Fire as Paris.

Raris, October 4.—A fire which broke out last sight in the pavilion de Flora, and which for a moment threatened to destroy the Tuiliones utterly a second time within one decade, was happily less disastrous than it might have been. For hours, however, Paris trembled for the restored palace and for the priceless treasures up in the adjoining museum of Louvre. As it is, the damage done is irreparable. Glories's state of Carefaux, one of his masterpleces, has been terribly injured by the flames, and it will be a work requiring much time, talast and money to replace the rest. The fire broke out shortly after 10 c'clock in a bed room compied by Medame Herold, who had been vary ill, had only returned from the constray a few hours previously. It was close upon an hour before the engmes were put property to work. The specially as seen from the coputry as few hours previously. On last Sanday the body of a megro shild named Frank Petty was brought into fown for burisl. Information was given to Justice King that there had probably been some foul play. A jury of inquest was summoned and the body examined, which disclosed the fact that the child had been beaten on the body in a dreadful memory and that the liver had partly been mashed into a pulp, and the other organs wore in a normal condition, and the child desh was caused by the wounds. On Monday morning Mericio Villa Grande, the stepfather of the child, was arrested and brought before the jury, and, after the examination of a number of the vimesses, the coroner's jury modered their verdict to the effect than Frank Petty came to his death from bloys inflicted by Maricio Villa Grande with some blant instrument, Judgs King committed him to jail to await the action of the grand jury.—See guin Timos.
