The two men began struggling, and the widest confusion prevailed, "Sing de old tug boat of Zion," said the preacher, and the congregation obeyed. Finally Mr. Johnson was dragged to the bench. He was warned not to lift up his bead; and as a deacon was stationed over him with a club, he did not look up. "Go out and 'pel 'em ter come in," said the preacher. "De feast ob de Lord must be 'tended, boy," exclaimed the preacher; "put yer head on the board of 'pentance. Go on, ur yer'll be lame fur a week. Git down dar, ole man. Some fifteen or twenty were thus taken up, and frightened by so determined an example, the other sinners meekly obeyed. Within an hour from the time preaching began, seventy-five mounters were at the bench. Old Jerry stood in the midst, exhorting. "Dar's a bright star shinin' in de east—put your head down," he said, as a boy looked up, 's though hunting for the star. "De gospel oar is rollin. Sinners comin' ter pentence." Mrs. Wisslow's Soothing Syrup.

Rev. Sylvanus Gobb: thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman: We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good-particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Boothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge. In our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as 'bright as a button.' And during the process of teething, its value is during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever.
