I would respectfully ask your co-operation in placing before the many readers of your most valuable paper, for their consideration, a plan white and youldow, see measure, meet the requirements of our people by giving them capital at such a rate of interest that here was on forward in its construction. of interest that they may go forward in improving and developing the resources of our weekly means of the same autowestern lands now lying in idleness and en-tirely unproductive.

I would suggest such a change in the finan-cial policy of our government that any por-son or persons may obtain from the general government a loan of treasury notes specially prepared for that purpose; said notes to be redeemable by the government in gold in and redeemable by the government in gold in and after twenty years from the date in which said notes may be issued. These treasury notes to be loaned on the basis of real estate or approved collateral security at an interest not to exceed two per cent, per annum. Said interest to be paid annually in advance in gold or legal tender notes. No loan to be made for a longer period than ten years, or in less sums than two hendred dollars. The title to the lands upon which id loans are based shall be vested in and held by a financial agent in each state, who purpose, and through whom all applications for loans shall be made.

for loans shall be made.

All lands proposed to be given as security for these loans shall be appraised by a board, of appraisers appointed by the United States district judge in each congressional district or county, and for services shall be paid per-filem and mileage.

A complete certified abstract of title shall A complete returned astrone or the basis be cent forward with the application for the loan and said abstract shall be passed upon after examination by competent authority. The moneyed capital no lenger needed to our people, at high raise of interest, would be forced to investment.

With money at two per cent, our public lands would be immediately sought, as the most paving investment, in such quantities as would probably nearly need our outstandies beads as they maintened our outstandies beads as they maintened to the con-

as would probably nearly need our outstanding bonds, as they makers, while our mineral recoverse would in developed, our railroad system extended and nonmitteening would spring up on every hand.

Such investment would not only be a source of direct revenue to the government, but indirectly the benefit would be a thoughout the first providing the providing the sum of the content. It would improve our idle and unimproved lands and furnich required to thousands now in much in need of it, and in all that maked a people prosperous and contented, this would operate as a neighby element for good.

I believe that in this measure and in the encouragement through it to be given to the development of our internal resources, Congress would be promoting and encouraging our highest interest and secure the most speedy accomplishment of the napithdevelopment of our country by giving us such a law as I have here briefly referred to.

Elitors San Antonio Exprises.

Pursuant to a call of the Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Kerr county, a meeting was held at the courthouse in accordance therewith, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State and congressional conventions, and for the transaction of such other business as might be presented.

In the absence of the chairman, Hon. Jos. A. Tivey was chosen to preside over the convention, and Capt. W. Scott elected as Secretary.

Upon notice from the presiding officer that the convention was now ready for busi-ness, Mr. P. J. Stephenson moved that dele-gates to the congressional convention be now ness, Mr. F. J. Stephenson investion be now elected. Motion carried, and the following named gentlemen selected as delegates: Hon. Jos. A. Tivey, Judge H. M. Burney, Chas. Schreiner, James Watson, Capt. W. Scote, M. Judge A. McFarland next introduced the following:

Be it Resolved, That the people of Kerrcounty extend their hearty thanks to Adjutant General John B. Jones and to the officers and men of the frontier battalion for omeers and men of the frontier battains for their efforts in the protection of this frontier against Mexican and Indian raids, and the arrest and return to justice of lawless white men. The above resolution was heartily and warmly endorsed.

Mr. R. H. Burney then introduced the

Taking Away Their Old Homes.

Taking Away Their Old Homes.

The locality selected for the site of the International depot, west of the San Pedro, has for years been the site for quite a number of Mexican jacals. The poor Mexicans have leased the land upon which the miserable huts they called their homes were situated from Adams & Wickes, paying a dollar per month for the privilege. The other day, onetable Bader went out to inform the Mexicans that they must vacate, and seek onstable Bader west out to inform the Mexicans that they must vacafe, and seek abodes elsewhere. The news was sad, and fell with crushing effect upon the poor peepls. Msny of them had resided so long upon the grounds that they lad almost for-cotten that they did not own their own homesteads, and others felt too poor to make a change. The constable's instructions were attended by genuine weeping, walling and gnashing of teeth.

Bangereus Ventures in Surgery.

