Chicago Times.

Among a lot of old bottles which were being cleased in a Chicago liquor store yesterday, one was found which contained a card, water-sonked and yellow, on which was penciled the following me-sage:

'The hurricase is upon us. Our sand is all exhausted. A few m meets and the balloon will be in the water. Tell Barnum to give the balance of my salary 13 Molly. Good-bye. Grimwood behaved nobly.

'G. DOXALDROB.'

Which here the weight of the King of kings.

Then on mine car a whisper fell,

Broa hod by the Spirit: "O sweet, such Flower!

"Flower of flowers! Thine odors rare Ravish the soil with a rapture new, Lot ere the lights of the allaw wane, Ere the Host and the Chalice are lifted again. Draw next, like the bee, O sons of men! For His Heart and its honey are all for you."

round in an Old mortle.

Close to the sacrificial hand Of the fair young priest the creature drew. As though the Host and the sacred Wine It scented the sweetness of buds divine, licaventy, Honey, celestial dew.

Flower!
Well may the bre fly close to thee,
Lure t by the scent of thy purity,
Drawn by thy beauty's wondrous power

Till through the desolate places,
Dreams fair and immortal pass,
And the twilight grows divine;
The friends that we lest of yore,
And loved from the farther shore.
Smile down in a trustful way:
They are not so very fair,
More near than each gentle star,
And sweet are the world they say
For us, whose rivers are yet my

Och, Katie's a rogue, it is thrue, But her eyes, like the sky, are so blue, An' her dimples so swate, An' her aukles so nate, she dazed an' she bothered me, too-

Till one mornin' we wint for a ride, Whin, demore as a bride, by my side, The darlint, she sat, Wid the wickeds that 'Neath puriy girl's chin ever t.e.l.

But I sat just as mute as the dead, Till she said, wid a toss of her head, "If I'd known that to-day Ye'd have nothing to say. I'd had gone wid my cousin, itstead."

Then I felt myse'f grow very bowld,
For I knew she'd not scold if I towid
Uv the love in my heart,
I hat would never depart,
Though I lived to be wrinkled and old.

An' I said: "If I dured to do so,
I'd lit go uv the baste, an' I'd throw
Both arms round her walst,
An' be stalln' a taste
Us them lips that are coaxin' me so."

Thin she blushed a more illigent red,

He must be a strong man who can conceal his Liucination.—Emerson.

Men are usually tempted by the devil, but an idle man positively tempts the devil. -- Spanish

The heights by great men reached and kept.
Were not attained by sudden flight;
But they, while their companions slept.
Were folling upward in the night.

In seven the weather is untavorable for pressure. There is little or no change in the estimates of from 21 to 30 per cent. Iess than last year. About the same cop; nearly all picked in three places. Becepts are coming to rather more freely than last week.

Texas—Nine reports received, all showing clud or rany weather; an interruption in field operations on account of that and a scarcity of labor. A heavy frost and snow reported in two, and frost is expected in one. Picking is early sinished in one, and hands are scarce in three. The yield will be equal to last year.

Arkansas—Two reports from the state showing rainy weather, causing pickers to reterorm the fields. There will be a short crop in one, but a large yield indicated in theother.

Georgia—Two reports from this state show that bad weather prevailed during the week, interfering with pickers. An increase in yield over last year of from 10 to 30 per cent is reported. The crop yet remaiting in the fields is in excellent condition.

Tennesses—One report is received, which indicates about two-thirds of the yield of last year. Receipts to date are more liberal.

Florida—Two reports from Florida indicate that the cotton is all gathered except the tuperop in one places, which amounts to but little. The yield will be increased from 10 to 20 per cent, over last year.
