Allison explained that the amendments to the resolution expressly excluded such pessibility, but Cockeril declined to withdraw his objection, and the resolution went over.

On motion of Bayard it was resolved that when the senate adjourned to-day it be to meet on Monday nest.

Mr. Plumb introduced a bill to amend the revised statutes relating to taxes on banks and bankers. It provides that no association shall be liable to the tax imposed by section 5,254 of the revised statutes, or any sum under the name of deposits which may be deposited with another association, bank or banker, and which is subject to taxation in deposited with another association, bank or banker, and which is subject to taxation in such association. The bill also provides to exempt from taxation deposits in provident associations, savings banks, and savings fund institutions, except where a deposit to the credit of one person or comporation exceeds $2000. In such cases the excess above that amount is to be liable to tax.

On motion of Mr. Mayor the receipt here.

On motion of Mr. Maxey the senate then took up and passed a bill appropriating $200,000 for the erection of such posts on or near the Rio Grande frontier as the secretary of war may deem necessary for the adequate protection thereof.

Mr. Cockrell withdrew his objection to the consideration of a joint resolution for the removal of Utes from Colorado, and offered an amendment that the Indians be removed to some suitable place in the Indian territory.

The amendment was agreed to, and the removed.

Washington, December 11.—Baker, of Indiana, from the committee on appropriations, reported the fortifications appropriation bill, appropriating $475,000, which was ordered printed and recommitted. He gave notice that he would report it back to morrow morning, and ask its consideration.

The Reception at Brownsville. Downsville Democrat, 6th.

On Thursday night the reception of General Ord and Minister Foster, given by the officers of the army and navy, occurred at the administration building in the garrison. The case side of the building was decorated with many colored Chinese lanterns. The two north rooms were beautifully festooned with bunting and emblematic devices with the weapons of war upon a dark overgreen background, representing stars, Maltese crosses, pierced hearts with barbed arrows, and other designs from the inventive minds of the decoraters. Paintings of the American eagle adorned the north ends and the south both, the legend the army and navy, and fir shing the legend the army and navy, and firshing lights lent brilliancy to the scene. A raised data for the orchestra of the twentieth infandals for the orchestra of the twentich infan-try, was situated in the hall between the two rooms, and the east room floor was waxed to a fine degree of polish, while the west was covered with snowy manta. About 9:30 the building was surging with living hu-manity, consisting of distinguished person-ages and beautiful ladies. "A thousand lights shot over fair women and brave men, and when the music arons with its volunlights shot over fair women and trave men and when the music arose with its volup tuous swell, all went merry as a marriag bell." The silvery sheen of silk, and the flashing of diamonds added lustre to the evening. The northern lillies vied in beauty with the tropic rose. Mexico's daughters with their worden groce, glied, through the their wonten grace, glided through the innecess with ...danguaru case, while their American cousing, with equal grace, wafted through the danza, each thus adopting the other's customs. Between eleven and twelve the dancers wended their way to the suppor-room, the west end of the portico having

We believe some shange in the respect andicated in this proposition would be favorably received by the people. We have too bly received by the people. We have too many elections and too much political agita.
to the couly loss of time and money to the people and bainful interference with our commercial and industrial prosperity.
For mouths before a general election threatening a complete change in the administration policy of the government, capital grows exceedingly timid, and some branches of industry becomes almost carelyzad, and the recedingly timid, and some branches of industry becomes almost paralyzed, and the greater intervals between such events the tester we believe it would be for both the government and the people. Especially in the case of members of congress should the time be justified to a least four years, with a constitutional provision that where a majority of the qualified voters of any district pointion therefor, the seat of the member for that district shall be declared vacated her for that district shall be declared racated conceded that it requires at least two years for any firember to reach the point of influence and workless. and a new election be held. It is generally once and usefulness desired in a congress-man, no matter how able and accomplished view of the recent theft of public documents he may be, and a re-section for as and their publication thirty-six hours in ad-least a second term is generally accorded as a same of their defivery in beingrees, it is may least a second torm is generally seconded as a courtest due to any member who displays any shilly, integrity and promise of feture usefulness. Therefore, as in a large majority of cases congressmen serve at least four years, we believe the regular term should be extended to that time. The power of removal by petition would guarantee the people against abuse of position, incompetency or other unworthiness.
