evening the president was led to the platform near the depot, around which over 30,000 people had gathered. After being introduced by Mayor Stow, he expressed his gratification at the welcome he had received from the grand state of Iowa, and remarked, in fact, that the welcome came from all political parties and from every description and rank of life. I am, circumscribed, said he, as to the topics on which I may talk. I cannot discuss politics, the all absorbing topic of the day, and you will pardon me if I refer to the fact that there was a time when It was somewhat doubtful which party, would have received me most heartily in Burlington. To the democrate who, about three years ago, would have been glad to see me, I thank you for this greeting. To the republicans who are now glad to see me, I thank you for this greeting. To the republicans who are now glad to see me, I thank you a hobby which I have takked on of late; that in this period of universal prosperity, with the general government to do before some of the states can educate themselves. People who have never known the benefits of education are those who never will until there to day for the murder of his mother-law, Lacy Ebinney, on the night of July 19th. His death was almost instantaneous, physicians pronouncing him dead at the end of twelve minutes. He was cool to the last, and from all outward appearances met his after fearlessly and resignedly.

Cattle grazing at the outskirts of woods, among brushes and shrubbery, and near old hedges are liable to be covered with ricks. Brushing the cattle over once a week with a mixture of one part of herosone and two parts of lard oil will protect them from the attacks of this vermin. When tacks are found on cattle in considerable numbers, they should not be removed by force, because in that case the head will remain imbedded in the hide of the animal, and when in large numbers will be apt to cause considerable irritation and infl-mmation of the skin. By applying a light coat of lard oil or okin. By applying a light coat of lard oil or a little benzine by means of a brain, to the body of the licks, they generally withdraw their heads and let go their hold on the hide. —Rural World.