For many months past a young man by the name of Charles Peider, residing with his parents on Market street, has been afflicted. What was the cause of his pains, will not be sold, though it was finally deded by his attending physician, Dr. B. Hadra, that there was an internal wrong which a surgical operation alone could right. Having obtained consent, Dr. Hadra made an opening into the abdominal cavity, from the rear, and discovered, existing in the region of the kidneys, about a half gallon of matter. This was removed, and the doctor prepared his patient for recovery. He is now doing well, and in a short while expects to be upon his feet again.

Complaint Against City Engineer

Complaint Against City Engineer M. it Garcia, of this city, makes complaint against the city engineer, Louis Giraud, and says that he went to the engineer for information which it was that official's duty to give him. That the engineer refused to give the information unless he, Garcia, paid for it, and that he thereupon went to U. Freiesleben and obtained the information he wanted. From what Mr. Garcia says, the city engineer is loth to furnish information of any nature unless he is paid therefor.

The young man, Sweeten, of Atascoso county, reported to have died from rattle-make bite, appears to have died from lock-jaw. The snake bit him in a nerve of the finger, and the effects of the tite, after having been apparently cured, developed in the affection of his brain. The poison is said to have been no direct cause of death, but the penetration of the nerves of the fingers is the assigned cause.

Antidote for Snake Poison

o the Editor of the World SIR-Very often I read in the paper counts of people dying from the bites of rattle-snakes. During a long residence in rattle-snakes. During a long recidence in tropical countries, where venomous snakes abound, I learned by actual practice that ammonia given inwardly (a few drops mixed with water) and applied outwardly is the sure antidote of snake poison. Since my return to the United States I have seen it spilled on my recommendation, in two instances with complete success. In both cases many hours had elapsed from the time of receiving the bits until the ammonia was acces many hours had elapsed from the timesons, it was announced that the convention

The gleater than the late of hand, if not his life. Since the above case came to motice, another has occurred. A citizen of this county, while skinning a calf that had died, scratched one of the fingers of his right hand. Little attention was paid at first, but the swelling and intonse pain that followed made the case a serious one. The virus had been carried through the lymphale glands, more than through the blood vessels, producing an irritation which occasioned absceases. "No, sir; I'm going alone."
"Got any money?"
"Plenty of it."

What's that in your pockets? "Never mind about that," said the boy drawing back as the officer was about to put his hand on a bulky-looking pocket. "I guess I'd better take you to see the cap-tain," the officer said. "Come along." He tain," the officer said. "Come along." He took the ranger by the arm and a procession was formed for the Four Courts.

Arriving there, Capt. Lee ordered the boy searched. Two pistols, a slung shot and six boxes of cartriges, $243 in cash, a raitroad ticket to Council Bluffs and several five-cent novels and a cook-book were found in his process.

Yesterday ferenoon, while drawing a cartridge from his revolver, Mr. E. Lanken, proprietors of the Alameda house, met with quite a serious secidest. One of the cartridges exploded, grazed his wrist, passed upward under his right arm, and on through the upper part of his right eye. The wound in the eye is serious, but it is thought the eye may be saved.

Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown, even if the royal-head-covering be worn only for form's sake. A very small, but very important, royal visitor is about due in Spain, and as, by a higher power than any in Spanish court circles, the queen has been deputed to conduct the initiative corenonies, it would say that he professores should be stating that he intended to leave for the White mountains the next day. He was never heard from afterward. His father died and his family gave up all hopes of ever again seeing him. A few days ago James Hunter, his brother, received a letter from the White mountains informing him that the body, or rather the remains, of Harry Hunter had been found tylng on an out-of-the-way brilde path in the mountains.
In the pocket of what once had been a cout
if some mildewed and undecipherable papers were found, by means of which the skeleton was known to be all that was left of Harry Hunter, one of the papers being a certificate bearing his name from the New York printers union. It is supposed that while travelling through the mountains he was caught in a snow-storm, got lost and sank down to die. His family have instructed the authorities to have his remains seen here for burial, and they are expected to arrive in a few days. due in August, shall take place at La Granja, a cool mountain retreat, but the premier and Spanish physicians are firmly of the opinion that a royal baby should not be born anywhere but in Madrid, where in summer it is so not that the life of both mother and child would be seriously threatened. The queen's preference being supported by the physician she brought from Austria, the Spanish court doctors were only prevented from resigning in a body by the king declining to accept their resignations. Evidently there are times when queens would be glad to exchange places with the most obscure of women, and when the most ambitious women would prefer not to be a queen.
