when it adjourns to day, it be to meet Monday.

Carpenter of creek a recululion declaring that the resumption of unition of gold, will-ver and, greenbacks as lawful money, and the expectation that finances would not be disturbed by precipitate legislation had been followed by revived industry and general prosperity. The successful conduct of business depended upon a stable financial policy, and that therefore, in the opinion of the senate, any legislation during the present session materially changing the existing system of finance would be inexpedient.

At 11:30 the senate went into an executive session.

Washington, December 4.—Among the bills and resolutions introduced and referred was one by Gillette, of Iowa, dsclaring that congress is opposed to any reduction in the volume of U. S. legal tender notes, but on the contrary, in favor of substituting or conhe contrary, in favor of substituting green-acks for national bank notes, and that it is in backs for national bank notes, and that it is in favor of free, unrestricted coinage of 4125 gran silver dollars.

O'Connor, of Sonih Carolins, introduced a bill to return to the freedman of the south their savings deposited in the Freedman's Savings and Trust Co., Referred.

The house then, at 12,30 p. m., went into committee of the whole for the purpose of distributing the president's message.

OUTRAGEN ON AMERICAN CITZEENS

IN MEXICO.

The president having duly congratulated the country upon the existence of anicable relations with all foreign nations, and the respect paid our flag in all lands and in all climes, we presume his duties are ended, therefore when we refer to an occasional outrage upon American citizens in foreign nates it is not with the expectation that any attempt will be made obt in redress of any kind, or demand satisfaction for any insult to our flag. Such a course would not be in accordance with the policy of our government during the past several years, and might establish an uncomfortable precedent.
