A PIPTY ACRE PRUIT PARM IN WESTERN TEXAS.

SAN ANTONIO, September 23, 1880.

We will now figure on figs—say 20 acres. Figs are not so choice as to soil, they will grow in sandy or black soil; provided it has no alkali or white soft rock near the surface outrages far exceeding the offences.

I would prefer my fig orchard near the city, I and on irragable land, but by mulching the trees will do well on sich sandy soil. If I could get a hill to shelter them from the enorth wind it would be better. Plant on I the south side of a rise or hill. Figs are that the New York stock exchanges committee bas admitted to the list the first mortgage sinking fund 6 per cent. gold sonds of the G. H. & S. A. railway company to the Cincinnati, O., September 17.—A bold break for liberty mas made shortly after. 11 o'clock this mornieg by two jail birds, resulting in the escape of one and the recepture of the other. Nicholas Kohl, who was in jail on an indictment for murder in the second degree, and Harry Newhall, indicted for grand larceny, had been arraighed to plead to the charges against them. Both pleaded not guilty and were handcuffed, preparatory to being taken back to jail. When the oriminal deputy and some deputy sheriffs had escorted the prisoners down at the inside stairway that leads through the courthouse building to the tunnel under the jail yard, Kohl and Newhall, who had been handcuffed together, suddenly gave a jerk and broke from the deputies' grasp. They started through the rotunda of the court house and snot out of the front of the building before any one was aware of what the matter was. Running along the court, they turned into an alley between Main and Walnut and Court and Canal

Depart Washington, September 17.—The news that Paymaster J. H. Nelson is a defauter to a large amount is literally a surprise. Some time ago it was known that his accounts were in confusion and he was ordered to report to Washington. He has not resported, however, and there is justifiable doubt as to whether he will. He is the vietim of stock jobbing and women, and his indebtedness to the government is between $50,000 and $100,000. Nelson has escaped to Canada and his papers are in the possession of his mistress in New York. The fault of his escape is largely that of the pay department. They knew of his irregularities, for he gave a check semetime ago to fault of his escape is largely that of the pay department. They knew of his irregulari-ties, for he gave a check sometime ago to balance his account and it was dishonored. Last Monday or Tuesday he was at Leavens-worth, Kansaa, and the head of the pay de-partment telegraphed him to consider him-self under arrest and to report here. This was ample notice to escape and he availed himself of it, departing for Canada whither Pinkerton's agents have gone to look for him.

Americans.

San Francisco, September 23.—Dispatches from Tucson represent that there is a prospect of trouble between Mexicans and Americans in Gusyamas, growing out of alleged illegal acts of Americans in the construction and operation of a railroad. A now paper, called the Monitor del Commercie, has been violently attacking the railroad company, and its editor has been challenged by soveral Americans for insulting and misprepresenting them. The Mexicans at Gusyamas are much excited, and it is reported agents of the railroad company have applied to the governor of the state for protection.

—My. Pat Kavanaugh, who has just returned from Laredo, thinks the recent shooting of prisoners who broke jail at that place was downright betekery. One of those shot was a young man whose father resided about the miles below Laredo, on the Rie Grande. After being shot, his body went down, and nothing more was beard of it until its discovery on the land of the father, where it had been borne and washed out by the waters of the Rie Grande. Mr. Kavanaugh says he does not blame prisoners for attempting to escape from the Laredo jail, as it is a very dirty and filthy place.

This is the first visit of the great Barnum show to the state of Texas, and it will undoubtedly be received with the same enthusiasm as its advent is hatled everywhere else. Barnum day is a red letter day in the calendar of the north, and looked forward to us the people's holiday of the year. No such exhibition has ever been in Texas before, and we hope the patronage extended to it will be such as to reward the enterprise which the great showman of the world displays by bringing it among us. The date is positively fixed, and Barnum never disappoints. The beautiful $20,000 advertising car bringing the celebrated "Barnum's lightning pasts brigade" will arrive soon and complete the work of advertising, biling, &c. Hurrah for Barnum, and let every body wait for the great show. wait for the great show.

Charles A. Fittsch and Theres Maoss were joined in wedlock's holy bonds by Justice Symington. The groom appeared at the justice's office and imparted the information that it was his desire to be married. He stated that he expected his wife on the morning train, and, having obtained a license, they would come directly from the train and be united. So the justice waited, and Filtsch's promises were kept, and the ceremony was performed. After the ceremony the parties drove off and sought quarters. The bride had come all the way from Hungary to meet and to marry the man she loved, and the union was effected, upon her arrival, as promptly as circumstances would permit of.

A Surgical new.

The operation of extraction is well known to all surgeons, and simply means an operation where something is taken out or some organ extracted. An operation of extraction has just been performed by a gentle cow upon a boy by the name of Robert Hodge, fifteen years of age, whose home is on the Siestaders, a well-nown crock to the south-east of San Antonio. Robert, two orthress days ago, stord near a certific or three days ago. south-east of San Antonio. Robert, two or-three days ago, stood near a gentle cow, patting her, when the animal turned around and with rather a bostile spirit, scooped cut Robert's right eya. Both lense and capsule were cleaned out. The unfortunale youth is now here under Dr. Bennett's treatment.

The organization they represent has had a large share in the intellectual awakening of the last 300 years, a large part of molding of modern thought in church and state, and in laying the superstruction of religious freedom and civil liberty. Mayor Stokely extended the hospitalities of the city to the delegates, and Gov. McClellan spoke as a delegate from New Jersey. Those addresses were responded to by Rev. Dr. Cairne, of Edinburg, Scotland, Rev. Dr. Muchkland, of Baltimore; Rev. Dr. McIntoh, of Ireland, and Rev. Maron Shodelsadey, of Indiana, after which the delegates were presented to Gors. Hoyt and McClellan, and Mr. Wannamaker. The first meeting of the all arce will be held to-morrow morning, and services will be continued daily, Sundays excepted, and October 2.

The Fair Last Evening.

Last verning was the third evening of the fair given at the Casino for the benefit of the German-English school. A great many persons were present during the evening, and all secuned to get along very well except the news gatherer, the reply to whose inquiries generally was, "take a chance in this," or something of about the same nature. It was a bad place for a poor news, paper man to find himself.

The main feature of attraction last evening consisted in the vice tableaux from the fairy fals of the "Sleeping Beauty." The fableaux were arranged and presented by Mr. John Beckmann, the characters being personated by children. Mr. Beckmann's taste and skill are superior in arranging entertainments of fair rature.

The net receipts the past three evening's have been about $1200. The receipts the first night were $538.70, and the second night, $486.00. With the ball to be given the evening, it is calculated that about $1500 will be the result of the fair—a result far from expected.
