

Local advertisements... By mail... three months...

Advertising Rates... Local advertisements... By mail...

Gregory & Co. Offer to their Customers and Country Merchants...

Crockery, China, Glass, Woodens and Willow Ware, Lamps, Mirrors and House-furnishing Goods...

China Hall... Decorated and Plain Dinner and Tea Sets...

E. HERTZ BERG.

Jeweler and Optician. SPECIAL attention paid to repairing FINE WATCHES...

Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware, Clocks, etc.

Fresh Fish RECEIVED AT Schilling's Restaurant...

TOUDOUZE'S ALAMO MUSEUM ADJOINING THE ALAMO.

Millinery and Dressmaking ESTABLISHMENT.

San Antonio and Corpus Christi U. S. MAIL.

Express Line.

DEVINE & DASHIELL, Proprietors.

PAUL MAUREAUX, Furniture.

Beaumont, Thornton & Lockwood BANKERS.

Exchange and Bullion.

Beaumont, Thornton & Lockwood BANKERS.

Exchange and Bullion.

Beaumont, Thornton & Lockwood BANKERS.

Exchange and Bullion.

Beaumont, Thornton & Lockwood BANKERS.

Exchange and Bullion.

Beaumont, Thornton & Lockwood BANKERS.

Exchange and Bullion.

San Antonio Daily Express

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 27, 1880.

VOL. 14--NO. 207.

Weekly Express PUBLISHED BY THE EXPRESS PRINTING COMPANY. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION...

HANCOCK SHERMAN LETTERS.

Authorized Versions as Published by D. Appleton & Co. in the Life of General W. S. Hancock.

New York, August 26.—The life of Gen. Hancock, published to-day by D. Appleton & Co. contains a most interesting...

My dear General.—Last your kind word of mind is not a word of truth in it. Neither the president nor the secretary of war...

My dear General.—Last your kind word of mind is not a word of truth in it. Neither the president nor the secretary of war...

My dear General.—Last your kind word of mind is not a word of truth in it. Neither the president nor the secretary of war...

My dear General.—Last your kind word of mind is not a word of truth in it. Neither the president nor the secretary of war...

My dear General.—Last your kind word of mind is not a word of truth in it. Neither the president nor the secretary of war...

My dear General.—Last your kind word of mind is not a word of truth in it. Neither the president nor the secretary of war...

My dear General.—Last your kind word of mind is not a word of truth in it. Neither the president nor the secretary of war...

My dear General.—Last your kind word of mind is not a word of truth in it. Neither the president nor the secretary of war...

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Dr. Brodhead returned from his western trip yesterday. J. H. Jenkins and daughter, from Bastrop, are stopping at the Central.

Jersey City, N. J., August 26.—The yacht Emma, of Hoboken, with an excursion party of six men and two boys, was wrecked...

New York, August 26.—The yacht Dolly was captured by the Revenue cutter during a squall yesterday. Captain Baker is missing, and it is known that the yacht was wrecked...

Always Look Under the Bed. That if you go to bed before you retire, if you see a woman, recently freed from prison, who is a young lady, who has been in prison, who has been in prison...

Insurance Statistics. An analysis by the New York Commercial Bulletin of the returns of 160 life insurance companies authorized to do business in New York shows that the companies paid out for losses and expenses $754,925 more than their entire premium receipts for the six months...

Death of Col. Thomas M. Jack. Galveston, August 26.—Col. Thomas M. Jack, of the firm of Bullinger, Jack & Mott, one of the most prominent lawyers in the state, died this morning of pneumonia.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Elliss Roberts MEAT MARKET. Fresh Meat on Ice all Day.

New Scientific and Home School FOR BOYS. Two Doors East of St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral.

AT THE San Pedro Springs. THE GREAT RAILROAD. Tuesday, August 10th.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Dr. Brodhead returned from his western trip yesterday. J. H. Jenkins and daughter, from Bastrop, are stopping at the Central.

Jersey City, N. J., August 26.—The yacht Emma, of Hoboken, with an excursion party of six men and two boys, was wrecked...

New York, August 26.—The yacht Dolly was captured by the Revenue cutter during a squall yesterday. Captain Baker is missing, and it is known that the yacht was wrecked...

Always Look Under the Bed. That if you go to bed before you retire, if you see a woman, recently freed from prison, who is a young lady, who has been in prison, who has been in prison...

Insurance Statistics. An analysis by the New York Commercial Bulletin of the returns of 160 life insurance companies authorized to do business in New York shows that the companies paid out for losses and expenses $754,925 more than their entire premium receipts for the six months...

Death of Col. Thomas M. Jack. Galveston, August 26.—Col. Thomas M. Jack, of the firm of Bullinger, Jack & Mott, one of the most prominent lawyers in the state, died this morning of pneumonia.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Elliss Roberts MEAT MARKET. Fresh Meat on Ice all Day.

