THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

The presidential campaign has now fully opened, and the present is one of the most important that has been known for a quarter of a century from the fact that the two great parties which have existed in this country for that length of time, it is generally conceded, will engage in the death struggle.

For this reason the people will take an unusual interest in the contest of political events, and in order to place The Express in the hands of as many as possible, it will be furnished to new subscribers during the campaign on the following terms:

WEEKLY EXPRESS: 50 CENTS. For 4 Months: $1.50. For 6 Months: $2.25. For 1 Year: $3.50.

The Express will keep its readers fully posted in all things pertaining to the political situation, and we trust our friends and the friends of democracy will exert themselves to swell our subscription lists.

EXPRESS FRENDS: A cattle disease similar to the Texas cattle fever has made its appearance in Canada.

SAN FRANCISCO has a population of 235,000, of which number 70,000 are displaced Chinese.

The invaders of the Indian Territory claim that they will be joined by one thousand recruits from Texas.

Mr. HAYES has concluded not to interfere with the expenditure of the money appropriated by congress for the improvement of rivers and harbors.

The strength of the Russian army is stated at 1,700,000 combatants. The United States grows under the burden of substituting an army, all told, of 35,000.

The Kansas Cityans take one million dollars of whiskey a year, for which they pay half a million dollars. They are spirited people, those Kansas Cityans.

Gen. FORTY rather than the stretch out of the Oklahoma boom reports. Some of these reports indicate that people are pouring in to the territory by the thousands.

The Louisville Courier-Journal calls attention to the fact that negroes have already begun to leave Kentucky for Indiana, for the purpose of voting the republican ticket at the October election.

SHERRAN, as a defeated presidential aspirant, "dishes up" his grand personal autobiography of reasons why he was not nominated, but about the plainest explanation he, he didn't receive enough votes.

Our people should hurry away to the north now while the heated term is running its course. If the hot sun goes they may arrive there in time to enjoy the smelted and "contaminated" golden corn.

The St. Louis Republic says the test of loyalty fifteen years after the civil war, according to the republican standard, is to join the republican standard.

The quarantine wall is being raised around New Orleans, and another is being thrown up at the mouth of the Mississippi river. The only consolation of the merchants of that city can be that the yellow fever germ only in the "dull season."

The New York Herald declares there is no probability of the resignation of that state taking upon itself the solution of presidential electors. The scheme was set on foot last winter "as a fever," and the feeling manifested was such that the design was hastily abandoned.

The Republican will not take. The forty shiners fall harmless upon the republican, and we would advise that party to close the campaign, at once by a report that the General when a year spread the fish through the village school, and that was our last larva.

The drama of the Herald leaves the city and country without an "official organ." The extent of the loss to the people by reason of this unfortunate state of affairs may be judged by the fact that though the paper has not appeared for a week, its announcement of its suspension will be news to a large number of our citizens.

What the Herald needs is a first class daily paper—a standard democratic paper run in the interest of a corporate greed of local politicians would be preferable. There is a fine opening, with an outlet for sale cheap, for such. Where are all the publishers for newspaper glory and recovery?

The Houston Post was delighted to hear that Gov. Roberts is "dying of blinding around the state, taking a hand in a debating society at every little one-horse town, and will retire to a dignified seclusion." The Post also adds in this connection that "familiarly breeds contempt." Never did the Post make a happier application of that well worn aphorism: Familiarity with the government's official acts cannot fail to breed contempt for them.

COLUMBIA, it is said, will insist upon Arthur's being invested with the control of the federal patronage of New York, and will see Garfield's influence with Hayes to bring the event about. If Hayes accedes to this, it is said, there will be another opportunity for the imperial Honson to have his revenge, inasmuch as the removal of the present collector and surveyor of the port of New York will be insisted on, on the ground that the patronage of the custom-house is necessary to prosecute the campaign.

THE YOUNG MEN'S DEMOCRATIC CLUB

The young democracy held a meeting Wednesday night and took the preliminary steps towards organizing a "Hancock and English club," and one of the rules adopted excludes all democrats over forty years of age.

Everybody knows that factors of cotton in the south, where cotton grows, and where it can be handled with far less expense than in the north, might be made extremely profitable. It will probably be made so eventually, though up to the present the mass of southerners have greatly neglected this important branch of industry.

There are now one hundred and eighty-five cotton mills in that section, with 675,000 spindles—about 1 per cent of all the spindles in the republic. The mills are generally small, a few, at Augusta and Columbus, Ga., being larger than the rest.

It is not to be had by the transportation. Much of it is second hand, having been carried by northern establishments. The most successful mills there would not, in consequence of their manifold disadvantages, have made anything but a sorry return on their investment.

One mill in Georgia declared in ten years—four of them war years—$1,000,000 of profits. This profit, the great benefit in position of the mills, which can not only buy the raw material cheaper, and spare freight, but can hire his labor at lower rates.

The difference between the cost of a bale sent to Fall River, Mass., and a bale sent to New York, is $2.00, the former being $3.71, and the latter $1.71.

Many of the Georgia mills have made profits of 10-15, and some 15 per cent under all their disadvantages. It is not to be had by the transportation.

A comparison of the Cotton Trade in the North and South.

THE GENUINE Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are not recommended as a remedy for all the ailments that are called "biliousness," but in afflictions of the liver, and in all Bilious Catarrhs, Dyspepsia, and Sick Headaches, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER. As a simple purgative they are unequalled. As a simple purgative they are unequalled. As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

Beware of Imitations. Each box has a wax seal on the lid with the impression, McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. Each wrapper bears the signature of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.
