Yours, truly, T. H. Bowman.

The speaker said that he had never regarded the rights of the people as properly guarded by the treaties now in force, and to the end of creating a new reciprocity treaty there was now a bill before congress, which he hoped would be passed at the next session. We did not want war, but peace with Mexico. Perfect peace and prosperity, he believed, was embraced as it by magic in three words, protection, reciprocity, rails adgentles attement of the second and took g citizens which moves oven the throne itself. John Wickland and Adolph Real, on the Martinez crock, about three miles southeast of Converse station. Mr. Wickland's ranch is at present bountifully supplied with grass and water, and all his stock is in the finest condition. He has upon his land three different flocks of sheep, aggregating in numbers about 2400 head. As a sheep-raiser, there are few, if any, men more successful than Mr. Wickland. His three different flocks are kept widely apart, and on ranges where there has never been a lack of either grass or water. Each flock is in charge of a Maxicun herder, and the camps are visited by Mr. Wickland almost every day, to see S. Mayer 2. 10 16 at the second control of the cont

Before the ma had hid himself behind the western hills we were pungly scated beheath the hospitable roof of Mr. Everett, of the Lona Vista, where refreshments and a most enviable rest were enjoyed—the bounty of the gind matron. Lona Vista is a fine resting region of fertile lands and an analysis. the aind matron. Loma Vista is a fin grazing region of fertile lands and graze views, and is so called from a certain prominent hill in the vicinity. Early next moning found us climbing the western slope of the aforesald hill, with twenty-five miles to the next ranch, which must be made by noon. Coming to the Leona at the Logish crossing, we soon came into the hummoth, pastures of the Church brothers, where the wearsome sight of caches it has where the weatsome sight of cactus, chap-peral dagger, etc., were relieved by flocks of sleep and cattle. BEST ROUTE

NORTH and EAST The best route to the North and East is by way

Louisville & Great Southern R. R.

From all points in Southern and Southwestern Texas, it is over one hundred and fifty miles shorter, and many hours quicker, to Louisville than by way of St. Louis.

It is also shorter and, quicker, and has the most felicifous arrangement of Pulman Palace Steeping Cars that can be offered, in Giscinnati and all points beyond. It is the only route by hich we can take in the Great Mammot f Kentucky. The scenery is lovely, the next unsurpassed, the speed unrivalled. More definite information may be obtach delressing C. P.