New Scientific and Home School FOR BOYS. Two Doors East of St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral.

AT THE San Pedro Springs. THE GREAT RAILROAD. Tuesday, August 10th.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Dr. Brodhead returned from his western trip yesterday. J. H. Jenkins and daughter, from Bastrop, are stopping at the Central.

Jersey City, N. J., August 26.—The yacht Emma, of Hoboken, with an excursion party of six men and two boys, was wrecked...

New York, August 26.—The yacht Dolly was captured by the Revenue cutter during a squall yesterday. Captain Baker is missing, and it is known that the yacht was wrecked...

Always Look Under the Bed. That if you go to bed before you retire, if you see a woman, recently freed from prison, who is a young lady, who has been in prison, who has been in prison...

Insurance Statistics. An analysis by the New York Commercial Bulletin of the returns of 160 life insurance companies authorized to do business in New York shows that the companies paid out for losses and expenses $754,925 more than their entire premium receipts for the six months...

Death of Col. Thomas M. Jack. Galveston, August 26.—Col. Thomas M. Jack, of the firm of Bullinger, Jack & Mott, one of the most prominent lawyers in the state, died this morning of pneumonia.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Elliss Roberts MEAT MARKET. Fresh Meat on Ice all Day.

New Scientific and Home School FOR BOYS. Two Doors East of St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral.

AT THE San Pedro Springs. THE GREAT RAILROAD. Tuesday, August 10th.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Dr. Brodhead returned from his western trip yesterday. J. H. Jenkins and daughter, from Bastrop, are stopping at the Central.

Jersey City, N. J., August 26.—The yacht Emma, of Hoboken, with an excursion party of six men and two boys, was wrecked...

New York, August 26.—The yacht Dolly was captured by the Revenue cutter during a squall yesterday. Captain Baker is missing, and it is known that the yacht was wrecked...

Always Look Under the Bed. That if you go to bed before you retire, if you see a woman, recently freed from prison, who is a young lady, who has been in prison, who has been in prison...

Insurance Statistics. An analysis by the New York Commercial Bulletin of the returns of 160 life insurance companies authorized to do business in New York shows that the companies paid out for losses and expenses $754,925 more than their entire premium receipts for the six months...

Death of Col. Thomas M. Jack. Galveston, August 26.—Col. Thomas M. Jack, of the firm of Bullinger, Jack & Mott, one of the most prominent lawyers in the state, died this morning of pneumonia.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Elliss Roberts MEAT MARKET. Fresh Meat on Ice all Day.

New Scientific and Home School FOR BOYS. Two Doors East of St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral.

AT THE San Pedro Springs. THE GREAT RAILROAD. Tuesday, August 10th.

To Make Room for Fall Stock Reduction of Prices AT SCHRAM & CO.'S.

WE HAVE REDUCED PRICES OF PRINTS, a large assortment of Standard Goods on Hand. LINEN, UNION, LAWN, AND COTTON.

Ladies' brown Dress Linen, four grad Linen Drills, plain and plaids, Cottonades and Jeans, 20 per cent Reduction.

Reduction in the Millinery Department. On Leghorn, Braid and Straw Hats, On Ribbons in Fancy Plaids and Stripes.

Reduction in the Clothing Department. WE WMA. GORE OUT AT COST. 100 Linen Suits, 200 Summer Chambers Suits, 300 White Vests.

SCHRAM & CO. SCHRAM & CO. IMPORTANT NOTICE. Save Money and Buy all You Need at

H. GRENET'S Alamo Store. Choice Groceries, Fruits, Vegetables, Meats, and provisions of every description.

Chas. Hummel & Son. 70 Commerce St., Dealers in all kinds of Fire Arms.

VANCE HOUSE, Houston St., San Antonio, CONTINUES TO GIVE, IN EVERY RESPECT EQUAL AND IN SOME RESPECTS SUPERIOR ACCOMMODATIONS.

E. C. EVERETT, Proprietor. BERG & BRO. WOOL, GRAIN AND COMMISSION.

French's Building Main Plaza. SUNSET ROUTE. Galveston, Harlingen and San Antonio.

Sam C. Bennett, Groceries, FINE WINES, Liquors, Tobacco and Cigars.

ST. Mary's Institute, San Antonio, Texas.

GEO. W. CALDWELL, Real Estate Agent, Conveyancer and Notary Public.

C. E. R. KING, M. D., Surgeon and Physician.

THE WELL-KNOWN INSTITUTION, CONDUCTED BY THE SISTERS OF THE HOLY FAMILY, will open, as usual, on the first Monday of September.

THE PLAN of instruction embraces, besides the elementary branches, Latin, Algebra, Book-keeping, Mathematics and Natural Science.

