GOVERNORS IN CONVENTION.

Centennial Anniversary of the Battle of Yorktown, Probable Effects of Producing Unity of Feeling Between the North and South.

Philadelphia, October 18.—The assembly of governors to arrange details for the centequial anniversary of the surrender of the British army at Yorktown, me for organization this morning. Governors Andrews, of Connecticut; Holliday, of Virginia; Hoyt, of Pennsylvania; Jarvis, of North Carolina; Hall, of Delaware; Carroll, of Maryland, and Col. Lincoln, representing Governor Talbot, of Massachusetts, were present. The address of welcome was responded to by Gov. Andrews, of Connecticut. Holliday was chosen president of the meeting and Col. Lincoln secretary. The meeting then adjourned to Independence hall.

Upon assembling in Independence hall Mayor Btokely addressed the governors, welcoming them to the city. Governor Carroll, of Maryland, reptice. Governor Hoyt then extended the welcome on behalf of the state, to which Governor Holliday responded in a brilliant speech, frequently interrupted by applause. Governors Hall and Jarvia, and Colonel Lincoln, also speke in grateful turns of the reception they had received, and the opinion was freely expressed than the Yorktorn calebration would have a powerful tendency to bring about unity of thought and feeling between the north and couth.

Boston, October 18.—Among those who attended the banquet given the Gate City Guards isst night were Gov. Taibot and staff, Ool. R. M. Fulsis, Mayor Prince. Gen. H. Underhill, U. S. army, and other prominent restlement. Un'serbill, U. S. army, and other prominent gentlemes. The occasion was one of great magnificence. Capt. Thomas, of the Boston Light Infantry, made the welcome address, which was responded to by Capt. Burke, of the Atlanta company. Several other speeches were made. The Gate City Guards were presented with a fine medial as a token of friendship by the Boston Light Infantry.

Night befilsat when asked by Captain Johnson, one his warmest friends, if he would taste a lit iced mitk, he replied, "the Lord is freed me." Since that time he has not spok. His friends are constantly trying by eveness in their power to rouse him from support, his wife and shill of whom he and leeding men—will visit the Haynes party to-moreow, and try and induce them to heave. Haynes claims that Goodnight is thoroughly spiritualized, and will soon he translated. He told Goodnight a few days ago, so it is reported, that if he would kill me little gir, he (Haynes) would raise her on the thire day. Such remarks as these only tend to increase the wrath of our people against them, and to-day, when it was reported that two ladies of our best families had gone crazy on these subjects, threats of various kinds are indulged in. To-night all is quiet.

Green fooder is in receipt equal to the demand, which is less than was the case two weeks ago.

Wood is in better receipt than for several days and prices are now favorable for laying in the winter's supply of fuel.

The lumber trade is lively now, and the daily shipments of humber to the country make a considerable item in our business. The stock new, in this city is large and well asserted, while for large bills as reduction can be obtsized from our quotations.

The stock of thoroughbred bucks in this city has been very much reduced by the make which have been made during the past week. It is probable that all the lots now here will be closed out during the next two weeks, and the market will then be here of bucks until the apring season opens.

One of Our Crazy Characters.

Of all the number of queer and crazy creatures of this city, none is better known as "Crazy Philip." This man is a German by Lirth, and is said to have come from a family in good standing. In June, 1850, he joined the U. S. army at New Orleans, and from thence came with a command to the Texas bonder. In 1852, he left the army, wearing the stripes of a corporal, and took up his abode at Castroville. Becoming enamored of a young lady, he sought her hand in marriage, but she refused his proposition, greating the surprise. At the time he sought the hand of the young woman, his occupation which places the pion sindent, this is the best method of supplying without fall sill smell interest and a surprise.
