The next cell to be opened was that of Ed. Frodsham, a man at whose departure the world should rejoke. He came here from Utah about a year ago, and for a short time followed his vocation as a jeweler, but lately has been engaged in jumping lots, driving off occupants with no show of right or title, his motto being, "Peaceably, if I can; forcibly, if necessary," and on one occasion beating the rightful owner of a lot nearly to death on his refusal to quit his property. Another time he sold a house and lot, and theu resold again, receiving money from both parties. He brought with him the name of a bad and cowardly man, having killed a man in Wyoming in a cowardly manner, and has met his just fate. When being taken to the gallows he struggled furiously, and his face bore marks of "means which were necessary to quiet him, or, possibly may have here presedented by the

The class of political leaders of which Senator Coke is a member must take a back seat. They may be affectent corporals and expressing but they make wretched captains. If they attempt to fight place in the affections of the people as a stateman and man of purity and courage to do what he considers his consciousous of the pity of the people for their shortcounings will give way to contempt, and they will receive such a rebuke as will cover them with a humiliation from which they will never recover.

These men have exhausted the patience of the democratic party, both north and south, or another in their history—is close at hand to another in their history—is close at hand for the surrender and punishment of Indian responsible for the purishment of Indian responsible for the surrender and punishment of Indian responsible for the punishment of Indian responsible for the beat of the cost of production, and properly added to our purity and conduct of the conting the cost of production, and properly added to our purity and conduct of the conting the responsible for the provider and treacherous attack. From the Charlotte (N. C.) Observer.
From partecily trustworthy sources—from a letter received from across the border, and from a gentleman who arrived in this city yesterday afternoon—particulars are gathered of one of the most shocking transactions that was ever heard of. The story of the crime and end of Mrs. James Adams, late of Lancaster, S. C., has, happily, but few parallels in the annals of crime, and it will, In all likelihood, stand, out conspicuously for many years to come a constitute that the case.

THE LATEST VICTORY OF MEDICAL SCIENCE

SPECIFIC FOR GONSUMPTION
THIS all-powerful vegetable propara tion expels from the lungs and usly assessed by pulmonary inflammation, heads the irritated membranes, and encorate every organ which utilizes the breath of Life. It contains no stupefying polson and is in all respects a healthful medicine. The rapidity and certainty will which it

ANNIHILATES A COUGH is astealishing. Its effects go deeper than the more symptoms of pulmonary discessed and discharges the cause from the system. Free and pulmoss expectoration is the mode by which it relieves the lungs, chest and throat from the burdens which oppress them; thus arresting Consumption and Bronchitts in the germ before they reach the more dangerous stages. The emaciated sufferer BATTLING FOR LIFE with the most terrible scourge of our mate will find Fritsch's Prussian Cor Sycup a potent ally, and will assure with the fight by achering strictly to be great medicine. The CASES NOW ON RECORD

FIVE THOUSAND is only in the infancy of its.
The great defect of all ceffes hitherto, introduced ness; The great defect of all Cough Remedies Billactus. Intraduced is that they are simply expulsory. Hence they are useless for aniess the causes of the Acrid secretions which are coughed up nor removed, and the ruptured, inflamed or maturated surfaces healed and restored to their natural tone, a cure is impossible. Fritsch's Prussian Cough Kyrup necompilaites these objects. The mucus and muco-pus which are the concapance of Long Disones, are thrown off by it, while at the same time it souther and integrated the weakened thissues.