Any further information will be cheerfully furnished on application to P. B. FERGUSON, District Agent, at the office of the DISTRICT OFFICER, BOSTON TEXAS.

Weather Indications for To-Day.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—Indications for the day, stationary, barometer, station or higher temperature, variable winds mostly westerly in west gulf, partly cloudy weather and occasional rain in east gulf.

LOCAL NEWS AND Gossip.

The teachers' meeting this morning at 10 o'clock will be at the third ward school house.

Judge Stiering, of this city, received the nomination by the republicans, at the office of the late governor.

The committee of the city council have the new line of the street railway located on the main plaza, and to the proposed location of the international railroad depot, yesterday afternoon.

Miss Roberts keeps all kinds of meats on a day—the finest and fattest in the market. His shop is in the old postoffice building on Soledad street. See advertisement.

The town of Crotwell was full of people yesterday, the occasion being that of the celebration of St. Louis day. Capt. Driscoll and Ignatz Mayer, of San Antonio, were in attendance.

Mr. J. W. Alex. George, of Blanco City, has been in our city several days past playing in an extensive stock of goods for his store at Blanco. He is stopping at Horst's hotel.

The man Joe Nelson, charged with violating the city ordinance prohibiting the dealing in country produce during market hours upon the streets at market places, was fined $5 for violating the ordinance in two cases.

Col. Elias Edwards' announcement for the office of county judge of Bexar county appears in today's paper. Col. Edwards is well qualified to fill the position he seeks, and has influential friends who will exert themselves to secure his nomination.

The time has been when disease of the kidneys were considered serious afflictions, but fortunately all fear of any fatal results from these troubles are now dispelled by the certainty with which Day's Kidney Pills always acts.

Attention is directed to the announcement of Anton Adam as a candidate for justice of the peace of the first precinct. Mr. Adam has for many years been connected with the executive office of this county, understands the laws, and is fully competent for the position he seeks.

Mr. Eugene Steffel and Mr. Francis Vogel, of this city, are associated together and will conduct a general commission business in this city. They have received their building permits for the purpose.

There is a curiosity at the Atascosa post-office which if placed in some museum would attract great attention. It is a part of a rifle, the barrel of which is two feet thick, showing plainly the outside and the inside. It is used for a horse block and is broken just to look at. It had been prepared by the hand of man for that special purpose. It looks just like a part of an old rifle, and it is really a rifle. It was dug out of the ground near there.

A BREVUE D'UNE.

How a Man Who Owed an Account Was Caught for the Law.

A very exciting and interesting little drama was enacted at the station of the railway depot yesterday afternoon, the characters being three citizens of French descent, a policeman and a French gentleman.

One of the French gentlemen owned another of the party a nice little mill for the rent of a building, and had made arrangements to leave on the afternoon train, having refused to meet the obligation. The party had invited a friend to accompany him to the train, in the effort to make a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

The man refused to pay the account, however, and the disappointed creditor, returning to the presence of his friend, informed him of such refusal, inquiring what he should do as a despatch resort. He was advised to make a row with the man, secure his effect and a final effort to pay the money.

TOURISTS' TALK.

Interesting Incidents and Observations of a Trip to Chihuahua.

A Strange City, Strange People and Strange Customs.

Though Experience of Ross Shepherd's Party—Rich Mines and How to Reach Them.

Our reporter yesterday, Messrs. William W. Veeder and Adolph Fox, just returned from Chihuahua, Mexico, to which they accompanied Ross Shepherd and party, who were bound for the mines in the Batavia country. These young men had been absent on the journey for about three months, and being close observers, picked up a good many points that may be of interest to the readers of THE EXPRESS.

The trip to Chihuahua was marked by no occurrences of special interest, but a good many things happened that are worthy of record. The city of Chihuahua, a place of about 25,000 inhabitants.

CHIHUAHUA IS A STRANGE PLACE. As it least appeared so to these young men, one reason being, that the streets are in the dirt and sidewalks. The streets are well drained and macadamized, and the pavement is of a uniform. The houses are very attractive, and the landscape has a decided charm about them. Upon reaching this city, the boys at once made preparations to go to Batavia, 250 miles distant, and quartered his family in a comfortable home, as it was impossible at the time to take them to Batavia. He is leaving his residence constructed at Batavia, and when it is completed he will remove his wife and children thither. It is very difficult to reach the town of Batavia, though 2500 people live there, huddled in hills, and APPROACHED ONLY THROUGH MOUNTAIN PASSES. There are people principally miners, and nearly all Mexicans, working for miles into the distance. At Batavia there are 1250 miles. Two hundred miles of this road must be traveled on mules, as the wagon, or any wheeled vehicle, can not travel further on the route than eighty miles. Many difficulties are encountered in traveling this long distance over the hills, and from descriptions given, the road from Chihuahua to Batavia should remind the average traveler over it of the description of the road that leads to Jordan—says that, though it is not straight, it is yet narrow. Many difficulties and perils are met with.

