Andrew J. Clark Supposed to Have Been Murdered by His Brother-

ERACISCO, TEXAS, August 20, 1850. Editors San Autonic Express.

The rains which fell in this section on the 12th and 13th inst, were the authors of much damage. The Hondo, Black Creek, Francisco and San Miguel were higher than at any time within the memory of the oldest inhabitant. Much damage to property—has been sustained, and all the farmers on the attentioned suffered more or less, besides others.

A gentleman who arrived by last evening train, and who spent night before last at the town of Waelder, on the Sunset railway, says the people of Waelder and vicinity are in great state of excitement over the killing of a well known citizen by the name of Andrew J. Clark. The remains of Clark were-found on the morning, of the 24th near attention of the control of atreams mentioned suffered more or less, besides others.

Victoria's Retreat-The Mexican So

Audules, inspacen was received at ministry headquarters, this city, yesterday, from Gen. Griesson, who is now at Eagle Springs with his command, and awaiting any return of the Indians to the Texas side. Victoria and his band re-crossed into Mexico near Quitman, and are thought to be making for the Candellabra monature. Gen. Griescop thinks the labra mountains. Gen. Grie were very badly crippled by their visit to this state—much more so than be had form-erly supposed. Their line of retreat is marked with the carcasses of animals which