THE FATHER THROUGH THE HILLS are barely wide enough for one four-foot mule to pass a hold, and the experience of the Shepherd party in crossing them will furnish some proof of this. One of the boys, himself, was fallen upon by his mule, and instead of one, he now has two "game" legs. His injuries were painful, though not serious. In some places the party was also thrown from his mule, and hurt, and young Lyman Larned fell off of an embankment forty feet high, and was nearly killed by a deep pool of water. Happily, neither the mule nor Lyman was hurt, but the young man lost that portion of his earthly possessions which he had packed upon the mule's back. His mule took fright and ran away with him, and hence his predicament. An unfortunate accident, though of the genus mule, and the animal in advance, wearing the ball, happened to make his step while crossing the hills, and went down into a cavern. This mule also proved to be a "child of fortune," for the animal lodged in the branches of a stout tree not more than fifty feet below the locality upon which the tourists stood, and was fished out by means of ropes and served initially for the remainder of the journey. Many stories are told, however, will give the intelligent reader an idea of the nature of the experience met with. The water had been drunk, and the party was obliged to obliterate the pathway, causing the party to get lost. For five days it was not known where they were, and it was not until they started that the fact, when the right course was again secured. During the time the party were lost, they subsisted on half rations.

GREAT QUANTITIES OF ORE are brought into the city of Chihuahua from the Batavia region. The ore is received in the shape of large bars, weighing probably thirty pounds each, and is stored in warehouses in Chihuahua just as bricks would be stored away under a shed in this country. The ore is of the richest, and turns out many thousand dollars worth of pure silver each week. It is brought into Chihuahua in carts, after being conveyed two hundred miles on the backs of mules.

THE ATROCIOUS APACHES attracted the attention of interest of the tourists, and it is the common opinion in the city that from twelve to three o'clock only dogs and gringos, or Americans, are seen on the streets. At twelve all the Spanish-speaking men go home to their meals, and then follow the afternoon sleep or siesta. Between these hours, the city presents a sad and desolate appearance. This custom is common in all Spanish countries, and especially during the heated hours, and the iron bars that cross the windows, present the appearance of a prison. This custom is common in all Spanish countries, and especially during the heated hours, and the iron bars that cross the windows, present the appearance of a prison.

EVERYTHING "LOOKS LIKE SUNDAY" they say, because the church bells ring, the city wears no air of work, and the people look as if they were at a religious festival, and that ought to make people religious. The country never looked better than at the present and properly smiles upon the land.

Case Presentation. This item refers to a case presentation, but the text is too small to transcribe accurately.

That Little Well. Citizens interested in having the well constructed along the San Pedro, between the streets and Dolores streets, think it will be a benefit, rather than a loss, to persons owning property along the well. The well is to be no higher than the level of the streets, and it is to be constructed on the back of the well, leaving a street 25 feet wide between the well and property there. The San Pedro now runs over the back of the well, and they think it will be a benefit, rather than a loss, to persons owning property along the well. The well is to be no higher than the level of the streets, and it is to be constructed on the back of the well, leaving a street 25 feet wide between the well and property there.

For Rent. The residence of Mrs. Campbell, near Dr. John Horst's. Apply for information to Capt. C. H. Morris, August 27th.

Dead. All six children of a family named Mrs. Liza Kelley, wife of Thomas Kelley, aged 13 years. Funeral will take place at 4 o'clock p. m. to-day. Philadelphia papers please copy.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Two Widowers of a Brooklyn Merchant Who Died Last Fall.

New York Times. Sir George Livingston, of Kings county has put into the hands of the public administrator an estate over which he promised to be an important and very interesting litigation. Twenty-five years ago a young man named Phillips, living in Brooklyn, married Miss Jane E. Howard, who was one of the heirs to a valuable estate, including the parade grounds at East New York. The young couple took up their residence in Washington street, Brooklyn, and all went well for six years. A son was born to them in 1841, and very soon afterward Mr. Phillips, who had been a partner in his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all between $100,000 and $200,000. She had made no will. A few weeks ago Mr. Phillips, of whom nothing had been heard since 1841, suddenly appeared in Brooklyn, and called upon his son, Dr. Howard W. Phillips, who will have possession of his whereabouts was found after a long and careful search, and he was at last given up for dead. Mr. Phillips, satisfied that his wife was dead, made a will in 1850, Mr. Henry Wiggin, of Parkville. Twelve years ago the East New York parade grounds and other property of the estate in which Mrs. Wiggin was interested was sold, realizing about $200,000. Mrs. Wiggin died in the fall of last year, leaving an estate not at all